FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1837.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 20, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that no card can be received at this Office for a presentation to take place at His Majesty's Levee, unless the Naval or Military rank, or other designation, of the Gentleman to be presented, is correctly stated on it, as well as his name, and also of the Gentleman who is to present him.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's House, St. James's, May 2, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room on Thursday, May 18th.

It is absolutely necessary, that all Ladies intending to be presented should send their names, with those of the Ladies presenting them, to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, on or before Tuesday, 18th of May, in order that they may be submitted to Her Majesty.

All Ladies and Gentlemen attending the Drawing-Room are requested to bring three cards, one to be left in the Anti-room, another to be given to the Lord in Waiting to the King, and the third to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will announce the names to Her Majesty.

No Lady can present another, unless she herself attends the Drawing-Room.

It is the particular desire of the Queen, that Her Majesty's Court, and all Ladies attending the Drawing-Rooms, should appear in dresses of British manufacture; and the Queen is also graciously pleased to command, that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Rooms do appear in Court trains, according to the regulations established by Her Majesty.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of April 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Brecknock, in quarter sessions assembled, at the Shire-hall, in the town of Brecknock, in the said county, on Tuesday the fourth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the county of Brecon are insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Brecknock, the village of Devynnock, the town of Hay, the town of Talgarth, the town of Crickhowell, and the town of Builth, in the said county of Brecon, may be polling places for the said county :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places mentioned in the said petition, namely, the town of Brecknock, the village of Devynnock, the town of Hay, the town of Talgarth, the town of Crickhowell, and the town of Builth, in the said county of Brecon, shall be polling places for the said county of Brecon ; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His present Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of April 1837.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an agreement entered into with the Deptford-creek-bridge Company, application is now making to Parliament, for an Act to enable the London and Greenwich Railway Company to take a toll for persons, horses, cattle, and carriages passing along a bridge proposed to be constructed by them across the River Ravensbourne, in the parishes of Saint Paul Deptford and Saint Alphage Greenwich, in the county of Kent; and which said railway is authorised to be made from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Saint Saviour, Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, and Saint John, in the borough of Southwark; Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, Saint Mary Rotherhithe, Hatcham, and Camberwell, in the county of Surrey; Saint Paul Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey; and Saint Nicholas Deptford and Saint Alphage or Alphiege Greenwich, in the said county of Kent.—Dated this 2d day of May 1837.

James Vallance, Solicitor to the Bill.

Enlargement of Kew Church, Surrey.

WHEREAS a faculty is intended to be applied for to the Court of the Commissary of the Lord Bishop of Winchester in and for the parts of Surrey, for the enlargement of, and for other alterations to be made in, the present parish church of Saint Anne, Kew, in the county of Surrey, for the better accommodation of the parishioners and inhabitants of the said parish, and also for the removal of such monuments or tombs, head and foot stones, as may be requisite for such purpose, the same to be replaced as near as may be in their former situations: and whereas it appears, that it will be necessary for such purpose to remove the monuments or tombs, or head and foot stones attached to the graves of the following persons, viz. Charity Scott, Ann Thomas, Colonel Annand de la Bastide, John Smith, Joseph Hobbs, John Butt, John Edwards, James Orton, Hannah Leban, James Richards, Elizabeth Gale, Ann Plaistow, Agnes Humphreys, Robert Sole or Sowle; Edward Constant, William Crompton, John Greene, Samuel Fox, and Joseph Rathus:

The heirs and next of kin of such persons, and all others interested, are, therefore, hereby desired to take notice of such intended removals, and, if they think fit, to superintend the same; and in order thereto, they are requested to apply to Edward Scard, Esq. Churchwarden of the said parish, Kew-green, Surrey.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR HIS MAJESTY'S DOCK-YARDS, AND THE ADMIRALTY AND MARINE OFFICES.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, April 17, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 11th May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying

His Majesty's several Dock-yards, and the Coal Depôt-Ship at Falmouth, or any one or more of them, and the Admiralty and Marine Offices, with COALS.

Rock Life Assurance Company.

Rock Life Assurance-Office, No. 14,
New Bridge-Street, Blackfriars,
May 3, 1837.

THE Annual General Court of the Proprietors of this Company will be holden on Wednesday the 17th day of May instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the New London Hotel, the corner of Bride-lane, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, for the receipt of the Auditors' report of the Company's accounts for the last year; and for the election of four Directors and one Auditor, in the place of those who are then to go out of office by rotation, each respectively, according to the deed of settlement.

Notice has been given, in pursuance of the deed of settlement, by the following Proprietors, of their intention to become Candidates, each respectively, on the occasion, viz.

To be Directors.

John Masterman, James Horne, and Thomas Allan, Alfred Thorp, Esqrs.

To be Auditor.

Thomas Francis Wilson, Esq.

The said Court will be holden for the following special purposes also, viz.

1st. To receive a report from the Court of Directors, communicating the result of their further consideration of the subject of a former report made by them, "on the expediency of buying the bonus or bonuses added to such policies as bear the same, separately from the sum assured," in pursuance of the reference made to the Directors at the last Extraordinary General Court, held 29th June 1836.

2d. To pass a new or bye-law, as recommended at the last Annual General Court, held 18th May 1836, to empower the Court of Directors to act, as may be provided, on the forfeiture of certain policies by the terms thereof.

3d. To pass, if approved of, certain resolutions, that will be then recommended by the Court of Directors, empowering them to grant specific allowances in the case of certain policies which have become forfeited.

And 4th. To consider whether or not, as will be submitted by the Directors, General Courts shall be held half-yearly in future.

And an Extraordinary General Court of the Proprietors of this Company will be holden on Friday the 19th day of May instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the New London Hotel afore said, for the purpose of making the new or bye-law before mentioned, provided it shall have passed the Annual General Court on the 17th instant; and for the purpose also, if that should be found impracticable, or this at the same time judged expedient, of confirming the resolutions before mentioned, provided they shall have passed the said Annual General Court.

By the Court of Directors,
W. S. Lewis, Actuary.

GEORGE MORRIS FOX, Auctioneer.
Huntingdon, May 5, 1837.

BRITISH GUIANA.

District of Demerara and Essequibo.

PURSUANT to an order of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice for the district of Demerara and Essequibo, in the colony of British Guiana, dated the 3d day of February 1837;

I, the undersigned, Provost Marshal of said colony, in the name and behalf of George Robertson, Andrew Rankin, and Alexander Shaw, all inhabitants of the district of Demerara and Essequibo, in British Guiana aforesaid, for themselves and de rato cavens, James Robertson and Anna Christina Johnstone, born Buse, now in Europe, in quality of deliberating executors and executrix to the last will and testament and codicil thereto attached of James Johnstone, deceased, and his estate and effects (boedel), including plantation Providence, situate on the east bank of the River Demerara, and plantation Sage Pond, situate in canal No. 3, in said River Demerara, and three-fourth undivided shares of plantation Velerhoofd, situate on said east bank of the River Demerara, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, at the Roll-court for the district of Demerara and Essequibo, in British Guiana aforesaid, to be holden at the Court-house, in the Guiana Public-buildings, in George-town, in the month of October 1837, in order then and there to render their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form, against the estate (boedel) of the said James Johnstone, deceased, and the plantations above-mentioned.

Whereas in default of which the non-appearers will be proceeded against according to law.

Marshal's-office, George-town, Demerara and Essequibo, 7th day of March 1837.

T. C. HAMMILL, Provost Marshal.

BRITISH GUIANA.

District of Demerara and Essequibo.

