TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1837.

Earl Marshal's-Office, July 11, 1837.

THE Interment of His late Most Sacred Majesty King William the Fourth, of blessed memory, was solemnized in the Royal Chapel of St. George, within the Castle of Windsor, on Saturday evening the 8th instant.

A detailed account of the ceremonies observed upon this melancholy occasion will appear in a Supplement to this evening's Gazette.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 10, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 19th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 17th instant, and before twelve o'clock on every day but one previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 10, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 20th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent into the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, July 10, 1837.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and that, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

Whitehall, July 10, 1837.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of the Right Honourable Ann Baroness Crofton, of Mote, in the county of Roscommon, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, the title and dignity of Baron Crofton devolved upon her grandson Edward now Baron Crofton, as eldest son of the late Sir Edward Crofton, Bart. (commonly called the Honourable Sir Edward Crofton, Bart.), who was, at the time of his death, heir presumptive to the said barony; and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said Edward Baron Crofton cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said late father had survived his said mother, and succeeded to the dignity of Baron Crofton; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that William Crofton, Esq. a Lieutenant in the 85th Regiment, and his sisters, Susanna-Anne, wife of St. George-Francis Caulfield, of Dunamon-park, in the aforesaid county of Roscommon, Esq. Charlotte, wife of Gibbs-Crawford Antrobus, of Eaton-hall, in the county palatine of Chester, Esq. Frances, wife of Daniel Tighe, of Rosanna, in the county of Wicklow, Esq. Sophia-Crofton, Spinster, and Frederica, wife of Hubert M'Laughlin, Clerk, Minister of the Protestant Chapel at Nice, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Crofton:

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 10, 1837.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Frederick Lapidge, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, Her royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the cross of a Commander of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholick, which Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain has been pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of Her royal approbation of his services in the operations undertaken for raising the siege of Bilbao; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
July 5, 1837.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of His late Majesty in Council, for assigning a district to St. Paul's Chapel, Chasewater, in the parishes of Kenwyn and Kea, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of April 1837, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:” and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, “that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign particular districts to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;” and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parishes of Kenwyn and Kea, in the county of Cornwall, and diocese of Exeter, which form one consolidated vicarage, contained a population of 12388 persons; that besides the parish churches, which afford accommodation to 950 persons, there are two chapels in the said parishes, recently built by the said Commissioners, one of which, called St. John's Chapel, at Truro, affords accommodation to 1068 persons, and the other, called St. Paul's Chapel, at Chasewater, affords accommodation to 1504 persons, including 1200 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said last mentioned chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said last mentioned chapel, called Saint Paul's Chapel, at Chasewater, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named the District of Saint Paul, Chasewater, with boundaries as follows:

On the north west by Saint Agnes' parish, on the north east by the turnpike road from Saint Agnes to Truro, on the south west by the parishes of Gwennap and Saint Feock, and on the east by the road from Bizza-bridge to Kirley Burrow, until it meets the road passing through Seveock-town place; and thence, by the said road, to its junction with the turnpike road from Chasewater to Truro, as the same is delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured yellow and pink:

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by, and belong to the Minister of, the said chapel:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Exeter has been obtained thereto, as required by the above mentioned section of the said Act passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop had signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, and plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

*Church Commissioners' Office,
July 5, 1837.*

THE following is the copy of an Order of His late Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a consolidated chapelry district to Saint Paul's Chapel, in the city of Oxford, taken from parts of the respective parishes of Saint Giles and Saint Thomas, Oxford, under the provisions of the 6th section of the 59th of George the Third, cap. 134;

At the Court at Saint James's, the 10th day of May 1837, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," reciting, amongst other things, "that a considerable population is frequently collected together at the extremities of, and locally situate in, parishes, or extra parochial places contiguous to each other, at a distance from the respective churches or chapels of such respective parishes, or extra parochial places, it is, therefore, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such consent as is required by the said herein-before recited Act, in the case of district parishes to unite and consolidate any such contiguous parts of such parishes, and extra parochial places, into a separate and distinct district for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to cause such district to be named, ascertained, and marked out by prescribed bounds, and such name and the description of such bounds, when approved by His Majesty in Council, to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese to which such district shall belong, under the provisions of the said Act now in recital; and to make grants or loans for or towards the building of, or to build, any chapel or chapels, with or without cemeteries, in and for the use of the inhabitants of any such district, in such manner, and under such regulations as may, in the judgement of the Commissioners, appear from the circumstances to be most expedient, and to constitute any such district a consolidated chapelry; and every such chapelry shall be under the superintendance of such spiritual person as shall be appointed, under the provisions of the said Act now in recital, to serve any such chapel; and such spiritual person shall have the cure of souls in such district, and the right of presentation and appointment of such spiritual person shall thenceforth belong to such person or persons, and be exercised in such manner as may be agreed by the several patrons of the churches or chapels of such parishes or extra parochial places respectively, with the approbation of the Commissioners; and banns of marriage may be published, and that marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials may be solemnized and performed in any such chapel, immediately and at all times after the consecration thereof; and the pew rents of such chapel shall be fixed, and salaries to the minister and clerk assigned therefrom, in such manner as is directed in the said hereinbefore recited Act, or in the said Act now in recital, concerning pew rents and salaries in separate and district parishes; and that all fees and offerings which may arise and accrue within such chapelry, according to such table of fees as the Commissioners shall make, with the approbation of the Bishop, may be demanded, received, sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by the spiritual person having cure of souls therein, and by the clerk and sexton of such chapelries, in like manner as if every such chapelry was a distinct parish; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are thereby required in every such case, to ascertain and make compensation, in manner directed in like cases under the said hereinbefore recited Act, for any loss which may be sustained by the incumbent of any contiguous parish, or extra parochial place, which shall form any part of such district, by reason of any fees, oblations, and offerings being transferred to the spiritual person serving any such chapel; and that all such chapelries shall be deemed to be benefices, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and Archdeacon within whose diocese and archdeaconry the altar of such chapel shall be locally situate, and to all the laws in force concerning presentation and appointment to benefices and churches and lapse, and all other laws relating to the holding of benefices and churches."

