Glasgow, 11th November 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for improving, extending, enlarging, and completing the reservoir, in Raddock-en-Déan, in Denshaw, in the township of Quick, in the parish of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York, situate upon the principal stream or source of the River Tame, and to make a strong additional embankment to the same reservoir, for the purpose of penning up and collecting the waters and floods flowing down or arising upon the said stream or source of the River Tame, and for collecting and retaining waters in such enlarged reservoir, for the better supplying with water the mills, factories, and other works on the line of the said River Tame, and on the line of the River Mersey, or near thereto respectively, between the said reservoir and the point of junction of the said River Mersey with the River Irwell, in the counties of Lancaster and Chester, with such tunnels, pipes, valves, byewashes, waste weirs, channels, sluices, cuts, drains, feeders, roads, ways, and other works within the said township and parish as may be necessary, useful, or convenient for the protection, use, supplying, and preservation of the same reservoir, and for regulating the flowing of the water into and out of the same; and also for making a reservoir at or near Dowry, in Denshaw aforesaid, in the township of Quick, in the parish of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York aforesaid, situate also upon the principal stream or source of the said River Tame, by raising an embankment and works in, across, or near to the course of such stream, for the purpose of penning up and collecting the waters and floods flowing down or arising upon the same, and for collecting and retaining the same for the better supplying with water the mills, factories, and other works on or near the line of the rivers aforesaid, with such embankments, tunnels, pipes, valves, byewashes, waste weirs, channels, sluices, cuts, drains, feeders, roads, ways, and other works within the said township and parish as may be necessary, useful, or convenient for the protection, use, supplying, and preservation of the same last mentioned reservoir, and for regulating the flowing of the water into and out of the same; and also for making another reservoir at or near Bin-green, in the township of Quick, in the parish of Saddleworth, in the west riding of the county of York aforesaid, by raising an embankment and works there, across, upon, or near the course of a stream or fall of water, called the Greenfield Brook, flowing or falling into the said River Tame, for the purpose of penning up and collecting the waters and floods flowing down or arising upon the said Greenfield Brook, and for collecting, and retaining the same for the better supplying with water the mills, factories, and other works on or near the line of the said Greenfield Brook, and on or near the line of the rivers aforesaid, with such embankments, tunnels, pipes, valves, byewashes, waste weirs, channels, sluices, cuts, drains, feeders, roads, ways, and other works within the said township and parish as may be necessary, useful, or convenient for the protection, use, supplying, and preservation of the same last mentioned reservoir, and for regulating the flowing of the water into and out of the same; with power to divert and turn and to make a cut or aqueduct for the purpose of diverting and turning, at a place within the same township, and parish aforesaid, the waters of a certain stream or fall of water, called the Dovestone Brook, into the said Bin green reservoir for increasing such supply of water.

And that it is also intended to make provision in the same Act for enabling the commissioners or trustees, to be appointed by the said Act, to take and use lands and buildings, in the before mentioned township and parish, for the above purposes; and also that it is intended by such Act to obtain powers for assessing and laying rates or sums of money on all mills, factories, and other works situate below the said Raddock-en-Dean and Dowry reservoirs upon or near the said River Tame, or any of the brooks or streams flowing to or connected therewith, before and unto its junction with the River Mersey at Stockport; and also on all such mills, factories, and other works situate upon or near the said River Mersey, or any of the brooks or streams flowing to or connected therewith, between the junction of the said River Mersey with the said River Tame, and the junction of the said River Mersey with the River Irwell, or on the owners or occupiers thereof respectively for the time being, who shall receive or derive any benefit or advantage from the said Raddock-en-Dean and Dowry reservoirs, or from using the water flowing from the same respectively; in proportion to the benefit each of such mills, factories, and other works, or the owners or occupiers thereof for the time being shall receive or derive from the said Raddock-en-Dean and Dowry reservoirs, or either of them, such rates or sums of money to be levied and assessed for the purpose of making, upholding, maintaining, and keeping the said Raddock-en-Dean and Dowry reservoirs in repair, and for payment of the interest of the monies advanced or borrowed for making the said Raddock-en-Dean and Dowry reservoirs, or either of them, and all other costs, charges, and expences in anywise arising therefrom or incidental thereto; and also that it is intended by such Act to obtain powers for assessing and levying rates or sums of money on all mills, factories, and other works situated below the said Bin-green reservoir; upon or near the said Greenfield Brook, or any of the brooks or streams flowing to or connected therewith, before and unto its junction with the said River Tame, and also on all such mills, factories, and other works situate upon or near the said River Tame, or any of the brooks or streams flowing to or connected therewith, between the junction of the said River Tame with the said Greenfield Brook, and the junction of the said River Tame with the River Mersey at Stockport; and also on all such mills, factories, and other works situated upon or near the said River Mersey, or any of the brooks or streams flowing to or connected therewith, between the junction of the said River Mersey with the said River Tame, and the junction of the said River Mersey with the River Irwell, or on the owners or occupiers thereof respectively for the time being, who shall receive or derive any benefit or advantage from the said Bin-green reservoir, or from using the water flowing from the same, in proportion to the benefit each of such mills, factories, and other works, or the owners or occupiers thereof for the time being shall receive or derive from the said Bin-green reservoir, such last mentioned rates or sums of money to be levied and assessed for the purpose of making, upholding, maintaining, and keeping the said Bin-green reservoir in repair, and for payment of the interest of the monies advanced or borrowed for making the said Bin-green reservoir, and all other costs, charges and expences in anywise arising therefrom or incidental thereto; which said several mills, factories and other works, intended to be rated and assessed as before mentioned, are situated in the several townships, hamlets, or divisions of Quick, Tintwistle, Michelhurst, Staley, Dukinfield, Newton, Hyde, Werneth, Bredbury, Brinnington, Portwood, Sale, Carrington, Hartshead, Ashton Town, Audenshaw, Denton, Haughton, Reddish, Heaton Norris, Didsbury, Chorlton cum Hardy, Withington, Stretford, and Urmstone, or some of them, and in the several parishes of Saddleworth, Mottram in Longdendale; Stockport, Cheadle, Northenden, Ashton-upon-Mersey, Ashton-under-Lyne, Manchester, and Minton, or some of them, and in the several counties of York, Chester, and Lancaster.—Dated this 3d day of November 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making a railway from or near to the Town of Kilmarnock, in the County of Ayr, to a place called the Troon, in the said County;" and that it is intended to seek power by such Bill, to alter, vary, and deviate from the present line or course of the said railway between a certain point on the said railway at or near to Eastgatehead, in the parish of Kilmaurs and county of Ayr, and a certain other point on the said railway at or near to the Drybridge, in the parish of Dundonald and county aforesaid, where the turnpike road from Irvine to Dundonald crosses the said railway, and to abandon such part of the present line of railway lying between the said points of deviation as may be found necessary, and to make and maintain a new line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith between the said several points, and passing from, in, through, or into the said parishes of Kilmaurs and Dundonald, or one or both of them, and county of Ayr.

