AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of March 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or divisions in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places, for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situated to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Salop, assembled in general quarter sessions of the peace at the town of Shrewsbury, in the said county, on the second day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the several towns of Ellesmere, Newport, Market Drayton, and Wem, may be additional polling places for the said northern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Ellesmere, Newport, Market Drayton, and Wem, shall be additional polling places for the northern division of the said county of Salop; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, for assigning a district to the new chapel, at Salisbury, in the parish of Titchfield, in the county of Southampton, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions; and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence, of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" it is amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might hereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, or by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Titchfield, in the county of Southampton, and diocese of Winchester, contained a population of 3712 persons; that there are, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation for 850 persons, two chapels in the said parish, one called Croston Chapel, which affords accommodation to 200 persons, and the other, recently erected at Salisbury, which affords accommodation to 450 persons, including 320 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; and in which divine service is regularly performed:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said last mentioned chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named the Salisbury District, with boundaries as follows:

The said district is bounded on the west (from Hook Lake on the south to Curbridge Lake on the north); by the Hamble River, the same being the western boundary of the parish of Titchfield; on the north by Curbridge Lake, as far as the manor of Fautley; on the east by the manor of Fautley, as far as the northern boundary of the ancient Titchfield-park; then by the boundary of the said park, as far as Titchfield-common; then by the boundary of the said common, as far as the gate at the south east corner of the said common (called Common Gate); on the south by the boundary of the said common, as far as Hook Lake; and by the Lake to the Sea to the place where the western boundary commenced, as is more particularly described on the plan annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured green:

That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Titchfield, be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 9th year of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Church Commissioners' Office.
March 9, 1837.

THE following is the copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, for dividing the parish of Saint Mary Eling, in the county of Southampton, into two distinct and separate parishes, under the 58th of Geo. 3. cap. 45, section 16;

At the Court at Brighton, the 22d day of December 1836, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions; and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 9th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Saint Mary Eling, in the county of Southampton, and diocese of Winchester, contained a population of 424 persons; that the parish church of the said parish affords accommodation for 726 persons; and that there is one chapel in the said parish, recently erected, which affords accommodation for 555 persons, including 418 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel is consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein;

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, under the provisions of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that the said parishes should be named, respectively, the parish of Saint Mary, Eling, and the parish of Saint Mary, North Eling, and that the said last mentioned chapel should be the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary, North Eling, with boundaries as follows:

The boundary commences at the turnpike road, at the north west of Paultons, leading from Southampton to Plaitford and Salisbury, it proceeds, southward, by Fuzley Farm, and Abbot's Pond to New-bridge; from thence, by the rivulet to Cadnam-bridge, under the arch (across the turnpike road leading from Southampton to Ringwood), into the New Forest to a bound stone on Brockhurst-hill, marked E. P. and M. P. for Eling and Minstead parishes; the boundary then continues by Hampton-green to Daghour-bridge, on the Lyndhurst turnpike road; it then goes eastward down the rivulet that runs from Minstead Mill, below Furzy Lawn, to a passage, from whence it proceeds across the Forest, northward, to Whitehouse-lane, across Bartley-field into the Ringwood and Southampton turnpike road, turning on the right, eastward, for about a mile, to Netley-green, where it turns to the left to Stamford-hill, and proceeds, northward, to where the four roads meet at Whitemoor Pond; from thence, northward, to the Romsey and Ringwood turnpike road, taking the right direction to Ower, the Vine Inn and Ower-bridge; where it turns, westward, up the rivulet called Blackwater, to the Gravel-pits, and the property of William Sloane Stanley, Esq. to the turnpike road leading from Southampton to Plaitford and Salisbury, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured green:

That the whole of the glebe land lies within, and will continue to belong to, the parish of Saint Mary, Eling, and the vicarial tithes which will arise within the said parish of Saint Mary, North Eling, and will accrue and belong to the incumbent of the said last mentioned parish will be about one third of the whole of the tithes of the present existing parish; and that there are no moduses in the said parish; that it is estimated that the amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues which will accrue to the incumbent of the said parish of Saint Mary, North Eling, will be about one fourth of the whole:

That the consents of the Lord Bishop of Winchester, and of the Reverend William Joseph George Phillips, the patron of the said parish church of Saint Mary, Eling, have been obtained as required by the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and, in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord

Bishop, and the said William Joseph George Phillips, have signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Manchester South Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made at the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions intended to be included in an Act for which a Bill is now pending before the Honorable the House of Commons, entitled "a Bill for making a railway from Manchester to the Derby and Birmingham Junction Railway at or near Tamworth, with branches to be called "the Manchester South Union railway;" and also for powers to make and maintain a branch railway from the main line of the said Manchester South Union railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near a certain wharf in the occupation of Thomas Kinnersly, in the parishes of Wolstanton and Audley, and townships of Brieryhurst, Ravenscliff, and Talk, or one of them in the county of Stafford, and terminating by a junction with the Grand Junction railway, at or near Crewe, in the parish of Church Coppenthal, and townships of Monks Coppenthal, and Church Coppenthal, or one of them, in the county of Chester, and with a separate termination by a junction with the proposed railway from Chester to Crewe, in the said parish of Church Coppenthal, and township of Monks Coppenthal, in the said county of Chester; and which said intended branch will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial, or other places of Wolstanton, Brieryhurst, Ravenscliff, Audley, Talk, otherwise Talk-on-the-Hill, or some of them, all in the county of Stafford, Church Lawton, Barthomley, Alsager, Haslington, Crewe, Wyburnury, Church Coppenthal, Monks Coppenthal, or some of them, all in the county of Chester; and also to make and maintain another branch railway from the said before-mentioned main line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing with a double commencement at or near Whieldon's-grove, in the township of Fenton-Vivian, in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and also at or near Winton's-wood, in the township of Shelton, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and terminating at or near the basin of the Caudon canal, in the parish and township of Leek, and passing from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Stoke-upon-Trent, Fenton-Culvert, Fenton-Vivian, Shelton, Hanley, Boteslow, otherwise Boteslow, Bucknall, Bagnall, Eaves, Burslem, Abbey Hulton, Norton-in-the-Moors, Milton, Leek, Endon, Stanley, Park-lane, Horton, Cheddleton, Longsdon, otherwise Longsdon, Leek and Lowe, otherwise Leek Lowe, all in the county of Stafford; and also to make and maintain another branch railway from and out of the first-mentioned main line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing in the parish of Saint Michael, Lichfield, and terminating near Tamworth-street and Butcher's-row, in the parish of Saint Mary's Lichfield, and passing from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Saint Michael, Lichfield, Saint Chad, otherwise Stowe, Lichfield, Saint Mary, Lichfield, or some of them, all in the county of the city of Lichfield; and it is intended by the said Act, to take power to deviate from the line or lines of the said railways or branch railways, as the same are intended to be laid out on the plans thereof, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the said railways or branch railways, save and except where the same is or are intended to pass through lands covered with houses, and in such case to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said railways or branch railways; and it is further intended to take power by the said Act, to alter and divert for the purpose of the said railway the line of the Caudon canal, in the townships of Endon and Stanley, in the parish of Leek, in manner and to the extent hereafter to be shewn on the plans thereof; and it is further intended to extend to the said Act, so to be applied for all the powers and provisions of the Bill now as aforesaid pending in the Honorable the House of Commons.

Slater and Heelis, Manchester; Few, Hamilton, and Few, London; Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all necessary and proper bridges, wharfs, quays, warehouses, works, and other conveniences and diversions of rivers and streams connected therewith, commencing at or in the termination of, and forming a junction with, the intended deviation of the Great North of England Railway, in the township and parish of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, in a certain piece of waste ground adjoining the south shore of the River Tyne, belonging to, and in the occupation of William Cathbert, of Beaufront, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. as sub-lessee under Adam Askew, of Wimpole-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. who is lessee under the Bishop of Durham, the owner, and terminating in a certain field or close lying on the south side of the turnpike-road leading from Newcastle-upon-Tyne to Scotswood, and situate in the township of Westgate, and in that part of the parochial chapelry of Saint John which lies within the county of Northumberland, in the occupation of William Knox, and belonging to Thomas Anderson, of Benwell, in the county of Northumberland, Esq.; which said railway, works, bridges, and conveniences, are intended to be made from, through, and into the said parish and township of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and from, through, and into the several townships of Elswick and Westgate, and parochial chapelry of Saint John and the parish of Saint Nicholas, lying partly in the said county of Northumberland, and partly in the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

And that it is also intended to obtain power to make and maintain a bridge across the River Tyne, for the purpose of, and connected with, and as part of, the said intended railway, which said bridge will abutt towards the south upon the said waste ground, in the said township and parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and towards the north upon a piece of ground used as a brick-yard, belonging to the said Thomas Anderson, situate in the township of Westgate, and in the said parish of Saint Nicholas, in that part of the said parochial chapelry of Saint John which lies within the said county of Northumberland, and in the occupation of Messieurs Isaac Cookson and Company and of Mr. James Jons, or the one of them.

