Foreign-Office, January 17, 1837.

A DISPATCH, dated the 30th of December 1836, has been received by Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Lord Howard de Walden, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Lisbon, containing a report from the Ministers of Her Most Faithful Majesty; and of Her Majesty's Decree for the suppression of the Slave Trade, of which the following are translations :

(Translation.)

Report of the Secretaries of State.

MADAME,

THE civilization of Africa has been, during these latter times, the favourite idea of philanthropists and an object of assiduous attention to the principal Governments, who, both in the old and the new world, lead the advancement and promote the amelioration of the human race, while Portugal, who had laboured for centuries in this great work, now, instead of promoting it, throws obstacles in its way.

The first title which our great Kings, your Majesty's ancestors, added to that of King of Portugal, was that of Lords of Guinea and of the countries beyond the seas, in Africa; borne by the hands of our navigators, directed by the daring science of our astronomers, the Portuguese flag waved successively over the seas of Centa, the fertile regions bathed by the Senegal and Gambia, and the eastern coast of Africa, where we founded factories, built fortresses, and conquered nations.

In our deeds of arms, in Africa, modern historians have calumniously represented us as trafficking, sword in hand, with the lives and possessions of the nations we discovered, but there is not one document extant which does not prove that the principal and almost only aim of the Portuguese Government was their civilization by means of the Gospel: trade was but a secondary object, although likewise a means of civilization, and dominion was a necessary consequence and not an object.

The errors of religious doctrine and the defects of political measures were imputable to the age, not to the men.

India, in the first instance, and the Brazils next, made us abandon Africa, the most natural field for our labours; but the colonization of the Brazils and the exploration of its mines, and, soon afterwards, the interest which all other nations took in America, were the greatest enemies to the civilization of Africa, which we alone had begun at so great a sacrifice of our lives and property.

The infamous slave traffic is certainly an indelible stain upon the history of modern nations, but we were neither the only, the principal, nor the most guilty. Those of our accomplices, who afterwards reproached us so severely, were deeper in guilt than ourselves.

To repair, therefore, the evil done, to prevent its repetition, are duties binding upon the honour of the Portuguese nation, and conducive to the interests of your Majesty's Crown; for the dominions which we yet possess in that part of the world, are as yet the most extensive, the most important, and the most valuable possessed by any European nation in Southern Africa.

In order to appreciate their value, we are to consider not only what they are, but what they are susceptible of. Their present state is owing not only to the mis-rule of the mother country, but to the latter's having given her almost exclusive attention to the Brazils.

The natives of Africa were captured and conveyed across the Atlantic, to enrich a country whose inhabitants refused to exert themselves for its civilization.

We read in an ancient record that there were formerly seventeen sugar mills on the Island of Saint Thomas, which the Government of Portugal caused to be destroyed, in order not to injure the cultivation of the sugar cane, which they were then promoting in the Brazils.

Our African provinces contain rich mines of gold, copper, iron, and precious stones. We can there cultivate all that is cultivated in America. We possess lands of the greatest fertility in the Capè de Verd Islands, in Guinea, Angola, and Moçambique: great and navigable rivers fertilize some of our provinces, and facilitate their commerce. In those vast regions we can cultivate, largely, the sugar-cane, rice, indigo, coffee, cotton, and cocoa; in short, all those articles commonly called colonial, as well as all the spice plants of the Moluccas and Ceylon, in such abundance as not only to suffice for the consumption of Portugal, but for exportation in very large quantities to the other markets of Europe, and at a less price than those of America; since the African cultivator would not be obliged to seek for and purchase labourers, and then transport them across the Atlantic, while the high price paid by the Brazilian for the slaves he employs, is further increased by the risks attendant upon the contraband traffic by which he obtains them.

Let us promote, in Africa, the colonisation of Europeans, the development of its industry, the employment of its capital, and in a few years we shall again derive the same benefits that we formerly did. But for this purpose, a thorough reform of our colonial laws is necessary.

If any system of legislation can be judged of by its results, none can be worse than that by which our colonies have been ruled. Centuries have passed away since first they came under our dominion, and they are but little more civilized than they were when we conquered them; while, as a contrast, the neighbouring colony of the Cape of Good Hope has, within much less time, increased rapidly in white population, and in wealth.

The glory of continuing the great undertaking commenced by King John the Second, was reserved for your Majesty. The civilization of Africa, of which so many powerful nations have despaired, is more feasible to the Queen of Portugal, who holds in her hands the key of the principal gates at which it can enter, and whose authority is obeyed in various parts of that vast continent, at distances of more than two hundred leagues from the sea; and as it was possible for the former Sovereigns of Portugal to open roads for civilization, a step which no other Prince had ventured upon, so it will be possible to make that beneficial plant thrive and flourish in those regions.

As an indispensable preliminary to any measures which for this great purpose your Majesty, in accordance with the General Cortes, may take, your Secretaries of State have the honour to propose the following project of a Decree for the entire and complete abolition of the slave-trade in your dominions.

Foreign-Office, 10th December 1836.

(Signed by all the Ministers.)

DECREE.

Taking into consideration the reports of the Secretaries of State of the different departments, I hereby issue the following Decree:

Article 1.

That the exportation of slaves be henceforth prohibited, both by sea and land, in the Portuguese dominions, as well to the north as to the south of the equator, from the day on which the present Decree shall be published in the different capitals of the said dominions.

Article 2.

The importation of slaves by sea is also strictly prohibited under any pretext whatever.

S. 1. Due notification must be given of any slaves that may be brought by land into any of the Portuguese territories.

Article 3.

Any planter, whether native or foreigner, who, from any part of the Portuguese dominions, in Africa, may establish himself in any other part of the said dominions, on the continent or islands on the coast of Africa, is exempted from the rules laid down in the first and second article relating to the exportation and importation of slaves.

S. 1. The same exemption from the rule established, in Article second, also extends to the importation of slaves by sea made by any planter, whether native or foreigner, who, from any port not subject to my power, may establish himself in any of my dominions in Africa.

Article 4.

The powers granted by the preceding article of this Decree shall be regulated as follows:

S. 1. The number of slaves exported or imported under the exceptions treated of in the said third Article, can never exceed ten.

S. 2. Previous to the exportation of slaves the owner of the same shall make a declaration, before the chief authorities of the Custom-house of the port of embarkation, of the number intended to be shipped, giving substantial bond equal to double the value of the slaves to be shipped, and also that they shall be actually landed at the place of their declared destination.

S. 3. The object of the foregoing clause being complied with, the transaction shall be registered in a book, to be kept for that purpose at the Custom-house, with the addition of the declaration made by the owner of the slaves, and the conditions of the security given.

S. 4. The chief authority of the Custom-house, wherein the documents referred to in the foregoing clause shall be registered, shall transmit an authenticated copy of the same, under the official seal, to the chief authority of the custom-house of the port, declared by the owner of the slaves to be their destination.

S. 5. The owner of the slaves may, by virtue of the certificate of their delivery, given by the chief authority of the Custom-house of the port of their declared destination, demand the cancelling of the bond given at the port of their shipment, and it shall be immediately granted.

S. 6. Should the owner of the slaves not appear personally with them, within six months from the date of the Act treated of in the third section, before the superior authority of the port of the declared destination, the latter shall make an official communication to the superior authority of the custom-house where the transaction was registered, in order that proper measures may be taken to give effect to the board.

S. 7. The bondsman shall be released from his bond on proof of shipwreck, or of the death of the person for whom he stood bound.

S. 8. On proof of the death of the whole or part of the slaves declared in the manifest, the bondsman shall also be released from the whole or corresponding amount of his bond.

Art. 5. For every slave exported, according to the mode prescribed in the beginning of the third article, the same duties shall be levied as were paid when the exportation of slaves was permitted.

S. 1. The same duties shall be paid for each slave imported in the cases allowed by the clause to the third article.

S. 2. The same duties shall be paid for each slave imported by land.

Art. 6. Passports shall not be given to merchant vessels for any part of Africa to the south of the twentieth degree of north latitude, unless the owner or master shall first have signed a bond not to receive on board any slaves but those, the exportation of whom is permitted by the 3d article of this decree.