And it is also intended to apply for power by the said Bill, to deviate in the construction of the said amended railway to any extent not exceeding one hundred and fifty yards on either side of the line thereof laid down or intended to be laid down and delineated on the maps or plans of the said amended railway, to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Ayr, in pursuance of the standing orders of Parliament relating thereto, where the property lying within the said distance shall be included in the said plans and in the books of reference to be deposited therewith.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to widen and enlarge the breadth of the remainder of the said Kilmarnock and Troon Railway at such places as shall be thought advisable; and also for power to alter and vary or increase the rates and duties at present authorised to be demanded and received for the use of the said railway, and to raise and levy new rates and duties for and in respect of the same.—Dated this 9th day of November 1836.

Westminster Market.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to establish, erect, and maintain a vegetable, fruit, and meat market, in the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, in Westminster, or one of them; which said market is intended to be erected upon a site at or near and fronting a certain street or place called Strutton-ground, or Strutton-street, and extending to and including a certain street or place called Duck-lane, all in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or either of them; and it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted by the said Bill, to authorise the taking of such fares, tolls, dues, rates, and sums of money as shall be mentioned in the said Bill, and for purchasing and holding lands, tenements and hereditaments within the said several parishes for the purposes aforesaid.

Charles Ellington, Solicitor, 6, Furnival's-inn.

Port and Town of Ipswich.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is, intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal certain of the powers and provisions of four several Acts of Parliaments, one thereof passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of his Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for improving and rendering more commodious the port of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk." Another thereof passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, and otherwise improving the town of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and for removing and preventing encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances therein." And another thereof passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of his said Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "an Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of his present Majesty, for paving, lighting, cleansing, and otherwise improving the town of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and for removing and preventing encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances therein." And another thereof passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for amending, and enlarging the powers of two Acts of his present Majesty for paving, lighting, cleansing, and improving the town of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and removing and preventing encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances therein, and for watching the said town."

