

Blackburne, but united with the parish of Rickingham Superior, in the deanry of Hartismere, both in the archdeaconry of Sudbury, and in the diocese of Norwich, the see whereof is now vacant, shall be detached from the said deanry of Blackburne, and included in the said deanry of Hartismere; and that the said last mentioned deanry, and the deanry of Stow, also in the said archdeaconry of Sudbury, shall be detached and dissevered from the said deanry of Sudbury, and shall be included in, and form part of, the archdeaconry of Suffolk, in the same diocese; and that the rural deans of the said two last mentioned deanries, and the whole clergy thereof, and of the said parish of Rickingham Inferior, shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future archdeacon of Sudbury, and be under and subject to the jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Suffolk for the time being; and that the archdeaconry of Sudbury, with the exceptions aforesaid, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese of Norwich, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Ely; and that the said archdeaconry of Sudbury, with the exceptions aforesaid, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future Archdeacon of Sudbury, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same archdeaconry, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said see of Norwich, and every bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and of his successors, bishops of Ely, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect any personal union heretofore granted by any bishop of Norwich, according to the usage of the see of Norwich, for enabling any spiritual person to hold together two livings, as it regards any livings, either both or one only of which will, according to this scheme, be transferred to the said diocese of Ely.

And we further recommend and propose, that, the deanry of Camps, in the said diocese of Ely, and in the archdeaconry of Ely, shall be detached and dissevered from the said archdeaconry of Ely, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said archdeaconry of Sudbury; and that the rural dean, and the whole clergy of the said deanry, shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future Archdeacon of Ely, and be under and subject to the jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Sudbury for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacons of Bedford, Huntingdon, and Sudbury shall be vested in the said Bishop of Ely, and his successors, bishops of Ely, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that, for the purposes of the said Act, and so as to leave to the Bishop of Ely, for the time being, an average annual income of five thousand five hundred pounds, the said Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors, bishops of Ely, for the time being, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England to an account, intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," by half yearly payments, on or before the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October, in every year, the fixed annual sum of two thousand five hundred pounds; and that the first of such payments shall become due on the fifth day of October now next ensuing, and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Ely shall happen on any other day than the fifth day of April, or fifth day of October, the then next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time that shall have elapsed from the fifth day of April or fifth day of October preceding (as the case may be), to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that two third parts only of the sum heretofore paid by bishops of Ely respectively, on account of first fruits, shall be paid by the said Joseph Bishop of Ely, and that the remaining one third part thereof shall be paid by us, out of the moneys so to be paid, to our credit and account as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that the fees and stipends granted out of the revenues of the said see of Ely, by the last or any preceding Bishop of Ely, to any secular officer of the isle of Ely, who held his office by patent for life at the time of the passing of an Act of the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for extinguishing the secular jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York" and the Bishop of Ely, in certain liberties in the counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge,"
