By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales" it is, among other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders in any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us by any such charter (if we shall think fit by advice of Our Privy Council to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published, by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Margate, in the parish of St. John, in the isle of Thanet, have presented to Us a petition, setting forth, amongst other things, that the population of the said town and parish now exceeds eleven thousand, and praying that We would, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, take the said petition into Our gracious and early consideration, and fulfil the desire of the petitioners, by granting unto them a charter of incorporation:

Now, therefore, We, having considered the said petition, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on Monday the third day of April next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of March 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking "the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, "and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England "and Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Hertford, assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace for the said county, holden on the second day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the county of Hertford, is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the towns of Watford, Berkhamstead, St. Peter Hitchin, and St. Albans may be polling places for the said county:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places mentioned in the said petition, namely, the towns of Watford, Berkhamstead, St. Peter Hitchin, and St. Albans shall be polling places for the said county of Hertford; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of March 1837.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the "taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division, in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division, "of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, "in England and Wales, in so far as respects the "election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace for the city of Carlisle, holden at the city of Carlisle, in and for the county of Cumberland, on the third day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the said county of Cumberland, is insufficient, and therefore praying that Kerkoswald, Dalston, Hesket in the Forest, and Longtown may be polling places for the said eastern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Kerkoswald, Dalston, Hesket in the Forest, and Longtown shall be polling places for the said eastern division of the said county of Cumberland; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said eastern division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of March 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Surrey, in general quarter sessions of the peace assembled, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the said county of Surrey, is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Wandsworth, Kennington-common, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, and Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, may be polling places for the said eastern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Wandsworth, Kennington-common, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, and Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, shall be polling places for the eastern division of the said county of Surrey; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said eastern division of the said county of Surrey into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Llanvigan, the hamlet or township of Penkelly, in the said parish of Llanvigan, the hamlet or township of Glyncollwug, in the said parish of Llanvigan, the parish of Llanthetty, the hamlet or township of Dyffryn, in the parish of Llanthetty, the hamlet or township of Vro, in the said parish of Llanthetty and the parish of Vainor otherwise Vaynor, the hamlet or township of Coedy Cummer, in the said parish of Vainor otherwise Vaynor, the hamlet or township of Dyffryn, in the said parish of Vainor otherwise Vaynor, and the hamlet or township of Gelly, in the said parish of Vainor or Vaynor, or some of them, all in the county of Brecon otherwise Brecknock, and the parish of Merthyr Tydvil, and the hamlets or townships of Garth and Heolwormwood, in the said parish of Merthyr Tydvil, or one of them, in the county of Glamorgan; and also to make and maintain an extension of the said principal or main railway, commencing at or near the said farm called Blaenygarth, belonging to the Honorable Robert Henry Clive, in the occupation of the Dowlais Iron Company, in the said hamlet or township of Garth, in the said parish of Merthyr Tydvil, in the said county of Glamorgan, and terminating at the head of a certain railway, or intended railway, called the Taff Vale Railway, near a pier belonging to, and in the occupation of, the Plymouth Iron Company, situate on the eastern side of the River Taff, in the said hamlet or township of Heolwormwood, in the said parish of Merthyr Tydvil, in the county of Glamorgan aforesaid, and to lead to or near the Iron Works of Dowlais, Penydarran, and Plymouth, in the said hamlets of Garth and Heolwormwood, or one of them, in the said parish of Merthyr Tydvil, in the said county of Glamorgan.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for in such Act, to divert or alter, in such cases where it may be expedient or necessary for the purposes of the said Act, the course of the several turnpike roads passing through or into the several parishes of Llanhamlach, Llanvrynach, Llanvigan, the hamlet or township of Glyncollwug, in the parish of Llanvigan, all in the county of Brecon, and through or into the parish of Merthyr Tydvil, in the county of Glamorgan.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for in the said Bill, to deviate from the line laid out on the plans deposited under the standing orders to any extent which may be necessary or expedient, not exceeding ten yards in any town or one hundred yards not in any town.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for in the said Bill to take and levy such fares, tolls, duties, rates, or sums of money, as shall be in the said Act mentioned, and for all other powers and regulations usually granted in Acts of Parliament for undertakings of a like nature.—Dated the 16th day of February 1837.