Art. 7. Vessels, whether Portuguese or foreign, fitting out in the ports of this kingdom, and its adjacent islands, and in the other ports of the monarchy, to navigate to Africa, to the south of the twentieth degree of north latitude, shall be searched on the day of their departure by the civil authority of the port, accompanied by one of the chief functionaries of the custom-house, or, in his absence, by some trusty officer, who on their own responsibility shall with the most scrupulous care search the vessel; and not finding any thing to excite suspicion, shall allow her to depart freely.

S. 1. If, however, any articles indicative of her destination to the slave trade be found, they shall be seized as contraband, and the owners, captains, mate, and shippers shall incur the penalties specified in the seventeenth article below.

S. 2. After the search nothing can be received on board the ship.

S. 3. In the event of the vessels not being condemned, but cause of suspicion still existing that she is intended for the slave trade, the competent authority may expect sufficient security that the parties interested in her will not employ her in that trade.

S. 4. If within eighteen months there be no charge preferred against the party for whom bail is given, or if within that space of time he shall have been prosecuted and acquitted, the bond of security shall become cancelled.

Art. 8. The article considered to indicate the design of employing the vessel in the slave trade are mentioned in the list annexed to this decree; and which constitutes part thereof. This list was signed this day by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who presides over the Council of Ministers.

Art. 9. In the passports granted to merchant vessels for the before-mentioned African territories, a clause shall always be inserted, that if found contravening this decree, by Portuguese ships of war, they may be seized by them.

Art. 10. On arrival at any of the ports of the said territories the master of each vessel shall be obliged, as soon as he casts anchor, to send the passport of his vessel to the chief authorities of the custom-house, who shall retain it till the day of her departure.

S. 1. On the day of her sailing the said authority shall deliver the passport to an officer of the custom-house, for whom he shall be responsible, and who having proceeded on board, and ascertained, upon strict search, that she has no slaves on board, such as are alluded to in the third article, nor any of the articles enumerated in the list annexed to this decree, shall deliver the passport to the captain, but not till he has weighed anchor and is in the act of sailing; and in proof of his having so done, the said officer shall furnish a written document to the chief of the custom-house, who shall deposit it in the archives.

S. 2. Should the officer, however, find on board slaves whose exportation is prohibited by this decree, or any of the articles enumerated in the annexed list, he shall report the case by writing to the chief of the custom-house, in order for the latter to proceed in conformity with this decree.

Art. 11. Each transgression of this decree shall be punished with the forfeiture of the slaves who formed the subject matter of the offence.

S. 1. Every slave so forfeited shall immediately become free, and the competent authority shall furnish him with a certificate of manumission, on pain of suspension for non-fulfilment of this duty.

S. 2. The public authority is the legitimate guardian and trustee of those who have thus become freedmen; and it shall apprentice them by public auction to artizans, who shall enter into an undertaking to instruct them in their trades.

Art. 12. If in such cases in which, according to the preceding articles, forfeiture of slaves takes place, the whole or any part of them be not found in the act of seizure, a sequestration shall be laid on the goods of the owners, buyers, sellers, or conductors, all of whom shall be rendered responsible, in solidum, for the value of the slaves missing.

S. 1. The value of the slaves missing shall always be computed by the market price for the best slaves at the time of sequestration.

S. 2. The sequestration shall be made in such manner as to insure the fullest extent of responsibility, in case the value of the slaves missing should require to be multiplied, conformably with the penalties imposed on smugglers.

Art. 13. Non-compliance with the provisions of the clause to 2d article shall be punished, over and above the forfeiture of the slaves, with the other penalties imposed upon contraband traffic, which shall be applied in their different degrees according to the importance of the circumstances.

Art. 14. In all cases of omission or incorrectness in the fulfilment of the 4th article, the chief of the custom-house shall incur such penalty as may be awarded against him, according to the gravity of his offence.

S. 1. The minimum of penalty shall be a mulct of four hundred milrees.

S. 2. The maximum shall be a mulct of one thousand two hundred milrees, with loss of office and inability to hold any other.

Art. 15. Every master or captain of a vessel met to the southward of the twentieth degree of north latitude, and at less than two hundred miles distance from the continent of Africa, without a passport in the form prescribed by the 6th Article, or convicted of having performed that navigation without such passport, shall be punished with three years confinement in the galleys: and the owners, captain, or master of such vessel shall be liable, in solidum, to a mulct equal to half the value of the vessel.

Art. 16. The omission or negligence on the part of the civil authority, or of the functionary or officer referred to in Article 7, shall be punished with a mulct of six hundred milrees, payable by every one of them.

S. 1. This mulct shall be trebled, with forfeiture of their offices, and disqualification for all others, in case that any connivance on their part be proved.

Art. 17. The penalties imposed for smuggling are to be applied to the transgressors against the provisions contained in the 1st and 2d clauses of the 7th article.

In the case provided for by this article, an embargo shall immediately be laid upon the ship and her cargo, as a security for the mulcts which the captain or master, the mate, owner, or shipper may have incurred, and for which they will have to answer in solidum.

Article 18.

Every Custom-house Officer who in the case specified in the first clause of the 10th Article, gives in a false report, shall lose his office, become disqualified for every other, and pay a mulct of 400 milreis.

S. 1. The chief authority at the Custom-house, who employed the officer by whom the false report was given in, shall likewise pay a mulct of 600,000 reis, if there should have been any negligence on his own part; which mulct shall be trebled, with forfeiture of office, and disqualification for all other, should there be proof of his having been guilty of connivance.

Article 19.

The Governors, or principal authorities acting for them, in any part of the Portuguese dominions, where it may be proved, that owing to their remissness or negligence any exportation or importation of slaves, other than that permitted by the third Article of this decree, has taken place, shall forfeit their respective offices, and be rendered, during five years, incapable of exercising any others. Should there, however, be proof of connivance on their part too, they shall moreover be condemned to five years' transportation to some of the settlements in the interior of Africa, besides a mulct of 2,000 milreis each.

S. 1. The captains, or masters, and mates of slaving vessels, as well as the persons charged with the purchase or sale of the slaves, or their conveyance on board such vessels, shall be confined in the galleys during a period of from two to five years, and pay a mulct of from 500 to 2,000 milreis each, and in solidum.

S. 2. All other individuals found on board vessels employed in the said traffic, not comprized in the foregoing clause, shall be condemned to serve from two to four years on board national ships of war, without pay, and in the rating awarded to them by their sentence according to the importance of the circumstances.

Article 20.

All contravention of the provisions of this Decree is hereby declared to be a public crime; and its prosecution becomes a special duty of the Procuradores Regios (Crown Attorneys) and their delegates, on pain of suspension. Any person, however, shall be competent to give information of such contravention.

Article 21.

With regard to the transgressions against this decree to prescription, shall prevent the taking cognizance of, or imposing penalties for them.

Article 22.

The magistrates of the several districts are the competent persons to take cognizance of offences against this decree, but their decisions may always be appealed from the supreme tribunal of commerce.

S. 1. The magistrates, as well as the said tribunal, shall apportion the penalties, as may be just, and within the limits prescribed by this decree.

Article 23.

The Consuls and Vice Consuls of Portugal at any ports frequented by Portuguese vessels, are charged with the execution of the present decree; and may, on learning any transgression of it, require of the competent authorities of the country, the detention of the vessel, and the arrest of the criminal parties, whereupon they shall send the ship, her cargo, and the prisoners, to the ministry of Marine, in order that cognizance may be taken of the case by the competent authority.

S. 1. Any Consul or Vice Consul convicted of remissness in the execution of this Article, shall be punished with the forfeiture of his office, and disqualification for any other.

S. 2. In case of connivance, he shall in addition to incurring the penalties mentioned in the preceding clause, pay a mulct of from 2,000 to 5,000 milreis.

Article 24.

Of the sums arising from all the penalties imposed, and bonds unredeemed, one half shall go to the Treasury, and the other half to a fund from which the wants of the freedmen, who by virtue of this decree are to obtain their manumission, shall be supplied.

S. 1. The municipal chamber of each district shall administer this fund, and render an account of its administration to the competent authority.

S. 2. In case of information being given, the amount of the penalty shall be divided into three portions, one to go to the Treasury, another to the freedmen's fund, and the third to the informer.

S. 3. In case of apprehension effected on land, or in port, the sum which legally belongs to the apprehenders shall be set apart before the division stated in the preceding clause is proceeded to.

S. 4. In cases of capture at sea, the dispositions of the anterior laws and regulations, shall be followed in the division of the prize.

Article 25.

The present Decree shall be published in the usual form by the governors of the ultra-marine dominions as soon as received by them; and they shall, moreover, give a copy of it to each of the municipal chambers, to the respective Custom-houses, and to the juizes de directo (magistrates.)

S. 1. Copies of this decree shall be sent from the Foreign Office to the Portuguese Legations and Consulates in every foreign country.

The Secretaries of State of the several departments shall so understand it, and cause it to be carried into effect.

Palace of Necessidades 10th Dec. 1836.

(Signed) by the QUEEN, and Countersigned
by all Her Majesties Ministers.

List of articles which, being found on board of any vessel, must be considered as indications of her being intended for the Slave Trade, and to subject her to the provisions of the Decree of the 10th of December 1836, of which this list constitutes a part.

1. Hatchways with open gratings, instead of being closed according to the practice of Merchant vessels.

2. A flush deck, or a greater number of compartments than is usual or necessary on board fair traders.

3. Planks ready fitted to form a second deck, as used by Slavers.

4. Collars, manacles, thumb-screws, or chains.

5. A greater quantity of water in casks or tanks than is necessary for the crew of a merchant vessel.

6. An extraordinary number of pipes or casks to contain liquids, should the captain not be able to present a certificate from the custom-house from which he cleared out, showing that the owners of the vessel gave bond for them, and that they are intended to receive palm or fish oil, or for any other purpose of licit commerce.

7. A greater number of buckets, tubs, or mess-trays than necessary for the crew of a merchant vessel.

8. A boiler of larger dimensions than usual, and than would be required for the use of the crew: or several boilers in greater number than would be necessary for that purpose.

9. An extraordinary quantity of rice, beans, salt meat and fish, Mandioca maize, wheaten or any other flour, beyond that required for the use of the crew, unless such articles should form part of the cargo, and be duly manifested.

SPURN POINT LIGHT-HOUSES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, acting under the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting light-houses, lights, and sea-marks on the coasts of England in the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and for making provisions respecting light-houses, lights, buoys, beacons, and sea-marks, and the tolls and duties payable in respect thereof," are willing to agree with the owners of, and persons interested in, or by law capacitated to sell, the light-houses erected and being near the Spurn Point, at the mouth of the River Humber, and the land whereon the same light-houses respectively stand, and all and every of the buildings, lands, and appurtenances thereto respectively belonging, or occupied for the purposes of the same, and the fixtures, apparatus, and furniture thereunto belonging, respectively, and the tolls or duties payable in respect thereof, and all rents, rent charges, annuities, or payments (if any such there be) charged thereon, or payable in respect thereof, or any of them, or any interest therein, or part or parts thereof respectively, for the absolute purchase of such lighthouses, buildings, lands, and appurtenances, fixtures, apparatus, furniture, tolls, duties, rents, rent charges, annuities, and payments, respectively, and for the absolute purchase of any and every estate and interest therein respectively, for such purchase money as shall be agreed upon; and all and every persons and person, bodies or body politic or corporate, seized of, or interested in, or claiming any right or title to, the premises, or any part thereof, in possession, reversion, remainder, or contingency, and whether in fee or for any less estate or interest, and whether in his, her, or their own right, or as husband, guardian, trustee or feoffee, in trust, for charitable or other purposes, executor, administrator, or committee, or in any other right, character, or capacity whatsoever, are hereby requested, within thirty days from the date hereof, to cause a written statement to be delivered at the Trinity-house, in the city of London, containing therein the nature of his, her, or their said estate, interest, or claim, and the price or sum at or for which he, she, or they may be willing to sell the same to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, in order that the estates, rights, and interests to be purchased by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, may be ascertained, and the amount of the purchase money claimed for the same may be settled.—Dated this 6th day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