And it is thereby further enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may thereafter be built, or required under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendance and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and that all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed

In the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Saint Giles, in the city and diocese of Oxford, contained a population of 2855 persons, and the parish of Saint Thomas, in the same city and diocese, contained a population of 3277 persons; that the parish church of the said parish of Saint Giles affords accommodation for 600 persons, and the parish church of the said parish of Saint Thomas for 550; that a new chapel, called Saint Paul's Chapel, has lately been erected, in the said parish of Saint Giles, which affords accommodation for 866 persons, including 718 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel is distant about 479 yards from the said parish church of Saint Giles, and about 1268 yards from the said parish church of Saint Thomas; which are the places nearest to the said chapel, appropriated to the celebration of divine service, according to the rites of the Church of England; that the extremities of the said parishes of Saint Giles and Saint Thomas which lie contiguous to each other, and are delineated in the plan accompanying the said representation, contain a population of 1955 persons:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances above mentioned, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the said contiguous parts of the said parishes of Saint Giles and Saint Thomas into a separate and distinct district, to be assigned to the said chapel for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to constitute such district a consolidated chapelry, under the provisions of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district, attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein, and that such district should be named the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Oxford, and that the boundaries thereof should be as follows:

The boundary of that part in the parish of Saint Thomas, Oxford, to commence at the north east corner of Hythe-bridge-road, and proceed northward up Worcester College-street, by the boundary line that divides the parish of Saint Thomas from the respective parishes of Magdalen and Saint Giles, until it reaches Jericho-road, where the north boundary of Saint Thomas's parish meets the south boundary of Saint Giles' parish, then westward by the boundary that divides the parish of Saint Thomas from the parish of Saint Giles, until it reaches the Oxford Canal, then south down the centre of that canal, until it reaches Hythe-bridge-road, then east along the centre of the last mentioned road, including all the left or north side thereof to Worcester College-street, from whence the boundary commenced, as the same is delineated in the map annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured green; the boundary of that part in the parish of Saint Giles', Oxford, to commence at the south western corner of the ground on which the chapel is built, and proceed eastward by the wall on the south side of the chapel, until it reaches the end of that ground, then northward till it reaches the wall bounding the north side of the chapel, then westward till it reaches the north west corner of the ground on which the chapel is built (having passed in a north westerly direction by the eastern boundary of the parish of Saint Thomas), to commence at the north west angle of the wall of the Observatory grounds, and proceed in an eastwardly direction along the northern wall of those grounds, till it reaches the western wall of the gardens at the back of Saint John's-terrace, then to pass northward along a public footway, and (where the footway terminates) in a direct line across a piece of garden-ground into the Horse and Jockey-lane, then turning westward to pass down the centre of that lane to the river Isis, on reaching which, to take the eastern side of the river, and pass southward until it reaches the point where the river Isis and the Oxford Canal are separated by the canal towing-path only, and where the parishes of Saint Giles and Saint Thomas meet these, to cross the towing-path and the canal in an easterly direction, and continue east by north, by the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Thomas from the parish of Saint Giles, until it reaches the north western angle of the Observatory wall, from whence the boundary recommenced as the same is delineated in the map annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured pink.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Oxford has been obtained thereto as required by the said Act of the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, and, in testimony of such his approbation, the said Lord Bishop of Oxford has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty should seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

ALEX. SMITH, Witness.
JOHN MARSHALL, Witness.

IF Mr. THOMAS DEACON, formerly of Skinner-street, Snow-hill, Dealer in Coffee, but who was residing at Longsight, near Manchester, in the month of February 1836, will apply at the office of Messrs. Brooke and Cutler, of 16, Furnival's-inn, Colonial Agents, he will hear of something to his advantage.

Freehold Estates in the several counties of Carnarvon, Merioneth, Montgomery, and Cardigan.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Jones v. Skinner, with the approbation of Sir Giffin Wilson, Knight, one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in the month of September next (of which due notice will be given), part of the freehold estates of the late Humphrey Rowland Jones, