

the said bankrupt, carrying on, working, and continuing, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, the trade or business of the said bankrupt as a Nurseyman, Seedsman, and Florist, in the grounds and premises occupied by him, or any of them, or elsewhere, for such period as the said assignee shall think proper, or shall be then fixed upon by the said creditors, and, if the said trade or business shall be carried on, then to empower the said assignee to make such arrangement, if any, as he shall think proper with the said bankrupt for obtaining his services in carrying on the same, and to purchase goods and materials, engage and hire work-people, servants, clerks, travellers, and any other person or persons, at such wages or salaries as the said assignee shall think fit, and to lay out any sum or sums of money upon the nursery grounds, gardens, and premises of the said bankrupt, and generally to enter into such arrangements, and to make, do, and transact all and every such payments, acts, deeds, purchases, sales, matters and proceedings as shall be requisite and proper, or as the said assignee shall deem expedient, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, at the risk and for the benefit of the creditors seeking relief under the said fiat, without the said assignee being personally liable to any expence or loss which shall be incurred or happen by reason or on account thereof, or otherwise, at the like risk and expence, to wind up the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as the said assignee may think most advantageous for the creditors; and also to sanction or dissent from the said assignee having employed, and his continuing to employ, proper persons to collect, keep possession, and make sales of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and an accountant or accountants for the purpose of examining and scrutinizing the said books and accounts, and for making up the said books and accounts, and a balance sheet thereof, for the better satisfaction of the said assignee, and otherwise to act and assist in the investigating, carrying on, and winding up the said bankrupt's estate, or for any of the said purposes; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying or allowing to such persons and accountant or accountants, such remuneration for their services as he may think proper, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the said assignee employing the said bankrupt in and about his affairs, and the conduct and management of his trade, and paying such bankrupt such compensation for his time and trouble as may be agreed on and deemed fair and equivalent for such services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, discharging, or allowing all or any such sums and expences, for wages and salaries, as shall have been paid or incurred in carrying on and taking care of the said bankrupt's trade, estate, and effects since the date of the said fiat, as well prior or subsequent to the choice of the said assignee, up to the time of such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee retaining, relinquishing, or giving up any leasehold property or any interest which the said bankrupt was possessed of or entitled to, at the time of his bankruptcy, in any hereditaments or premises used by him for the purposes of his late trade; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying and discharging, out of the first moneys coming to his possession, all rent, or arrears of rent, and taxes payable in respect of the nursery gardens and premises late of, and held and occupied by, the said bankrupt for the purposes of his trades or business, and to make such arrangements therein as the said assignee shall see fit and consider advisable; also to the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and defending any actions, suits, or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof, or in anywise relating thereto, and especially to adopt and take such legal proceedings as may be considered necessary and advisable against a certain person, to be named at the meeting, for recovery of certain moneys in his possession belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to act therein as the said assignee shall be advised; or to or for the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing all or any of such actions, suits, or proceedings, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and especially to the said assignee defending any petition or proceedings in His Majesty's Court of Review, or in any other court of law or equity, which may be brought or instituted by any person or persons whomsoever claiming, or alleging to claim, as joint creditors under an alleged co-partnership between the said bankrupt and one William Chub, and to act in any such suit, petition, or other proceedings as the said assignee may be advised by counsel, or otherwise, so as to protect the interests of the creditors of the said bankrupt from such alleged claim for distributions of the said bankrupt's property as joint partnership property, and to resist such claim by every possible legal ways or means for the benefit of the creditors of the said John Miller; and generally to ratify and confirm what has been already done to protect the said bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignee taking such measures in the management and disposal of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as the said assignee may deem expedient or be advised; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Evans, of Bridgend, in the county of Glamorgan, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 25th day of January instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. Neast Greville Pridaux, in the Albion-Chambers, Bristol, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee selling or disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or by private contract, or partly in the one mode and partly in the other, and either in one lot or in several lots, to such person or persons, either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security, or otherwise, as to the said assignee may seem expedient; and also of assenting to and confirming or dissenting from any sale or sales already made, the particulars whereof shall be produced at the said meeting; and also of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee retaining or employing any agent or accountant, or other fit person or persons to investigate, arrange, and manage the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and for the purpose of receiving, collecting in, and giving discharges and receipts for the outstanding debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and making such agent, accountant, or accountants, or other person or persons, such compensation for his or their service as to the said assignee shall seem fit and proper; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding or compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any bad or doubtful debt or debts due to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee paying all or any part of certain bills of charges to be then and there produced, relative to the investigation of the said Thomas Evans's affairs, and to the assignment made by the said Thomas Evans for the benefit of his creditors previous to the issuing of the said fiat against him; and also for certain costs incurred relative to the insolvency of the said Thomas Evans, or in taking an account of his stock in trade, or otherwise, for the benefit of or in relation to his estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Stein, Thomas Smith, Robert Stein, James Stein, and Robert Smith, of Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Merchants and Copartners, trading under the firm of Stein, Smith and Co. are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Thursday the 26th of January instant, at half-past two precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to consider the reward to be paid for the discovery of a sum of money belonging to the bankrupts' estate and since received from the Commissioners of Danish Claims, and also the salary and continuance of a person in the employ of the assignees in the affairs in Scotland.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 14th day of November 1836, was awarded and issued forth against Thomas Nichols, of Dowgate-hill, in the city of London, Carman, Cowkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 2d day of January 1837, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against James Bragg, of Sharp's-Wharf, High-street, Wapping, Builder and Wharfinger, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert