ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the preceding session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be, levied upon or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always, that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country:

And whereas British vessels, entering the ports of Portugal from the ports of the United Kingdom, are, by a decree of the twenty-fourth November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, charged with a tonnage duty from one half of which all Portuguese vessels are exempt, such surcharge varying from five pence farthing to one shilling one penny and one eighth per ton, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all Portuguese vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom, a duty of nine pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties or customs are now by law levied, collected, and applied:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
