A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, that considerable doubts have arisen on the interpretation of those clauses of Our Royal Proclamations, dated the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and third of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which direct that the said Proclamations shall take effect from the periods at which notice thereof shall have been received in the several Courts of Vice-Admiralty; and that in many instances the distribution of bounty for captured slaves is actually delayed in consequence of such doubts; and it hath been humbly submitted to Us, by Our said Commissioners, that, in order to obviate the same, it is expedient to assign a precise and uniform date at which each of the said Proclamations, of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four and one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, are respectively to take effect: We do, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, think fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby directing, that distribution be made by the scale authorised in Our said Proclamation, dated the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, with regard to the proceeds of all captures made within its scope, which shall have been, or shall be, condemned in the High Court of Admiralty, in any Vice-Admiralty Court, or any Court of Mixed Commission, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, inclusive; and hereby further directing, that distribution be made according to the scale authorised by Our Proclamation, dated the third of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in regard to the proceeds of all captures made within its scope, which shall have been, or shall be, condemned in any such Courts as aforesaid, from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, inclusive; save and except, that in cases of distributions already made, the proceedings therein are not to be subject to revision, as being in any way vitiated by this Our Royal Proclamation.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, this thirtieth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of November 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time hereafter, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Nottingham, assembled in quarter sessions at the Shire-hall in Nottingham, on Monday the seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, presented their humble petition to His Majesty, therein stating, that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and that the directions prescribed by the said Act of Parliament, in regard to the said petition, have been complied with, and, therefore, humbly praying, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, would be pleased to declare that the several places thereinafter mentioned should be additional polling places for the said county (that is to say), East Leake, Lowdham, and Sutton-upon-Trent, in the southern division, and Nuttall, in the northern division:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared accordingly, that the several places mentioned in the said petition (that is to say), East Leake, Lowdham, and Sutton-upon-Trent, in the southern division, and Nuttall, in the northern division of the county of Nottingham, shall be additional polling places for the said county.

Foreign-Office, December 9, 1836.

DISPATCHES, dated the 24th of October last, have been received by Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Mr. Pakenham, His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary in Mexico, transmitting decrees of the Mexican Government, of which the following are translations:

(Translation.)

THE President of the Mexican Republic to its inhabitants: know that, taking into consideration the difficulties which experience has taught of completely fulfilling the provisions of the fourth article of the law of the 31st March 1831, with regard to the presentation of particular manifests, in triplicate, of every consignment, signed by the Mexican Consuls or Vice-Consuls nearest to the port of shipment, through its not having been possible to proceed to the definitive arrangement of the provisions of the fifth article of the same law, and in the exercise of the authority with which I am invested by the decree of the 20th September last, have thought proper to decree, as a general rule, that which follows :

1. When foreign merchant vessels leave a port where there is a Mexican Consul or Vice-Consul, they shall bring with them and present, in triplicate, the general manifest in the terms prescribed by the first article of the law of the 31st March above-mentioned, with the further obligation, that they come certified, signed, and sealed by that functionary.

2. The particular manifests, in triplicate, of every consignment in the terms prescribed by the fourth article of the said law, shall be brought and be presented at our maritime and frontier custom-houses, with the same obligations, as to the certificate, signature, and seal, as are enjoined in the preceding article of this decree.

3. When foreign merchant vessels arrive from a port where there is no Mexican Consul, or Vice Consul, they shall bring with them, in triplicate, the general and particular manifests certified, signed, and sealed by the Collector of Customs, or Chief Officer of the Customs, respectively, of the port whence such vessels sail, under which necessary condition they shall be admitted into our ports and frontiers.

4. The invoices or particular manifests in every one of the cases to which the 1st and 3d articles of this decree apply, shall be positively drawn up in an entire sheet of paper, without any interruption or separation between the statement of its contents and the dates, signatures, and certificate, even if it should be necessary to turn over or to add another sheet.

5. As there is now no reason for either the general or particular manifests being presented without their respective certificates, it is declared, that the omission of this requisite, with regard to the former, will be punished, in the first instance, by a fine of from five hundred to two thousand dollars, and, in case of recurrence, with the confiscation of the vessel ; if the defect should be in the particular manifests by omission of articles, excess, or otherwise, it shall be punished with the penalties denounced in the said law of 31st March 1831, which is declared in full force in all particulars not opposed to this decree.

6. The provisions of the foregoing articles of this decree shall receive their strict and complete fulfilment at the expiration of three months of their publication in this capital, for the ports of the West Indies, and of the Gulf of Mexico, and for the other ports within six months of the said publication, it being understood that, until the conclusion of this period, the Custom-houses of the sea ports and frontiers will continue to act towards foreign merchant ships as hitherto practised.

With this view, I cause this to be printed, &c.

Spanish merchant vessels shall be allowed to trade in the ports of the Republic, provided that the captains or supercargoes of the said vessels in the act of being visited by the health officers or captain of the port present to the latter a certificate, signed and sealed from the Commandant-General of Marine, where there may be one, or from the captain of the port, stating that Mexican merchant vessels will be admitted into the ports from which they came, and that there will not be exacted from them therein other or higher duties than those prescribed by the tariff in force.

Article 2. Spanish merchant vessels shall be subject to all the laws and regulations in force in our ports, for foreign trade, respecting exhibition of general and particular manifests, payment of duties, and other relative requisites, as well of importation as of exportation.

Article 3. Spanish goods, produce, and effects may be imported into the ports of the Republic by the merchant vessels of any foreign nation, being subject in every particular to the laws of prohibition, and to the payment of duties prescribed in the tariff in force for those of fair trade.

Article 4. As soon as the certificates treated of in the first article of these regulations have been received and examined by the Captain of the port, they shall be officially forwarded by him to the Collector of the respective maritime Custom-house, in order that this functionary may proceed to the dispatch of the vessels in the manner laid down, and also that he may transmit said documents to this department to be made such use of as may seem expedient.

Article 5. The Collectors of the maritime Custom-houses of the Republic, may henceforth dispatch Mexican and Foreign merchant vessels, which wish to make their voyage directly to any port of the Peninsula or Spanish dominions, according to the provisions, and subject to the duties established for the export trade. (Signed) ASAS.
