TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1837.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county in which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the elections of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the county of Middlesex, assembled at the Michaelmas quarter sessions, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Bethnal-green, the city of London, the city of Westminster, and Hampstead, may be polling places for the said county

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Bethnal-green, the city of London, the city of Westminster, and Hampstead, shall be polling places for the said county of Middlesex: and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, an Act was passed, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strand to reduce, alter,

“ modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;” whereby after reciting, among other things, that “ under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid have collected, taken, levied, and received from or in respect of ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act therein mentioned, of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls of various denominations from or in respect of all British ships and vessels, and from or in respect of all foreign ships and vessels entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid have not by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid; and that it is expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations hereinafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable;” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby, authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition, or with the consent of His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, as far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and interests for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase, or otherwise alter or modify, any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require, so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act; and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification, of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months, from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished, shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of His present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for vesting light-houses, lights, and sea-marks, on the coast of England, in the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and for making provisions respecting light-houses, lights, buoys, beacons, and sea-marks,” after reciting, that by the above recited Act of 3 George IV, the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants were empowered to reduce, relinquish, or modify, as therein mentioned, the tolls due to them; and that in exercise of the said power they had, with such consent, reduced and modified sundry of the tolls in the said Act mentioned, to the great relief of the owners of vessels liable thereto; and reciting, that in order to the further relief of owners of vessels it was expedient that the powers of the said Act given to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be enlarged and extended to the several tolls then or thereafter to be payable to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, it is enacted, that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants may, from time to time, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty in Council, reduce, relinquish, or modify the tolls then or thereafter payable to them in respect of any light-house, and, upon the like requisition or with the like consent, may revive and re-establish or increase and otherwise modify, as occasion shall require, in such manner and form, and subject to such conditions and limitations, as the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants are empowered to do in respect of the tolls mentioned in the above recited Act, passed in the third year of His said late Majesty's reign :

And it is further enacted, that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners and Corporation respectively, from time to time, upon the like requisition or with the like consent of His Majesty in Council, may make regulations for the purpose of relieving certain vessels from the tolls payable to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners, and Corporation respectively, in respect of any light-houses, upon such terms and to such extent as to them respectively shall seem proper, or for the purpose of substituting any other class of toll or other payment in respect of vessels, or any particular description of vessels, in lieu of the tolls to which such vessels may be subject at the time of the making such regulations respectively, or for the purpose of altering the times and places, or either of them, at which any tolls in respect of any light-houses shall be payable, and may revoke or alter any such regulations ; and from and after the time when such regulation shall take effect, the tolls thereby made payable shall be paid by the owners and masters of the vessels mentioned therein (unless otherwise directed by such regulation), and be recoverable by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners and Corporations respectively, at such time and place, and in such manner, as were the tolls in lieu whereof the same shall have been so made payable : provided always, that no such regulation, or revocation or alteration of any such regulation, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty in Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, nor until one month after the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Commissioners or Corporation respectively, shall have caused notice of such regulation, or of such revocation or alteration of any regulation (as the case may be), to be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty, in His Most Honourable Privy Council, the following propositions for the reduction of the duties on buoyage and beaconage payable at the port of London, and for establishing an uniformity of charge for the various duties now payable under ancient usage at other ports in respect of buoyage and beaconage, and also for regulating the collection of light-house and other duties on coasting vessels (that is to say):

FIRST.—Trinity Duties, or Buoyage and Beaconage, in the Port of London, payable by Coasting Vessels, viz.

From any port or place to the southward or eastward of Yarmouth—present rate per ton, one halfpenny ; proposed rate per ton, one halfpenny.

From Yarmouth, or any port or place north thereof, to Berwick, inclusive—present rate per ton, five-eighths of a penny ; proposed rate per ton, one halfpenny.

From or round Scotland—present rate per ton, one penny ; proposed rate per ton, one halfpenny.

From all parts, if laden with coal present rate per ton, one farthing ; proposed rate per ton, one farthing.

SECOND.—Trinity Duties, or Buoyage and Beaconage, payable at the following Ports, viz.

WOODBIDGE.—On all vessels, present rate per ton, one farthing.

HARWICH.—Colliers, coastwise, present rate per ton, one farthing. All other British vessels, present rate per ton, one halfpenny. Foreign vessels, not privileged, present rate per ton, two pence.

ALDBOROUGH.—On all vessels, present rate per ton, one farthing.

COLCHESTER.—Colliers, coastwise, present rate per ton, one farthing. All other British vessels, present rate per ton, one halfpenny. Foreign vessels, not privileged, present rate per ton, two pence.

MALDON.—Colliers and coasters, present rate per ton, one halfpenny. All other British vessels, present rate per ton, one penny. Foreign vessels, not privileged, present rate per ton, two pence.