Church Commissioners'-Office, January 13, 1837.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning a district to Saint George's Chapel, in the parish of Saint Chad, Shrewsbury, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might hereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, or by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Saint Chad, in the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, contained a population of 7720 persons; that besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1688 persons, there are two chapels in the said parish, one called Bicton Chapel, which affords accommodation to 200 persons, and the other called Saint George's Chapel, recently built by your Majesty's said Commissioners, which affords accommodation to 750 persons, including 460 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said last mentioned chapel has been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein:

The said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, called Saint George's Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named Saint George's District, which should comprise the township of Frankwell, with boundaries as follows:

From the River Severn, at the north eastern extremity of the garden belonging to the house called Harwood's Boat-house, in a north west direction, along the boundary of the said garden, and crossing the road leading from Shrewsbury to Pontesbury to a stone in Newton's nursery, dividing the parish of Saint Chad from Meole Brace; thence along the boundary of the said parishes of Saint Chad and Meole Brace, in a western and northern direction, to the road from Shrewsbury to Montgomery; thence, westward, along the said road to the point where the same is joined by the common boundary of the parishes of Saint Chad and Meole Brace; thence along the boundary between the parishes of Saint Chad and Meole Brace, in a south west and south east direction, to the first-mentioned road from Shrewsbury to Pontesbury; thence, south westwardly, along the Pontesbury road to the corner of a garden at the eastern extremity of the township of Crow Meole; thence along the northern side of the said garden, and north westwardly along the boundary between the townships of Frankwell and Crow Meole, to the before-mentioned Montgomery road; thence across the said road, and north westwardly along a lane leading to lands of Robert Burton, Esq. to a stone in the boundary between the parishes of Saint Chad and Saint Julian; thence, north eastwardly, south westwardly, and northwardly, along the common boundary of the parishes of Saint Chad and Saint Julian to the Holyhead road, across the said road, and northwardly along a watercourse called the Monk Eye Rill, to the point at which the townships of Frankwell, Crow Meole, and Shelton meet; thence, eastwardly and northwardly, along the boundary between the said townships of Frankwell and Crow Meole to the River Severn; thence following the course of the River Severn to the point first described, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan to the said representation annexed, and therein coloured pink:

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop hath signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty in His royal wisdom shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

THIS is to notify, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the registering and securing of charitable donations," a memorial or statement of the Herberts and Wykeam Charity to the Poor of the parish of Kingsey, in the counties of Oxford and Buckingham, or one of them, hath been duly registered in my office, situate in the city of Oxford, in the county of Oxford; and the objects of such charity are such poor persons of the said parish of Kingsey as shall constantly attend the public worship of God in the parish church of Kingsey aforesaid.—Dated this 10th day of January 1837.

John M. Davenport, Clerk of the Peace of the county of Oxford.

BRITISH GUIANA:

District of Demerara and Essequibo.

PURSUANT to an Order of his Honour Jeffery Hart Bent, Chief Justice of British Guiana, bearing date the 21st day of October 1836;

I, the undersigned, Provost Marshal of British Guiana aforesaid, in the name and behalf of George Booker and Henry Richards, inhabitants of the district of Demerara and Essequibo, in British Guiana, deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of John Cream, an inhabitant of said district, now deceased, do hereby, by edict, cite all known and unknown creditors in Europe, of the said John Cream, deceased, and his estate and effects (Boedel), to appear in person, or by their Attorney, at the Roll-Court for the district of Demerara and Essequibo, in British Guiana aforesaid, to be holden at the Court-House, in the Guiana Public-buildings, in George-town, in the month of June 1837, in order then and there to render their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form, against the estate (Boedel) of the said John Cream, late an inhabitant of said colony, now deceased.

Whereas in default of which the non-appears will be proceeded against according to law.

Marshal's-office, George-town, Demerara and Essequibo, 18th of November 1836.

T. C. HAMMILL, Provost Marshal.

Valuable Estate, at Hook, near Goole, in the West Riding of Yorkshire.

NO to be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Exchequer, made in a cause of Garth against Earnshaw, with the approbation of Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in ten lots, on Monday the 20th day of February 1837, at four o'clock in the afternoon, at the Aire and Calder Commercial Inn, in Goole;

The freehold and copyhold estate of Thomas Hutson, now or late of Goole aforesaid, situate in the township of Hook aforesaid, comprising about 60A. of rich potatoe land, a messuage or dwelling-house, a barn, two cottages, and other premises, in the respective occupations of Mr. James Robinson, Mr. Robert Chattam, and others.

