From the DUBLIN GAZETTE of Tuesday,
June 27, 1837.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland.

A PROCLAMATION.

MULGRAVE.

WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy our late Sovereign Lord King William the Fourth, of blessed and glorious memory, by whose decease the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Princess Alexandrina Victoria, saving the rights of any issue of His late Majesty King William the Fourth which may be borne of His late Majesty's Consort:

We, the Lord Lieutenant and Council, do by this our Proclamation, think fit to give public notice to all Her Majesty's subjects; and do require all Mayors, Sheriffs, and all other Her Majesty's Officers to publish and proclaim that the High and Mighty Princess Alexandrina Victoria is now, by the death of our late Sovereign of happy memory, become our only lawful and liege Lady Victoria, by the grace of God, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, saving as aforesaid, and in all the cities and towns corporate, and market places, in this part of Her Majesty's United Kingdom called Ireland; and all Officers, both civil and military, and other Her Majesty's subjects, are hereby required to be assisting in the performance thereof with all due solemnity.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
June 29, 1837.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, for assigning an ecclesiastical district, under the provisions of the 21st section of the 58th Geo. 3, cap. 45, to St. Paul's Chapel, in the parish of St. Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry Chichester:

At the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1837, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all

ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and whereas by the 21st section of the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, lying partly within and partly without the liberties of the city of Chichester, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, contained a population of 4579 persons; that there is, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation for 500 persons, one chapel recently erected in the said parish, which affords accommodation to 1040 persons, including 658 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that such chapel has been consecrated, and is called Saint Paul's Chapel, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the parish should be divided into ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that one of such districts should be assigned to the said chapel of Saint Paul, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein, and that such district should be named the District Parish of Saint Paul, with boundaries as follows:

To commence at the north west corner of a certain street, called the North-street, in the city of Chichester, including all the houses at such corner; and to proceed thence, westwardly and southwardly, under the wall of the said city, on the outside of such wall, to within sixty yards, in a straight line, of the high road from Chichester to Portsmouth; thence, crossing, in a straight line, to the boundary line which divides the parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, from the parish of Saint Bartholomew; thence, proceeding in a north east direction, as far as the point where the boundary line between the said parishes crosses the road or street, called Orchard-street; thence, along the line which divides the said two last mentioned parishes, as far as the south end of a certain street or road, called Parchment-street; thence, southwardly and westwardly, along the boundary line which divides the said two parishes to where they join the parish of New Fishborne; thence, westwardly and northwardly, following the boundary line which divides Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and New Fishborne, to where those parishes join the parish of Funtington; thence, northwardly, along the line which divides the parishes of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and Funtington, as far as the corner next to the Funtington and Chichester high road; thence, eastwardly, close under the hedge on the south side of such high road, along the line which divides the said parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and Funtington, until such parishes meet the parish of East Lavant; thence, south eastwardly and southwardly, along the boundary line which divides the said parishes of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and East Lavant, as far as the point where such line crosses the said Funtington and Chichester high road; thence across such road, as far as the hedge on the east side thereof; thence, northwardly, along the line which separates the said parishes of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and East Lavant, as far as the high road leading from the Old Broyle common to the Chichester-barracks; thence, pursuing still the boundary line which divides the said parishes of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and East Lavant, until it reaches the London turnpike road; thence, crossing the said road, still pursuing the said line, until the parishes of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and East Lavant meet the parish of West Hampnett; thence, along the boundary line which divides the said parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, from the said parish of West Hampnett, until it reaches a certain extra parochial district, called Saint James's; thence, westwardly, along the line which separates the said parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, from the said extra parochial district, called Saint James's, until such line reaches the point where such district and the said parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, meet the parish of Saint Pancrass; thence along the boundary line which divides the said parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, and the said parish of Pancrass, as far as the wall of the said city of Chichester, called the East Wall; thence, northwardly, north westwardly, and westwardly, close under the wall of the said city, on the outside thereof, as far as the north street above mentioned; and thence, across the said street, to the north west corner of the same, being the point at which this description commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured red, excepting out of the said district the burial ground belonging to the said original parish of Saint Peter the Great, otherwise Subdeanry, which remains uncoloured in the said plan:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chichester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty

King George the Third, and in testimony of such his approbation the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

*Paymaster-General's-Office, Whitehall,
June 28, 1837.*

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Half-pay and Retired-pay due for the quarter ending 30th June 1837, will be payable at this Office on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of July next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purser's, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th of July, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 17th and 18th of July, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of July, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 26th and 27th of July.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable every Wednesday, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into this Office, or transmit them to Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form of bill to be sent to them from the Paymaster-General's Office, after the receipt of the usual letter of application and declaration.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.
- 3d. By payment at the Dock-yards at Portsmouth, Devonport, and Chatham, on presenting to the Pay Clerks the usual declaration or certificate on the days appointed for payment at the respective ports. This mode will be found more convenient to Officers living near any one of these ports, than either a bill of exchange or remittance.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of Her Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

By order of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General,

T. Haultain, Assistant Paymaster-General.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

SLIGO HARBOUR LIGHT-HOUSES.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, May 4, 1837.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that two light-houses have been built on Oyster-island, Sligo-bay, from which lights will be exhibited on the evening of the 1st of August 1837, and thenceforth from sun-set to sun-rise:

Specification given of the Position and Appearance of the Towers, by Mr. Halpin, Inspector of the Irish Light-houses.

The two towers erected on Oyster-island, in Sligo-bay, bear from each other N. N. W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. and S. S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 496 feet, and kept in line will lead in the deepest water over the Bar, and clear of the Bun Gar Bank.

The lights will be fixed bright lights, visible from S. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. to N. W. by N.

The Northern Light-house bears by compass (var. $28^{\circ} 30'$) from the Wheaten Rock, S. E. distant 3 sea miles; from the Black Rock, S. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant $1\frac{3}{4}$ sea mile; from the Perch Rock, S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ S. distant $\frac{1}{4}$ sea mile.

The Northern Light-house, shut on the north point of Coney-island, will clear the Wheaten Rock.

The towers are circular, coloured white, and the lanterns elevated over the mean level of the sea.

North Light-house, 43 feet.

South Light-house, 53 feet.

The North Light-house may be seen at a distance of 11 miles, and the South Light-house at a distance of 12 miles, in clear weather.

By order,

H. Vereker, Secretary.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

late a prisoner in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, hath been removed to the Gaol of Uxchester, in the county of Somerset, and is in the custody there in pursuance of an order of the Court made in that behalf, according to the Statute in such case made and provided: it is ordered and appointed that the matters of the Petition and Schedule of the said Prisoner heretofore filed in the Court shall be heard by Henry Revell Reynolds, Esq. or one other of Her Majesty's Commissioners, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors proceeding on his circuit, at the Court-House, at Wells, in the said county of Somerset, on the 22d day of July next, at the hour of ten in the forenoon precisely.

By the Court.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any creditor intends to oppose the said Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, one clear day before the day of hearing above-mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice, and of the said day of hearing; unless notice of opposition was duly given for the original hearing, in which case a further notice of opposition is not necessary.

2. Also where notice for the hearing originally ordered to take place before the Court in London was defective, and a short notice is given for the hearing hereby notified under the Rule of the Court 15, 7, such short notice will only be valid, upon condition that the Prisoner waives his right to notice of opposition.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of ten and four, on this notice being exhibited; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the Clerk of the Peace, at his Office at Taunton, in the said county, for inspection and examination at his Office above-mentioned, and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77.
