

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1836.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most-Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir Henry Halford, Baronet, Physician to His Majesty, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great care, pains, and industry, revised, corrected, and reformed a book, by them formerly published, intituled Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the manner of preparing all sorts of medicines therein contained, together with the true weights and measures by which they ought to be made; which book is now perfected and ready to be published, and, it is conceived, will contribute to the public good of His Majesty's subjects, by preventing all deceits, differences, and uncertainties in making and compounding of medicines, and, for the future, the manner and form prescribed therein should be practiced by apothecaries and others in their compositions of medicines; the Memorialist, therefore, most humbly prays, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the observance thereof, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; His Majesty this day took the said Memorial into His royal consideration, and being desirous to provide, in all cases, for the common good of His people, and being persuaded that the establishing the general use of the said book may tend to the prevention of such deceits in the making and compounding medicines, wherein the lives and health of His Majesty's subjects are so highly concerned, hath, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to notify to all apothecaries and others concerned, to the intent they may not pretend ignorance thereof, that the said book, called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published; and His Majesty doth, therefore, strictly require, charge, and command all and singular apothecaries and others, whose business it is to compound medicines, or distil oils or waters, or make other extracts, within any part of His Majesty's kingdom of Great Britain called England, dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, that they and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any medicine or medicinal receipt or prescription, or distil any oil or waters, or make other extracts, that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other manner or form than is or shall be directed, prescribed, and set down by the said book, and according to the weights and measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special direction or prescription of some learned physician in that behalf; and His Majesty, doth hereby declare, that the offenders to the contrary shall not only incur His Majesty's just displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their contempt and offences, according to the utmost severity of law.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to alter, amend, and extend some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the basin of the Kensington-canal, at Kensington, to join the London and Birmingham and Great Western Railways, at or near Holsden-green, in the county of Middlesex, to be called 'The Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway,'" and power will also be applied for, in the said amended Act, to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, in extension of the before mentioned railway, commencing at or near the basin of the Kensington-canal, in the parish of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, Earl's-court, Kensington-gore, Saint Margaret's Westminster, Brompton, and Knightsbridge, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, and terminating at or near a certain garden belonging to a messuage in the occupation of Mr. Charles Roberts, fronting to Knightsbridge-green, in the parish of Saint Margaret's Westminster aforesaid; and also to enable the said Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway Company to levy and raise tolls in respect of the said extended line.

And it is further intended to apply for power by the said Act to alter the line of the said Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway, as authorised by the before mentioned Act of the sixth William the Fourth, from a point on the said line at or near the water-course, called Counter's Creek-sewer, one hundred and fifty yards, or thereabouts, north of Counter's Creek-bridge, to a certain other point on the said line at or near the basin of the Kensington-canal, and to construct a new line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, between the said points of deviation, passing within the aforesaid parish of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, and the parish of Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them; and also to abandon such portion of the original line of the said railway, within the said parishes of Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington and Saint Paul Hammersmith, or one of them, as, by reason of such diversion, may be rendered useless or unnecessary.

And it is also further intended to apply for power, by the said amended Act, to deviate from, and alter the course of, the said amended and extended lines of railway, for the making of which the said amended Act is intended to be applied for, to the extent of twenty yards on either side of the lines laid down, or to be laid down, on the plans thereof, to be hereafter deposited with the Clerks of the Peace for the county of Middlesex and the city and liberties of Westminster respectively; the Clerks of the several parishes of Saint Paul Hammersmith, Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, and Saint Margaret's Westminster; in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and in the Parliament-office of the House of Lords, in pursuance of the Standing Orders of Parliament relating thereto.—Dated this 1st day of November 1836.

Roy, Blunt, Duncan, and Johnston, Solicitors for the Bill.

British Guiana, District of Berbice.

First and Last Edictal Citation.

In pursuance of authority granted, by his Honour the Chief Justice of British Guiana, dated the 8th day of August 1836;

I, the undersigned, Marshal of this District, in the name and behalf of the Board of Orphans and unadministered estates of the district of Berbice, in British Guiana, do hereby, for the first and last time, by edict, cite all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of James Fraser, deceased, as also against his plantation, Golden Fleece, cum annexis, situate on the west sea coast in this district, to appear at the Roll Court of Civil Justice, to be holden at the Court-House, in New Amsterdam, in the month of February 1837, the precise day hereafter to be named, in order to render their respective claims; properly attested and in due form.

Whereas in default of which and after the expiration of this first and last edictal citation, per petuum silentium will be decreed against the non-appearing according to law.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
Marshal's Office, Berbice; this 12th day of August 1836.

PUBLIC VENDUE.

BY order of William Ross and Robert Robertson, Esqrs. in their capacities as appointed under the order of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice, to administer to the estate of the late George Munro, deceased, and his plantation Alness, thereto authorised by an order of his Honour the Chief Justice of British Guiana, under date the 8th August 1836; will be exposed for sale, to the highest bidder, in the presence of the Registrar of the Court of Justice, or a sworn Clerk, in the month of January 1837;

The well known sugar plantation, called Alness, together with the services of the apprenticed labourers, three hundred and ten in number, which comprise some of the finest in British Guiana; several adjacent lots and other appurtenances. This estate is situated on the Corantyne Coast of Berbice, in a part of the district which is exceedingly healthy and extremely well adapted for the location of any number of industrious emigrants, either from Europe or elsewhere.

The buildings, machinery, and sugar works are very superior, and capable of taking off a crop of a thousand hogsheads of sugar.

For further particulars please to apply at the Counting-House of Messrs. George Henry Hooper and Co. London; to Messrs. Robert Semble and Co. Liverpool; and to the undersigned, in Berbice,