LEIGH.—On all vessels, present rate per ton, one halfpenny.

ROCHESTER.—Colliers, present rate per ton, one farthing. All other British vessels, present rate per ton, one halfpenny. Foreign vessels, not privileged, present rate per ton, one penny.

FAVERSHAM.—Colliers, from Newcastle and Sunderland, present rate per ton, one farthing. All other British vessels, present rate per ton, one halfpenny. Foreign vessels, not privileged, present rate per ton, two pence.

It is proposed, that at these several ports the under-mentioned duties be established in lieu of those before-mentioned, viz.

Coasters and colliers, coastwise, one farthing per ton.

All other British vessels, and Foreign privileged vessels, one halfpenny per ton.

Foreign vessels, not privileged, one penny per ton.

That at London, and the other ports above specified, the said rates of duty shall be payable for the inward passage only. That all British and Foreign privileged vessels shall be exempt therefrom, when navigated wholly in ballast. And that the ports so specified shall be deemed to comprise the several creeks, members, and roads within their respective limits.

THIRD.—That all light and other duties payable to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants by coasters and colliers, coastwise, shall be collected at the port of delivery, instead of at the port of lading as at present.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Acts of Parliament, and in exercise of the authority thereby vested in His Majesty in Council in that behalf, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby assent to and confirm the said proposed reductions and alterations; and it is hereby ordered that such assent and confirmation be signified, in writing, unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants by the Clerk of His Majesty's Council in Waiting, to the intent that, in further pursuance of the said above recited Acts, the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants do fix and determine the period, not exceeding three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation, from and after which the rates and duties so reduced, altered, or modified may be collected, received, levied, and taken; provided always, that the said regulation for the collection of the said duties payable by colliers and coasting vessels shall not take effect until one month after the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants shall have caused notice of the same to be published in the London Gazette:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville

Trinity-House, London, December 31, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in accordance with the terms of the foregoing Order of His Majesty in Council, this Corporation has fixed and determined, that the rates of Trinity duties; or buoyage or beaconage, reduced, altered, or modified as therein set forth, shall be collected, received, levied, and taken on and after the 2d day of January 1837; and that the regulation for the collection of all light and other duties, payable to this Corporation by coasters and colliers coastwise, at the port of delivery instead of at the port of lading, shall take effect on and after the 4th February 1837.

LIGHT AT HELIGOLAND.

Trinity-House, London, December 31, 1836.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for vesting light-houses, lights, and sea marks on the coasts of England, in the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and for making provisions respecting light-houses, lights, buoys, beacons, and sea marks, and the tolls and duties payable in respect thereof," it is enacted, that from the 31st day of December 1836, the several tolls now levied and taken, in respect of the light on the island of Heligoland, shall cease and be no longer received, and that, in lieu thereof, the toll hereunder mentioned shall thenceforth be paid to this Corporation towards the maintenance of the said light-house and the exhibition of a proper light therefrom;

Notice is hereby given, that the said toll will, on and after the 1st day of January 1837, be collected from all vessels liable thereto at the several ports in the United Kingdom, with the other duties payable to this Corporation.

The duties above referred to are, "one penny per ton for every vessel (not belonging to His Majesty) for each time that such vessel shall depart from any port or place within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to any port or place at, within, or near to the entrance of the Rivers Elbe and Weser, or either of them; and the like toll upon every vessel (not belonging to His Majesty) for each time that such vessel shall arrive at any port or place within the said United Kingdom from any port or place at, within, or near to the entrance of the said rivers, or either of them."

By command of the Corporation,
 J. Herbert, Secretary.

Arnesby Corn Rent.

ISOPHIA MORPOTT, of East Langton, in the county of Leicester, widow, owner or proprietor of several allotments or plots of land in the parish of Arnesby, in the said county of Leicester, charged with the payment of a corn rent to the Vicar of Arnesby aforesaid, in lieu of tithes, do hereby (in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, common meadows, common pastures, and other commonable lands and grounds in the parish of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester,") give notice, that I intend to apply to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, on Tuesday the 4th day of April next, being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county in the week next after the close of the Feast of Easter, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for inquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester for the ten years then last past.—
 Dated the 29th day of December 1836.

Sophia Morpott.