Vaughan and Benan, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a railway or railways, to commence at or near the Castle-hill, in the parish of Saint Mary, in the town and borough of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, and to terminate at or near Penlea Point, in the parish of Paull, in the county of Cornwall; and which said railway or railways will pass from, in, through and into the several parishes, towns, boroughs, townships, wards, hamlets, precincts, chapelries, liberties, districts, tythings, extra-parochial places, and other places following, that is to say, Saint Mary's Truro, Truro, Kenwyn, Kea, Saint Agnes, Gwennap, Illogan, Crowan, Camborne, Perranaworthal, Stithians, Wendron, Gwinear, Saint Erith, Phillack, Gwithian, Bresge, Gerno, Saint Hilary, Marazion, Gulval, Ludgvan, Madron, Penzance Paull, and Saint Just, all in the county of Cornwall; and to make and maintain all necessary bridges, culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, buildings, stations, wharfs, depots, warehouse roads, and other works, material or necessary to the said railway or railways, and the branches thereto, for the more complete use and enjoyment of the same respectively.

And it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to authorize the taking of such tolls, fares, dues, rates, rents, and sums of money as shall be mentioned in the said Bill or Bills, and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises within the said several boroughs, parishes, towns, townships, wards, hamlets, precincts, chapelries, villages, liberties, districts, tythings, extra-parochial places, and other places before mentioned and described, for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to deviate from the said line of the said intended railway or railways, and the branches thereto, for the making of which, respectively, powers are so intended to be applied for as aforesaid, as the same will be defined in the said intended application to Parliament, to any extent not exceeding 100 yards on either side of such line or lines, and the branches thereto, as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, as the same will be defined in such application to Parliament, to divert or alter all such road or roads as shall be necessary to be diverted or altered in the construction or formation of such railway or railways, and the branches thereto; and also to divert such navigable rivers, canals, streams, or running waters as may be required to be diverted for the construction or formation of such railway or railways, and the branches thereto, as aforesaid; and that it is intended to abandon or relinquish so much of the present rivers, canals, streams, or running waters as shall or may be rendered unnecessary or useless by reason of such diversion or diversions, as aforesaid, or any of them.—Dated the 15th day of February 1837.

W. Andrews; Paynter and Gurney, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to authorise the making and maintaining a railway or railways, to commence, at and in the parish of Saint Enodock, in the county of Cornwall, and to terminate at, in, or near to the town of Launceston, in the same county; and which said railway or railways will pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes, towns, townships, boroughs, wards, hamlets, precincts, chapelries, liberties, districts, tythings, extra parochial places and other places following, that is to say, Saint Enodock, Saint Minver, Endellion, Saint Kew, Saint Teath, Lanteglos by Camelford, Camelford, Advent, Minster Davidstow, Saint Cleather, Trenglos, Laneast, Tremaine, South Petherwin, Egloskerrey, Saint Stephen, Saint Thomas, Saint Mary Magdalen, and Launceston, all in the county of Cornwall; and to make and maintain all necessary bridges, culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, buildings, stations, wharfs, depots, warehouses, roads, and other works, material or necessary to the said railway, and the branches thereto, for the more complete use and enjoyment of the same respectively.

And it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to authorise the taking of such tolls, fares, dues, rates, rents, and sums of money as shall be mentioned in the said Bill or Bills, and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises within the said several boroughs, parishes, towns, townships, wards, hamlets, precincts, chapelries, liberties, districts, tythings, extra-parochial places, and other places before mentioned and described, for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to deviate from the said lines of the said intended railway or railways, and the branches thereto, for the making of which, respectively, powers are so intended to be applied for as aforesaid, as the same will be defined in the said intended application to Parliament, to any extent not exceeding 100 yards on either side of such line or lines, and the branches thereto, as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, as the same will be defined in such application to Parliament, to direct or alter all such road or roads as shall be necessary to be diverted or altered in the construction or formation of such railway or railways, and the branches thereto, and also to divert such navigable rivers, canals, streams, or running waters as the same may be required to be diverted for the construction or formation of such railway or railways, and the branches thereto as aforesaid; and that it is intended to abandon or relinquish so much of the present rivers, canals, streams, or running waters, as shall or may be rendered unnecessary or useless by reason of such diversion or diversions as aforesaid, or any of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that powers will be applied for and taken in the said Bill or Bills, to construct, make, and maintain a breakwater, at or near the entrance of the harbour of Padstow, on the eastern side thereof, in the parish of Saint Minver, in the county of Cornwall; and to widen, deepen, and otherwise to improve the said harbour; and also to make and maintain, a lighthouse or lighthouses, wharfs, stations, depots, warehouses, roads, and all other works that shall be needful and necessary for the general improvement of the said harbour, and the construction of the said breakwater, for the more complete, perfect, and safe use and enjoyment of the same.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to authorise the taking of such tolls, fares, dues, rates, rents, or sums of money, in respect of the said railway, breakwater, harbour, and works as shall be mentioned in the said Bill or Bills. — Dated the 15th day of February 1837.

