TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1837.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of York consist of the county of York, except such parts thereof as it was proposed to include in the new diocese of Ripon; and that the diocese of Durham be increased by that part of the county of Northumberland called Hexhamshire, which was then in the diocese of York; and that the diocese of Ripon consist of that part of the county of York which was then in the diocese of Chester, of the deanry of Craven, and of such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and diocese of York; as lie to the westward of the following districts, viz. the liberty of the Ainsty, and the wapentakes of Barkston Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops as should be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged, and as should afford an adequate quantity of patronage to the bishops of the new sees; and that in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due enquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amounts as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds; and that if in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it should be deemed expedient to make the alteration required in any case by the subtraction or addition of any real estates, such real estates be transferred accordingly; and that the bishops who should, on the then existing vacancies, succeed to the sees of Durham and Ely, be relieved from the excess beyond their due proportion payable for first fruits, and that the residue of the sums due be paid by the Commissioners out of the surplus funds arising from those sees; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that a fit residence be provided for the Bishop of Ripon:

It is enacted, amongst other things that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively, members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further enquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the archbishopric of York and to the bishoprics of Durham and Ripon.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all places within the peculiar jurisdiction of Hexhamshire, now forming part of the diocese of York, but locally situate in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese of York, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Durham and of the archdeaconry of Northumberland, and shall be within the deanry of Newcastle-upon-Tyne ; and that all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects, within the limits of the said peculiar jurisdiction of Hexhamshire, shall be exempted and released from the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Edward Archbishop of York, and of his successors archbishops of York, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Durham, and of his successors bishops of Durham, for ever, and of the archdeacon of Northumberland for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the deanry of Craven, in the county and diocese of York, and in the archdeaconry of Craven, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Ripon ; and that all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits of the said deanry, and the present and every future rural dean thereof, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be exempted and released from all episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Archbishop, and of every future Archbishop of York, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of his successors bishops of Ripon, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that the parish of Craike, in the county, diocese, and archdeaconry of Durham, and subject to the peculiar jurisdiction of the dean and chapter of Durham, but insulated in the said county of York, and locally situate in the said diocese of York, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese and archdeaconry of Durham, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said diocese of York and of the archdeaconry of Cleveland; and that the church and the clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the said parish, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and of his successors bishops of Durham, and of the present and every future Archdeacon of Durham, and of the said dean and chapter, and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Archbishop of York, and of his successors archbishops of York, for ever: and under the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Cleveland for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that such parts of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Archbishop and of the see of York, as are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in part endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that all and every the manors or lordships, or reputed manors or lordships, messuages, farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with all their appurtenances, mines, minerals, royalties, franchises, liberties, privileges, rents, revenues, dues, and payments whatsoever, and all other the possessions and revenues of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, of which he is seised or possessed, or otherwise entitled to in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy in right of his see and bishopric, situate, lying, and being, issuing or in anywise arising or accruing, or to issue, arise, or accrue in right of his said see and bishopric in Howden and Howdenshire, Northallerton and Allertonshire, Borrowby, Brompton, Romanby, Osmotherly, Sowerby Grange, in the said county of York, and all the estate, right, title, and interest whatsoever which may now belong to or be vested in the said Edward Bishop of Durham in right of his said see and bishopric, of, in, or to the same hereditaments and premises, and every part thereof, shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors in the said see of Durham, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in further endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them also held and enjoyed in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon shall be entitled to all the rents, fines, profits, and emoluments which may have been already paid or become due from or in respect of such parts as aforesaid of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Bishop and see of Durham, or any or either of them, since the day of the decease of William late Bishop of Durham; and that the said Edward Bishop of Durham shall forthwith pay over to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon all such rents, fines, profits, and emoluments whatsoever which may have been paid to or on account of him the said Edward Bishop of Durham, after deducting therefrom all reasonable and proper expences incurred in the collection or receipt thereof.

And we further recommend and propose, that for the purposes of the said Act, and so as to leave to the Bishop of Durham for the time being, after such transfer as aforesaid, an average annual income of eight thousand pounds, the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham for the time being, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England, to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," the fixed annual sum of eleven thousand two hundred pounds, by half-yearly payments, on or before the first day of February and the first day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments shall be made on or before the first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Durham shall happen on any other day than the first day of February or first day of August, then the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the first day of February or first day of August preceding (as the case may be) to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that one third part only of the sum heretofore paid by bishops of Durham respectively, on account of first fruits, shall be paid by the said Edward Bishop of Durham; and that the remaining two third parts thereof shall be paid by us, out of the moneys so to be paid to our credit and account as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that the fees and stipends granted out of the revenues of the said see of Durham, by the last or any preceding bishop of Durham, to any officer of the county palatine of Durham, who held his office by patent at the time of the passing of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for separating the palatine jurisdiction of the county palatine of Durham from the bishopric of Durham," shall henceforward, notwithstanding the abolition of any such office by the said Act, be paid by us, out of that portion of the revenues of the said see of Durham which shall be so as aforesaid paid to our credit and account; and shall continue to be so paid during such period as the interest of such officer shall endure by virtue of such patent.

