By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if we shall think fit, by advice of Our Privy Council, to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town and parish of Ramsgate, wherein there are three acting justices of the peace, who are appointed by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, one of whom only constantly resides there, is a limb of the town and port of Sandwich, one of the Cinque Ports, and within the liberties thereof, which latter place contains only about three thousand souls:

And further, that the town of Ramsgate is at present governed by two local Acts, made and passed in the twenty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one intituled "An Act for the better paving, cleansing, repairing, lighting, cleaning, and watching the highway, streets and lanes of and in the vill of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for erecting a market-house and holding a public market in the said vill;" and the other intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of the last-mentioned Act;" which said two several Acts, from the lapse of time, the greatly increased population, and extent of the town (which, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, was, by an Act of Parliament, separated from the parish of Saint Lawrence, and made a distinct parish), and its altered circumstances, are wholly insufficient for the purpose intended and therein set forth:

And further, that the undersigned, most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, are desirous of being incorporated by charter, agreeably to the provisions of the first recited Act, inasmuch as the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate amounts, at present, to about nine thousand souls, and during a great part of the year, very many strangers resort thereto:

And further, that the said town of Ramsgate has an extensive harbour for the accommodation and protection of English and Foreign ships, and their crews, who frequently take shelter there, in great numbers, to the amount, sometimes, of between three and four hundred sail of vessels:

And further, that the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate, being oftentimes greatly increased, from the several causes above related, the petitioners most humbly beg to shew the necessity for a strong and vigilant government, such as the powers conferred by the Municipal Corporation Act would furnish them with; thereby enabling them to regulate and maintain the peace and quiet of their town, and to afford protection and security to the lives and property of all:

And further, that the petitioners, being also desirous of having a commission of the peace assigned to their town, for the convenient and speedy administration of justice, humbly beg to show that to subject them to the authority of justices of the peace to be assigned to a town (Sandwich) in the one case, seven miles distant, and in the other (Dover), twenty-one miles distant, would be a great grievance and inconvenience, putting them to much expence and trouble:

The petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that under the circumstances above stated, and from the increasing population and prosperity of the town of Ramsgate, We would be graciously pleased, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to grant them a charter of incorporation under the powers and provisions of the said recited Act:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at our Court at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if We shall think fit by advice of Our Privy Council to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter the powers and provisions in the said Act contained; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order the same to be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published, by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, is not a town corporate; but the petitioners submit, that it is expedient that the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, should be incorporated; the petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that We will be pleased, under the provisions of the said recited Act, to grant to the inhabitants of the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, a separate charter of incorporation; and that We will also be pleased, by such charter, to extend to the said inhabitants within such district, as shall or may be set forth in Our Royal Charter, the several powers and provisions in the said Act contained:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Llanelly, in the county of Carnarvon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the borough of Llanelly contains a population of four thousand and upwards, and that it is rapidly increasing in population, commerce, and wealth, and that it will in a short period be one of the most important commercial towns in the principality: and further, that the said borough of Llanelly is a borough by prescription, with a portreeve and an unlimited number of burgesses:

and further, that the said portreeve and burgesses have never been invested with any corporate powers, any further than the management of the property belonging to the said burgesses; the petitioners, therefore, pray that We would be graciously pleased to grant unto them a charter of incorporation, that they may be thereby enabled to participate in all the powers and provisions of the said recited Act:

English and Pasana, on Saturday the 25th day of February 1837, at their Sale Rooms, in Milsom-street, Bath, at two of the clock precisely in the afternoon, the following well situated and particularly well accustomed shop and premises, viz.;

All that new built messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, being No. 29, in the best situated part of Monmouth-street, in the parish of Walcot, in the city of Bath, together with the brewhouse, buildings, offices, and yard behind; and the roomy and extensive vaults under the same, and the free use of the area and vaults under the said street.

The whole of this property is in most perfect repair and condition, a very large sum of money having been expended in rebuilding the dwelling-house and perfection of the cellars, and in general improvements, for the purposes of carrying on the trade of a wholesale and retail wine and spirit business in all its branches, in connection with a brewery, and a most valuable and extensive trade may be conducted on the premises by any competent man of business, there is every requisite for the purpose, and the improvements are so well known in the neighbourhood, and the situation so important for the trade above-mentioned, that no encomium is required to enhance the value of the property; a very heavy outlay was made in preparing the cellars now capable of containing 100 pipes and hogsheads of wine, beer, and spirits in wood and bottle.

This valuable property is held by lease, under the common seal of the Master, Co-Brethren, and Sisters of the Hospital of Saint John the Baptist, in the city of Bath aforesaid, dated 15th March 1813, for the lives of Charles Hodgson (son of the late Charles Hodgson, Principal of Hertford College, Oxford), then aged about twenty-six years, Harriet Mitchell (daughter of Thomas Mitchell, of Chipping Sodbury, Esq.), then aged about twenty-three years, and Edward Gibbons, of Bath, Grocer, then aged about thirty-nine years, and the life of the longest liver of them, under a yearly rent of 6s., and also the yearly rent of 1s. 10d. in lieu of land tax, subject to the usual covenants and stipulations in such leases contained, with the usual benefit as to renewal.

This property is subject to an annuity of £45 per annum, payable to Mr. Charles Shuttleworth for his life, and, after his decease, in case Jane Howard (the wife of William Howard, of Bath aforesaid, sister of the said Charles Shuttleworth) should be then living, an annuity of £21 for her life; and also to a covenant for the repayment of the principal sum of £420, payable to the representatives of the said Charles Shuttleworth, within fifteen months after the death of himself and the said Jane Howard; and to a mortgage for securing £1,000, and interest at £5 per cent., to Thomas Savage, Esq. of Bath.—Possession can be given on completion of the purchase.
