AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said

Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of York consist of the county of York, except such parts thereof as it was proposed to include in the new diocese of Ripon; and that the diocese of Durham be increased by that part of the county of Northumberland called Hexhamshire, which was then in the diocese of York; and that the diocese of Ripon consist of that part of the county of York which was then in the diocese of Chester, of the deanry of Craven, and of such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and diocese of York, as lie to the westward of the following districts, viz. the liberty of the Ainsty, and the wapentakes of Barkston Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops as should be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged, and as should afford an adequate quantity of patronage to the bishops of the new sees; and that in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due enquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the, Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amounts as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds; and that if in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it should be deemed expedient to make the alteration required in any case by the subtraction or addition of any real estates, such real estates be transferred accordingly; and that the bishops who should, on the then existing vacancies, succeed to the sees of Durham and Ely, be relieved from the excess beyond their due proportion payable for first fruits, and that the residue of the sums due be paid by the Commissioners out of the surplus funds arising from those sees; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that a fit residence be provided for the Bishop of Ripon:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England; and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as

should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further enquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared; and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the archbishopric of York and to the bishoprics of Durham and Ripon.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all places within the peculiar jurisdiction of Hexhamshire, now forming part of the diocese of York, but locally situate in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese of York, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Durham and of the archdeaconry of Northumberland, and shall be within the deanry of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and that all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects, within the limits of the said peculiar jurisdiction of Hexhamshire, shall be exempted and released from the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Edward Archbishop of York, and of his successors archbishops of York, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Durham, and of his successors bishops of Durham, for ever, and of the archdeacon of Northumberland for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the deanry of Craven, in the county and diocese of York, and in the archdeaconry of Craven, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Ripon; and that all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits of the said deanry, and the present and every future rural dean thereof, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be exempted and released from all episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Archbishop, and of every future Archbishop of York, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of his successors bishops of Ripon, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that the parish of Craike, in the county, diocese, and archdeaconry of Durham, and subject to the peculiar jurisdiction of the dean and chapter of Durham, but insulated in the said county of York, and locally situate in the said diocese of York, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese and archdeaconry of Durham, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said diocese of York and of the archdeaconry of Cleveland; and that the church and the clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the said parish, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and of his successors bishops of Durham, and of the present and every future Archdeacon of Durham, and of the said dean and chapter, and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Archbishop of York, and of his successors archbishops of York, for ever: and under the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Cleveland for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that such parts of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Archbishop and of the see of York, as are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in part endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that all and every the manors or lordships, or reputed manors or lordships, messuages, farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with all their appurtenances, mines, minerals, royalties, franchises, liberties, privileges, rents, revenues, dues, and payments whatsoever, and all other the possessions and revenues of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, of which he is seised or possessed, or otherwise entitled to in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy in right of his see and bishopric, situate, lying, and being, issuing or in anywise arising or accruing, or to issue, arise, or accrue in right of his said see and bishopric in Howden and Howdenshire, Northallerton and Allertonshire, Borrowby, Brompton, Romanby, Osmotherly, Sowerby Grange, in the said county of York, and all the estate, right, title, and interest whatsoever which may now belong to or be vested in the said Edward Bishop of Durham in right of his said see and bishopric, of, in, or to the same hereditaments and premises, and every part thereof, shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors in the said see of Durham, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in further endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them also held and enjoyed in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon shall be entitled to all the rents, fines, profits, and emoluments which may have been already paid or become due from or in respect of such parts as aforesaid of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Bishop and see of Durham, or any or either of them, since the day of the decease of William late Bishop of Durham; and that the said Edward Bishop of Durham shall forthwith pay over to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon all such rents, fines, profits, and emoluments whatsoever which may have been paid to or on account of him the said Edward Bishop of Durham, after deducting therefrom all reasonable and proper expences incurred in the collection or receipt thereof.

