AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837,

PRESENT;

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting duties of Customs," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by His Order in Council, from time to time, to order, and direct, that there shall be levied and collected, any additional duty, not exceeding one fifth of the amount of any existing duty, upon all or any goods, wares, or merchandize, the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country, which shall levy higher or other duties upon any article the growth, produce, or manufacture of any of His Majesty's dominions, than upon the like article the growth, produce, or manufacture of any other foreign country; and, in like manner, to impose such additional duties upon all or any goods when imported in the ships of any country which shall levy higher or other duties upon any goods when imported in British ships than when imported in the national ships of such country :

And whereas by a decree of Her Majesty the Queen of Portugal, dated the tenth day of January last, higher duties are levied in the ports of Portugal on goods, when imported in British ships, than when imported in Portuguese ships, His Majesty doth, therefore, under the authority of the above recited Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that upon all goods imported into the United Kingdom in Portuguese ships, from and after the date of this Order, there shall be levied and collected, in addition to the existing duties otherwise payable upon the importation of such goods, a further duty, amounting to one fifth part of such existing duties :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