And it is intended to apply for power by the said amended Act or Acts, or one of them, to make and maintain a certain wet dock or docks, with all necessary quays, wharfs, piers, bridges, locks, ways, roads, walls, embankments, sluices, culverts, sewers, and other erections and conveniences connected therewith, within the several parishes and townships of Saint Clement, Saint Mary at the Key, Saint Peter, and Saint Mary at Stoke, or some of them, in Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk. Also to make and maintain a certain cut or channel for the navigation of ships, and for the flow and ebb of the tide of the river Orwell, and for the carrying off the waters of the river Gipping, with all proper quays, wharfs, landing-places, and other conveniences connected therewith, commencing opposite to Saint Peter's Dock, and in or adjoining Saint Peter's ship-yard, now or late in the occupation of Messrs. Read and Page, in the said parishes of Saint Peter, and terminating in the parishes of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Stoke, or one of them, in Ipswich aforesaid, at or near the present channel of the river Orwell, nearly opposite to the Cliff Brewery, in the parish of Saint Clement. And also a certain other cut or channel, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, across the ooze or mud of the said river Orwell, in the parish of Wherstead, in the said county, from the reach or channel lying between the Upper Hearth Point, and the Lower Hearth Point to Black Ooze Point, and thence to the north west end of Freston Reach, opposite Pond Ooze Point, in the parishes of Wherstead and Freston, or one of them, which said intended cuts or channels, are intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes or townships of Saint Clement, Saint Mary at the Key, Saint Peter, Saint Mary at Stoke, in Ipswich, Wherstead, and Freston, or some of them, and certain extra-parochial lands, ooze, or mud, adjoining the said river, and the said parish of Saint Clement, or some of them, all in the said county of Suffolk; also to improve and render more commodious the navigation of the river Orwell, and the port and harbour of Ipswich, within the several parishes and townships and extra-parochial place aforesaid, or some of them, in the said county of Suffolk, and also to take from the waters of the rivers Gipping and Orwell, respectively, so much thereof as will be necessary for the purposes of the said intended dock or docks, and cuts respectively.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in and by the said intended Act or Acts, or one of them, for the government and regulation of the said dock, navigation, port and harbour, and the several works belonging thereto, or connected therewith.

And it is further intended to apply for powers by the said intended Act or Acts, or one of them, to raise money for effecting the purposes aforesaid, and to alter and vary or increase all or any of the rates, tolls, or assessments, authorized to be taken under the said recited Acts, of the 45th, the 33rd, the 37th, and the 55th years of the reign of his Majesty King George the Third respectively, or any, or either of them, or to repeal the same altogether, and to substitute new rates, tolls, or assessments in lieu thereof.—Ipswich, November 10, 1836.