The tenants will, on application, shew the property in their respective occupations.

The whole of the land is within about a mile of the port of Goole, and the railroads in contemplation to that part of the country, may probably much increase the value of the estate.

Particulars and conditions of sale, with plans annexed, may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Tanfield-court, Inner Temple, London; of Mr. James Scott, Solicitor, 15, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; of Messrs. Williamson and Hill, 4, Verulam-buildings, Gray's-inn, London; of Mr. Robert Plummer Weddall, Land-Agent, Goole; Mr. George Rawden Earnshaw, Solicitor, Howden; at the place of sale; and of Mr. Thomas Taylor, Solicitor, Wakefield.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Moscrop v. Doughney, it was, amongst other things, referred to Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state who were the next of kin of Henry Binckes, late of Little Newport-street, Soho, in the county of Middlesex, Leather Cutter (who died in October 1826), living at the time of his death, and who were the representatives of such of them, if any, as might be then dead:—Therefore, any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said Henry Binckes, living at his death, and, if any of them are since dead, the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are, on or before the 13th day of March 1837, to come in before the said Master, at his chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out his, her, or their claim, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Tite against Mann, the creditors of John Mann, late of Drayton, in the parish of Daventry, in the county of Northampton, Inhabitant and Seedsman, deceased (who died in or about the month of April 1834), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Mnton against Minton, the creditors of Thomas Minton, late of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford; Manufacturer of China and Earthenware, deceased (who died on or about the 29th day of May 1836), are, on or before the 11th day of February 1837, to come in and prove their debts before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Browne against Browne, the creditors of Augustus Browne, late of Devonshire-place, in the county of Middlesex, and of Wood-street, in the city of London, Gold and Silver Refiner, deceased (who died on or about the 19th day of January 1836), are, on or before the 15th day of February 1837, to come in and prove their debts before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Ann Ker is the plaintiff, and Sarah Cusac, otherwise Wilson, and others are defendants, the creditors of Thomas Cusac, late of Lower Thornhaugh-street, Bedford-square, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman (who died on the 13th day of February 1821), are to come in and prove their debts before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 14th day of February 1837, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Richard Little Miller and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Little and others are defendants, the creditors of Richard Miller, late of Kenton Lodge, near Harrow, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, and formerly of Mortimer-street, Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the same county, Tailor (who died in the month of November 1829), are to come in and prove their debts before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 14th day of February 1837, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Estcourt versus Massingberd, the creditors of Charles Burrell Massingberd, late of South Ormsby, in the county of Lincoln, Esq. (who died on the 6th of November 1835), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Williams against Bailey, and of an Order of the same Court, George Williams, late of Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, if living, and if dead, his personal representative or representatives, or next of kin, is or are to come in before Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out his or their claims under the said Decree, on or before the 3d day of March 1837, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said George Williams was the brother of John Williams, late of Arthur-street, Brompton, Plasterer, deceased, and was a common seaman in His Majesty's Navy, and paid off on the 18th of September 1815; he was afterwards employed as Chief Mate on board the brig Princess Charlotte, which was supposed to be lost on her voyage from New South Wales, in the year 1820.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Glazbrook against Glazbrook, the creditors of Henry Glazbrook, formerly of Bryanstone-square, but late of Cambridge-terrace, Regent's-park, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. (who died in the month of March 1835), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Roberts against Strong, the creditors of the Rev. George Strong, of Dyserth, in the county of Flint, Clerk (who died in the month of March 1836), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

John Pantling, formerly of Wimbledon, and late of the London-road, Kingston-upon-Thames, both in Surrey, Gardener and Labourer.

Benjamin Hart, formerly of No. 40, Jermyn-street, Saint James's, holding a situation as a Butler and Steward, then of No. 131, Jermyn-street aforesaid, both in Middlesex, out of business and employ, and late of the Lion and Lamb, Princes-street, Lambeth, Surrey, Licenced Victualler.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
