New South Hoe Mining Company.

No. 1, Freeman's-Court, Cornhill.

AT the half-yearly General Meeting of Proprietors, held at the Offices of the Company, on Saturday January 14, 1837, C. Toplis, Esq. in the Chair, It was resolved, "that it is the opinion of this Meeting, that the Committee should forthwith proceed to the forfeiture of the shares now in default on the first instalment."

Resolved, "that the Committee be requested to make another call of ten shillings per share, in order to meet the necessary expenditure in erecting a steam engine and machinery for the more effective working of the Mine."

In pursuance of the foregoing resolutions, the Committee do hereby give notice, that the shares, the numbers of which are enumerated in this advertisement, will be absolutely forfeited, and the holders thereof excluded from any advantage that may hereafter arise to this Company, unless the instalment of ten shillings per share, now due thereon, be paid to Messrs. Stone, Martin, and Co. 68, Lombard-street, within fourteen days from this date.

The Committee do also further give notice, that they have this day made a call of ten shillings per share, to be paid to the Bankers of the Company above-mentioned, on or before the 18th day of February next.
