TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1837.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 6, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 1st of March next, at two o'clock, and on every succeeding Wednesday till further orders.

The 1st of March being a Collar-day, the Knights of the several Orders, who attend His Majesty's Levee, are to wear their Collars.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 1st of March, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

[The following article is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of Friday last.]

Whitehall, February 9, 1837.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Robert Frankland, of Thirkleby, in the county of York, Bart. His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a request contained in the last will and testament of Sir Robert Greenhill-Russell, late of Chequer's-court, in the county of Buckingham, Bart. deceased, take and use the surname of Russell in addition to and after that of Frankland, and also bear the arms of

Russell quarterly with his and their own arms; the same being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

ERRATUM.

In a part of our impression of Friday last, the name of Andrew Rutherford, Esq. appointed Solicitor General for Scotland, was printed by mistake Rutherford.

Sheffield Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament during the next year or session of 1838; for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway communication between Sheffield and the North Midland railway, with all necessary and proper stations, works, and conveniences connected therewith; which railway is intended to commence in the township and parish of Sheffield, in the West Riding of the county of York, and to proceed thence to, and to terminate at, a point of junction with the North Midland railway, in the township and parish of Aston-with-Aughton, in the said West Riding, and to pass from, in, through, or into, the several parishes of Sheffield, Rotherham, Handsworth, and Aston-with-Aughton, and the several townships of Sheffield, Attercliffe-cum-Darnall, Tinsley, Catcliffe, Argreave, Handsworth or Handsworth Woodhouse, and Aston-with-Aughton, all in the said West Riding of the county of York.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for by the said Bill to deviate from the line of such intended railway to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side thereof, except where the same will pass through lands covered with houses, and in such case to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said railway; and power will also be applied for to alter and divert at or near to Woodhouse-mill, in the township and parish of Aston-with-Aughton aforesaid, the line of the turnpike-road leading from Worksop, in the county of Nottingham, to Attercliffe aforesaid.—Dated Sheffield, 8th February, 1837.

Bernard John Wake, Wilson and Younge,
Joint Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session; for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways or tram road or tram roads, with proper warehouses, wharfs, landing places, tunnels, bridges, works, and other conveniences adjoining thereto or connected therewith, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed and adapted for the conveyance of persons, horses, cattle, coals, goods, wares, and merchandize, commencing at the termination or intended termination of the railway from the town and county of Newcastle-upon Tyne to North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, in a certain close or field in the occupation of Anthony Healey and James Sproat, situate in the township of Chirton, in the parish of Tynemouth, in the said county of Northumberland, and immediately adjoining certain buildings situate in Little Bedford-street, in the township of Tynemouth, in the said parish of Tynemouth, and extending to or passing through or into the township of Tynemouth aforesaid, in the said parish of Tynemouth and county of Northumberland, and terminating at or near to the west end of a certain haven called Prior's Haven, in the township and parish of Tynemouth aforesaid; in which said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tram road or tram roads, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, landing places, works, and other conveniences; and also to obtain power to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act. All which powers are intended to be carried into effect by a Company already incorporated by an Act of Parliament, called "The Newcastle-upon-Tyne and North Shields Railway Company;" and the money raised by the creation of new shares in the said Company, or by some other mode, to be authorised and provided for in and by such intended Act.

