PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time hereafter, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division:

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of November 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the twenty-second day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, His Majesty was graciously pleased to grant unto John Howard Kyan, therein described, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of fourteen years, the sole benefit and advantage of his invention of "an improved mode of preserving paper, canvass, cloth, and cordage for ships and other uses, and the raw materials of hemp, flax, or cotton, from which the same may wholly or in part be made," as well within that part of His Majesty's United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, as also in all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad :

And whereas by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the eleventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, His Majesty was also graciously pleased to grant unto the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of fourteen years, the sole benefit and advantage of his invention of a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay, within all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad :

And whereas specifications of the aforesaid inventions, and of the manner in which the same are to be performed, were duly enrolled, pursuant to the provisoes for that purpose in the said letters patent severally contained :

And whereas under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable John Howard Kyan to assign to a company certain letters patent," and of an indenture of assignment made pursuant thereto, the aforesaid letters patent, and all rights, privileges, and advantages thereby granted, have been assigned to the Anti Dry-Rot Company :

And whereas the said Anti Dry-Rot Company hath, by a memorial, addressed to His Majesty in Council, humbly represented that the said Anti Dry-Rot Company are now at very considerable expence proceeding to bring into use the said invention greatly to the benefit of the public; and, that although the aforesaid letters patent of themselves severally extend to all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, it is convenient, and, as regards some colonies, conformable to usage, for the more effectual maintenance of the right thereby granted, that the said letters patent, or certified copies thereof, should be respectively enrolled in the proper offices of registry in His Majesty's several colonies and plantations abroad, and therefore, praying that His Majesty would be pleased to make an Order in Council for the enrolment of the said letters patent, and of the specification thereof respectively, or of certified copies thereof, within His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad respectively; His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that if the said Anti Dry-Rot Company shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the Office of the Colonial Secretary, or in the Office for the Registration of Deeds within each of the several colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends, true and perfect copies of the said letters patent and specification; and if to such copies so deposited there shall be annexed the affidavit or affidavits of one or more credible witness or witnesses to be sworn before the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds with whom the same may be deposited, to the effect of such witness or witnesses having diligently compared such copies with the original letters patent and specification, and found the same to be true, perfect, and exact copies thereof in every respect (which oath such Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds is hereby authorised to administer), then and in that case each and every copy of the said letters patent and specification respectively, with the said affidavit or affidavits annexed, shall, within the colony in which the same shall be so deposited, be and be deemed, taken, and reputed to be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and effectual as the original of the said letters patent or specification, if there exhibited and produced, could or might be: and it is hereby further ordered, that in all courts, and before all judges, justices, and others whom it may concern, in all those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends, whenever and so often as it may be necessary to make proof of the said letters patent or specification, it shall be competent for the Anti Dry-Rot Company, and their assigns, to produce and give in evidence such copies thereof, so to be deposited as aforesaid in the Office of the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds of the respective colonies :

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NAVAL PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all applications for the payment of Naval Pensions, due for the quarter ending the 31st instant, and henceforward, are to be addressed to His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall.

All applications for the payment of arrears of Naval Pensions, due on or before the 30th of September 1836, are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, as heretofore.

Admiralty, December 19, 1836.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Half-pay and Retired-pay due for the quarter ending 31st December 1836, will be payable at the Office of His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of January next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purser, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 16th of January, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 17th and 18th of January, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 23d, and 24th of January, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates, sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 26th and 27th of January.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into the Office of, or transmit them to, His Majesty's Paymaster-General, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into that Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form of bill to be sent to them from the Paymaster-General's Office, after the receipt of the usual letter of application and declaration.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By payment at the Dock-yards at Portsmouth, Devonport, and Chatham, on presenting to the Pay Clerks the usual declaration or certificate on the days appointed for payment at the respective ports.

This mode will be found more convenient to Officers living near any of these ports, than either a bill of exchange or remittance.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

M&M.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Admiralty, December 21, 1836.

THIS is to give notice, that Messrs. Martyn, of New Quay, within the port of Padstow, have, in pursuance of the Act, 46 Geo. 3, cap. 153, given me notice, dated the 16th instant, of their intention to erect a wharf or quay on the south side of their fish cellar, situate on Slip Cove Point (the lands of William Martyn and Company), at New Quay, in the parish of St. Columb Minor, on the north coast of Cornwall. John Barrow.
