

Royal Majesty Queen Victoria; and, being admitted, and the gates again closed, Rouge Dragon was conducted by the City Marshal and his Officers to the Lord Mayor, who was in attendance in his state carriage, when Rouge Dragon delivered to his Lordship the Order in Council; which the Lord Mayor, having read, returned, and directed the gates to be opened; and Rouge Dragon being re-conducted to his place in the procession, it then moved on into the City; the Officers of Westminster filing off at Temple-bar.

At the corner of Chancery-lane, York Herald read the Proclamation, then the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Chamberlain, Common Sergeant, Town-Clerk, and City Officers fell into the procession, immediately after the Officers of Arms; and moved on to the end of Wood-street, where the cross formerly stood in Cheapside; the Proclamation being then read by Chester Herald, the procession advanced to the Royal Exchange, where it was lastly read by Portcullis Pursuivant of Arms.

A multitude of spectators filled the streets, through which the procession passed, the windows of which were crowded; and the acclamations were loud and general.