And we further recommend and propose, that for the purposes of the said Act, and so as to leave to the Bishop of Durham for the time being, after such transfer as aforesaid, an average annual income of eight thousand pounds, the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham for the time being, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England, to an account intitled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," the fixed annual sum of eleven thousand two hundred pounds, by half-yearly payments, on or before the first day of February and the first day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments shall be made on or before the first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Durham shall happen on any other day than the first day of February or first day of August, then the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the first day of February or first day of August preceding (as the case may be) to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that one third part only of the sum heretofore paid by bishops of Durham respectively, on account of first fruits, shall be paid by the said Edward Bishop of Durham; and that the remaining two third parts thereof shall be paid by us, out of the moneys so to be paid to our credit and account as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that the fees and stipends granted out of the revenues of the said see of Durham, by the last or any preceding bishop of Durham, to any officer of the county palatine of Durham, who held his office by patent at the time of the passing of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of your Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for separating the palatine jurisdiction of the county palatine of Durham from the bishopric of Durham," shall henceforward, notwithstanding the abolition of any such office by the said Act, be paid by us, out of that portion of the revenues of the said see of Durham which shall be so as aforesaid paid to our credit and account; and shall continue to be so paid during such period as the interest of such officer shall endure by virtue of such patent.

And we further recommend and propose, that the average annual income of the Bishop of Ripon for the time being shall be four thousand five hundred pounds; and that to this end the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon for the time being, shall receive, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be so as aforesaid paid to our credit and account, the fixed annual sum of two thousand two hundred pounds, by half-yearly payments, on the thirteenth day of April and the thirteenth day of October in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the thirteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; and that whenever a vacancy in the said see of Ripon shall happen on any other day than the thirteenth day of April or the thirteenth day of October, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that until an episcopal house of residence shall be provided for the said see of Ripon, the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon for the time being, shall, out of the same moneys, and in like manner, and by like half-yearly payments, and subject to a like apportionment in case of a vacancy, receive the further fixed annual sum of five hundred pounds.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that the advowson and right of presentation of and to the vicarage of Birstall, in the county of York, now vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being, shall be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, and shall be vested in him and them in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the advowsons and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Birkby, and the vicarage of Osmotherley respectively, and the advowson and right of presentation and nomination to the vicarage and perpetual curacy of Leak with Nether Silton, all in the county of York, and the advowson and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Craie, in the county of Durham, but insulated in the said county of York, all now vested in the Bishop of Durham for the time being, shall also be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, and shall be vested in him and them in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said archbishopric of York, or to the said bishoprics of Durham and Ripon respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto, and also to the schedule hereto annexed, set our common seal, this twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise and provide for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on such respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Lichfield consist of the counties of Stafford and Derby; and that the diocese of Worcester consist of the whole counties of Worcester and Warwick; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as may appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops, as shall be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, so soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal

"dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the bishoprics of Lichfield and Coventry and Worcester.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert James Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole archdeaconry of Coventry, in the county of Warwick, now forming part of the diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to the diocese of Worcester.

And we further recommend and propose, that the remaining part of the said diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, and the see thereof, shall be called and known by the name of the Diocese and See of Lichfield; and that the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and his successors in the said see, shall be respectively called and styled Bishop of Lichfield: and that such alteration of name and style shall not prejudice or affect any right, privilege, or power which may now by law be exercised or enjoyed by the said bishop, by the name and style of Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said archdeaconry of Coventry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and of every future Bishop of Lichfield, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacon of Coventry shall be vested in the said Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the advowson and right of presentation of, and to the rectory of Saint Philip, in the town of Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, with all rights, endowments, and privileges thereunto by law belonging, and the advowson, right of patronage and nomination, and of licensing the Minister or Perpetual Curate of Christ Church, in the same town and county, which are now respectively vested in the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be transferred to the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, and be vested in him and them in right of the see of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishoprics of Lichfield and Worcester respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council; now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the dioceses of Worcester and Lichfield respectively.

Office of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, December 21, 1836.

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have appointed Charles Knight Murray, of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister at Law, to be their Treasurer.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to William Crofts, of New Radford, in the county of Nottingham, Machine-Maker, bearing date at Westminster the 20th day of November 1834, for "certain Improvements in certain Machinery for making Figured or Ornamental Bobbin Net, or what is commonly called Bobbin Net Lace."

