FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1837.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will take place on Saturday the 27th instant, instead of Wednesday the 24th; and in future the Levees will be held on Wednesdays as usual until further orders.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Monday the 29th instant, being for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's-Palace, May 19, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room on Monday, May 29th, when it being for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day, all Ladies attending will appear out of mourning.

It is absolutely necessary, that all Ladies intending to be presented should send their names, with those of the Ladies presenting them, to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, on or before Saturday, May 27th, in order that they may be submitted to Her Majesty.

All Ladies and Gentlemen attending the Drawing-Room are requested to bring three cards, one to be left in the Anti-room, another to be given to the Lord in Waiting to the King, and the third to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will announce the names to Her Majesty.

No Lady can present another, unless she herself attends the Drawing-Room.

It is the particular desire of the Queen, that Her Majesty's Court, and all Ladies attending the Drawing-Rooms, should appear in dresses of British manufacture.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's-Palace, May 19, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that upon the occasion of the Drawing-Room on Monday the 29th instant, for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day, the King is pleased to allow that presentations may take place.

St. James's-Palace, May 17, 1837.

This day had audience of His Majesty, General Count Sebastiani, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of the French, on returning to his Embassy at this Court:

To which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

At the Court at St. James's-Palace, May 17, 1837.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Makdougall Brisbane, Bart. with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath; and of Major General the Right Honourable Lord Downes and Colonel Sir Robert Gardiner, with the Star of the second Class of the said Most Honourable Military Order.

THE following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St. James's Palace, viz. his Grace the Duke of Wellington, Lord Viscount Strangford, Lord Viscount Beresford, Lord Hill, Lord Cowley, Lord William Henry Cavendish Bentinck, the Honourable Sir Galbraith Lowry Cole, the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, the Honourable Sir Charles Colville, the Right Honourable Sir James Kempt, Sir George Townsend Walker, Bart., the Earl of Effingham, the Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot, Sir George Martin, Sir Harry Neale, Bart., the Right Honourable Sir Stratford Canning, the Right Honourable Sir Robert Gordon, Sir Thomas Byam Martin, Sir James Hawkins Whitshed, Bart., Sir William Hbustoun, Bart., Sir Edward Barnes, Lord Strafford, the Honourable Sir Robert Stopford, the Right Honourable Sir Robert Adair, Sir Thomas Williams, the Honourable Sir William Lumley, Sir James-Willoughby Gordon, Bart., Sir Thomas-Masterman Hardy, Bart. Lord Viscount Palmerston, Sir Davidge Gould, Sir Pulteney Malcolm, Sir George Anson, Sir Thomas Dallas, Lord Viscount Canterbury, Sir Herbert Taylor, the Earl of Minto, Sir William Henry Pringle, Lord Aylmer, and Sir Lawrence William Halsted, attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; Captain Michael Seymour, R. N. Register and Secretary; and George Frederick Beltz, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Order.

At two o'clock, the Knights Grand Crosses were called over by Bath King of Arms; and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room, with the usual reverences.

Then, by His Majesty's command, Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Makdougall-Brisbane, Bart. was introduced into the royal presence, preceded by the Gentleman Usher and by Bath King of Arms, and was conducted to the right hand of the Sovereign.

The sword of state being thereupon delivered to the Sovereign by his Grace the Duke of Wellington (the senior Knight Grand Cross present), the Lieutenant-General, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand, and retired.

By the Sovereign's command, Sir Thomas Makdougall-Brisbane was then received at the entrance of the Throne-room by Lord Aylmer and Sir Lawrence William Halsted, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Bath King of Arms (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

His Grace the Duke of Wellington having received from Bath King of Arms the ribbon and badge, presented them to the Sovereign, and Sir Thomas Makdougall-Brisbane, kneeling, His Majesty was graciously pleased to put the same over the Lieutenant-General's right shoulder; Sir Thomas Makdougall-Brisbane, rising, had again the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand, and, having received from the Sovereign the star of a Knight Grand Cross, retired.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, Major-General the Right Honourable Lord Downes was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star of a Knight Commander of the Order; the sword of state being thereupon delivered to the Sovereign by his Grace the Duke of Wellington, the Major-General, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

The Officer of Arms, on his knee, then presented to the Sovereign the star of the second class of the Order, and His Majesty was graciously pleased to invest his Lordship therewith, after which the Major-General had again the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and retired.

