TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1837.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 20, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that no card can be received at this Office for a presentation to take place at His Majesty's Levee, unless the Naval or Military rank, or other designation, of the Gentleman to be presented, is correctly stated on it, as well as his name, and also of the Gentleman who is to present him.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, May 2, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room on Thursday, May 18th.

It is absolutely necessary, that all Ladies intending to be presented should send their names, with those of the Ladies presenting them, to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, on or before Tuesday, 18th of May, in order that they may be submitted to Her Majesty.

All Ladies and Gentlemen attending the Drawing-Room are requested to bring three cards, one to be left in the Anti-room, another to be given to the Lord in Waiting to the King, and the third to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will announce the names to Her Majesty.

No Lady can present another, unless she herself attends the Drawing-Room,

It is the particular desire of the Queen, that Her Majesty's Court, and all Ladies attending the Drawing-Rooms, should appear in dresses of British manufacture; and the Queen is also graciously pleased to command, that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Rooms do appear in Court trains, according to the regulations established by Her Majesty.

*Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace,
May 12, 1837.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 18th of May, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth-year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the preceding session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be, levied upon or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always, that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country:

And whereas British vessels, entering the ports of Portugal from the ports of the United Kingdom, are, by a decree of the twenty-fourth November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, charged with a tonnage duty from one half of which all Portuguese vessels are exempt, such surcharge varying from five pence farthing to one shilling one penny and one eighth per ton, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all Portuguese vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom, a duty of nine pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties or customs are now by law levied, collected, and applied:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting duties of Customs," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His

Privy Council, by His Order in Council, from time to time, to order and direct, that there shall be levied and collected any additional duty, not exceeding one fifth of the amount of any existing duty, upon all or any goods, wares, or merchandize, the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country, which shall levy higher or other duties upon any article the growth, produce, or manufacture of any of His Majesty's dominions, than upon the like article the growth, produce, or manufacture of any other foreign country; and, in like manner, to impose such additional duties upon all or any goods when imported in the ships of any country which shall levy higher or other duties upon any goods when imported in British ships than when imported in the national ships of such country:

And whereas by a decree of Her Majesty the Queen of Portugal, dated the tenth day of January last, higher duties are levied in the ports of Portugal on goods, when imported in British ships, than when imported in Portuguese ships, His Majesty doth, therefore, under the authority of the above recited Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that upon all goods imported into the United Kingdom in Portuguese ships, from and after the date of this Order, there shall be levied and collected, in addition to the existing duties otherwise payable upon the importation of such goods, a further duty amounting to one fifth part of such existing duties:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Southampton, assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace holden in and for the said county, on the fourth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county are insufficient, and therefore praying, that the towns of Havant and Gosport may be polling places for the southern division of the said county:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, the towns of Havant and Gosport shall be polling places for the said southern division of the said county; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of April 1837,

PRESIDENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, all vessels, as well His Majesty's ships of war as others, coming from, or having touched at, any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, might be brought, and all vessels and boats receiving any person, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatsoever, from or out of any vessel so coming from, or having touched at, such infected place as aforesaid, whether such persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles, should have come or been brought in such vessels, or such persons should have gone, or articles should have been put, on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such ships or vessels at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and whether such vessels were or were not bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands aforesaid, and all persons goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatsoever, on board any vessels so coming from, or having touched at, such infected place as aforesaid, or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats as aforesaid, should be, and be considered to be, liable to quarantine within the meaning of the said Act, and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid, or from the time when such persons, goods, wares, merchandise, packets, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles, should have been received on board respectively; and that such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandises, and other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going or being put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandises, and other articles as aforesaid, on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, should, from their arrival at any such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine in such place or places, for such time, and in such manner, as should, from time to time, be directed by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette:

And whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette, after reciting the said Act, His Majesty was pleased to adjudge and declare it probable, that the plague, or some other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, may be brought into the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, by vessels coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, or the Atlantic Ocean, with or without clean bills of health; and by the same Order, His Majesty was pleased to order, that all vessels, as well His Majesty's ships of war as all others (not having the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as afore-said actually on board) coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, or the Atlantic Ocean, with clean bills of health, and all vessels and boats receiving any person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatever, from or out of any such vessel, before such vessel should have performed, and should be duly discharged from, quarantine, whether such person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, or other articles as aforesaid, should have come or been brought in such vessel, or such person or persons should have gone, or such articles have been put, on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessel, and whether such vessel was or was not bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, with all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as aforesaid on board thereof, perform such quarantine, for such time, in such manner, and at such places, as are thereafter directed, that is to say, it is thereby ordered, that all such vessels as should be bound to any port in Ireland should perform quarantine, at the several places in the said Order mentioned in that behalf respectively:

