AT a General Meeting of the Shareholders in the London and Gravesend, London and Dover, and Kent Railway Companies, held at the George and Vulture Tavern, on Thursday the 6th day of July 1837, pursuant to the resolutions of the last General Meeting, and according to advertisement notifying the same.

The following report of the Committee appointed at the last General Meeting was read :

"The Committee appointed at the General Meeting of Shareholders in the Kent Railway Company, held on Thursday the 8th day of June 1837,

"Report, that they have investigated and inquired into all the claims upon the funds now in hand, and have proposed such compromise to the different claimants as, if sanctioned by this meeting, will leave a disposable balance of about £1500; and having also viewed the relative position of the several descriptions of Shareholders in respect of their claims on the funds of the Company, recommend, that five shillings per share be paid to the holders of scrip receipts or certificates in the Gravesend Railway.

"They find the whole of the Dover subscription to have been fully and justly expended in the promotion of that object.

"The Committee, therefore, recommend this meeting to apply to Mr. Godwin, and the gentlemen who joined him in filing the bill in Chancery, to dissolve the injunction, and to allow this Committee, or any three of them, to pay his costs, and apply the funds in hand to carry the foregoing recommendation into effect; and that the Committee be authorised, at the expiration of six months from this date, to call another General Meeting of Shareholders, who will then determine how the balance in hand shall be finally disposed of.

"That portion of the Committee, not of the Board of Directors, cannot close their report without availing themselves of the opportunity to record their sense of the assistance and co-operation rendered by the Directors associated with them in this complicated inquiry, particularly in anticipating their views, and cordially supporting them on every occasion.

"In conclusion, they beg leave to bear testimony, and to call the marked attention of the Shareholders to the upright conduct exhibited by all the Directors in the transactions submitted to the investigation of this Committee."

The report having been read, it was proposed and resolved,

"That the report of the Committee now read, be approved and adopted by this meeting, and that Mr. Godwin be requested to dissolve the injunction, to enable the Committee to pursue the course recommended by that report.

"That the thanks of this meeting be presented to the Directors generally, for their zealous and gratuitous exertions in the service of the Company.

"That the thanks of this meeting be also presented to the Committee, for the judicious and efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties committed to them."

Thomas Phillipotts, Chairman.

The Chairman having left the chair, it was

Resolved, "that the cordial thanks of this meeting be given to Thomas Phillipotts, Esq., for his able and impartial conduct in the chair.

Resolved, "that the foregoing report and resolutions be advertised in two of the Morning and Evening Papers, and once in the London Gazette."

C. Smith, Secretary.