W. Andrews, Solicitor to the Bill or Bills.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway or railways, tramroad or tramroads, to be called the Cwm Gaiw Railway, to commence at or near Brach y Cymmer, in the parish of Llangainor, in the county of Glamorgan, and to terminate at the Duffryn Llynfi and Porth Cawl Railway, near Pentwyn Bayden, in the parish of Llangonoyd, in the same county; and which said railway or tramroad will pass from, through, and into the several parishes, townships, tythings, hamlets, or places of Llangainor, Blaich y Cymmer, otherwise Brach Cymmer, Bettwa, Cwm Du, and Llangonoyd, all in the said county of Glamorgan; and to make and maintain all necessary bridges, culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, buildings, stations, wharfs, depots, warehouses, roads, and other works material and necessary to the said railway or tramroad, for the more complete use and enjoyment of the same.

And it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill, to authorise the taking of such tolls, fares, dues, rates, rents, and sums of money, as shall be mentioned in the said Bill or Bills; and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises within the said several parishes, townships, tythings, hamlets, or places before mentioned and described for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to deviate from the said line of the said intended railway or tramroad, for the making of which powers are so intended to be applied for as aforesaid, as the same will be defined in the said intended application to Parliament, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line or lines as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for power to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, as the same will be defined in such application to Parliament, to divert or alter all such road or roads as shall be necessary to be diverted or altered in the construction or formation of such railway or tramroad; and that it is intended to abandon or relinquish so much of the present rivers, canals, streams, or running waters, as shall be rendered unnecessary or useless by reason of such diversion or diversions aforesaid, or any of them. — Dated this 16th day of February 1837.

Wm. Andrews, Solicitor for the Bill.

Clarke and King, Solicitors, situate and being No. 13, in Queen-square, in the city of Bath, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee cancelling eight several contracts entered into with James Rudland, Esq. for the sale to him of eight fee farm rents, part of the estates of the said