Colonel Sir Robert Gardiner was introduced, with the like ceremonies, and invested by His Majesty with the star of the second class of the Order.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then, by His Majesty's command, again called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the accustomed reverences.

seem best for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to determine as to their agreeing with Mr. Chapman, of the house of Parkers and Chapman, of Bishopsgate-street, London, to take the stock, debts, and effects belonging to that establishment, and paying the engagements and liabilities of the same, or otherwise to wind up and settle the affairs and concerns of and belonging to the said business, in such way and manner as to the said meeting may appear most advantageous for the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the real estate of the said bankrupt, and also of his stock in trade and household furniture, and all other his personal estate and effects, or any part thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either together or in parcels, and to the said bankrupt himself or to any other person or persons, and for ready money or upon credit, and with or without taking any security or securities for payment of the purchase-money, or any part thereof, or accepting and taking such security as they the said assignees shall think proper; and in case of any sale of sales by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in and again offering the same, or any part thereof, for sale, as they the said assignees may think expedient, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignees employing a clerk, accountant, or other person to investigate the books of account belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and paying or allowing him such remuneration for his time and trouble as the said assignees shall think reasonable; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any accounts, matters, or things relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in the conduct and management of the estate and affairs of the said bankrupt as they may think advisable; and to ratify and confirm all and whatsoever the said assignees have done, or may do, relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Moss, of Haslingden, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, William Barrington, of Hope, near Nantwich, in the county of Chester, and Joseph Moss, of Wrenbury, near Nantwich aforesaid, carrying on business together in copartnership at Carr-mill, in Haslingden aforesaid, as Cotton-Spinners and Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapman, under the firm of John Moss and Company, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, at four o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Commissioners'-rooms, in Saint James's-square, in Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees sanctioning, confirming, and allowing all and every the acts, doings, sales, payments, and proceedings of the provisional assignee appointed under the said fiat, in continuing the working of the mills, and carrying on the business of the said bankrupts, from the time of his appointment up to the choice of assignees, and in purchasing materials and employing the workpeople for such purpose; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees repaying and reimbursing the said provisional assignee, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the moneys advanced and paid by him for the purchase of such materials, and the wages of workmen and others employed by him, and also to sanction and allow the account of the said provisional assignee, which will be at such meeting exhibited, or otherwise reject and disallow the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing, at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate, and without being liable for bad debts or losses, the working of the said mills, and carrying on the business of the said bankrupts, so long as they shall think proper, or until the works and machinery, or either of them, are disposed of; and to assent to or dissent from their continuing to make purchases of materials necessary for carrying on and continuing such working and carrying on, and employing and paying workpeople for that purpose; and also to sanction, allow, and confirm all sales by the provisional assignee, and the said assignees, of the produce of the said cotton works, whether for ready money or upon credit, with or without any bill or security having been taken for the amount of such sales, and to assent to or dissent from any loss which has arisen or may arise from bad debts; or otherwise being paid and borne by the said bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to sell the produce of the said works by private contract in the usual course of trade, to any person or persons whomsoever, upon the terms of credit, without security, and at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said provisional assignee and creditors' assignees being indemnified and saved harmless, by and out of the said bankrupts' estate, for all that they, or any or either of them, have done or may do in respect of all or any of the matters aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, either alone or jointly, and in concurrence with the respective mortgagees, selling and disposing, at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, in one or more lot or lots, and at one time or place or several times or places, and either subject to any mortgage or mortgages to which the same may be legally subject or liable, or otherwise, the freehold and leasehold works, lands, cottages, hereditaments, fixtures, implements, apparatus and utensils of trade, stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, of the said bankrupts, or of any or either of them, or of the equity and right of redemption of the said assignees of and in the whole, or any part or parts thereof, to any person or persons whomsoever, either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, with or without, in either case, taking any security for the purchase moneys, or any part thereof, and without the said assignees being answerable or liable for any loss of purchase