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to His Majesty's Solicitor-General, for leave to correct certain verbal and other inaccuracies and erroneous references contained in the specification of the said letters patent.—Dated this 26th day of January 1837.

J. H. Watson, 19, King's Arms-yard, London, Solicitor to the Petitioner.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to William Crofts, of New Radford, in the county of Nottingham, Machine-Smith, bearing date at Westminster the 18th day of December 1832, for "certain Improvements in certain Machinery for making Lace or Net, commonly called Bobbin Net Lace."

NOTICE is hereby given, that two several petitions have been presented to His Majesty's Solicitor-General, for leave to enter with the Clerk of the Patents a disclaimer of so much of the said William Crofts' invention as relates to the applying of the outermost blades of double bladed lockers in rotative machines, for the purpose of making breadths in such manner upon their locker bars that the said outermost blades will be capable of folding down towards or against the innermost blades of the same locker bars, whereby the edges of the said outermost blades, when so folded down, will not reach out far enough from the centre of motion of the locker bars to intercept the teeth of the carriages, at that period of the ordinary operation of double bladed lockers in Moley's machines when the turn-again has to be performed, for the purpose of making breadths. And also for leave to correct certain verbal and other inaccuracies and erroneous references contained in the specification of the letters patent.—Dated this 26th day of January 1837.

J. H. Watson, 19, King's Arms-yard, London, Solicitor the Petitioner.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Court of Proprietors of the Licenced Victuallers and General Fire and Life Assurance Company will be held at the London Tavern, Bishopsgate-street, in the city of London, on Monday the 20th day of February 1837, at twelve for one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, for the under-mentioned purposes:

To report to the Proprietors the progress of the Company; and the Court will be made special, viz.

First—To elect a Director in the place of John Reay, Esq. who has resigned.

Secondly—To consider the propriety of empowering the Directors to apply for and obtain an Act of Parliament or Charter of Incorporation, or Letters Patent in the nature of a Charter of Incorporation, for enabling the Company to sue and be sued by and in the name of the Chairman of the Company, or any Officer thereof whom the Board of Directors may select, and for such other objects and purposes as the Board of Directors may think calculated for better enabling the Company to carry into effect all or any of the objects of the deed of settlement. And

Thirdly—To confirm or reject two resolutions of a Special Board of Directors, the one being to empower the Directors present at an Extraordinary Board, called for that purpose, to supply all vacancies which prior to the General Court to be held in February 1841, shall occur among the Directors and the Members of the General Committee respectively for the time being of the Company; and the other of such resolutions being to alter the times of commencement and payment to the Proprietors of the interest upon the amount of capital actually subscribed by them; and on other special affairs. — Dated this 24th day of January 1837.

By order of the Directors,
David Wm. Wire, R. Carpenter, Smith, Solicitors.

