The London Gazette.

Bubached by Authority.

From Chursday July 10. to Benday July 14. 1684.

Milan, June 28.

Wo thousand men are raising in this Country for the Service of the Republick of Genoua; and a Levy is making at the fame time of 2000 Swiffers. We are told from Turin, that they have advice from Lyon that 8000 Foot and 2000 Horfe were ordered for Catalonia, to reinforce the Army commanded by the Mareschal de Belfonds.

Genoua, June 26. On Sunday last the Senate received an anlwer to the Letter they had written to the King of Spain upon the prefent juncture of Affairs; And we are told that his Catholick Majefty does atlure them that he will affift them with all his Forces, and that he hath fent orders to Cadiz and other Ports of Spain, to fit out a confider-able Squadron of Men of War. By a Felucca ar-By a Felucca arrived here from the Couft of Catalonia, we have advice that the French Fleet commanded by Monficur du Quesne was in the Bay of Roses and that the French Army was encamped near the Sea fide not far from that place which it's believed they intend The Senate have given out Commiffito befiege. ions to raile men, and we are told they have re-folved to encrease the number of their Galleys to 35, and to give the command of them to Don Ambrosio Imperiale.

Venice, July 1. According to our last advices from Leffina, General Morofini was fill there, the Soldiers he was to take on board not being ready to embark; but they would be in two or three The Sieur Cornaro and the Sieur Molino days. are in the mean time failed for the Levant with the Ships and Galleys under their command, fo that we may expect in a thert time to have an account of The Popes Gilleys and fome action from them. Phole of Maltha are at Meffina, from whence they will not depart till the 15th of this month, to joyn We have adwith General Morofini at Corfu. vice from Dalmatia, that the Proveditor General Mocenigo was drawing his Troops together in order to attack Clin; and that in the mean time the Morlaques conti ue to spoil the Turkilh Territories with their Incurfions. The Prince of Parma General of the Foot in the Service of this State is at Verona, having almost compleated the Levy of 3000 Fost, which he hath undertaken to raile for the Republick. The Duke of Mantua is now here.

Lintz, July 9. Yesterday arrived here an Officer, who came Polt from Hungary, being fent by the Duke of Lorrain to acquaint the Emperor that the Imperial Army having, after the defeat of the Turks near Vaccia, advanced with great diligence to Pefi, and begun to butter the place as well with their Cannon as Bombes, the Turks in great far and diforder retired with the beft of their Goods to Buda, having fet fire to a great many Houles, as like wife to the Bridge to hinder the Christians from following them; but continue in the mean time encamped at Zons, and these entring immediately extinguished the their number encreases. Our Letters from Mu-fters of a place, which had the Enemy had Courage to defend it, might have coll both time and men. And that the Duke of Larrain having given the neceffary orders for the putting this impor-tant Post into a posture of defeace, marched with the Army to pais the Danube over a Bridge of Boats near the lile of St. Andrew, in order to befiege Buda. What was faid of Count Lefly's ha-ving burnt the Bridge of Effeck is not confirmed.

Francfort, July 7. The Letters we had by the last Poit from Fienna, Lintz, and several other places, give us an account of the defeat of 25000 Furks near Vaccia, of which 3000 were killed, and 1500 Janilaries taken Prifoners, with feven Pieces of Cannon: That the Viller of Buda and two That the or three Baffa's were among the flain. Imperialists in the heat of this Action attacked Vaccia, and made themselves Masters of it, the Turks yielding them lelves Prifoners; and that the Duke of Lorrain, to purfue this fuccefs, was marching towards Peft, and had lent orders to Count Verepi to advance thither with his little Fleet of Galleys and other Veffels, to burn the Bridge between Pefl and Buda, thereby to cut off the communication between these Places. We are told that the Emperor has written to the Electors and Princes of the Empire, concerning the Truce with France, which his Imperial Majefty fcems very much enclined to, that he may turn his whole Force against the Turks, Ratubonne, July 10. The Electoral Colledge having long fince accepted the Truce propoled by the most Christian King, the Colledge of the Princes have now likewife accepted it, upon condition it be General, Hamburgh, July 11. Two Companies of the Elector of Brandenburgh's Troops, arc, we are informed, entred into Domitz, according to what hath been agreed on between his Electoral Highnefs and the Princes of 'Lunenburg. They write from Gluckfrdt that two Danish Men of War which have on board a more than ordinary number of Soldi rs, fail d from thence the laft week for Heylighlant, with defign, as is believed, to land upon that Ifland. The King of Denmark continues at Itzeboe, whither the Magistrates of this City fent feveral Deputies to complement his Majelly upon The Letters from Poland his first arrival there. tell us, that their King was not yet gone from Fawarow to the Army; and that the Marquis de Bethune arrived there the, 13th of the last month from France.

