The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, January 31, 1837.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty to acquaint you, that His Majesty continues to receive from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition ; and His Majesty trusts that the experience of the blessings which peace confers upon nations will tend to confirm and secure the present tranquillity.

His Majesty laments that the civil contest which has agitated the Spanish Monarchy has not yet been brought to a close ; but His Majesty has continued to afford to the Queen of Spain that aid which, by the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, His Majesty engaged to give, if it should become necessary ; and His Majesty rejoices that His co-operating force has rendered useful assistance to the troops of Her Catholic Majesty.

Events have happened in Portugal, which for a time threatened to disturb the internal peace of that country. His Majesty ordered, in consequence, a temporary augmentation of His naval force in the Tagus, for the more effectual protection of the persons and property of His subjects resident in Lisbon ; and the Admiral commanding His Majesty's squadron was authorised, in case of need, to afford protection to the person of the Queen of Portugal, without, however, interfering in those constitutional questions which divided the conflicting parties.

His Majesty has directed the reports of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the state of the province of Lower Canada to be laid before you, and has ordered us to call your attention to that important subject.

We have also in charge to recommend for your serious deliberation those provisions which will be submitted to you for the improvement of the law and of the administration of justice ; assuring you that His Majesty's anxiety for the accomplishment of these objects remains undiminished.

We are enjoined to convey to you His Majesty's desire that you should consult upon such further measures as may give increased stability to the Established Church, and promote concord and goodwill.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates of the year have been prepared with every desire to meet the exigencies of the public service in the spirit of a wise economy. His Majesty has directed them to be laid before you without delay. The increase of the revenue has hitherto more than justified the expectations created by the receipts of former years.

His Majesty recommends an early renewal of your inquiries into the operation of the Act permitting the establishment of Joint Stock Banks. The best security against the mismanagement of banking affairs must ever be found in the capacity and integrity of those who are entrusted with the administration of them, and in the caution and the prudence of the public; but no legislative regulation should be omitted which can increase and ensure the stability of establishments upon which commercial credit so much depends.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has more especially commanded us to bring under notice the state of Ireland, and the wisdom of adopting all such measures as may improve the condition of that part of the United Kingdom. His Majesty recommends to your early consideration the present constitution of the municipal corporations of that country, the laws which regulate the collection of tithes, and the difficult but pressing question of establishing some legal provision for the poor, guarded by prudent regulations, and by such precautions against abuse as your experience and knowledge of the subject enable you to suggest.

His Majesty commits these great interests into your hands, in the confidence that you will be able to frame laws in accordance with the wishes of His Majesty and the expectations of His people. His Majesty is persuaded, that should this hope be fulfilled, you will not only contribute to the welfare of Ireland, but strengthen the law and constitution of these realms, by securing their benefits to all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

By the KING,

A. PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if we shall think fit, by advice of Our Privy Council, to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town and parish of

Ramsgate, wherein there are three acting justices of the peace, who are appointed by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, one of whom only constantly resides there, is a limb of the town and port of Sandwich, one of the Cinque Ports, and within the liberties thereof, which latter place contains only about three thousand souls:

And further, that the town of Ramsgate is at present governed by two local Acts, made and passed in the twenty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one intituled "An Act for the better paving, cleansing, repairing, lighting, cleaning, and watching the highway, streets and lanes of and in the vill of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for erecting a market-house and holding a public market in the said vill;" and the other intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of the last-mentioned Act;" which said two several Acts, from the lapse of time, the greatly increased population, and extent of the town (which, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, was, by an Act of Parliament, separated from the parish of Saint Lawrence, and made a distinct parish), and its altered circumstances, are wholly insufficient for the purpose intended and therein set forth:

And further, that the undersigned, most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, are desirous of being incorporated by charter, agreeably to the provisions of the first recited Act, inasmuch as the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate amounts, at present, to about nine thousand souls, and during a great part of the year, very many strangers resort thereto:

And further, that the said town of Ramsgate has an extensive harbour for the accommodation and protection of English and Foreign ships, and their crews, who frequently take shelter there, in great numbers, to the amount, sometimes, of between three and four hundred sail of vessels:

And further, that the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate, being oftentimes greatly increased, from the several causes above related, the petitioners most humbly beg to shew the necessity for a strong and vigilant government, such as the powers conferred by the Municipal Corporation Act would furnish them with, thereby enabling them to regulate and maintain the peace and quiet of their town, and to afford protection and security to the lives and property of all:

And further, that the petitioners, being also desirous of having a commission of the peace assigned to their town, for the convenient and speedy administration of justice, humbly beg to show that to subject them to the authority of justices of the peace to be assigned to a town (Sandwich) in the one case, seven miles distant, and in the other (Dover), twenty-one miles distant, would be a great grievance and inconvenience, putting them to much expence and trouble:

The petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that under the circumstances above stated, and from the increasing population and prosperity of the town of Ramsgate, We would be graciously pleased, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to grant them a charter of incorporation under the powers and provisions of the said recited Act:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at our Court at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if We shall think fit by advice of Our Privy Council to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter the powers and provisions in the said Act contained; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published, by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, is not a town corporate; but the petitioners submit, that it is expedient that the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, should be incorporated; the petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that We will be pleased, under the provisions of the said recited Act, to grant to the inhabitants of the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, a separate charter of incorporation; and that We will also be pleased, by such charter, to extend to the said inhabitants within such district, as shall or may be set forth in Our Royal Charter, the several powers and provisions in the said Act contained:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at Our Court, at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Llanelly, in the county of Carnarvon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the borough of Llanelly contains a population of four thousand and upwards, and that it is rapidly increasing in population, commerce, and wealth, and that it will in a short period be one of the most important commercial towns in the principality: and further, that the said borough of Llanelly is a borough by prescription, with a portreeve and an unlimited number of burgesses: and further, that the said portreeve and burgesses have never been invested with any corporate powers, any further than the management of the property belonging to the said burgesses; the petitioners, therefore, pray that We would be graciously pleased to grant unto them a charter of incorporation, that they may be thereby enabled to participate in all the powers and provisions of the said recited Act:

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto the Right Honourable Francis William Earl of Charlemont, K. P. and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Charlemont, of Charlemont, in the county of Armagh; with remainder, in default of such issue male, to the Honourable Henry Caulfeild, of Hackly, in the said county of Armagh (brother of the said Francis William Earl of Charlemont), and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

Whitehall, January 30, 1837.

The King taking into His royal consideration that, upon the decease of Thomas Baron Kingsale, of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, the title and dignity of Baron Kingsale devolved upon his nephew John-Stapleton, now Baron Kingsale, as eldest son of Michael de Courcy, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Michael de Courcy), Captain in the Royal Navy, deceased, who was heir presumptive to the said barony; but that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sister of the said John-Stapleton Baron Kingsale cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their father, Michael de Courcy, had survived his brother, Thomas Baron Kingsale, and succeeded to the said title and dignity; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that William Almericus de Courcy, of Salcombe, in the county of Devon, Esq. and Catharine Savery de Lisle, wife of Francis Bernard Beamish, of the city of Cork, Esq. the brother and sister of John-Stapleton, now Baron Kingsale, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, Michael de Courcy, had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Kingsale:

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 31, 1837.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Reverend James Edward Austen, of Scarlets, in the parish of Wargrave, in the county of Berks, Clerk, His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a direction in the last will and testament of Jane Leigh Perrot, of Scarlets aforesaid, widow, deceased, henceforth take and use the surname of Leigh, in addition to and after that of Austen, and also bear the arms of Leigh; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.
