AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of November 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for rendering " more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time hereafter, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division :

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Nottingham, assembled in quarter sessions at the Shire-hall in Nottingham, on Monday the seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, presented their humble petition to His Majesty, therein stating, that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and that the directions prescribed by the said Act of Parliament, in regard to the said petition, have been complied with, and, therefore, humbly praying, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, would be pleased to declare that the several places thereinafter mentioned should be additional polling places for the said county (that is to say), East Leake, Lowdham, and Sutton-upon-Trent, in the southern division, and Nuttall, in the northern division :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared accordingly, that the several places mentioned in the said petition (that is to say), East Leake, Lowdham, and Sutton-upon-Trent, in the southern division, and Nuttall, in the northern division of the county of Nottingham, shall be additional polling places for the said county.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of November 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the twenty-second day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, His Majesty was graciously pleased to grant unto John Howard Kyan, therein described, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of fourteen years, the sole benefit and advantage of his invention of "an improved mode of preserving paper, canvass, cloth, and cordage for ships and other uses, and the raw materials of hemp, flax, or cotton, from which the same may wholly or in part be made," as well within that part of His Majesty's United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, as also in all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad:

And whereas by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the eleventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, His Majesty was also graciously pleased to grant unto the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of fourteen years, the sole benefit and advantage of his invention of a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay, within all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad:

And whereas specifications of the aforesaid inventions, and of the manner in which the same are to be performed, were duly enrolled, pursuant to the provisions for that purpose in the said letters patent severally contained:

And whereas under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable John Howard Kyan to assign to a company certain letters patent," and of an indenture of assignment made pursuant thereto, the aforesaid letters patent, and all rights, privileges, and advantages thereby granted, have been assigned to the Anti Dry-Rot Company:

And whereas the said Anti Dry-Rot Company hath, by a memorial, addressed to His Majesty in Council, humbly represented that the said Anti Dry-Rot Company are now at very considerable expence proceeding to bring into use the said invention greatly to the benefit of the public; and that although the aforesaid letters patent of themselves severally extend to all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, it is convenient, and, as regards some colonies, conformable to usage, for the more effectual maintenance of the right thereby granted, that the said letters patent, or certified copies thereof, should be respectively enrolled in the proper offices of registry in His Majesty's several colonies and plantations abroad, and therefore, praying that His Majesty would be pleased to make an Order in Council for the enrolment of the said letters patent, and of the specification thereof respectively, or of certified copies thereof, within His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad respectively; His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that if the said Anti Dry-Rot Company shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the Office of the Colonial Secretary, or in the Office for the Registration of Deeds within each of the several colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends, true and perfect copies of the said letters patent and specification; and if to such copies so deposited there shall be annexed the affidavit or affidavits of one or more credible witness or witnesses to be sworn before the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds with whom the same may be deposited, to the effect of such witness or witnesses having diligently compared such copies with the original letters patent and specification, and found the same to be true, perfect, and exact copies thereof in every respect (which oath such Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds is hereby authorised to administer), then and in that case each and every copy of the said letters patent and specification respectively, with the said affidavit or affidavits annexed, shall, within the colony in which the same shall be so deposited, be and be deemed, taken, and reputed to be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and effectual as the original of the said letters patent or specification, if there exhibited and produced, could or might be: and it is hereby further ordered, that in all courts, and before all judges, justices, and others whom it may concern, in all those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends, whenever and so often as it may be necessary to make proof of the said letters patent or specification, it shall be competent for the Anti Dry-Rot Company, and their assigns, to produce and give in evidence such copies thereof, so to be deposited as aforesaid in the Office of the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds of the respective colonies:

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, that considerable doubts have arisen on the interpretation of those clauses of Our Royal Proclamations, dated the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and third of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which direct that the said Proclamations shall take effect from the periods at which notice thereof shall have been received in the several Courts of Vice-Admiralty; and that in many instances the distribution of bounty for captured slaves is actually delayed in consequence of such doubts; and it hath been humbly submitted to Us, by Our said Commissioners, that, in order to obviate the same, it is expedient to assign a precise and uniform date at which each of the said Proclamations, of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four and one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, are respectively to take effect: We do, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, think fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby directing, that distribution be made by the scale authorised in Our said Proclamation, dated the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, with regard to the proceeds of all captures made within its scope, which shall have been, or shall be, condemned in the High Court of Admiralty, in any Vice-Admiralty Court, or any Court of Mixed Commission, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty four, inclusive; and hereby further directing, that distribution be made according to the scale authorised by Our Proclamation, dated the third of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in regard to the proceeds of all captures made within its scope, which shall have been, or shall be, condemned in any such Courts as aforesaid, from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, inclusive; save and except, that in cases of distributions already made, the proceedings therein are not to be subject to revision, as being in any way vitiated by this Our Royal Proclamation.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, this thirtieth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.