Wheeler and Marriott, Solicitors, Manchester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge the powers and provisions of four several Acts: one passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway or tramroad from the sea-shore, at or near Whitstable, in the county of Kent, to or near to the city of Canterbury, in the said county;" another passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize the Company of Proprietors of the Canterbury and Whitstable Railway, to vary the line of the railway, to raise a further sum of money for completing their works, and to alter and enlarge the powers of the Act, passed for making and maintaining the said railway;" another passed in the ninth year of the reign of his said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize the company of proprietors of the Canterbury and Whitstable Railway, to raise a further sum of money for completing the undertaking, and for enlarging and amending the powers of the Acts, passed for making and maintaining the said railway and works connected therewith;" and the other passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for enlarging and amending the powers and provisions of the Acts passed for making and maintaining a railway or tramroad from the sea-shore, at or near Whitstable, in the county of Kent, to or near to the city of Canterbury, and the works connected therewith, and to authorize the company of proprietors to raise a further sum of money," which said railway or tramroad lies in, and passes from, through, or into the several parishes of Whitstable, Saints Cosmus and Damian in the Blean, Saint Stephen, otherwise Hackington, Saint Dunstan and Holy Cross Westgate, in the county of Kent, and in the several parishes of Holy Cross Westgate, and Saint Peter, in the city of Canterbury, or some of them. And that it is also intended to take powers in the said intended Act, for making and constructing a new and additional railway, or a common cartroad, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to pass from the present railway of the said company, along the Canterbury station of the said company, at or near a certain street or lane, called North-lane, across North-lane aforesaid, over the river Stour, across a piece or parcel of meadow or pasture land, belonging to Deane John Parker, Esquire, across Pound-Lane, in the said city, and from thence, to continue in such a direction or line as to open a direct communication between the aforesaid station and Orange Street, in the said city, and for turning and diverting the present causeway or foot-path passing through or along the said land of the said Deane John Parker; and also for making and constructing a branch railway or a common cartroad, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to pass from the said present or main railway, to Saint Dunstons Street, near the said city; and also for constructing, making, and providing a coal staith, and other works, places, and conveniences at or near the Canterbury station aforesaid, for the bringing, carrying away, delivering, and receiving of coals and other goods to, from, and upon the said railway, and storing the same; and also for repairing, improving, extending, and maintaining the harbour at Whitstable aforesaid, and the walls, jetties, defences, wharfs, quays, and other works communicating therewith, or having relation thereto, or to the purposes thereof. And also for increasing, altering, and extending the existing tolls, rates, or duties granted by the said recited Acts, and for imposing, charging, and collecting new and additional rates, tolls, and duties; and also for taking and purchasing lands, buildings, and premises, for the several purposes aforesaid; and also for granting leases for any term or number of years of certain lands and premises at or near Whitstable aforesaid, purchased by the said company of the Honourable the Commissioners of Sewers. All which aforesaid works, matters, and things will be in the several parishes of Whitstable, Saint Dunstan, Hackington otherwise Saint Stephen and Holy Cross Westgate, in the county of Kent, or some or one of them, and in the several parishes of Holy Cross Westgate, Saint Peter the Apostle, Saint Alphage, All Saints; and Saint Mary Northgate, in the city of Canterbury, and the ville precincts or extra-parochial place of the Blackfriars, in the said city, or some or one of them; and notice is hereby further given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act to deviate from the respective lines of the said several railways, or common cartroads; as laid down on the plans to be deposited with the respective clerks of the peace for the said county of Kent, and city of Canterbury, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on each side of such respective lines. Dated the twelfth day of November, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway from the town of Stirling, to or near to Larbert Bridge, with two several lines from thence, viz. one to or near to lock number sixteen on the Forth and Clyde Canal, and the other to the said canal at or near to a tunnel or archway under the said canal, called the Ironstone Pend, and from thence to a point on the line of the intended Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, at, in, or near to the lands of Bonny-side; with a branch railway from the main line to or near to Alloa and Kersie Ferry on the river Forth; and another branch railway from the said main line to or near to Bannockburn; with inclined planes, viaducts, bridges, tunnels, archways, aqueducts, depôts, wharfs, offsets, turning, passing, and loading places, and other necessary works connected therewith; which railway is intended to commence at the town of Stirling aforesaid, in or near to the lands of Claycroft, and to proceed from thence in an eastern direction through the Kerse to and through the lands of Carnock, and from thence in a southern direction to or near to Larbert Bridge; and from thence one line will be continued and pass to, or near to, lock number sixteen aforesaid on the said canal; and the other through the estate of Caermuir, to or near to the said canal, at or near to the said Ironstone Pend, and from thence passing by one or more tunnels, archways, or aqueducts under the said canal, to the said point on the line of the intended Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway; and it is also intended by the said Bill, if necessary, towards the making of the said tunnels, archways, or aqueducts, to divert or alter, temporarily or permanently, the course or line of the said canal for the space of three thousand feet or thereabouts in length, at or near to the said Ironstone Pend; and the foresaid branch railway to Alloa and Kersie Ferry is intended to commence at a point on the said main line, at, in, or near to the lands of Carnock aforesaid, and to pass through the lands of Dunmore and Kersie to, or near to, the said ferry; and it is intended towards the making of the said branch railway to divert or alter the line of the turnpike road leading from Kersie toll bar to the said ferry, for the space of three thousand five hundred feet or thereabouts, and the said branch railway to, or near to, the village of Bannockburn, is intended to commence at a point on the said main line, at, in, or near to, the lands of Heartsmealing or the lands of Cockspow, and to pass through the lands of Easter and Wester Greenyards, to, or near to, the village of Bannockburn aforesaid; which railway and branch railways, inclined planes, viaducts, bridges, tunnels, archways, aqueducts, depôts, wharfs, offsets, turning, passing, and loading places, and other necessary works connected therewith, are, or will be, situated or made in, from, through, or into the parish of Saint Nilians, the burgh and parish of Stirling, and the parishes of Airth, Larbert, Falkirk and Denny, all in the county of Stirling, or some one or more of them. As the said intended railway and branch railways are delineated on a plan or plans and section or sections thereof, to be lodged with the clerk of the peace for the county of Stirling, on or before the 30th day of November current. Which Bill will also contain clauses authorizing and empowering lands and other property to be taken and acquired, and funds to be raised for the foresaid purposes, and tolls, rates, and duties to be levied on and for the use of the said railway and branch railways, and other works intended to be made and maintained as aforesaid. And