And we further recommend and propose, that the average annual income of the Bishop of Ripon for the time being shall be four thousand five hundred pounds; and that to this end the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon for the time being, shall receive, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be so as aforesaid paid to our credit and account, the fixed annual sum of two thousand two hundred pounds, by half-yearly payments, on the thirteenth day of April and the thirteenth day of October in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the thirteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and that whenever a vacancy in the said see of Ripon shall happen on any other day than the thirteenth day of April or the thirteenth day of October, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that until an episcopal house of residence shall be provided for the said see of Ripon, the said Charles

Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon for the time being, shall, out of the same moneys, and in like manner, and by like half-yearly payments, and subject to a like apportionment in case of a vacancy, receive the further fixed annual sum of five hundred pounds.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that the advowson and right of presentation of and to the vicarage of Birstall, in the county of York, now vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being, shall be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, and shall be vested in him and them in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the advowsons and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Birkby, and the vicarage of Os-motherley respectively, and the advowson and right of presentation and nomination to the vicarage and perpetual curacy of Leak with Nether Siltor, all in the county of York, and the advowson and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Craike, in the county of Durham, but insulated in the said county of York, all now vested in the Bishop of Durham for the time being, shall also be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, and shall be vested in him and them in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said archbishopric of York, or to the said bishoprics of Durham and Ripon respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto, and also to the schedule hereto annexed, set our common seal, this twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls, and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Lichfield consist of the counties of Stafford and Derby; and that the diocese of Worcester consist of the whole counties of Worcester and Warwick; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as may appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops, as shall be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal.

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, so soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the bishoprics of Lichfield and Coventry and Worcester.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert James Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole archdeaconry of Coventry, in the county of Warwick, now forming part of the diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to the diocese of Worcester.

And we further recommend and propose, that the remaining part of the said diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, and the see thereof, shall be called and known by the name of the Diocese and See of Lichfield; and that the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and his successors in the said see, shall be respectively called and styled Bishop of Lichfield: and that such alteration of name and style shall not prejudice or affect any right, privilege, or power which may now by law be exercised or enjoyed by the said bishop, by the name and style of Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said archdeaconry of Coventry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and of every future Bishop of Lichfield, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacon of Coventry shall be vested in the said Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the advowson and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Saint Philip, in the town of Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, with all rights, endowments, and privileges thereunto by law belonging, and the advowson, right of patronage and nomination, and of licensing the Minister or Perpetual Curate of Christ Church, in the same town and county, which are now respectively vested in the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be transferred to the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, and be vested in him and them in right of the see of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishoprics of Lichfield and Worcester respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council; now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the dioceses of Worcester and Lichfield respectively.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, January 21, 1837.

By order of the Board,

Henry Hill, Secretary.

Admiralty, January 21, 1837.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Messrs. Swain, Stevens, and Co. of 10, Whitehall, hath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46th Geo. 3, cap. 153, given me notice, dated the 18th instant, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorise certain persons, to be thereby incorporated, to construct a harbour, with proper docks, piers, quays, wharfs, jetties, breasts, and other necessary works and conveniences, at Trinity, in the parish of North Leith, and county of Edinburgh, according to a plan thereof deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Edinburgh.

John Barrow.

Guildhall, January 19, 1837.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £696, the remaining part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 17th of June 1830, and numbered 4; also the annual sum of £252, part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 23d day of July 1830, and numbered 5; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sums of £17400 and £6300, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £696 and £252, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sums of £696 and £252 will cease and determine; nevertheless such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sums of £17400 and £6300, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £696 and £252, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £696 and £252 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

Saint Pancras, Middlesex.

I HEREBY give you notice, that the Commissioners for paving, lighting, cleansing, and watering the south western district of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, will, on Monday the 24th day of April next, at their Office, No. 30, Howland-street, within the said district, between the hours of ten of the clock in the forenoon and twelve of the clock at noon of the same day, be ready to pay off and discharge the sum of three hundred pounds, being the amount of principal money secured by certain conveyances or assignments (Nos. 22, 35, and 36), of the rates levied by the said Commissioners upon the owners or occupiers of premises within the said district, together with the interest due thereon up to the said 24th day of April next, from which day interest on the said sum of three hundred pounds will cease and be no longer payable.—Dated this 23d day of January 1837.

*Robt. Cunningham, Clerk to the Commissioners.
To Miss Emma Moore, and Mrs. Elizabeth Miles Pinchback.*

CONTRACT FOR CEMENT STONE.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, January 18, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering on the Wharf at His Majesty's Dock-yard at Sheerness,

600 Tons of Harwich Cement Stone, known by the name of Manor Stone, and 200 Tons of Sheppy Cement Pebbles.

The Harwich stone to be delivered at the rate of not less than 120 tons per month, and the Sheppy pebbles at the rate of not less than 40 tons per month.

Parties may tender for either or both of the articles.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.