Bankrupts respectively, some or one of them, and issuing and payable out of certain messuages and premises, situate in Grosvenor-place, in the city of Bath, and repaying to the said James Rudland his deposit money and fees on the said contracts respectively, and the sum of £25 for his costs and charges in relation to the said contracts; and in case the creditors at such meeting shall assent thereto, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignee reselling the said fee farm, rents, and premises comprised in such contracts respectively, to any person or persons whomsoever, by public or private sale, or partly by one mode and partly by the other, and at such reduced price or prices as the said assignee may deem advisable; and, in case the creditors at such meeting shall refuse to consent to the said contracts being cancelled, then to authorise the said assignee to commence any suit or suits at law or in equity for the purpose of a decree for specific performance of the said contracts respectively, or any of them, or damages for the non-performance thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee executing to Mrs. Rebecca Hooper, or the persons claiming under her, without consideration, a conveyance of the interest of the said bankrupts respectively in two small pieces or parcels of ground, situate behind Grosvenor-place aforesaid, and which pieces of ground have been in the possession of the said Rebecca Hooper, or those claiming under her, since the year 1813, by virtue of an agreement, dated the 1st day of February 1813, entered into between her, the said Rebecca Hooper, and Robert Clement and William Matthews, the then assignees of the said bankrupts' estates respectively; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee delivering up to the representatives of James Hooper, deceased, the counterpart of a certain conveyance, bearing date the 24th day of August 1791, and made between James Hooper and Rebecca, his wife, of the one part; and the said William Townsend, Richard Hewlett, and John Townsend, and William Burge, their trustee, of the other part; being a conveyance to the said bankrupts of certain land behind Grosvenor-place aforesaid, subject to a fee farm rent of £56 5s. per annum, but which land was abandoned by the then assignees of the said bankrupts' estates respectively, and taken possession of by the said James Hooper or his representatives; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee delivering up the title deeds and executing a conveyance to the ground landlord or his assigns, or to whom he or they may direct, of the estate and interest of the said bankrupts, some or one of them, in a certain messuage and premises, known as No. 31, Grosvenor-place aforesaid, which is valueless to the said bankrupts' estate by reason of the dilapidated state of such house, and of the arrear of ground rent due in respect of the same premises considerably exceeding the value thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Sheppard the elder, and Edward Sheppard the younger, of Uley, in the county of Gloucester, Clothiers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, trading under the firm of Edward Sheppard and Son, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects on Monday the 3d day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the office of Messieurs H. and R. Wilton, in the city of Gloucester in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing, either alone or in conjunction with any mortgagee or mortgagees, and either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon such credit, and with or without, and upon such security, as they may think fit, of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, as well real as personal; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupts' estate, and allowing time for payment of such debts, or the compositions thereon, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing to the provisional assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts all such costs, charges, and expenses as he may have sustained or incurred in or about the said bankrupts' affairs, and also to confirm and allow all acts done by such provisional assignee or by the said assignees in the management of the said estate and effects, since the opening of the said fiat; and especially to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding debts due to the estate of the said bankrupts from several persons who will be named at the meeting, at such respective sums, and payable in such manner respectively, as will be stated at the said meeting, or as the said assignees may find it expedient to agree to, and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Ellis, late of Stockwell-green, in the county of Surrey, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 31st day of March instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain debts and accounts due to or from and between the said bankrupt and John Sandys Penfold, and to or from and between the said bankrupt and John Ellis and Joseph Ellis and to or from and between the said bankrupt and the executor of the late George Williamson, and also to or from and between the said bankrupt and Edward Harrison and Charles Harrison, and the several claims and demands subsisting between the said several parties, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, compromising, settling, and adjusting; or otherwise commencing, reviving, and prosecuting certain actions or suits, both at law and in equity, between the said several above-mentioned persons, or any or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, disposing of, and conveying the equity of redemption and all other the estate and interest of the said bankrupt of and in the Stockwell Brewery, and other the freehold and leasehold hereditaments of the said bankrupt, situate at Stockwell, in the said county of Surrey, unto the said Edward Harrison and Charles Harrison, for a price or sum to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining in and executing a certain agreement in writing, the draft of which will be produced to the said meeting, and which purports to be made between the said assignees of the first part, the said Charles Ellis of the second part, the said John Ellis and Joseph Ellis of the third part, and the said John Sandys Penfold of the fourth part; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling the said hereditaments and premises at Stockwell aforesaid, by private contract or public auction, or otherwise; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in the conduct and management of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or otherwise incidental to the matters aforesaid, as they the said assignees may deem most advisable; and on other special affairs.

HEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 8th day of March 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secreetary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by FREDERICK COOK, of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, Common Carrier, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 16th day of January 1837, was awarded and issued forth against George Lush, of the city of Bristol, and also of the city of Bath, Provision Merchant, Carrier, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is annulled and rescinded.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for Thomas Chandler, late of Wood-street, Cheapside, London, and also late of City-terrace, City-road, in the county of Middlesex, Warehouseman, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, for thirteen days, to be computed from the 24th day of March instant; this is to give notice, that Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. one of the Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, authorised to act under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against the said Thomas Chandler, will sit on the 6th day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London; when and where the said bankrupt is required to surrender himself, before three of the clock of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Abraham Harrison Dry, of Saint Martin's-lane, near Charing-cross, in the county of Middlesex, Pawnbroker, Silversmith, and Dealer, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Charles Frederick Williams, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 23d of March instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, and on the 21st day of April next, at eleven in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. James Clark, Official Assignee, 84, Basinghall-street, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Messrs. Collier, Marchant, Birch, and Steel, Solicitors, Carey-street, Chancery-lane.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against John Austin, of Saint Mary Magdalen, near Hastings, in the county of Sussex, Builder, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to John Samuel Martin Fonblanque, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 21st day of March instant, and on the 21st day of April next, at one of the clock in the afternoon precisely on each of the said days, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