Cologne, July 11. On Wednesday last an Exprefs arrived at Bonne, with Letters from the Emperor for the Elector of Cologne, and the next day he was difpatched back again with his Electoral Highneis's aniwer. The Deputies which the City of Liege fent fome days agone to the Elector of Cologne, are gone home again; and on Saturday last arived here other Deputies from the faid ( ity in their way to Bonne, but we know not what their Commission is. His Electoral Highnesses Troops continue in the mean time encamped at Zons, and Fire, and without the loss of a min became Ma- nick tell us, that it is believed the Elector of Baudritwill march with his Forces for Hungery, or att leaft that he will fe d thither the greateft part of them. From Lintz they write, that the Imperial Army was in rehing towards Peyl, to make use of the great Conflectiation that is among the Turks, and that having made themfelves Malters of that place, the Duke of Lorrain would again pais the Danube and befiege Buda; There is a report that Count Lefly hath burnt the Bridge of Effeck, having with him of Germans and Groats a Body of 15 or 16000 men, but it needs a Confirmation. The Fortifications of Trier being demolified, it's faid the Marefchal de Creauis returned to Maney.

the Marcichal de Crequi is returned to Nancy. Bruffels, Fuly 14. The French Army continues encamped at Leffines; and the Spanish Cavalry near this City. The Secur de Chanlay is expected here again, when the Courier he hath fent to Verfailles. is come back, to fet le the Contributions and to a ljuft matters concerning a Cellation of Hofti'ities. The Letters come in this day from Germany confirm the account we gave you in our laft of th great Victory which the Duke of Lorrain obtained the 27th of the laft month against the Turks near Vaccia, for which Te Deum was intended to be furg here this day, but the Marquis de Grana being taken ill with a Fit of the Cholick, it is deferred The Duke de Haure received by the till Sunday. last Spanith Ordinary a Commission to be, Serjeant General of Bataille, with an appointment of 500. Crowns a month as Grandce of Spein, and 300 more as General of Batallia. We hear that the Elector of Cologn's Troops are moving; and that the Troops of Munster and Brandenburg do likewife march towards the Rbin. We are told from Liege, that things are there in much difor der again, upon the old difference between the Magistrates and the Burghers.

Bruffels, Fuly 18. On Sunday laft very carly'in the Morning, the French Army decamped from Leffines: The Mareschal de Schomberg (who we bear is fince gone for Paria) marched with the Foot and the Artillery to Tournay; and greateft part of the Horle took their march towards the Meufe. We have advice that the Marcichal de Crequi hath likewife feparated his Army ; himfelf with part of it being retired to Merz; and the other Troops being marched towards Alface. Sunday in the Evening Monfieur Chanlay returned hither, and had y flerday in the Morning and in the Afternoon long Conferences with his Excellency (though he was in his Bed) and we are told that they have fettled the matter of the Contributions, From Germany they writ, that the Troops of Bavaria, Heffe Caffell, and Franconia, which were marching towards the Rbin, have been countermanded; and that it was believed these Troops will be fent for We have Hungary to joyn the Imperial Army. an account by Letters from Lintz which arrived this Morning, that the Duke of Lorrain has taken Peft without any opposition the Turks having upo the approach of the Christians abandoned and fet Fire to ir, but the Imperialitis followed th m fo close, that they entred the Town at the fame time that the Enemy quitted it, and overcome the Fire before it had done any great harm ; In the mean time the Janifaries who had the guard of the Bridge, to fecure their retreat, fet Fire to it, but the Chriflians preffed fo hard upon them, that they were forced to retire before they had ruined the Bridge, however they made it for the prefent ufclefs to the Imperialist; And that the Duke of Lorrain did employ the Prisoners he took at Faccia with a confiderable number of his Soldiers to fortifie Peft; and had caufed a Bridge of Boats to be laid over the Danube, which he intended to pais and to befiege Bada.