And that it is intended to apply for power to limit the passage over such bridge to carriages adapted to be drawn or propelled on railways by locomotive steam power, and to the passage of horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and to collect and levy toll for such carriages, horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and for locomotive engines.

And that it is also intended to obtain powers in the said Act for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway, and for the use of the said intended warehouses, wharfs, quays, landing places, works, and other conveniences.

And that power will also be obtained to deviate from the line of the said railway and bridge respectively, to the extent of one hundred yards on either side of the said railway and bridge, or to such other extent as Parliament shall allow.—Dated this 15th day of February 1837.

Mewburn and Hutchinson, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, explain, and repeal, some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway, from near the River Tyne, to or near the River Tees, to be called the Great North of England Railway, in the county of Durham," which said Great North of England Railway, passes through, to, from, and out, of the several parishes following, all in the county of Durham, that is to say, Gateshead, Gateshead Fell, Whickham, Chester-le-street, Saint Oswald, Saint Giles, Pitlington, Croxdale, Shincliffe, Kelloe, Bishop Middleham, Sedgfield, Bishopton, Merrington, Aycliffe, Great Stainton, Heighington, Haughton-le-Skerne, Darlington, and Hurworth, or some of them or some part or parts of them; and also through, to, from, and out of the several townships, hamlets, chapelries, constaberies, or places following, all in the said county of Durham, that is to say, the town and borough of Gateshead, Gateshead, Gateshead Fell, Lamsley, Kibblesworth, Kimblesworth, Ravensworth, Birtley, Chester-le-street, Whitehill, Harraton, Waldridge, Lambton, Pelton, Picktree, Pelaw, Plawsworth, Urpeth, Pokerley, Ouston, Crossgate, otherwise Saint Margaret, in Crossgate, Durham, Moor-houses, Framwell-gate, Keeper, Gilligate Moor, Gilligate, otherwise Saint Giles, Sherburn, Sherburn-house, Pitlington, otherwise Pitlington Halgarth, Whitewell, Old Durham, Elvet Barony, Elvet Borough, Shincliffe, Cassop, Butterby, Sunderland-bridge, Croxdale, Coxhoe, Church Kelloe, Quarrington, Hett, Butcher Race, Ferry Hill, Cornforth, Thinford, Garmonsway, otherwise Garmonsway Moor, (which last mentioned place is extra parochial) Bishop Middleham, Mainsforth, Thrislington, Tursdale, Kirk Merrington, Chilton, Great Chilton, Little Chilton, Bradbury, Bradbry with the Isle, Mordon, Mordon Carrs, Woodham, Nun Stainton, Copelaw, Preston le Skerne, Grindon, and Howhills, Ricknall, Ricknall Grange, Heighington, Travelers Rest, Great Stainton, Little Stainton, Elstol, Great Aycliffe, Heworth, Brafferton, Newtown, otherwise Newton Ketton, Ketton, Coatham Mundeville, Whessoe, Beaumont Hill, Harrowgate, Brampton, Skerningham, otherwise Skerningham, Haughton, Cockerton, Darlington, Darlington Borough, Darlington Bondgate, otherwise Bondgate in Darlington, Blackwell, Oxen le Field, and Hurworth. And power will also be applied for in the said amended Act to abandon that part of the said railway, in the county of Durham, which is hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, commencing in, at, or near to a certain field or close numbered 5 on the plan of the said Great North of England Railway deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, situate in the township of Ouston, in the parish of Chester-le-Street, in the said county, and belonging to the Lady Noel, and now in the occupation of William Lumsdon, and terminating in or near to a certain field or close, or garden ground belonging to and in the occupation of Thomas Fenwick, Esq. of South-hill, in the said county, and adjoining on the west side of the gardens and pleasure-ground of the said Thomas Fenwick, at South-hill aforesaid, and situate in the township and parish of Chester-le-Street, in the said county of Durham; which part of the said Great North of England Railway, so intended to be abandoned, is situate in the several townships, parochial chapelries, hamlets, or places of Saint Margaret, Framwellgate, Plawsworth, Chester-le-Street, Harraton, Ouston, and Birtley, and in the parishes of Saint Oswald and Chester-le-Street, all in the said county of Durham; and in lieu of such abandoned part of the said Great North of England Railway, power will be applied for to deviate from the line of the said railway, and to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences thereto belonging, in continuation of the said Great North of England Railway, commencing in that part of the said Great North of England Railway which passes through or into, or which is intended to pass through or into, the said close, numbered 5 on the said plan, deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace of the county of Durham, in the said township of Ouston, and in the said parish of Chester-le-Street, and which is not intended to be abandoned, and passing thence from, through, and into the said parishes of Chester-le-Street and Saint Oswald, and from, through, and into the said several townships, hamlets, parochial