money if sold on credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate, buying in, at any sale or sales by auction, all or any part of the premises aforesaid, or any other portion of the said bankrupts' estate, or any or either of them, and again offering the same for sale by public auction or private contract, with the like powers and authorities as aforesaid, and without the said assignees being answerable or liable to make good any loss, depreciation, or difference in price which may occur or take place by or in consequence of any such buying in and reselling; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupts' estate, paying off and discharging certain mortgages, either wholly or in part, alleged to exist upon the works of the said bankrupts at Carr, near Haslingden aforesaid, and also upon certain real estates of the said William Barrington, one of the said bankrupts, situate in the county of Chester, or, in case they shall think fit so to do, settling, arranging, and agreeing with the said mortgagees, or any or either of them, in respect of the said mortgages, or any or either of them, upon such terms and conditions as they the said assignees may be advised and think most advantageous to the said bankrupts' estate, either by allowing and confirming such mortgages, or any or either of them, to the extent of such property included therein, as the said assignees may be advised, passed by such mortgagees, or any or either of them, or procuring a sale to be made of such parts as the said assignees may be advised, so passed, and paying or allowing the respective mortgagees to receive the amount of such valuations out of the purchase moneys for which the whole of such property, alleged to be comprised in such mortgages, shall sell, or joining and concurring with the respective mortgagees in sales of the parts which the assignees may be advised, passed by such mortgagees respectively, or abandoning and giving up the same to the mortgagees respectively, at a valuation or otherwise, in part satisfaction of the debts owing upon such mortgages, and allowing the respective mortgagees to prove upon the said bankrupts' estate for the residue; or to the said assignees making and entering into such other arrangements with the said mortgagees respectively, either upon the before-mentioned or such other basis as they the said assignees may be advised to be most advantageous to the estate of the said bankrupts, and to the said assignees entering into, signing, and executing all agreements and deeds which may be necessary or requisite to carry into full and complete effect, any agreement or arrangement which may be entered into by them with such mortgagees, or any of them; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees opposing and defending, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupts' estate, any petition in bankruptcy or applications to the Commissioners, bills in equity or actions at law, which may be presented, made, filed, or brought by any of such mortgagees for sales of the property alleged to pass by such mortgages, or for the recovery or obtaining possession thereof, or of any part thereof; and to the said assignees abandoning and giving up any such opposition or defence, upon such terms and conditions, either upon the basis before-mentioned, or otherwise, as to the said assignees shall seem most conducive to the interests of the said bankrupts' creditors; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant to examine and investigate the books and accounts of the said bankrupts, and collect and get in the outstanding debts owing to their estate, and superintend, manage, and dispose of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and to the said assignees paying such accountant such remuneration, out of the said bankrupts' estate, for his time, trouble, and services, as they the said assignees shall think fair and reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for and taking less than the whole of any debts owing to the said bankrupts, or any of them, which they may think desperate, bad, or doubtful, in full satisfaction and discharge of the amount of such debts, and to their releasing any such debtors therefrom, and to their giving time to any debtors for payment, by instalments or otherwise, without taking security, and to their executing any deeds of composition, assignment, or letters of licence between any debtors to the estate and their creditors; and also to their commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law against debtors to the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, or against any person or persons having in their custody or possession any of the property or effects of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, for recovery of such debts, property, or effects, and settling, arranging, and agreeing the same actions upon such terms and conditions as they the said assignees shall think proper; and to their referring or submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences which may arise between them and any person or persons whomsoever, for or in respect or relating to or concerning all or any of the matters aforesaid, or to the said bankrupts' estate and effects, in any manner howsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving their consent to any creditors of the bankrupts, who may hold bills of exchange or notes upon which other persons than the said bankrupts are liable, accepting compositions from such other persons so liable, and executing any deeds of assignment, composition, release or letters of licence between them and their creditors, or giving them time for payment of any such bills, by instalments or otherwise, and either with or without security; or to any such creditors of the bankrupts entering into any other arrangements with such other persons, so liable as aforesaid, respecting the payment of the bills they are liable upon, as they the said creditors shall think fit, without prejudice to the rights of proof under the said Act in any manner howsoever; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 18th day of May 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4. c. 57. sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