THE undersigned, in his capacity of Provost-Marshal of British Guiana, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of Demerara and Essequibo, at the instance of Meinhard Johannis Retemeyer, in quality of Attorney of Messrs. Van Esghen and Co. of Amsterdam, Merchants, plaintiffs, versus the Proprietor or Proprietors, Representative or Representatives, of the undivided one-third of plantation La Bonne Intention, cum annexis, situate on the east coast of Demerara, defendants, and, in pursuance of authority granted by the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of British Guiana, bearing date the 7th day of February 1837, expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of March 1838;

The undivided one-third of the sugar plantation La Bonne Intention, cum annexis, including the undivided one-third of the services of the apprenticed labourers thereto attached, situate on the east coast of Demerara.

The judicium of præ et concurrentiæ on the nett proceeds of the said undivided one third of said plantation La Bonne Intention, cum annexis, will be held by the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice aforesaid, three months after the day of sale, for which purpose all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest in and to the said nett proceeds of the said sale, are hereby, by him the said Provost Marshal of British Guiana, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attorney, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of said Colony, at the Roll-court, to be holden at the Court-house, in the Guiana Public-buildings, in George-town, in the month of June 1838: under a penalty that against the non-appearers will be proceeded as the law directs.

An inventory of the above-named plantation may be daily seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 32, Fenchurch-Street, London, and P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerara and Essequibo, this 1st day of March 1837.

T. C. HAMMILL, Provost Marshal.

FOR sale, valuable sugar estate in Demerara, Plantation Peter's Hall, comprising about 500 acres of land of as good quality as any in the colony.

The cultivation consists of about 200 acres in canes, and between fifty and sixty acres in plantains. Number of apprenticed labourers attached to said estate, 175.

The estate is situated on the eastern bank of the River Demerara, within three miles of George town, and from its locality, the facility of shipping its produce and receiving supplies, possesses advantages rarely to be met with in the colony.

The above property is now offered for sale, and tenders in writing for the same will be received by James Taylor and John L. Smith, jun. at George-town, until twelve o'clock, on the 10th of August next, when the highest tender, if approved of, will be accepted.

Freehold and Leasehold Estates of the late James Sharp, deceased.

TO be sold, at Deptford, in the county of Kent, pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a cause Sharp v. Sharp and others, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court.

The freehold property consists of two houses, one situate in Flagon-row, and the other in Butcher-row, in the town of Deptford.

The leasehold property consists of five houses and a piece of building-ground, situate on the east side of King-street, two houses situate on the west side of High-street (formerly called Butt-lane), two houses situate on the north side of Lucas-street, all situate in the town of Deptford.

Also twenty-nine £100. shares in the Kent Water-works.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Tanfield-court, Inner Temple, London; of Messrs. Hewitt and Roper, Solicitors, No. 9, Tokenhouse-yard, London; Messrs. Allen and Mortimer, Solicitors, No. 17, Clifford's-inn, London; of Messrs. Parker, Solicitors, Greenwich; and Mr. David Shuter's, Solicitors, No. 67, Millbank-street, Westminster.

All those capital copyhold messuages or tenements, with the gardens, shrubberies, paddock, and fields adjoining, together with the valuable outbuildings thereto belonging, called or known by the name of Norwood-lodge, situate at Norwood, in the county of Surrey, leading from the Rose and Crown, in the London-road to Streatham, together with the field of meadow land lying behind the same, containing altogether 25A. or thereabouts, and which are let upon lease, at the yearly rent of £290.

N.B.—Great part of this property is now covered with valuable villas and buildings, and the grounds are tastefully laid out in walks and shrubberies, and are now in the occupation of most respectable and responsible tenants, at increased yearly rents, the whole proving a most valuable property for investment.

Plans and particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings; of Messrs. Blackstock, Bunce, Vincent, and Sherwood, 1, Paper-buildings, Temple; Messrs. Lawrence and Blenkarne, 32, Bucklersbury, city; and of Messrs. Jeyes and Smith, 67, Chancery-lane.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the several causes of Lupton versus Hescott, Lupton versus Hescott, and Lupton versus Brown, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the house of Mr. Robert Talbot, at the George Inn, in the parish of Barlings, in the county of Lincoln, in the month of June next;

A valuable and desirable freehold estate, situate at Longworth, in the parish of Barlings aforesaid, comprising the manor or lordship of West Langworth, with the rights and royalties; the manor-house of Langworth aforesaid, with the outoffices, buildings, and appurtenances adjoining and belonging thereto, several cottages or tenements, with small gardens or pieces of ground attached to the same, and several closes of arable and pasture land.

The whole is freehold, and will be sold in lots, and the day of sale and other particulars will be given in a subsequent advertisement.

In the mean time particulars, with plan and conditions of sale, may be had (gratis) at the said Master's office, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane: of Mr. George Capes, 5, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, London; of Messrs. Peirson and Holdich, Solicitors, Seaforth; of Mr. Edward Betham, Land Surveyor, Lincoln; at the principal inns in Lincoln and Wragby; and at the place of sale.

TO be peremptorily resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Robinson v. Robinson, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the King's Arms Inn, in Higher Benthall, in the county of York, on Monday the 22d day of May 1837, at six o'clock in the evening;

All that valuable freehold estate or farm, with the buildings thereon, consisting of a messuage or dwelling-house, two barns, shippoon, stable, and other outbuildings, with several closes or parcels of arable, meadow, and pasture land, situate at Lythe, in the parish of Tatham, in the county of Lancaster, containing ninety-three acres statute measure, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, now or late in the occupation of George Loxam, as tenant thereof.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's office, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. Cuvelje, 19, Southampton-buildings aforesaid; and of Mr. Addison, Gray's-inn, London; of Messrs. Sharpe and Son, Solicitors, Lancaster; and of Messrs. Wilson and Harrison, Solicitors, Kendal.

Valuable Properties at Linton and Countisbury, Devon, near the celebrated Valley of Rocks.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Stribling, at the Crown Inn, in the town of Linton, in the county of Devon, on Thursday the 25th day of May instant, at five of the clock in the afternoon (by order of the assignees of Mr. Jacob Waits, a bankrupt);

Lot 1. The undivided moiety of that well accustomed and substantially built inn, in the fashionable watering place of Linton, called the Crown, together with the stables, out-houses, courts, and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

And also the undivided moiety of the close or parcel of land, called the Shutapark, situate near the said inn, containing, by estimation, one acre, more or less, including the garden and dung yard part thereof.

Lot 2. The undivided moiety of that other close or parcel of land, called the Wester Close, containing, by estimation, one acre, more or less.

This lot is very eligibly situate for building, and commands a splendid view of the far celebrated Valley of Rocks.

Lot 3. The undivided moiety of all that other close or parcel of land, called Homer, or Lower Broom Close, containing, by estimation, one acre and three roods, more or less, also situate in Linton aforesaid.

And also the undivided moiety of all the large portion of beautiful woodland belonging to the Crown property, in Linton Town and Countisbury-woods (except the small portion given in exchange to the late Mr. Lock), the greater part of which adjoins the Homer, or Lower Broom Close, and lies between it and the water, part lies between Mr. Lane's and Mr. Clarke's coppice, and other part, in Countisbury-wood, adjoins the Slippery Rock.

The numerous sites for building in this lot can hardly be equalled in beauty in any part of England; the whole of the above lots are held for the remainder of a term of 1000 years, created in the year 1780, and the entirety of the above premises (except the beautiful woodlands which are in hand) is now held by Mr. Crook, a highly respectable tenant, under lease, of which about six years are unexpired, at the very low rent of £53, out of which some slight deduction is made for taxes, and the rent will be apportioned between the lots at the time of sale; the timber and minerals are reserved to the landlord.

Lot 4. The undivided moiety of that eligibly situated and well accustomed inn, called the Blue Ball, in Countisbury Town, and of the stable pigstye, and two gardens thereunto adjoining, the entirety of which is now in the occupation of Mr. John Haynes, who has greatly improved the same, under an agreement for a repairing lease, for the term of fourteen years, to be determinable at the end of the first seven years, at the clear yearly rent of £9, subject to which agreement the premises will be sold.

The undivided moiety of the following closes, viz.:—Homer's or the Captain's Meadow, containing, by estimation, one acre, more or less; Gouchay, containing, by estimation, about two acres, more or less; the Berry Lawn, now divided into two fields; and containing about seven acres, more or less; and of one portion of the Windpit Meadow, now in the occupation of Mr. Hooper, or his undertenant.

The undivided moiety of the turf-house and two gardens, now occupied by Mr. Bale, or his undertenant, together with the undivided moiety of the unfinished cottage adjoining thereto.

And the undivided moiety of that portion of woodland under Westwood, containing about for acres and a half, lying between Mr. Bale's and Mr. William Kidd's coppice; and also of the small spot of woodland near the same, and bounded by the path to Countisbury and Mr. Bale's wood, both which portions of woodland are close to, and form part of, the celebrated scenery of Waters Meet; together with such rights of common, &c. on Countisbury-down as belong thereto.

The undivided moiety of that close or piece of pasture land, called the Codbay, containing, by estimation, sixteen acres, more or less.

And also of all that piece of woodland adjoining South-hill, near Waters Meet, belonging to the same, and containing, by estimation, about six acres, more or less; together with the right of common, &c. (if any) belonging thereto on Countisbury-down aforesaid.

The last lot is situate at Countisbury aforesaid, and is of freehold tenure, except some undivided portion thereof, which will be explained at the time of sale.