it is intended to apply for power by such Bill to deviate from the line or lines of the said railway and branch railways respectively, or any one or more of them, as laid out or intended to be laid out, and delineated on the plans thereof, to be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line or lines, where the property lying within the said distance shall be included in the said plans and in the books of reference to be deposited therewith. And it is also intended to apply for power by the said Bill, to alter and amend, as far as is necessary towards the alteration of the line of the said canal, the following Acts, viz., "An Act passed in the eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the Firth or river of Forth, at or near the mouth of the river of Carron, in the county of Stirling, to the Firth or river of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalmuir Burnfoot, in the county of Dumbarton, and also a collateral cut from the same to the city of Glasgow; and for making a navigable cut or canal of communication from the port and harbour of Borrowstounness, to join the said canal at or near the place where it will fall in the firth of Forth.'" Another Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act made in the eighth year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the firth or river of Forth, at or near the mouth of the river of Carron, in the county of Stirling, to the firth or river of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalmuir Burnfoot, in the county of Dumbarton, and also a collateral cut from the same to the city of Glasgow; and for making a navigable cut or canal of communication from the Port and harbour of Borrowstounness, to join the said canal at or near the place where it will fall into the Firth of Forth.'" Another Act passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of two Acts made in the eighth and eleventh years of the reign of His present Majesty, for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the Firth or river of Forth, at or near the mouth of the river of Carron in the county of Stirling, to the Firth or river of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalmuir Burnfoot, in the county of Dumbarton, and also a collateral cut from the same to the city of Glasgow, and for making a navigable cut or canal of communication from the port and harbour of Borrowstounness to join the said canal at or near the place where it will fall into the Firth of Forth." Another Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending, amending, and altering the powers of an Act made in the eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the Firth or river of Forth, at or near the mouth of the river of Carron in the county of Stirling, to the Firth or river of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalmuir Burnfoot in the county of Dumbarton, and also a collateral cut from the same to the city of Glasgow; and for making a navigable cut or canal of communication from the port and harbour of Borrowstounness to join the said canal at or near the place where it will fall into the Firth of Forth." Another Act passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His said Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for varying and extending the powers of the Company of Proprietors of the Forth and Clyde navigation." Another Act passed in the said twenty-seventh year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and extending the line of the cut or canal authorised to be made and maintained by so much of several Acts made in the eighth, eleventh, thirteenth, and twenty-fourth years of the reign of his present Majesty, as authorises the making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the Firth or river of Forth, at or near the mouth of the river of Carron, in the county of Stirling; to the Firth or river of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalmuir Burnfoot, in the county of Dumbarton, and also a collateral cut from the same to the city of Glasgow, for deepening the said cut or canal, and for explaining and amending so much of the said Acts as relates to the making and maintaining the said cut or canal. Another Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled an Act for forming a junction between the Forth and Clyde navigation, and the Monkland navigation, and for altering, enlarging, and explaining several former Acts passed for making and maintaining the said navigation." Another Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for empowering the company of proprietors of the Forth and Clyde Navigation, to repay into the Court of Exchequer, in Scotland, the sum advanced to them for the purpose of completing the said navigation; for repealing so much of an Act of the twenty-fourth year of His present Majesty, as relates to the said company, and for enabling the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, to advance part of the sum so to be received to the company of proprietors of the Crinan Canal, on certain conditions;" another Act passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several Acts passed for making and maintaining the Forth and Clyde Navigation;" another Act passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge, alter, and amend the powers of the several Acts for making and maintaining the Forth and Clyde Navigation;" another Act passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering and amending several Acts for making and maintaining the Forth and Clyde Navigation;" and another Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving, enlarging, and extending the Forth and Clyde Navigation, and certain harbours and works belonging thereto and connected therewith, and for making and maintaining two branch cuts or canals, from the said navigation." And it is also intended, so far as is necessary, towards the alteration of the line of the foresaid turnpike-road, leading from Kersie Toll Bar, to Alloa and Kersie Ferry, to apply for power to alter and amend an Act, which received the royal assent, on 2d August, 1831, intituled "An Act for making and repairing certain roads leading across the county of Stirling, and other roads in the said county.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a navigable cut or canal from and out of a certain cut or canal, called the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, commencing at or near a pasture field, called the Stable Meadow, the property of Thomas Taylor, in the occupation of Richard Evans, and at or near another pasture field belonging to Samuel Stone Briscoe, Esquire, in the occupation of John Gowhorn, situate at or near Hincksford, in the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, and terminating at or near a close of land called the Paddock, the property of the said Samuel Stone Briscoe, and in his own occupation, and which last mentioned close adjoins a public road leading from Gornall Wood Furnaces to Brockmoor, otherwise Brockmore, in the parish of Kingswinford aforesaid, which said first-mentioned cut or canal is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Kingswinford, Himley, Womborn, Sedgley and Lower Gornall, or some or one of them, in the said county of Stafford. And it is intended to apply for power by the said Act to take for the purposes of the said first-mentioned cut or canal certain brooks or streams of water arising from springs within lands belonging to the devisees, in trust of the late Right Honorable John William, Earl of Dudley, deceased, and John Elwell, and situate in the parishes of Sedgley and Kingswinford aforesaid, or so much and such part or parts thereof, as may be necessary, and to make and contract all such reservoirs, locks, ponds, and other works, erections and buildings, as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said first-mentioned cut or canal, and the barges, boats, or vessels navigating the same, and to purchase and hold lands for the purposes thereof, and to levy and take tolls for the use of the said first-mentioned cut or canal, and the conveniences connected therewith. And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act to deviate from the line of the said first-mentioned cut or canal for the making whereof powers are so intended to be applied for as aforesaid, as the same will be defined in the said intended application to Parliament to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line.—Dated the 11th day of November, 1836.