Durham, July 8. Yefterday the Mayor, Alder-me, and Common-Council of this City (according to a Vote lately paffed unanimoufly for furrend ing up their Charter into the haids of the Lord Bilhop of Durbam) did attend his Lordihip at his Pa ace in Aukland (8 Miles diltant from hence) and there made an actual furrender of the fame ; which was accepted with great refpect, the Lord Bifhoprelling them, that upon many years experience, he was well affured of their Loyalty, and therefore could willingly reflore their Charter again entire, without the leaft alteration, but to fecure it for the future, his Lordship was pleased to grant a new Charter, referving only to himself and his Suc-cessors in this See, the Power of approving and confirming the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common-Council, fo often as they should be elected. Afterwards they were all very kindly entertained at Dinner, and went away abundantly fatisfied.

Hampton-Court, July 11. The Right Honorable the Earl of Murray and the Earl of Middleton, His Majefly's Secretaries of State for the Kingdom of Scotland, were this day by His Majefly's command, Sworn of His most Honorable Privy Council here, and accordingly took their Places at the Board.

Advertisements.

- A Sermon Preached to the Gentlemen of Yorkfhire, at Bow Church in London, the 24th of June, 1684, being the day of their Yearly Feath. By Tho. Cartwright D. Dean of Riport, and Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majeliy. Sold by Tho. Flefher at the Angel and Crown in Sr. Paul's Church-yard.
- CF Youth's Intoduction to Trade, flowing them the way of making all manner of Receipts, Bills of Parcels, and Bills of Debt in molt Trades, Invoyces, account of Sales, and Account Currant, with an Appendix of Arithmetical Quetions to infruit them in the accalion of their Roles. Being an Exercife-Book chiefly defigned to imploy Youth at night and other vacant times during their continuance at the Writing School. Sold by Sam. Cronch at the Flower de Lys at the entrance of Popes-head Alley in Cornhill, London.

The Creditors of John Lindfay late of London Banker, and now beyond the Seas, are defired to meet at the Marine Coffee-house in Burchin lape, upon Wednefday the 23d of this Iultant July, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, and they are defired not to fail.

and they are defired not to fail. W Hereas' at the late Fire which happened in York-Buildings, there was taken our of the Houle of Mr. John Walbanke, and others, many Books, Pictures, Bedding, and other Furniture belonging to them, by Perfons unknown. Who have not yet returned the fame, or given notice where they are. The are to defire all Perfons that either have or know of any of the faid Books or Goods, that they will give notice ther soft to the faid Mr. John Walbanke at Derby Houle in Channel Row Weltwighter, and they fhall be well rewarded for the fame.

THefe are to give Notice to facl' who were ferved with Water from the late Water houfe in York-Buildings, that the Undertakers are making Providion for a fpeedy supply of their feveral Tenants: And that the faid Tenants will be supplied with Water as formerly in two months or soner, and the Undertakers do not expect any Rent for such time as their Tenants shall remain unsupplied.

A Negro Woman, fhort but thick, about Twenty years of age, with a Stuff Jacket buttoned down before, a Stuff Petricoat. black Shoes, and fad coloured sto kings, with holes in her Ears for Rings, a Cap with a blue Ribbon on her head, marked with a P and a B on her Back; Run away from her Miltreft on I riday night the Pourth Inftant: If any one can give tidings to Mr. Barthholomew Gracedicu at the Flying Horfe in Thames-Ineet nigh the Bridge, of the faid Negro, fo that fhe may be delivered to her Miltrefs again, fhell have 20 s. reward fhell have 40 s. reward S Tolen or itravid the 27th of June laft. out of a Field near. S the Church in the Parifh of Turin in Surrey a bright bay Gelding eight years old. above 14 hands high, a fmall Star or Blaze in his Forehead, and a fmall Horthoe burnt in bis near Shoulder, a white Fetlock on his off Leg behind, with all his paces: Whoever gives notice of the faid Gelding to Mr Tbo, Watfon at the Sugar Loaf in Blow-bladder-fitres at the Wett end of Cheap fide, thall have Five Pounds reward and their Charges borne.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the savoy, 1684.