

had declared he would follow so soon as his health was re-established. Count Tockley having rejected the late Proposals that were made to him, does now appear resolved to hazard all, before he will quit his Engagements with the Turks; The last news we had of him was, that he was with his Troops, which were reinforced by some assistance he had received from the Turks, on the side of Leuscb: Count Palfi has the command of the Troops that are employed against him.

Hamburg, July 7. The King of Denmarke is still at Itzehoe; and it's discoursed that there will be an Interview between his Majesty and the Elector of Brandenburg at that place or Mollem. From Berlin they write that the Elector of Brandenburg had ordered a Regiment of Foot to march to Dominz, which is to remain in Garrison there, together with the Lunenburg Troops. The loss sustained by the Fire that happened here the third Instant, is said to be very considerable.

Cologne, July 7. The Commonalty of this City are to meet to-morrow to hear the report of the Deputies which are come back from Lintz, whither they were sent by our Magistrates to justify the late proceedings of this City in relation to the Differences between the Burghers and some of the Burghermasters. Our Electors Troops continue encamped at Zons under the command of Monsieur de Choiseul, but it's thought they will in few days remove from thence, for that it's said the Cavalry begins to want Forage. From Francfort they write, that the Troops of Bavaria and those of Franconia begin to move, but that it is not known whither their march is designed; but the general opinion is, that greatest part of the Elector's Troops will be sent for Hungary.

Hague, July 11. On Thursday last in the Evening the Princess of Orange parted from Honflaerdyke for Dieren; and the Prince followed the next day. The Heer Van Odycke is gone for Zealand to be present in the Assembly of the States of that Province. On Saturday arrived here the Guards du Corps from Brabant; And this day the Regiment of Horse Guards; and in a day or two the Foot Guards are expected; and all the other Troops that were encamped between Malines and Louvaine, are returned to their several Garrisons. The States of Holland will be re-assembled to-morrow.

Marseilles, July 3. Yesterday in the Evening arrived here an English Vessel from Holland, the Master whereof reports he saw near the Straightmouth five Spanish Men of War commanded by the Sieur Papachini, Engaged with a French Man of War, having under his Convoy four Dutch and two French Merchant Ships laden with Naval Provisions and bound for Toulon, and that the Spaniards took the said Merchant Ships and carried them into Cadiz. The Majorkins have taken three French Barks laden with Corn.

Paris, July 12. The Marschal de Crequi continued encamped, according to our last advices, in the Neighborhood of Trier, and would not remove from thence till the Fortifications of that City were quite demolished; The Letters from Flanders tell us, that the Troops which the Marschal de Schomberg had sent out to raise Contributions, have since the Signing of the Treaty at the Hague, rejoined the Army, which was going to retire within the French Territories; And the Troops of the King's Household have orders to return hither, and are expected the beginning of the next week. The Spanish Gallies appearing on the Coast of Provence, the Militia there hath been put in Arms to secure them, and the Governors of the Isles of St. Marguerite; St. Honorat, and other Maritime places, who were at Court, are gone with all diligence to their Commands. The Letters from Germany, which arrived two days ago, told us, that in Hungary the Christians have taken Neuigrad and Vaccia, and that the Duke of Lorraine advancing to Pest, had defeated a Body of Turks, that was posted near that place to cover it.

London, July 2. His Majesty having by His Letters Patents, Dated the 24th of June 1680, Authorized Sir Henry St. George Knight, Clarenceux King of Arms, to Visit his Province, and to Register the Pedigrees and Arms of all the Nobility and Gentry therein, according to Ancient usage; The said Clarenceux will accordingly visit the Counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon this present Vacation, having appointed his Places of Session in manner following,
