

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 28. to Thursday July 31. 1684.

Madrid, July 20.

ON the 11th Instant arrived here three several Couriers, one from the Marquis de Grana, Governour of the Spanish Netherlands, and the two others from the Dutch Ambassador at Paris to the Heer Van Heemskerke, the States Ambassador here, being all sent on the occasion of the Treaty concluded the 29th of the last Month at the Hague; Upon which the said Ambassador gave in a Memorial the next day; and the 16th had an Audience of the King; and the same day an Express was dispatched from hence to the Imperial Court at Linz. By Letters of the second Instant from Cadix, we have advice, That the Saphire Frigate Captain Histings, was just then come into that Bay with the Roset Sally of 18 Guns, and a Dutch Dogger Prize he found in her possession; The Moorish Captain was killed in the Fight, and Captain Las (sings) lost two Men and had 16 wounded; he had before forced ashore the Admiral of Sally of 26 Guns near Mamora, taking the Captain and 33 Moors prisoners, and giving liberty to 44 Christians.

Genova, July 15. This week arrived here the Maryaret in nine days from Marseilles. We have no fresh News of the Spanish Gallies and those of this State. The French Fleet, according to the last advice we had, was still in the Bay of Roses.

Venice, July 16. Several Troops are arrived at Lido, which have been raised on the Terra Firma and will be transported to Dalmatia, whither great quantity of Ammunition and Provisions have been sent as well for the supply of the Troops of this State, as the Morlaques who continue very much to annoy the Enemy. We have advice of a great Commotion in Albania, occasioned by the coming thither of an Aga to raise Men for the War; and that a great many Families were retired from thence into the Territories of this State. The Sieur Molino is arrived in the Archipelago with the Squadron of Men of War and Gallies under his command; and by a Barque arrived from Zant we are informed, that General Morofini was past by that Island taking his Course towards the Levant; so that we are now in a continual expectation to hear of some action. The Sieur Ambrosio Bembo is appointed to Cruise with a small Squadron in the Golfo to free it from Pirates.

Moscow, June 9. The Baron Blomberg and the Baron Zierowski, Ambassadors from the Emperor, have since their arrival at this Court had several Conferences with the Commissioners appointed by the Czars to treat with them, but finding little disposition in these Ministers to enter into the League against the Turks, they resolved to return home, and accordingly had their Audience of leave of the Czars the last week; But two days ago arrived here an Express from Smolewko, who acquainted the said Ambassadors, that a Gentleman was arrived there with Dispatches from the Emperor and the King of Poland, and brought them orders to stop in whatever place the said Express should find them; till the said Gentleman was come to them; which makes us believe that the Emperor and the King of Poland have sent these Ambassadors instructions to make new Proposals to the Czars to induce them to enter into the said League. The Ambassadors of Sweden having performed their Commission here, which was to assist at the Solemnity of the Czars Swearing the Peace between the two Crowns, are on their departure; having been presented with Furs to a considerable value.

Dantzick, July 20. Our last Letters from Cracow inform us, that the King of Poland was gone from Jawarow to Zolkiew to receive there the Sieur Morofini, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Republick of Venice, and that from thence his Majesty intended to go to the Army, which was marching towards Podolia. From Moscow they write, that the Emperor's Ambassadors have not been able to dispose that Court to engage in the War against the Turks, those Ministers pretending that their affairs at home are in a condition that will not permit them to enter into such kind of Engagements for the present.

Vienna, July 22. The report of the taking of the Castle of Mongatz in Upper Hungary by the Baron de Saponara, who is said to have had an Intelligence with the Governor, comes to us from several hands; but we cannot however give any credit to it. We are every hour expecting the news of the taking of Buda; Our last Letters from the Imperial Camp gave us an account, that they were lodged in the Ditch, and had fixed their Miners to the Wall of the Upper Town, and that the Duke of Lorraine having received advice, that a considerable Body of Turks was posted three or four miles from Buda, he was resolved to go and fight them. Our last Letters from Cracow told us, that the King of Poland was upon his departure from Jawarow; and that the Troops of Lithuania were on their march to joyn the Forces of Poland, and that together they would make near 50000 men.