WE, William Tailby, of Humberstone, John Tailby, of Welham, William Warner, of Slawston, and Thomas Franks, of Great Glenn, all in the county of Leicester, Gentlemen, being four of the present owners or proprietors of the lands by the award of the Commissioners acting under and in execution of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, meadows, common pastures, and other commonable and waste lands and grounds in the parish of Slawston, in the county of Leicester," bearing date on or about the 12th day of June 1794, set out and allotted to Lady Jane Edwards, William Hodgkin, and Thomas Franks respectively, in lieu of tithes, and thereby charged with the payment (in the proportions in the said award mentioned) unto John Parker, since deceased, and his successors vicars of the vicarage of Slawston aforesaid, for ever, of such yearly rent charge, or annual sum, in lieu and satisfaction of and full compensation for all such vicarial tithes, moduses, compositions, and other dues and payments as in the said act and award also mentioned, do hereby give notice that we shall, in the manner prescribed by the said Act, apply at the first quarter sessions of the peace to be holden in and for the said county of Leicester, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by ourselves, arbitrators or referees, for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the mode and in the manner prescribed by the said Act, the average price of a bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the seven years then last past, for the purpose of having such yearly rent charge, or annual sum as aforesaid, regulated by such average price of a bushel of wheat in manner in and by the said Act particularly directed.—Witness our hands, the 24th day of December 1836.

NAVAL PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all applications for the payment of Naval Pensions, due for the quarter ending the 31st instant, and henceforward, are to be addressed to His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall.

All applications for the payment of arrears of Naval Pensions, due on or before the 30th of September 1836, are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, as heretofore.

Admiralty, December 19, 1836.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Half-pay and Retired-pay due for the quarter ending 31st December 1836, will be payable at the Office of His Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of January next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 16th of January, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 17th and 18th of January, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 23d, and 24th of January, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 26th and 27th of January.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into the Office of, or transmit them to, His Majesty's Paymaster General, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into that Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form of bill to be sent to them from the Paymaster-General's Office, after the receipt of the usual letter of application and declaration.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By payment at the Dock-yards at Portsmouth, Devonport, and Chatham, on presenting to the Pay Clerks the usual declaration or certificate on the days appointed for payment at the respective ports.

This mode will be found more convenient to Officers living near any of these ports, than either a bill of exchange or remittance.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

CONTRACT FOR CHAIN PUMP GEAR FOR HIS MAJESTY'S SHIPS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 29, 1836.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 26th January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into His Majesty's Dock-yard at Woolwich, sundry articles of Chain Pump Gear, required for the Ships of His Majesty's Royal Navy.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the said Yard, and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

SALE OF COOPERAGE STORES AT GOSPORT.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, December 13, 1836.

