By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled " An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if we shall think fit, by advice of Our Privy Council, to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained : provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered :

And whereas, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town and parish of Ramsgate, wherein there are three acting justices of the peace, who are appointed by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, one of whom only constantly resides there, is a limb of the town and port of Sandwich, one of the Cinque Ports, and within the liberties thereof, which latter place contains only about three thousand souls :

And further, that the town of Ramsgate is at present governed by two local Acts, made and passed in the twenty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one intituled " An Act for the better paving, cleansing, repairing, lighting, cleaning, and watching the highway, streets and lanes of and in the vill of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for erecting a market-house and holding a public market in the said vill ;" and the other intituled " An Act to enlarge the powers of the last-mentioned Act ;" which said two several Acts, from the lapse of time, the greatly increased population, and extent of the town (which, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, was, by an Act of Parliament, separated from the parish of Saint Lawrence, and made a distinct parish), and its altered circumstances, are wholly insufficient for the purpose intended and therein set forth :

And further, that the undersigned, most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, are desirous of being incorporated by charter, agreeably to the provisions of the first recited Act, inasmuch as the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate amounts, at present, to about nine thousand souls, and during a great part of the year, very many strangers resort thereto :