And whereas, by another Order in Council, dated the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, duly published in the London Gazette, His Majesty was pleased to revoke so much of the said former Order in Council as related to the places for performing quarantine by ships arriving at any port in Ireland; and His Majesty was pleased, by the said Order of the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, that all such ships or vessels, liable to quarantine, as were or should be bound to any port in Ireland, with clean bills of health, and not having on board any of the articles enumerated in the thirty first section of the said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, should perform quarantine at one of the following stations; that is to say, Poolbeg in the harbour of Dublin, Warren Point in the harbour of Newry, near Gramoyne in the harbour of Belfast, Tarbutan

the River Shannon, in the harbour of Limerick, Baltimore Passage, River Suir in the harbour of Waterford, White Gate, Cove of Cork, Green Castle, Lough, Foyle, and Black Rock, Galway Bay :

Now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said last mentioned Order as appoints Poolbeg, in the harbour of Dublin, one of the places at which quarantine may be performed by vessels arriving at any port in Ireland, shall be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and it is further ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships and vessels which, if this Order had not been made, might have performed quarantine at Poolbeg aforesaid, may henceforth perform quarantine at Kingstown, in the bay of Dublin, from and after the fifth day of July next :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Crown-Office, May 16, 1837.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

City of Westminster.

Sir Francis Burdett, Bart.

TO be sold, by auction, by Messrs. T. N. Bardwell and Son, at their Auction Rooms, in the Haymarket, Sheffield, on Thursday the 1st day of June next, at six o'clock in the evening, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a fiat in bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against James Levick, of Sheffield aforesaid, Ivory-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, in the following lots, and subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

Lot 1. All that substantially built dwelling-house, situate in Arundel street, in Sheffield, with the two warehouses, workshops, two-stall stable, and convenient outbuildings, and entire yard thereto belonging, containing, with the site of the buildings, about 620 superficial square yards, or thereabouts, lately in the occupation of the said bankrupt, and on which he carried on an extensive business as an Ivory-Merchant, and Ivory Cutter.

The property is freehold, and is in good repair. The dwelling-house has recently been papered, painted, and embellished throughout, at a considerable expence, and comprises dining, drawing, and breakfast rooms, large kitchen, two good cellars, and five lodging rooms, and is well fitted up with fixtures, closets, cupboards, and other conveniences, and is well supplied with water.

One of the warehouses was lately used as an ivory sale-room, and the other for ivory handles; there are two rooms for cutting ivory, grinding-wheel for two pen-blade grinders, and a shop for buffing and glazing cutlery (which are all fitted up with machinery applicable to steam power), engine-house, coal-shed, and two shops occupied by spectacle makers.

Lot 2. A small portable steam engine (one of Gough's patent facilitators of three and a half horse power, lately fixed on the premises), which conveyed steam power into the rooms above-mentioned.

Lot 3. All that excellent dwelling-house; situate at Hall-Carr Grange, near the Twelve o'Clock, consisting of two sitting-rooms, small kitchen, two chambers and dressing-room, two attics, and two good cellars, a large fold-yard, three-stall stable, cowhouse for five cows, and barn, now in the occupation of John Oates.

This property is held under a lease of the Duke of Norfolk, for a term of which about seventy years are unexpired, at a moderate ground-rent; the line of the intended Sheffield and Rotherham Railway will run in the front of it, at the distance of about fifty yards.

Any person desirous of viewing lot 1, may do so on applying to Mr. Wild, Ivory-Merchant, Coalpit-lane, one of the assignees of the said James Levick. The tenant of lot 3 will shew the premises; and for further particulars application is requested to be made at the offices of Mr. Copeland, in the Hartshead, Solicitor to the assignees.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Benson, of Haver-lane, in the city of York, Chain-Maker and Smith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 8th day of June next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at Etridge's Royal Hotel, in Blake-street, in the said city, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the equity of redemption of the said bankrupt in certain freehold dwelling-houses, buildings, and premises, situate in Layerthorpe, Bilton-street, and Redeness-street, in the suburbs of the said city of York, or joining with the mortgagee of the said premises in the sale thereof, also the equity of redemption of the said bankrupt in certain dwelling-houses, buildings, and premises, situate in St. John's-place and Haver-lane, in the said city, and all other his estate and effects, or any part thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either together or in parcels or lots to any person or persons, and for ready money or upon credit, and with or without taking any security or securities for payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, or accepting and taking such security as they the said assignees shall think proper; and in case of any sale or sales by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in and again offering the same property, or any part or parts thereof, for sale, as they the said Assignees may think expedient, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate; and to ratify, approve, and confirm any sale or sales of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof, which the said assignees have, or, previous to the said 8th day of June next, may have, made; and the Commissioners in the said Fiat intend to meet at the place, at one o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, in order to Audit the Accounts of the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt under the said fiat, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made in the sixth reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts."