Linz, July 24. All things are preparing for the Courts removal from hence. The Elector of Bavaria is expected here in few days, and the general opinion is, he will go for Hungary, whither part of his Troops will be sent to reinforce the Imperial Army, which is said to be at present about 40000 strong. What hath been reported of the taking of the Castle of Mongatz and the burning the Bridge of Essecke by Count Leslie, is not confirmed; but we are informed that the said Count has Orders sent him to joyn the Duke of Lorraine; it being thought necessary to strengthen the Imperial Army, that it may be able to oppose the Enemy in case they should make an effort to relieve Buda. The Emperor, we are told, has received Letters from Count Wallestain, his Ambassador at the Court of Poland, giving his Imperial Majesty an account, that the Forces of that Kingdom were actually on their march, and that the King would be at the head of them before the 25th of this Month.

Hamburg, July 28. The King of Denmarke parted the last week from Iszebore, and is now at Gottorp.

Gottorp where he has received the Homage of the Gentry of the Duchy of Solistein. They write from Berlin, that the Elector of Brandenburg has given the command of the Troops which he lends to the assistance of the King of Poland, to the Prince of Sourland his Nephew; and that Orders have been sent to the said Troops to hasten their march.

Cologne, July 28: A general review will be held of his Electoral Highness's troops the 31. Instant at Zons, after which they will march towards the Meuse; and it is believed the French Troops commanded by Monsieur de Foyeuse, will join with them. Our last Letters from Lintz told us, that they hoped in few days to hear that the City of Buda was in the hands of the Imperialists; There was indeed a Garrison of 5 or 6000 Janissaries in the place, but the fear and consternation that was among them, would not, it was believed, suffer them to make the defence, which might otherwise be expected from them.

Brussels, August 2. We just now received by an Express the good news of another defeat of the Turks; of which we have as yet only this short account. That on the 22. past in the Morning the Imperialists attacked the Enemy, three Leagues beyond Buda, and after a very sharp fight of six hours, entirely defeated them, 4000 were slain, a great many taken prisoners, and the rest fled in great confusion towards the Bridge of Esseke. The next day the Duke of Lorraine sent word to the Besieged of this Victory, and as a mark of it, caused the Hoises Tail, that was taken in the Enemies Camp, to be shewed them, upon which a hideous Cry and Howling was heard, and in the Evening the besieged began to Capitulate; They demanded at first 100 Boats or Barks to carry off their Baggage, which being refused, they then desired 80, and afterwards 40; but they were told that they must Surrender on discretion.

Paris, August 5. On Wednesday last arrived here an Express from Germany with the Confirmation of the news we told you in our last, of the entire defeat of a Body of 30 or 35000 Turks near Buda; of which we have these Particulars. The Duke of Lorraine having received advice that 2500 Turks were advanced within two miles of his Camp, his Highness detached the 19th past a strong Party of Croats commanded by the Count de Trautmanndorff, Major-General, who fell upon the Enemy the next day about seven in the morning near Turbina, and routed them, killed several hundred of them upon the place, took many prisoners, and pursued the rest as far as Flatina; after this the Croats meeting with another Body of Turks, that were to have joined with that abovementioned, they likewise defeated them 1000 of them being slain, and 12 Standards taken by the Christians. The 21. the Duke of Lorraine resolved to attack the Enemies main Body that was posted about three miles beyond Buda, and accordingly marched with the greatest part of his Horse, and 1000 Foot commanded by the Count de Esterhazy, Governor of Raab. About break of day his Highness was advanced within half a mile of the Enemies Camp, who perceiving the Christians, immediately put themselves into Batallia, and at first made shew of great resolution, but they were charged so vigorously by the Christians, that at last they gave way, and the Imperialists obtained an entire Victory, 4000 of the Turks being slain, and their Cannon and Baggage taken. The City of Buda, it was believed, would not hold out long after the defeat of this Body, in which they had placed all their hopes; The Imperialists had on the 20th attached their Miners to the Wall of the Upper Town in four several places. On Thursday last very early in the morning Monsieur de Louvois parted from hence for Alsace, intending to take his journey thither through Lorraine. The Marechal de Schomberg is, we are told, on his march with 20000 Horse towards the Rhin. Our East India Company have advice of the arrival of three of their Ships in the Ports of this Kingdom.