John Corser,
Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act to enable the company of proprietors of the Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation, to sell, transfer, and convey their rights and interests therein, and the rates, tolls, and duties collected; or authorised to be collected thereon, unto the company of proprietors of the navigation of the river Dunn; and to enable the company of proprietors of the navigation of the river Dunn to raise money for, and to apply the same in, the purchase thereof; and to authorise and enable the said last-mentioned company to collect, receive, and take the tolls, rates, and duties payable on the said Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation, and also to execute, perform, and do all such powers and provisions with respect to the said Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation as the said company of proprietors of the said Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation are now authorised to execute, perform, and do. And notice is hereby also given, that for the several purposes aforesaid, it is intended to alter, extend, amend, and enlarge, the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from the river Dunn navigation cut, at or near Stainforth, in the west riding of the county of York, to join and communicate with the river Trent, at or near Keadby, in the county of Lincoln, and also a collateral cut from the said canal, to join the said river Dunn, in the parish of Thorne, in the said riding." Also, an Act passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of his present Majesty, for making and maintaining a navigable canal from the river Dunn navigation cut, at or near Stainforth, in the west riding of the county of York, to join and communicate with the river Trent, at or near Keadby, in the county of Lincoln; and also a collateral cut from the said canal, to join the said river Dunn, in the parish of Thorne, in the said riding." Also, an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to enable the company of proprietors of the Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation to raise a further sum of money for the discharge of their debts, and to finish and complete the said canal navigation, and for amending the several Acts passed relative thereto;" which said Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation lies in or passes through the several townships of Hatfield, Stainforth, Thorne, and Adlingfleet, all in the west riding of the county of York, and the several townships of Crowle, Eastoft, Belton, Althorpe, and Keadby, all in the county of Lincoln, and through the several parishes of Hatfield, Thorne, and Adlingfleet, all in the said west riding of the county of York, and through the several parishes of Crowle, Belton, and Althorpe, all in the said county of Lincoln, or some of them. And also for vesting the powers contained in the said Acts, some or one of them, for making a collateral cut navigable for boats, barges, and other vessels from the said Stainforth and Keadby canal, on Thorne common, to a place called Hangman-hill, there to join with the said river Dunn, in the township and parish of Thorne, in the said west riding of the county of York, and to authorize and enable the said company of proprietors of the navigation of the river Dunn, to collect, receive, and take the tolls, rates, and duties, payable in respect of the same, and to vest in the said company of proprietors of the navigation of the river Dunn all other powers relating thereto, or to repeal the said Acts of the thirty-third, thirty-eighth, and forty-ninth years of the reign of King George the Third, relating to the Stainforth and Keadby Canal Navigation aforesaid, and to transfer all the powers and provisions therein contained, with all the powers and provisions therein contained relating to tolls, rates, and duties, and to the laying, raising, lowering, regulating, collecting, and recovering of such tolls, rates, and duties, to the said company of proprietors of the navigation of the river Dunn as aforesaid, and vesting the same in them.—Dated this 14th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, 1836.