Carr, Jobling and Fox and
Jno. and Jno. T. B. Tinley,
Solicitors to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to parliament in the next ensuing Session for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, or tram road or tram roads, with proper warehouses, wharfs, landing places, tunnels, bridges, works, and conveniences adjoining thereto and connected therewith for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed and adapted for the conveyance of coals, lime, stones, persons, horses, cattle, goods, wares and merchandize of all descriptions, commencing at, in or near to a certain field or close, in the occupation of John Hutchinson, (near to or adjoining the Newcastle and Morpeth and Shields, and Morpeth turnpike-roads,) and situate in the township of Catchburn, in the parish of Morpeth, in the county of Northumberland, and extending to, or passing through or into or made within the several parishes or parochial chapels of Morpeth aforesaid, Bedlington, in the county Palatine of Durham, Horton, Cramlington, Earsdon, and Tynemouth, all in the said county of Northumberland, or some or one of them, and the several townships, hamlets or villages of Catchburn aforesaid, and Hepscot, in the said county of Northumberland, Nether-ton and Bedlington, in the said County Palatine of Durham, East Hartford, Horton, Cramlington, Seaton, Delaval, Holywell, Earsdon, Monkseaton, Whitley, Preston, Tynemouth and North Shields, all in the said county of Northumberland, or some or one of them, and terminating at or near to a certain shore, or place adjoining the River Tyne, and near to or adjoining a quay or wharf belonging to his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, and in the occupation of George Fawcus and Robert Pow, in the said township of North Shields, and parish of Tynemouth aforesaid, in the said county of Northumberland, with two branches from or out of the same, the one branch commencing at the termination of the said railway, in the township of North Shields aforesaid, and extending or diverging along the margin of the River Tyne to the East, and terminating at or near to a certain shore or place adjoining the River Tyne, near to or adjoining a warehouse or malting, belonging to William Linskill, Esquire, and now in the occupation of John Harrison, and another branch, commencing at the said termination of the said railway, in the township of North Shields, and extending or diverging along the margin of the River Tyne, to the West, and terminating at or near to a certain shore or place adjoining the River Tyne, and adjoining or near to a dwelling-house and shop, belonging to John Clark, and in the occupation of John Forster, all in the said township of North Shields, in the parish of Tynemouth, and county of Northumberland aforesaid. In which said Act, provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tram road or tram roads, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, landing places, works and other conveniences; and also to obtain power to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by the creation of shares, or by some other mode to be authorized and provided for, in and by such intended Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 8th day of February 1837, Richard Grose, of Devonport, in the county of Devon, Mercer and Tailor, hath assigned all his personal estate and effects unto William Vosper, of Devonport aforesaid, Mercer and Draper, upon trust, for the equal benefit of himself and all other the creditors of the said Richard Grose; and that the same indenture was executed by the said Richard Grose and William Vosper on the day of the date thereof, and is attested by James Husband, of the town of Devonport aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and James Wyatt, of the same place, his clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Samuel Camp, of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Sheriff's Officer, and of Ditchling, in the same county, Farmer, has by certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the 7th and 9th days of January 1837, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto John Allfree of Brighton aforesaid, Schoolmaster, John Trist of Brighton aforesaid, Wine Merchant, and Samuel Ridley of the same place, Auctioneer, upon trusts, for the equal benefit of the selves and such other of the creditors of him, the said William Samuel Camp, who shall execute the said indenture of conveyance and assignment, within two months after notice of the execution of the said indentures shall have been given in the London Gazette. And the said indentures were duly executed by the said William Samuel Camp, John Allfree, John Trist, and Samuel Ridley on the 13th day of January now last past, and are attested, as to the execution thereof by the said William Samuel Camp, by Edward Adey Latter, of Brighton aforesaid, Solicitor, and William Long of the same place, Surgeon; and the said indenture of conveyance and assignment of the 9th day of January last, as to the execution thereof by the said John Allfree, John Trist, and Samuel Ridley, is attested by the said Edward Adey Latter; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture or deed of conveyance and assignment is lodged at the office of the said Edward Adey Latter, Solicitor, 51, Ship-street, Brighton aforesaid, for the execution of the creditors of the said William Samuel Camp.—Dated this 9th day of February 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that John Major, of Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Bookseller and Publisher, hath by indenture, bearing date the 1st day of February 1837, and made between the said John Major of the first part; John Walpole, of 23, Brooksby-street, Islington, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, and Seth Charles Ward, of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, one of the sworn Clerks of the High Court of Chancery, Gentleman, of the second part; and the several persons who, by themselves or their agents thereunto lawfully authorised, had subscribed and set, or should subscribe and set, their hands and seals to the said indenture, of the third part; and Henry Blanchard, of No. 7, Coram-place, Little Coram-street, Russell-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Attorney's Clerk, of the fourth part; granted, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred, and set over unto the said John Walpole and Seth Charles Ward, in manner therein mentioned, all his stock in trade, furniture, goods, chattels, estate and effects, upon trust, for the several creditors of the said John Major, parties thereto, rateable and in proportion to their several and respective debts; and the said indenture was duly executed by the said John Major, on the said 1st day of February 1837, by the said John Walpole on the 6th day of February 1837, and by the said Seth Charles Ward on the 9th day of February 1837; and that the execution thereof by the said John Major, and also by the said John Walpole and Seth Charles Ward, is attested by William Lechmere, of No. 22, Southampton-street, Bloomsbury-square, in the county of Middlesex, Attorney at Law.—Dated this 10th day of February 1837.