chapelries, constaberies, and places of Birtley, Ouston, Harraton, Chester-le-Street, Plawsworth, Saint Margaret and Framwell-gate, all in the said county of Durham, and terminating in and forming a junction with the said Great North of England Railway, at, in, or near to the said field, close, or garden belonging to, and in the occupation of, the said Thomas Fenwick, of South-hill; and that power will also be applied for to abandon that part of the said Great North of England Railway, in the said county of Durham, which is also hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, commencing in or near to a certain field or close, situate in the township of Gateshead, and in the parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, numbered one hundred and sixteen on the said plan deposited in the said office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham, belonging to the Right Honorable Lord Ravensworth, and passing thence from, through and into the said parishes of Gateshead and Gateshead Fell, in the said county of Durham, and from, through and into the several townships, hamlets, parochial chapeltries, constableries and places of Lamesley Gateshead Fell and Gateshead and terminating in or near to a field or haugh, called the Hassocks, situate at the south shore of the River Tyne, near to the west end of a quay, commonly called Askew's Quay, otherwise Redheugh Quay, in the said township of Gateshead, and in the said parish of Gateshead, all in the said county of Durham, and belonging to Adam Askew of Wimpole-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and now or late in the occupation of Robert Clark; and that in lieu of the said last mentioned abandoned part of the said Great North of England Railway, power will also be applied for to deviate and to make and maintain a railway with all proper works and conveniences from the said line of railway, in continuation of the said Great North of England Railway, commencing at, in or near to the said close, belonging to the said Lord Ravensworth, in the said township of Gateshead, and numbered one hundred and sixteen on the said plan deposited in the said office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, and passing from, through and into the said townships of Lamesley, Gateshead Fell and Gateshead, and the said parishes of Gateshead and Gateshead Fell, and terminating in a certain piece of waste ground adjoining the south shore of the River Tyne, situate in the said township and parish of Gateshead, and belonging to, and in the occupation of, William Cuthbert of Beaufront, in the county of Northumberland, Esquire, as sub-lessee, under the said Adam Askew, of Wimpole-street aforesaid, who is Lessee under the Bishop of Durham the owner thereof; and that power will also be applied for in the said Act to authorize the said Company to make a branch railway from and out of the intended extension (hereinafter mentioned) of the said Great North of England Railway, in that part thereof which passes through or into, or is intended to pass through or into, the parish of Thirsk, in the north riding of the county of York, commencing in or near to a certain field numbered 20 on the plan of the said intended extension of the said Great North of England Railway, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said north riding of the county of York, and lying on the south side of the turnpike-road leading from Thirsk to Ripon, in the said parish of Thirsk and in the township of Carlton Miniott, in the said north riding, belonging to Mary Walker, and in the occupation of William Faint, and terminating in a field lying on the west side of and adjoining the turnpike road leading from Thirsk to Topcliffe, and in the township of Sowerby, and in the said parish of Thirsk, belonging to and occupied by Hannah Hudson; which said branch railway is intended to pass and be made from, through, and into the parish of Thirsk aforesaid, and the several townships, hamlets, and places of Carlton, Miniott, Sowerby, and Thirsk, in the said north riding of the county of York; and which said intended extension of the said Great North of England Railway will commence at or in the present termination of the same railway, in the township and parish of Hurworth aforesaid, and will terminate at, in, or upon certain lands, called Hob Moor, situate in the parishes of Saint Mary Bishophill the elder and Saint Mary Bishophill the younger, or the one of them, in the city of York, and county of the same city.

And it is also intended to obtain power to divert the course of streams, brooks, rivulets, and highways in the line of the said deviations and branch respectively; and it is also intended to obtain power to raise money for the purposes of the said recited Act, and the said intended Act, by an increase or alteration of the existing rates, tolls, or duties, or by new and additional rates, tolls, or duties, or by both of those means, or by some other means to be provided by the said intended Act; and that power will also be applied for to make such deviations in the line or lines of railway and branch to be comprised in the said Act, not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line or lines and branch respectively, or to such other extent as Parliament shall permit.—
Dated this 15th day of February 1837.