meeting, and to defend any action or actions, suit or suits, instituted and now proceeding against the said Henry Alexander Douglas, Samuel Anderson, and John Anderson, or any of them, by certain person or persons, to be also named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from certain claims made by persons, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees opposing the same claims or submitting the same to arbitration, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration all and every or any other accounts, dealings, transactions, claims, demands, matters, and things now existing and depending between the same persons, or any of them, and the said Henry Alexander Douglas, Samuel Anderson, and John Anderson, or any of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration certain debts due to the said Henry Alexander Douglas, Samuel Anderson, and John Anderson, or any of them, from certain persons, to be also named at the said meeting, and to compound or submit to arbitration any other debt or debts due to the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to employ the book-keeper and any other clerk to the said Henry Alexander Douglas, Samuel Anderson, and John Anderson, since the date of the said Fiat, for the purpose of winding up the accounts of the estate during such time, and on such terms as the said assignees shall in their discretion think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Endersby Nicoll and John Warburton, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Tailors, Drapers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 25th day of January instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Clarendon-Rooms, South John-street, in Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, goods, furniture, fixtures, book and other debts, and other property of the said bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and together or in separate lots, or otherwise as they may think proper, either to the said bankrupts, or to any other person or persons whomsoever who may be disposed to purchase the same, and to their giving such time for payment of all or any part of the purchase moneys thereof, and on such personal or other security for the payment of such moneys as the said assignees may deem expedient and right; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant, or such other person as they may think fit, to make up and balance the bankrupt's books and accounts, and to collect and get in the several debts due to the said estate, and making such allowance for the same as the said assignees may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or in anywise relating or incident thereto; and to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling any accounts, or any other matters or things whatsoever due, or in anywise relating, to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Miller, of the Nursery Gardens, near Durdham Down, within the borough of the city of Bristol, Nurseryman and Seedsman, Florist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 25th day of January instant, at one of the clock in the afternoon precisely, at the office of John Kerle Habersfield, Solicitor, Nicholas-street, in the borough of the city of Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt selling and disposing of the real (if any) and personal estate, property, and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly in each mode, for such prices, either for ready money or on credit, with or without security, upon such terms and conditions, and with liberty to postpone such sale and disposition, either wholly or in part, to such time or times, as to the said assignee shall seem advisable; and to the said assignee disposing thereof to the said bankrupt, on approved security, at a valuation, all or any part of his household goods, furniture and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, at the risk and expence of the estate of the said bankrupt, carrying on, working, and continuing, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, the trade or business of the said bankrupt as a Nurseyman, Seedsman, and Florist, in the grounds and premises occupied by him, or any of them, or elsewhere, for such period as the said assignee shall think proper, or shall be then fixed upon by the said creditors, and, if the said trade or business shall be carried on, then to empower the said assignee to make such arrangement, if any, as he shall think proper with the said bankrupt for obtaining his services in carrying on the same, and to purchase goods and materials, engage and hire work-people, servants, clerks, travellers, and any other person or persons, at such wages or salaries as the said assignee shall think fit, and to lay out any sum or sums of money upon the nursery grounds, gardens, and premises of the said bankrupt, and generally to enter into such arrangements, and to make, do, and transact all and every such payments, acts, deeds, purchases, sales, matters and proceedings as shall be requisite and proper, or as the said assignee shall deem expedient, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, at the risk and for the benefit of the creditors seeking relief under the said fiat, without the said assignee being personally liable to any expence or loss which shall be incurred or happen by reason or on account thereof, or otherwise, at the like risk and expence, to wind up the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as the said assignee may think most advantageous for the creditors; and also to sanction or dissent from the said assignee having employed, and his continuing to employ, proper persons to collect, keep possession, and make sales of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and an accountant or accountants for the purpose of examining and scrutinizing the said books and accounts, and for making up the said books and accounts, and a balance sheet thereof, for the better satisfaction of the said assignee, and otherwise to act and assist in the investigating, carrying on, and winding up the said bankrupt's estate, or for any of the said purposes; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing to such persons and accountant or accountants, such remuneration for their services as he may think proper, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the said assignee employing the said bankrupt in and about his affairs, and the conduct and management of his trade, and paying such bankrupt such compensation for his time and trouble as may be agreed on and deemed fair and equivalent for such services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, discharging, or allowing all or any such sums and expences, for wages and salaries, as shall have been paid or incurred in carrying on and taking care of the said bankrupt's trade, estate, and effects since the date of the said fiat, as well prior or subsequent to the choice of the said assignee, up to the time of such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee retaining, relinquishing, or giving up any leasehold property or any interest which the said bankrupt was possessed of or entitled to, at the time of his bankruptcy, in any hereditaments or premises used by him for the purposes of his late trade; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying and discharging, out of the first moneys coming to his possession, all rent, or arrears of rent, and taxes payable in respect of the nursery gardens and premises late of, and held and occupied by, the said bankrupt for the purposes of his trades or business, and to make such arrangements therein as the said assignee shall see fit and consider advisable; also to the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and defending any actions, suits, or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof, or in anywise relating thereto, and especially to adopt and take such legal proceedings as may be considered necessary and advisable against a certain person, to be named at the meeting, for recovery of certain moneys in his possession belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to act therein as the said assignee shall be advised; or to or for the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing all or any of such actions, suits, or proceedings, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and especially to the said assignee defending any petition or proceedings in His Majesty's Court of Review, or in any other court of law or equity, which may be brought or instituted by any person or persons whomsoever claiming, or alleging to claim, as joint creditors under an alleged co-partnership between the said bankrupt and one William Chub, and to act in any such suit, petition, or other proceedings as the said assignee may be advised by counsel, or otherwise, so as to protect the interests of the creditors of the said bankrupt from such alleged claim for distributions of the said bankrupt's property as joint partnership property, and to resist such claim by every possible legal ways or means for the benefit of the creditors of the said John Miller; and generally to ratify and confirm what has been already done to protect the said bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignee taking such measures in the management and disposal of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as the said assignee may deem expedient or be advised; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Evans, of Bridgend, in the county of Glamorgan, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 25th day of January instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. Neast Greville Pridaux, in the Albion-Chambers, Bristol, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee selling or disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or by private contract, or partly in the one mode and partly in the other, and either in one lot or in several lots, to such person or persons, either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security, or otherwise, as to the said assignee may seem expedient; and also of assenting to and confirming or dissenting from any sale or sales already made, the particulars whereof shall be produced at the said meeting; and also of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee retaining or employing any agent or accountant, or other fit person or persons to investigate, arrange, and manage the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and for the purpose of receiving, collecting in, and giving discharges and receipts for the outstanding debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and making such agent, accountant, or accountants, or other person or persons, such compensation for his or their services as to the said assignee shall seem fit and proper; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding or compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any bad or doubtful debt or debts due to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee paying all or any part of certain bills of charges to be then and there produced, relative to the investigation of the said Thomas Evans's affairs, and to the assignment made by the said Thomas Evans for the benefit of his creditors previous to the issuing of the said fiat against him; and also for certain costs incurred relative to the insolvency of the said Thomas Evans, or in taking an account of his stock in trade, or otherwise, for the benefit of or in relation to his estate; and on other special affairs.