at one or at several times, either wholly or partly for ready money, or for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking any security of any kind for payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, as to the said assignees shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the chief and other yearly rents, subject to the payment of which the same freehold and leasehold plots of land were conveyed and assigned to the said bankrupt; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and to whom the said bankrupt has executed mortgages of certain parts of his freehold and leasehold estate, the particulars of which will be stated at such meeting, and also with certain other persons, who will be named at such meeting, and who hold the title deeds, evidences, and writings relating to portions of the freehold and leasehold estate of the said bankrupt, the particulars of which will be stated at such meeting, as and by way of liens or equitable mortgages, or with any or either of such legal and equitable mortgagees, in a sale or sales of such freehold and leasehold estates, or any part or parts thereof, to be conducted by and under the management of the said assignees; and to all or any of such sale or sales being made by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and in one or more lot or lots, at one time and place, or several times and places, and either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, or partly for ready money and partly for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking security for payment of the purchase moneys, or any parts thereof; and to all or any of such sale or sales being made either to the said parties claiming to be legal or equitable mortgagees, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, with power to buy in all or any part of such estates and property, and again to offer the same for sale, with the like powers and authority, without being answerable or liable for any loss, deprivation, or diminution in price or value which may arise or occur, or otherwise; and to the said assignees allowing and permitting such legal and equitable mortgagees respectively to receive the balance of the respective purchase moneys arising from such sale or sales, after paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expenses of and attending such sales, and the completion of the respective purchases, in part satisfaction of their respective debts and interest; and to the said assignees allowing such legal and equitable mortgagees respectively to prove upon the estate of the said bankrupt for the balances due to them respectively, after giving credit for such purchase moneys respectively; and to the said assignees making and entering into such other agreements or arrangements with such legal and equitable mortgagees respectively, respecting their respective mortgages, and the sales of the properties and appropriation of the proceeds, as they the said assignees may be advised and think most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing suits in equity against certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, or their representatives, and all others whom it may concern, for the purpose of foreclosing the equity of redemption of and in certain freehold and leasehold estates and property, the particulars of which will be stated at such meeting, mortgaged to the said bankrupt, or for compelling sales thereof, or of any part thereof; and to the said assignees commencing, taking, and prosecuting such other proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy as they may be advised, against the respective mortgagors, and their representatives and tenants, for obtaining possession of the property mortgaged, and the payment of the mortgaged moneys and interest, as they the said assignees may be advised; or to the said assignees selling and disposing of the property mortgaged under and by virtue of the trusts or powers contained in the respective mortgage deeds and in manner therein mentioned; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate, to certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, the various sums of money which will be then stated, and for which such persons respectively claim liens upon certain title deeds, evidences, and writings relating to portions of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, in order to obtain possession of such deeds, evidences, and writings; and to the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, any lien or claim which any other person or persons may have on the real or personal estate, goods, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, or on any title deeds, evidences, or writings relating thereto, in order to obtain the possession and control thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, employing an agent or collector to collect the rents of the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estates, and superintend and manage the same, and paying him or them such allowance or remuneration, out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his or their time, trouble, and services as to the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable; also to the said assignees employing a surveyor or surveyors, or other proper person or persons, to plan and allot the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estate, or any part or parts thereof, for sale, on chief rents or otherwise, and to sell and dispose thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, upon chief rent, and to their paying him or them such allowance or remuneration, out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his or their time, trouble, and services as to the them the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable; also to sanction, allow, and confirm the employment by the said assignees of an accountant to investigate and make up the books, affairs, and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to their continuing the employment of such accountant for those purposes, and to act in the collection of the debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and in the superintendance and management of the affairs of the said bankrupt, and the sale and disposition of his stock and effects, and to their paying such accountant such allowance or remuneration, out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his time, trouble, and services as to the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable; also to sanction, allow, and confirm the acts and proceedings of the provisional assignee from the time of his appointment up to the choice of assignees, and the acts and proceedings of the assignees from the time of their appointment up to the time of such meeting, in carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt for the benefit of the creditors and the general management and superintendance of his estate, and all sales, purchases, receipts, and payments made by the provisional assignee and assignees in and about the carrying on of such business and management and superintendance of the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for and taking less than the whole of any debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate which they may think desperate, bad, dubious, or doubtful, in full satisfaction and discharge of the amount of such debts, and to their releasing any such debtors therefrom, and to their giving time to any debtor or debtors for payment, by instalments, or otherwise, without taking security, and to their executing any deeds of compositions, assignments, inspection, letters of licence or release between any debtors to the estate and their creditors, and signing any bankrupt's certificate; and