For a view of the first three lots apply to Mr. Crook, at the Crown Inn, Linton; of the lot four to Mr. Haynes, at the Blue Ball, Countisbury; and for further particulars, as to the whole, to Mr. Hugh Ballment, Land-Agent, Barnstaple; or (if by letter, postage paid) to Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, Solicitors, Bristol.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a fiat in bankruptcy, bearing date 20th of March 1837, awarded and issued forth against Nathan Gough, of Salford, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, at the offices of Messrs. Joseph and William Heron, No. 21, in Princess-street, in Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, on Tuesday the 30th day of May instant, at four o'clock in the afternoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security, to such person or persons, and upon such terms and conditions, as to the said assignee shall seem proper; and also, in case of any sale by auction, to the said assignee buying in and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expenses incurred previous to and after the issuing of the said fiat, in attempting to make a composition with the creditors of the said bankrupt, and otherwise for the protection of the said bankrupt's estate, the particulars of which will be then produced; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt or debts, matter and thing whatsoever relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and generally to authorise and empower the assignee to act as may be necessary for the benefit and protection of the creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Wrigley, of Halifax, in the county of York, Silk Waste Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 31st day of May instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Magistrates' Office, in Halifax aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the assignees chosen and appointed under the said fiat, selling and disposing of all or any part of the real estate of the said bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, and either in one or more lot or lots, and all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, machinery, and other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt in manner aforesaid, or by tender, and at their discretion to reject the highest tender and accept a lower tender, or sum of money, at such time and place, price or prices, and upon such terms as to them shall appear reasonable, and to any person or persons who shall be willing to treat for the same, and to give such credit or take such security, whether personal or otherwise, for the purchase monies thereof respectively, as the said assignees in their discretion shall think proper, and, in case of such sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, and at the risk and expense of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the said bankrupt's trade or business for the benefit and at the risk of his estate, for such time as may be necessary for working up the present unmanufactured stock of Waste, and to their employing any person or persons in conducting the said trade, or in any other way for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, and to their paying and allowing to such person or persons, out of the monies to be received by the said assignees belonging to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, such wages and compensation for his or their trouble, therein as to them may seem proper and reasonable; and also to the said assignees paying and discharging all rent, taxes, servants' wages, and other outgoings now due and payable from the said bankrupt's estate, or to become due and payable, during such period of time as the said assignees may continue the possession of the said bankrupt's premises, and an advantageous disposition can be fairly effected, but so as that the said assignees shall not in anywise be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage which may arise or happen by reason of such continuance, or of their actings or doings therein; and to assent to or dissent from the proceedings taken and adopted by the inspectors of the said bankrupt's concerns prior to his bankruptcy, and to the payment and allowance of the costs and expences incurred by them during such their inspectorship; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt; and to the assignees making to such person or persons compensation for his or their trouble as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying the equity of redemption of all or any part or parts of the said bankrupt's real estate to any mortgagee or mortgagees, in satisfaction of the principal and interest due upon any mortgage or mortgages thereof, or upon any other and what terms and conditions; and to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy for recovery of, or concerning any part or parts of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the said assignees submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors of Thomas Roach, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy hath been awarded and issued, who shall have proved their debts under the said fiat, are requested to meet the assignee or assignees, to be appointed, of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 27th day of May instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Messrs. Owen and Gill, in Princess-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee or assignees, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, carrying on the business of the said bankrupt, either for a period to be agreed upon; or for such time as such assignee or assignees shall think fit; and in case the said assignee or assignees be authorised to carry on such business, then to authorise and empower him or them to employ all such servants and assistants, and to make all such purchases of goods and materials as may be necessary and requisite for that purpose, and to pay the wages of all such servants and assistants, and the price or value of all such goods and materials; and also the rents, rates, and taxes of the premises upon which the business shall be carried on, and all other expences incidental to the carrying on of such business, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee or assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and either in one lot or several lots, at one time and place or several times and places, the stock in trade, fixtures, household goods, furniture, and effects of the said bankrupt, either to the said bankrupt or to any creditor or creditors, assignee or assignees of the said bankrupt's estate, either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, and in case of sale otherwise than for ready money, either with or without taking any security for the payment of the purchase-money, or any part thereof; and also to the said assignee or assignees, paying and discharging, or being allowed to retain, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by certain creditors of the said bankrupt before the issuing the said fiat, in endeavouring to arrange the affairs of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee or assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof, or any thing relating thereto; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, or agreeing upon any question, action, suit, matter, or thing concerning the same; and generally to authorise the said assignee or assignees to adopt and take such measures and proceedings, for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, as he or they in his or their discretion shall think proper and advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Carthew of Redenhall with Harleston, in the county of Norfolk, Banker and Money-Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 27th day of May instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Beekwith, Dye, and Kitton, Solicitors, Saint Martin's at the Palace, in the city of Norwich, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, as to him shall seem most beneficial and advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate, all the household furniture and other effects of the said bankrupt.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Price, of Woodbridge and Ipswich, both in the county of Suffolk, Saddler and Harness-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 26th day of June next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, at such time or times as they shall think proper, either by public auction or private contract, for ready money or at such credit and upon such security as they may see fit, the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, fixtures, and other effects of the said bankrupt; and also to the said assignees entering into and completing such arrangements with the respective mortgagees of the said bankrupt's freehold and copyhold estates as they may consider conducive to the benefit of his estate; and also to their compounding or entering into composition with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; and to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, and to their presenting or opposing any petition or petitions, for the recovery, defence, or preservation of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof, as they may be advised and think proper; and in particular to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting an action at law against a person, who will be named at the said meeting, to recover goods and things sold by him after an act of bankruptcy, under a bill of sale executed by the said bankrupt, or the value or proceeds thereof; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed; but that no Commission shall issue

"thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 4th day of May 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

CHARLES ELLIOTT, of Leeds, in the county of York, Tallow-Merchant, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 5th day of May 1837, by HERBERT HARDIE, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant and Commission Agent, surviving partner of James Hardie, deceased, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