W. Beckitt, Clerk to the Stainforth and Keadby Canal Company.

North Midland Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for making a railway from Leeds to Derby, to be called the North Midland Railway," and that it is intended to apply for power by the said amended Act, to alter and vary the line or course of the said railway from or near a field in the parish of Duffield, in the county of Derby, numbered 18 on the plan of the said railway deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county, to or near a field in the township of Belper in the same parish, numbered 193 on the said plan. Also from or near an occupation road in the parish of South Wingfield, in the same county, numbered 20 on the said plan, to or near the Nottingham and Newhaven Turnpike Road, in the said parish of South Wingfield, numbered 98 on the said plan. Also from or near a field in the parish of Chesterfield, in the same county, numbered 102 on the said plan, to or near a field in the parish of Whittington in the same county, numbered 10 on the said plan. Also from or near a field in the parish of Killamarsh, in the same county, numbered 20 on the said plan, to or near a field in the parish of Aughton, otherwise Aston-cum-Aughton, in the West Riding of the county of York, numbered 7 on the plan deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said West Riding. And it is further intended to apply for power by the said amended Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, between the said several points of deviation, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places of Heage, Duffield, Belper, Alderwasley, Wirksworth Chevin, Chevin Ward, Chevin Side, Makeney, Holbrook, Hazlewood and Milford, South Wingfield, Wessington Crich and Shirland, Chesterfield, Tapton, Newbold, Whittington and Brimington, Eckington, Killamarsh and Beighton, or some of them, in the county of Derby; and Treeton and Aughton, otherwise Aston-cum-Aughton, or one of them, in the West Riding of the county of York; and to abandon so much of the said first-mentioned line of railway, situate between the said several points of deviation, and within the several parishes and townships of Duffield, Makeney, and Belper, South Wingfield and Crich, Chesterfield, Tapton, Newbold and Whittington, Killamarsh and Beighton, in the county of Derby; and Treeton and Aughton, otherwise Aston-cum-Aughton, in the West Riding of the county of York, as by reason of the said several deviations may be rendered useless and unnecessary. And it is further intended to apply for power by the said Act to alter and divert the course of the river Derwent in the township of Makeney and parish of Duffield aforesaid, and to fill up part of the ancient channel thereof. And it is also intended to apply for power by the said amended Act to purchase additional land and buildings within the several townships of Leeds and Hunslet, or one of them, in the parish and borough of Leeds, in the West Riding of the county of York, for the purpose of making proper depots and stations at the termination of the railway, and for forming approaches thereto. And also to alter and divert or stop up so much of a certain public footway or path, called Grey Walk, in the said townships of Leeds and Hunslet, within the parish and borough aforesaid, as will be situate within the site of the said intended depot or station. And it is also intended to apply for power by the said amended Act to make and maintain a branch railway or railways, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing in or near a field on the line of the said first-mentioned railway, in the parish of Crich, in the said county of Derby, numbered 19 on the plan of the said railway, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county as aforesaid, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places of Ripley, Pentrich, otherwise Pentridge, Alfreton, Heage, Duffield, Crich, and South Wingfield, or some of them, all in the same county, and terminating at or near the Butterley Iron Works, in the township of Ripley and parish of Pentrich, otherwise Pentridge, in the same county. And also to make and maintain another branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing in or near a field on the line of the first-mentioned railway, in the parish of North Wingfield, in the said county of Derby, numbered 150 on the plan of the said railway, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county as aforesaid, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, and other places of North Wingfield, Tupton, Pilsley, Morton, Woodthorpe, Clay Lane, and Aulthucknall, or some of them, in the said county, and terminating in or near certain fields in the said parish of North Wingfield, the property of Sir Henry John Joseph Hunloke, baronet, in the occupation of Josiah Farrisworth. And it is further intended to apply for powers in and by the said amended Act to deviate from the said altered line of railway, as intended to be made between the points of deviation hereinbefore mentioned, and also from the line or lines of the said branch railways respectively, as the same will be delineated in the plans thereof, to be hereafter deposited with the respective clerks of the peace for the county of Derby, and the West Riding of the county of York, in pursuance of the standing orders of Parliament, to any distance not exceeding one hundred yards on each side of such lines respectively, where the property lying within the said distance shall be numbered in the said plans, and mentioned in the book of reference, to be deposited therewith in compliance with the said standing orders.—Dated this eighth day of November, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, to commence in the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Monmouth, upon or near to the eastern bank of the river Usk, and to terminate in the parish of Abergavenny, in the same county, which said railway is intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes and townships, extra-parochial and other places following, that is to say,—Christchurch, Caerleon-ultra-Pontem, Kemeys Inferior, Llantrissant, Llangibby, Llanlowell, Llangeview, Usk, Llanbaddock, Monkswood, Goytre, Llanvair, Kilgedin, Llanvihangel-juxta-Usk, Llangatock-juxta-Usk, Hardwick, and Abergavenny, all in the county of Monmouth. And also for making and maintaining a railway, to commence in the said parish of Christchurch, upon or near to the Saint Julian's estate, and to terminate in the parish of Trevethin, in the said county of Monmouth, which said last mentioned railway is intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes and townships, extra-parochial and other places following, that is to say,—Christchurch, Malpas, Llangatock-juxta-Caerleon, Caerleon, Llanthenock, Llanvrechva, Lower and Upper Llanvihangell-Llantarnam, Panteague, Llanvihangel-Pontymoel, Trevethin, and Pontypool, all in the county of Monmouth. And also for making and maintaining certain branch railways, in the said parish of Christchurch, from the said first-mentioned railway, to communicate with the said river Usk. And also for making a branch railway, from or near the termination of the said first-mentioned railway, in the said parish of Abergavenny, to communicate in the parish of Llanwenarth, in the said county, with a certain tram-road made by Messrs. Joseph and Crawshay Bailey, from the Nantyglo works, and which said branch railway is intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes and townships, extra-parochial and other places of Abergavenny, Llanfoist, and Llanwenarth, all in the said county of Monmouth, using for the purposes of such branch railway a part of the Llanvihangell Railway, lying between the town of Abergavenny and the Brecknock and Abergavenny Canal. And also for making a certain other branch railway, from or near the commencement of such last-mentioned branch, in the said parish of Abergavenny, to communicate with the inclined plane of Messrs. Hill and Co., in the said parish of Llanfoist; and which said last-mentioned branch railway is intended to be made from, in, through, or into the said several parishes and townships, extra-parochial and other places, of Abergavenny and Llanfoist. And also for making certain branch railways from the said second-mentioned railway, in the parish of Trevethin aforesaid, to communicate with certain iron works and mines, in the parishes of Trevethin and Llanover, in the said county; and which said last-mentioned branch railways are intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes and townships, extra-parochial and other places, of Trevethin and Llanover, in the said county of Monmouth. And also for making all necessary and proper wharfs, works, engines, machinery, and conveniences attached to, or connected with, the said several railways and branches. And it is intended to take power by the said Bill to deviate from the said lines or courses of the railways and branches respectively, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such lines. And also to divert within the said parish of Christchurch, certain parts of a turnpike road leading from Newport to Caerleon—and within the said parishes of Christchurch and Kemeys Inferior, certain parts of a turnpike road leading from Caerleon, through Llantrissant, towards Usk—and within the said parish of Llangattock-juxta-Caerleon, certain parts of a turnpike road leading from Caerleon to Pontypool—and within the said parishes of Panteague and Trevethin, certain parts of a turnpike road leading towards and into the town of Pontypool—and also within the said parishes of Abergavenny, Llanfoist, and Llanwernarth, certain parts of a turnpike road leading towards and into the town of Abergavenny.—Dated this 11th day of November, 1836.

