

Regiments of Foot, which will be brought down the Danube and sent for Hungary.

Munick, July 4. The Troops of the Elector of Bavaria are marching from Leebfels towards Donawert, from whence a detachment of 6000 men will be sent for Hungary; and the rest will joyn with the Troops of the Circle of Franconia; But the Train of Artillery continues as yet here. From Linz and Vienna we have advice of the successful Progress of the Imperial Army in Hungary, which we may believe to be now before Buda.

Rasibonne, July 12. The Bishop of Aichstads and the Count de Winditzgratz, the Imperial Commissioners, have acquainted the Dyet that the Emperor, to procure the General Peace and Tranquility of the Empire, is willing to accept the Truce upon the Conditions proposed by France for 10 years or longer, provided all his Allies be included in it.

Cologne, July 14. The Troops of our Elector which were in Rhinberg, except two or three Companies, marched from thence on Monday last to the Camp at Zons. The 12th Instant the Troops of Munster were to pass the Rhin at Wesel, the Regency of Cleve having granted them passage through that Country: When these and the other Troops appointed to Rendezvous at Zons shall be together, which will be in few days, they will, as we are assured, make a Body of 8000 men; and the common report is, that they will march towards Liege; His Electoral Highness being, it's said, very much dissatisfied with that City for that they refuse to ratify and execute what was some time since agreed and concluded by their Deputies. They write from Francfort of the 12th Instant, that the Troops of the Circle of Franconia were encamped between Wertheim and Miltenbourg, commanded by the Prince of Bareith.

Hamburg, July 14. Our Letters from Berlin inform us, that the Elector of Brandenburg hath sent 3000 men to the assistance of the Poles, commanded by the Count de Denhoff. The Island of Heylige Landt hath submitted to the King of Denmark.

Brussels, July 18. Monsieur de Chanlay, who returned hither on Sunday, had yesterday a very long Conference with the Marquis de Grana, and we are told that they have settled the matter of the Contributions, and have agreed, after having desisted what we pretend of the Subjects of France, that these Countries shall pay 600000 Crowns, and that they shall have ten years given them to pay the same at several Terms, in consideration whereof they shall be freed from all pretensions of Contributions which the French may have upon them; and which it's said amount to almost four Millions. To-morrow Monsieur Chanlay will part again from hence, having been very Nobly Entertained here by the Marquis de Grana. The French Army decamped on Sunday last, as we have already told you from Liffines, and separated into three Bodies, one of which is marched towards Dinant, and Monsieur de Bretuil, Intendant-General of the French Conquests, hath orders to follow them. Our last Letters from Linz are of the 9th Instant, and tell us that they were expecting an account from the Duke of Lorraine, that he was set down before Buda; and that all their advices say there is a great fear and Consternation among the Turks.

Hague, July 18. The French Ambassador has acquainted the States General that he has received the King his Master's Ratification of the Treaty Signed here on the 29th past, and that he is ready to exchange it with that of this State. The Sieur Sampricht, the Imperial Minister, declared, as we are told, to the Deputies of this State in a late Conference he had with them, that the Emperor had resolved to accept the Truce proposed by France upon condition it be General. Two days agoe arrived here the Prince of Orange's Regiment of Foot-Guards from Brabant, and all the Troops of this State that were in Flanders, are returned to their respective Garisons.

Paris, July 22. Our last Letters from Catalonia gave an account, that the French Army commanded by the Marechal de Belfonds, was encamped the 6th Instant at Castillon not far from Roses, and that the Ships and Gallies under the command of Monsieur du Quesne, continued in the Bay of Roses. That the Duke de Bourbonville Vice-Roy of Catalonia, who was encamped with the Spanish Troops near Girona had upon the Marechal de Belfonds's approaching to Roses, advanced to Selva; and had retrenched himself at the foot of the Mountain behind the River Ter. Here has been a report for several days of another defeat of the Turks by the King of Poland, but it needs a confirmation. Our Letters from Germany tell us the Emperor hath accepted the Truce.

Windsor, July 15. His Majesty hath been Graciously pleased to Confer the Honor of Knighthood upon Simon Taylor and John Turner, Esquires, Aldermen of the Town of Linn Regis.

His Majesty has been Graciously pleased to Grant to Ipswich in the County of Suffolk, a Fair which will be held there on the 11th and 12th days of August next, for Bullocks, Sheep, Horses, and other Cattel: And also another Fair which will be held there on the 7th and 8th days of May, for all sorts of Cattle yearly.

Advertisements.

Myographia Nova sive Musculorum omnium (in Corpore Humano hactenus repertorum) accuratissima Descriptio, in sex Praelectiones distributa. Nomina Inguulorum in suo quaque loco, siveque Naturali, in Aeneis Musculorum Iconibus exarantur: Eorum item Origines, Insertiones, & Usus, Graphice Describuntur, Aditis insuper ipsius Authoris, & aliorum Nuperis Observationibus & Inventis. Opera & studio Joannis Browne, Sardinismi Caroli Secundi, Britanniarum Regis, Nec-non Nofocomit Regalis, quod est ad D. Thomae, Chirurgi Ordinarii. Printed for the Author, and are to be sold at his Houfe at the Chyrurgeons Arms in Charles-street Westminster, and at the Angel in St. Pauls Church-yard.

A Pastoral in French beginning with an Overture and some Airs for Violins, adorned with several Re-tornals in three Parts for Violins, and several Chorus's for Voices in four parts and five parts for Violins, besides other Airs and some English Songs, all lately Composed by Lewis Grabue Gentleman, late Master of His Majesty's Musick, and sold at the Dukes House by Rowling Gilbert &

Whereas at the late Fire which happened in York Buildings, there was taken out of the House of Mr. John Walbanke, and others, many Books, Pictures, Bedding, and other Furniture belonging to them, by Persons unknown, Who have not yet returned the same, or given notice where they are. These are to desire all Persons that either have or know of any of the said Books or Goods, that they will give notice thereof to the said Mr. John Walbanke at Derby House in Channel Row Westminster, and they shall be well rewarded for the same.

A House at the South East corner of Phenix Alley in Long Acre (wherein Tallow-Chandlers have dwelt above 40 years together, is to be Let; And Coppers, with all manner of other Materials belonging to a Tallow-Chandler, ready fixed, are to be sold, or the same to be disposed of without the House.

ON Monday last in the night, a Person was set upon by two Highway-men near Maldenhead, and robbed of a Livery Suit of Cloaths for one of the Lord Duke of Beauforts Pages, being Blue Cloth laced with Silver and Silk Lace, the colours of the Silk being Scarlet, Blue, and White; And of a Dun Gelding about 14 hands high, four White Feet, and a Bald Face: Whoever gives notice of the said Horse or Cloaths to Daniel Hodges in Bedford-street, shall have two Guineas reward.