to the said assignees commencing and prosecuting actions at law against any debtors to the estate, for the recovery of such debts, and settling, arranging, and agreeing the same actions upon such terms and conditions as they the said assignees shall think proper; and to their referring and submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences which may arise between them and any person or persons whomsoever, in respect of or relating to or concerning all or any of the matters aforesaid, or to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, in any manner howsoever; and to the said assignees giving their assent to any creditors of the said bankrupt who may hold bills of exchange or notes upon which other persons than the said bankrupt are liable, accepting compositions from such other persons so liable as aforesaid, and to their executing any deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors, composition deeds or letters of licence between such other persons so liable and their creditors; or to their giving time for payment of any such bills by instalments, or otherwise, and either with or without security, or to any such creditors of the said bankrupt entering into any other arrangements with such other persons so liable as aforesaid, respecting the payment of the bills upon which they are liable, as they the said assignees shall think fit, without prejudice to such creditors' rights of proof under the said fiat, in any manner howsoever; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, carrying on the business of the said bankrupt, either for a period to be then agreed upon, or for such time as the said assignees shall think fit, and for such purposes, to the said assignees employing the said bankrupt to manage, superintend, and carry on such business, and paying him therefore, out of his estate and effects, either a yearly or other salary to be then agreed upon, or such allowance and compensation as to the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable, and permitting him, whilst he shall be so employed, to have the use of his household goods and furniture free of any charge whatsoever; and in case of the said assignees being authorised to carry on such trade, then to authorise and empower the said assignees to employ all such clerks, servants, and work people, and make all such purchases of goods and materials as may be requisite or necessary for that purpose, and pay the wages of such clerks, servants, and work people, and for such goods and materials, and also the rent, rates, and taxes of the premises upon which the business shall be carried on, and all other expences incidental to the carrying on of such trade out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to authorise and empower the said assignees, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, to sell upon credit, in the usual course of business, his stock in trade and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees prosecuting, bringing, commencing, defending or opposing, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, any petitions in bankruptcy, suits in equity, or actions at law, application to the Commissioners, or any other proceedings, at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, which may be necessary or be presented, made, filed, or brought by any person or persons whomsoever, for the protection, recovery, getting or obtaining any part or parts of the said bankrupt's real and personal estate and effects, or for any sale or sales thereof; and to the said assignees abandoning and giving up any such proceedings, opposition, or defence, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees shall deem most conducive to the interests of the said bankrupt's creditors; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, by public auction or by private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or at a valuation, or otherwise, in one or more lot or lots, and at one time and place, or several times and places, and for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, or partly for ready money and partly for payment on a future day or days, and either with or without taking any security for the payment of the purchase moneys, or any part thereof, and with or without being answerable or liable to make good any loss which may occur, the whole of the unmortgaged freehold, leasehold, and copyhold estates, chief and other rents and property of the said bankrupt, and also his stock in trade, fixtures, household goods and furniture, and other his personal estate and effects whatsoever, with power to buy in all or any part or parts thereof at any such sale or sales, and again to offer the same for sale, and sell and dispose thereof in manner, and with the like powers and authorities as aforesaid, without being answerable or liable for any diminution, loss, or depreciation in price, value, or otherwise, which may arise or occur; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees ratifying, confirming, carrying into effect, and completing or otherwise rescinding and annulling certain contracts made by the said bankrupt before his bankruptcy, with certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and the particulars of the contract then stated and explained, for the sales and purchase of plots of land, part of the said bankrupt's estate, upon and subject to chief rents, and making and executing the proper and necessary deeds and documents for vesting such plots of land in the respective purchasers, subject to the rents contracted to be paid for the same, and afterwards selling and disposing of such chief rents in manner and with the like powers and authorities aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing actions at law against certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, or any of them, for the recovery of certain title deeds belonging to the said bankrupt, in the possession of such persons, and which they refuse to deliver up to the assignees; and generally to take into consideration the state and situation of the estate, property, and affairs of the said bankrupt, and direct the said assignees in which manner they shall act in the management, disposal, and getting in of the said bankrupt's affairs, estate, property and effects; and to give the said assignees all such other proper and necessary powers as may be required for those, and all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and also on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Forster, John Forster, and William Forster, of the city of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, Bankers, Partners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 21st day of February next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Crown and Mitre Coffee-House, in the said city, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees being authorised to compound certain debts owing to the said bankrupts' estate by persons to be named at the said meeting, or take such other proceedings to obtain payment thereof, as may be deemed advisable; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting one or more actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, against debtors of the said bankrupts' estate, or other persons holding any property or effects belonging thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, giving time to, and taking security from, any debtor or debtors of the said bankrupts' estate for the payment of, or relating to, any debt or debts; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the said estate as to them shall seem expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 26th day of January 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