THIS is to give notice, that Richard Francis Davey, of No. 99, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, Licenced Victualler, hath by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 6th day of February 1837, conveyed and assigned over all his personal estate and effects whatsoever unto Joseph Seeli, of the Shakspeare, Marlborough-street, Carnaby-market, in the said county, Victualler, and Charles Frewin, of Tyler-street, Carnaby-market aforesaid, Hatter, in trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all other the creditors of the said Richard Francis Davey who shall duly execute the said indenture; and that the said indenture of assignment was duly executed by the said Richard Francis Davey, Joseph Seeli, and Charles Frewin, respectively, on the said 6th day of February 1837; and which indenture was so executed by the said several parties in the presence of, and attested by, Francis Redhead Smith, of No. 6, Barnard's-inn, Holborn, in the city of London, Gentleman, Solicitor; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture is now lying at my office, situate as aforesaid, where the creditors may execute the same; and any creditor or creditors of the said Richard Francis Davey who shall not execute the said deed within the space of two calendar months from the date thereof, will be excluded the benefit of any dividend to be made of the said estate and effects; and notice is also hereby further given, that all persons indebted to the said Richard Francis Davey, are hereby required forthwith to pay the amount of their several debts to the said trustees, or one of them.

F. R. SMITH, No. 6, Barnard's-inn, Holborn, Solicitor to the said trustees.

DOWNEND, NEAR BRISTOL.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a fiat in bankruptcy awarded and issued against Charles Milson, of the Full Moon Inn, at the Fish Ponds, in the parish of Stapleton, in the county of Gloucester (within the suburbs of Bristol), Licenced Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, at the instance of the mortgagee, and with the consent of the assignees, by Mr. John Fergus, on the premises, on Monday the 6th day of March 1837, at five for six o'clock in the evening, under conditions of sale;

All that new built messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and inn, called the Full Moon, with the stable and garden and piece of pasture ground thereto adjoining and belonging, containing, by estimation, 1A. 1L. 30P. more or less, with an uninclosed frontage towards the turnpike-road leading from Downend to Bristol, containing, by estimation, 26P. or thereabouts; all which premises are situate, lying, and being in Kingswood, in the parish of Stapleton, in the county of Gloucester, late in the occupation of the said Charles Milson; and now of the said assignees.

Also all that policy of insurance, No. 3882, dated 26th June 1833, in the British Commercial Insurance Company, of London, whereby the life of Charles Henry Milson (one of the lives afternamed) is insured in the sum of £400, at a yearly premium of £7, payable 25th June annually.

The aforesaid messuage and premises are most substantially built, and a considerable sum of money has been expended in rendering the same, in all respects, perfect for the business of a victualler and brewer, there being all the requisites for a brewery, with plenty of both sorts of water. The situation is most excellent, and the premises have been, and still are, well known, with a well accustomed trade; and to any person conversant with the business of a licenced victualler, well worth attention.

The purchaser will be required to take, at a valuation, the coppers, coolers, mesh tub, and other utensils and fixtures.

These premises are held under a lease dated 5th September, 1831, from the Most Noble Henry Charles Duke of Beaufort, to the said Charles Milson, for the lives of himself (then aged 30 years), William Parker, of the Fishponds, Stapleton, Butcher (then aged 34 years), and the said Charles Henry Milson, son of the said Charles Milson (then aged 4 years), and the life of the survivor of them, under a yearly rent of 10s., and an heriot of £1 ls. and subject to the covenants and agreements in such lease contained as are usual in like cases.

Immediate possession can be given on completion of the purchase.