Westminster and Deptford Railway Company, to be designated in future, the "Westminster Bridge, Deptford and Greenwich Railway Company," Offices 21, Old Jewry.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under the powers conferred upon them by the subscribers agreement, the Directors of the "Westminster and Deptford Railway Company," have determined, in all their future notices and proceedings, to designate this company as the "Westminster Bridge, Deptford, and Greenwich Railway Company." By this alteration of title, the directors believe the objects of the project will be more clearly understood, and its merits more fully appreciated. The Directors have great pleasure in taking this opportunity of informing the subscribers, that the result of actual observation has proved the traffic on this line considerably to exceed any amount previously anticipated, and they have no doubt of being able to establish, to the satisfaction of Parliament, the advantages both to the public and to the proprietors, which must attend the formation of this railway. In addition to the populous districts with which this line will be connected in the neighbourhood of London, it will receive a vast accession, both of passengers and merchandize from the various railways, in course of completion or projection south of London to Brighton, Dover, Croydon, and the Kent, Sussex, and Surrey counties in general, of which railways this line must naturally become the western entrance to the metropolis.

Holders of Scrip, under either title, will be equally recognized as shareholders of the "Westminster Bridge, Deptford and Greenwich Railway Company," the offices of which are removed to No. 21, Old Jewry.

By Order of the Board,
J. H. Powell, Secretary.

The Grand Collier Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to make and maintain certain wet docks, quays, basins, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, at, or adjoining to, and including all, or any part of the docks, canal, and other property belonging to the company of proprietors of the Grand Surrey canal and docks, in the boroughs of Greenwich and Lambeth or one of them, and in the parish of Saint Mary Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, in the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, or one of them, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Deptford, in the said county of Kent, to be called "The Grand Collier Docks," with communications therefrom to the river Thames, at some one or more places, at or near to Dudman's Dock, and at or near to the East County Dock, within the parishes aforesaid, or some or one of them.

And it is intended by the said Bill to apply for power to make and maintain a cut, canal, aqueduct, or navigable waterway, with all proper basins, inlets, works and conveniences connected therewith, in extension of the before mentioned Grand Surrey Canal, commencing at the termination thereof, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, passing from, in, through, or into the boroughs of Greenwich and Lambeth, or one of them, and from, in through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Saint Giles Camberwell, St. Mary, Newington, St. Mary, Lambeth, and Battersea, or some or one of them in the county of Surrey, and terminating at the river Thames, near a certain wharf formerly used as an iron wharf, and belonging to Thomas Ponton, Esquire, situate at Nine Elms, in the parish of Battersea, and county of Surrey aforesaid.

And it is also intended by the said Bill, to apply for power to purchase all the docks, ponds, reservoirs, canal, aqueducts, feeders, works, lands, buildings, and all rights and interests belonging to the Company of proprietors of the Grand Surrey Canal and Docks, and of the East Country docks respectively, and to enable the said companies, respectively, to sell and dispose of the same or otherwise power to make and enter into agreements or arrangements with the said several companies respectively in manner in the said Act to be provided.

And it is also further intended by the said Bill to take power to alter, vary, amend, enlarge, and complete all or any part of the canals, docks, and other works belonging to the said Grand Surrey Canal and East Country Dock Companies, respectively, within the boroughs of Greenwich and Lambeth, or one of them, and within the several parishes or townships of Saint Mary Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, of St. Paul, Deptford, in the said counties of Kent and Surrey, or one of them, of St. Nicholas, Deptford, in the said county of Kent and of St. Giles, Camberwell in the said county of Surrey, or some or one of them.

And it is also further intended for the purposes of the said intended docks, canals, reservoirs, and other works connected therewith, for the construction of which application is intended to be made to Parliament as aforesaid to take power to alter and divert the course of certain roads or ways, commonly called or known by the name of the Deptford road and the Deptford lower road respectively, within the parishes of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the said county of Surrey and of St. Paul, Deptford, in the said counties of Kent and Surrey, or, one of them, also another road commonly called Plough-lane, otherwise Plough-bridge-road, and a certain Street commonly called High Street, respectively, within the parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and also a certain other street called Grove-street, within the parish of St. Paul, Deptford, in the said counties of Kent and Surrey; or one of them, also to alter and divert the several conduits or streams called or known by the names of the King's-mills, Earle Sluice or sewer, and the river Effra or sewer within the several parishes and townships of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the said county of Surrey St. Paul, Deptford, in the said counties of Kent and Surrey, or one of them, and of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey; or some of them, and to take and use so much of the waters thereof, as well as of the waters of the river Thames, the Grand Surrey Docks and Canal, and the East Country Docks, as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended canal and docks, in respect of which application is intended to be made to parliament as aforesaid: And it is further intended to apply for power by the said Act to levy and raise tolls for the use of the said dock or docks and canal and other works so intended to be made as aforesaid, and to alter and vary or increase the rates or tolls already authorised to be taken for the use of the said Grand Surrey Docks and Canal and East Country Dock respectively.—Dated this fourth day of November, 1836.