His Majesty has been Graciously pleased to Grant to Ipswich in the County of Suffolk, a Fair which will be held there on the 11th and 12th days of August next, for Bullocks, Sheep, Horses, and other Cattel: And also another Fair which will be held there on the 7th and 8th days of May, for all sorts of Cattle yearly.

Mr. Thomas Warren. His Majesty's Apothecary in Ordinary, who in a very Excellent and curious Manner Preserves Dead Bodies from Putrefaction, change of Colour or Complexion, without Disbowelling, Sear-Cloathing, or cutting any part thereof, Lives at the Hart and Anchor in St. Lawrence-Lane, London.

Advertisements.

☞ A Guide to the Practical Physician: Shewing, from the most Approved Authors, both Ancient and Modern, the truest and safest way of Curing all Diseases. Lately Published in Latin by Theoph. Bonet, M.D. And now Rendered into English. With an Addition of many considerable Cases, Rules and Means of Cure, that were omitted by the aforesaid Author. To which is added an Appendix concerning the Office of a Physician, by the same Author. Printed for Thomas Flooker at the Angel and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

☞ The History of the League. Written in French by Monsieur Maimbourg; Translated into English by Mr. Dryden. Printed for Jacob Tonson at the Judges-Head in Chancery-Lane near Fleet-Street.

THE Subscribers to the Oxford Press may please to know, that some of the Books, there taken in hand for the Advancement of Learning, are now finished. I. The first Volume of Ancient Writers of the English History since the time of William 1. Containing the History of Croyland by Ingulphus, much more perfect than in former Editions. The said History continued by Petrus Blesensis, The Chronicle of Mailros, The Annals of Burton, a farther continuation of the History of Croyland: all excepting Ingulphus, never before Printed. Price 7s. II. The Works of Lactantius diligently collated with many ancient MSS. and illustrated with Annotations. Price 4s. 6d. III. Dissertations upon S. Cyprian, by Mr. Dodwell: Whereunto is added a Chronological Appendix containing Astronomical Canons, and Greek Fasts, with other pieces of Antiquity now first published out of several Greek MSS. Printed in Folio so as to join with the late Edition of S. Cyprian: and also in Octavo, to join with other Works of Mr. Dodwell. Price 3s. If the aforesaid Subscribers please, within the compass of six Weeks after the first of August next, to call for their Books; (which interval is allowed for the giving of notice) or appoint them to be called for at the Theatre in Oxford, or at Mr. Parkers at the Leg and Star in Cornhill, and at Mr. Guy's at the Oxford-Arms on the West side of the Royal Exchange, they shall be delivered upon the terms above mentioned. After that time is elapsed, the Undertakers for the Oxford Press, will think themselves free to dispose of the said Books to others, as they shall find occasion, without farther consideration of Subscribers.

THE 28th Instant near Hampstead, five Foot-Padds Robb'd a Coach and two Horsemen, took away their Horses, one a bay Gelding about 14 hands and half high, cut Tail, a white Star in his Forehead, lop'Eared: The other a bright bay Gelding about 14 hands high, a Star in the Forehead, a cut Tail, the off Foot before the heel of his Shoe is cut. If any person can give notice of the aforesaid Horses to Mr. Wells at the Sun-yard in Bishopgate-Street, and they shall have 20s. for each Horse.

LOst out of the Grounds of John Winflow near Morton-Hindmarsh in Gloucestershire, the 26th of this Instant, a bay Gelding 14 hands and half high, with a small white Star in his Forehead, and several gray Hairs in his Face, with a sprig Tail, about 10 years old, a thick Body and strong Legs, trots all. Whoever gives notice of the said Gelding to John Winflow in Morton-Hindmarsh or to Mr. Robert Crook at the Kings-Head Inn in the Strand near Charing Cross, shall have a Guinea reward.

STRayed or stolen from the Grounds of Mr. Christopher Serle in the Parish of Surton near Darford in Kent, a black brown Gelding, about 14 hands and half high, about 9 or 10 years old, long Ears and indifferent Mane, the near Knee lately broke, dock Tail not clipped; Whoever shall give notice of the said Gelding to Mr. Serle, or unto John Hartlies in Kings-Head Court in St. Martins le Grand, shall have 20s. reward.