HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Half-pay and Retired-pay due for the quarter ending 31st March 1837, will be payable at this Office on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of April next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th of April, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 17th and 18th of April, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of April, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 26th and 27th of April.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable every Wednesday, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into this Office, or transmit them to His Majesty's Paymaster-General, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form of bill to be sent to them from the Paymaster-General's Office, after the receipt of the usual letter of application and declaration.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By payment at the Dock-yards at Portsmouth, Devonport, and Chatham, on presenting to the Pay Clerks the usual declaration or certificate on the days appointed for payment at the respective ports. This mode will be found more convenient to Officers living near any one of these ports, than either a bill of exchange or remittance.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

By order of His Majesty's Paymaster-General,

T. Haultain, Assistant Paymaster-General.

Manchester South Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made at the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions intended to be included in an Act for which a Bill is now pending before the Honorable the House of Commons, entitled "a Bill for making a railway from Manchester to the Derby and Birmingham Junction Railway at or near Tamworth, with branches to be called, the Manchester South Union railway;" and also for powers to make and maintain a branch railway from the main line of the said Manchester South Union railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near a certain wharf in the occupation of Thomas Kinnersly, in the parishes of Wolstanton and Audley, and townships of Brieryhurst, Ravenscliff, and Talk, or one of them in the county of Stafford, and terminating by a junction with the Grand Junction railway, at or near Crewe, in the parish of Church Coppenthal, and townships of Monks Coppenthal, and Church Coppenthal, or one of them, in the county of Chester, and with a separate termination by a junction with the proposed railway from Chester to Crewe, in the said parish of Church Coppenthal, and township of Monks Coppenthal, in the said county of Chester; and which said intended branch will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial, or other places of Wolstanton, Brieryhurst, Ravenscliff, Audley, Talk, otherwise Talk-on-the-Hill, or some of them, all in the county of Stafford, Church Lawton, Barthomley, Alsager, Haslington, Crewe, Woburnbury, Church Coppenthal, Monks Coppenthal, or some of them, all in the county of Chester; and also to make and maintain another branch railway from the said before-mentioned main line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing with a double commencement at or near Whicklon's-grove, in the township of Fenton-Vivian, in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and also at or near Winton's-wood, in the township of Shelton, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and terminating at or near the basin of the Caudon canal, in the parish and township of Leek, and passing from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Stoke-upon-Trent, Fenton-Culvert, Fenton-Vivian, Shelton, Hanley, Boteslow, otherwise Boteslow, Bucknall, Bagnall, Eaves, Burslem, Abbey-Hulton, Norton-in-the-Moors, Mil-on, Leek, Endon, Stanley, Park-lane, Horton, Cheddleton, Longsdon, otherwise Longsdon, Leek and Lowe, otherwise Leek Lowe, all in the county of Stafford; and also to make and maintain another branch railway from and out of the first-mentioned main line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing in the parish of Saint Michael, Lichfield, and terminating near Tamworth-street and Butcher's-row, in the parish of Saint Mary's Lichfield, and passing from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Saint Michael, Lichfield, Saint Chad, otherwise Stowe, Lichfield, Saint Mary, Lichfield, or some of them, all in the county of the city of Lichfield; and it is intended by the said Act, to take power to deviate from the line or lines of the said railways or branch railways, as the same are intended to be laid out on the plans thereof, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the said railways or branch railways, save and except where the same is or are intended to pass through lands covered with houses, and in such case to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said railways or branch railways; and it is further intended to take power by the said Act, to alter and divert for the purpose of the said railway the line of the Caudon canal, in the townships of Endon and Stanley, in the parish of Leek, in manner and to the extent hereafter to be shewn on the plans thereof; and it is further intended to extend to the said Act, so to be applied for all the powers and provisions of the Bill now as aforesaid pending in the Honorable the House of Commons.

Slater and Heelis, Manchester; Few, Hamilton, and Few, London; Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all necessary and proper bridges, wharfs, quays, warehouses, works, and other conveniences and diversions of rivers and streams connected therewith, commencing at or in the termination of, and forming a junction with, the intended deviation of the Great North of England Railway, in the township and parish of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, in a certain piece of waste ground adjoining the south shore of the River Tyne, belonging to, and in the occupation of William Cathbert, of Beaufront, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. as sub-lessee under Adam Askew, of Wimpole-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. who is lessee under the Bishop of Durham, the owner, and terminating in a certain field or close lying on the south side of the turnpike-road leading from Newcastle-upon-Tyne to Scotswood, and situate in the township of Westgate, and in that part of the parochial chapelry of Saint John which lies within the county of Northumberland, in the occupation of William Knox, and belonging to Thomas Anderson, of Bewell, in the county of Northumberland, Esq.; which said railway, works, bridges, and conveniences, are intended to be made from, through, and into the said parish and township of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and from, through, and into the several townships of Elswick and Westgate, and parochial chapelry of Saint John and the parish of Saint Nicholas, lying partly in the said county of Northumberland, and partly in the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

And that it is also intended to obtain power to make and maintain a bridge across the River Tyne, for the purpose of, and connected with, and as part of, the said intended railway, which said bridge will abutt towards the south upon the said waste ground, in the said township and parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and towards the north upon a piece of ground used as a brick-yard, belonging to the said Thomas Anderson, situate in the township of Westgate, and in the said parish of Saint Nicholas, in that part of the said parochial chapelry of Saint John which lies within the said county of Northumberland, and in the occupation of Messieurs Isaac Cookson and Company and of Mr. James Jones, or the one of them.

And that it is intended to apply for power to limit the passage over such bridge to carriages adapted to be drawn or propelled on railways by locomotive steam power, and to the passage of horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and to collect and levy toll for such carriages, horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and for locomotive engines.

And that it is also intended to obtain powers in the said Act for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway, and for the use of the said intended warehouses, wharfs, quays, landing places, works, and other conveniences.

And that power will also be obtained to deviate from the line of the said railway and bridge respectively, to the extent of one hundred yards on either side of the said railway and bridge, or to such other extent as Parliament shall allow.—Dated this 15th day of February 1837.