For viewing, apply on the premises; and for further particulars, to Messrs. Hare and Little, Solicitors for the Mortgagee, Bristol; and for conditions of sale, &c. to John Kerle Haberfield, Solicitor for the Assignees.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Suggett, of Barbican, in the city of London Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 8th day of March next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees giving to the said bankrupt, in satisfaction or part satisfaction of services already rendered, and to be further rendered, by him to his estate, the whole or any part of the household goods and furniture lately his property, now in the dwelling part of the house in Barbican.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 6th day of February 1837, awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Daniel Dakeyne and Thomas Wanklyn, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and of Gradbatch, in the county of Stafford, Flax Spinners, Dealers, and Chapman (carrying on business in partnership, under the firm of Dakeyne and Co.), are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts on Tuesday the 7th day of March next, at eleven o'clock precisely in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Higson and Son, Solicitors, in Cross-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, in one or more lot or lots, and at different times and places, or otherwise, the leasehold interest of the said bankrupts in the mill, farm, and premises belonging to them at Gradbatch aforesaid, and also the machinery, apparatus, fixtures, implements and stock-in-trade, household goods, and furniture of the said bankrupts, and all other the real and personal estate of the said bankrupts, and of each of them, to any person or persons whomsoever, either for ready money or on credit; or partly for ready money and partly on credit, with or without in either case taking any security for the purchase monies or any part thereof, and without the said assignees being answerable or liable for any loss of purchase money if sold on credit; and also to assent or dissent from the said assignees, at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate, buying in at any sale or sales by auction, all or any part of the property aforesaid, and again offering the same for sale by public auction or private contract, with the like powers and authorities as aforesaid, and without the said assignees being answerable or liable for any loss or difference in price which may occur in consequence thereof; and also to the said assignees making and entering into such arrangement as they may deem necessary and advisable with the lessor of the said bankrupts' mill, farm, and premises at Gradbatch aforesaid, either for surrendering the possession of the said premises, or confirming or otherwise renewing the lease thereof; and also to sanction, allow, and confirm the employment and payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupts' estate, of an accountant, to investigate the dealings and transactions of the said bankrupts and their accounts, and to manage, get in, and dispose of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, and more particularly to investigate, adjust, and ascertain the share and interest of the said Thomas Wanklyn in the business and concern lately carried on by him in partnership with his brother, under the style or firm of William and Thomas Wanklyn; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, filing, bringing, and prosecuting a bill in equity, actions at law, or such other suits and proceedings at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, as they may be advised, for compelling the production and disclosure of all books, accounts, transactions, dealings, matters, and things requisite and necessary to elucidate and ascertain the share and interest of the said Thomas Wanklyn in the said partnership business and concern, and for recovering and compelling payment or satisfaction thereof, or otherwise settling, arranging, or compromising the share and interest of the said Thomas Wanklyn in the said concern, either before or after action, suit, or proceeding commenced respecting the premises, upon such terms and conditions as they the said assignees may think most advantageous to the said bankrupts' estate, by accepting a sum of money in full satisfaction of all claims and demands upon or in respect of the same, or by any other ways or means they may think proper, whether by referring and submitting to arbitration all disputes and differences touching and concerning the premises or otherwise; and also to assent or dissent from the said assignees sanctioning, confirming, and allowing the acts, payments, and proceedings of the provisional assignee, appointed under the said fiat in continuing the turning and working of the mill and works of the said bankrupts, at Gradbatch aforesaid, from the time of his appointment up to the choice of assignees, and in purchasing materials and employing workpeople for such purposes; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees repaying and reimbursing the said provisional assignee all monies advanced, and paid by him for the purchase of such materials, and the wages of workmen, and others employed by him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to work the said mill, at the risk and expense of the said bankrupts' estate, until the machinery and utensils therein are sold, and disposed of; and to sanction, confirm, and allow all purchases made, and the employment and payment of workpeople for that purpose; and also to sanction, confirm, and allow all sales made by the said provisional assignee and creditors' assignees, of the produce of the said works, or of the manufactured stock in trade of the said bankrupts, in the usual course of trade, to any person or persons whomsoever upon the usual terms of credit, without security, and at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said provisional assignee, and creditors' assignees being indemnified and saved harmless, by and out of the said bankrupts' estate, for all that they, or either of them, have done or may do in respect of all or any of the matters herein contained; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the joint estate of the bankrupts, certain charges and expenses incurred, previous to the issuing of the said fiat, for the benefit of the creditors and the protection of the estate, the amount of which charges and expenses will be stated at the meeting; and also to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any dispute, debt, claim, or demand which may arise or exist between the said assignees or any other person or persons whomsoever, or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and to the said assignees giving their consent to any creditor of the bankrupts, or either of them, who may hold bills of exchange or notes upon which other persons are liable, accepting compositions for such other persons, and executing any composition or other deeds between them and their creditors, or giving time for payment of any such bills, and either with or without security, or to any such creditors of the said bankrupts entering into any other arrangement with such other persons so liable as aforesaid, respecting the payment of the bills or notes, as the said creditors shall think fit, without prejudice to their rights or proof under the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees presenting, commencing, or defending, at the expense of the said bankrupts' estate, any petitions in bankruptcy, suits in equity, or actions at law, applications to the commissioners, or other proceedings for the protection, recovering, or obtaining any part of the said bankrupts' joint and separate estate and effects, or for any sale or sales thereof; and to the said assignees abandoning such proceedings or defence upon such terms or conditions as they shall consider most conducive to the interest of the creditors; and on other special affairs.
