A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales" it is, among other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders in any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us by any such charter (if we shall think fit by advice of Our Privy Council to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published, by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Margate, in the parish of St. John, in the isle of Thanet, have presented to Us a petition, setting forth, amongst other things, that the population of the said town and parish now exceeds eleven thousand, and praying that We would, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, take the said petition into Our gracious and early consideration, and fulfil the desire of the petitioners, by granting unto them a charter of incorporation:

Now, therefore, We, having considered the said petition, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on Monday the third day of April next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.
