And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for vesting light-houses, lights, and sea-marks, on the coast of England, in the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and for making provisions respecting light-houses, lights, buoys, beacons, and sea-marks," after reciting, that by the above recited Act of 3 George IV, the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants were empowered to reduce, relinquish, or modify, as therein mentioned, the tolls due to them; and that in exercise of the said power they had, with such consent, reduced and modified sundry of the tolls in the said Act mentioned, to the great relief of the owners of vessels liable thereto; and reciting, that in order to the further relief of owners of vessels it was expedient that the powers of the said Act given to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be enlarged and extended to the several tolls then or thereafter to be payable to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, it is enacted, that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants may, from time to time, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in Council, reduce, relinquish, or modify the tolls then or thereafter payable to them in respect of any light-house, and, upon the like requisition or with the like consent, may revive and re-establish or increase and otherwise modify, as occasion shall require, in such manner and form, and subject to such conditions and limitations, as the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants are empowered to do in respect of the tolls mentioned in the above recited Act, passed in the third year of His said late Majesty's reign:

And it is further enacted, that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners and Corporation respectively, from time to time, upon the like requisition or with the like consent of His Majesty in Council, may make regulations for the purpose of relieving certain vessels from the tolls payable to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners, and Corporation respectively, in respect of any light-houses, upon such terms and to such extent as to them respectively shall seem proper, or for the purpose of substituting any other class of toll or other payment in respect of vessels, or any particular description of vessels, in lieu of the tolls to which such vessels may be subject at the time of the making such regulations respectively, or for the:

purpose of altering the times and places, or either of them, at which any tolls in respect of any light-houses shall be payable, and may revoke or alter any such regulations; and from and after the time when such regulation shall take effect, the tolls thereby made payable shall be paid by the owners and masters of the vessels mentioned therein (unless otherwise directed by such regulation), and be recoverable by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners and Corporations respectively, at such time and place, and in such manner, as were the tolls in lieu whereof the same shall have been so made payable: provided always, that no such regulation, or revocation or alteration of any such regulation, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty in Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, nor until one month after the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, shall have caused notice of such regulation, or of such revocation or alteration of any regulation (as the case may be), to be published in the London Gazette:

And whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty, in His Most Honourable Privy Council, the following propositions for the reduction of the duties on buoyage and beaconage payable at the port of London, and for establishing an uniformity of charge for the various duties now payable under ancient usage at other ports in respect of buoyage and beaconage, and also for regulating the collection of light-house and other duties on coasting vessels (that is to say):

Admiralty, December 19, 1836.

NAVAL PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all applications for the payment of Naval Pensions, due for the quarter ending the 31st instant, and hence, forward, are to be addressed to His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall.

All applications for the payment of arrears of Naval Pensions, due on or before the 30th of September 1836, are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, as heretofore.

Admiralty, December 19, 1836.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Half-pay and Retired-pay due for the quarter ending 31st December 1836, will be payable at the Office of His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of January next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 16th of January, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 17th and 18th of January, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 23d, and 24th of January, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 26th and 27th of January.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into the Office of, or transmit them to, His Majesty's Paymaster-General, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into that Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form of bill to be sent to them from the Paymaster-General's Office, after the receipt of the usual letter of application and declaration.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By payment at the Dock-yards at Portsmouth, Devonport, and Chatham, on presenting to the Pay Clerks the usual declaration or certificate on the days appointed for payment at the respective ports.

This mode will be found more convenient to Officers living near any of these ports, than either a bill of exchange or remittance.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 29, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.
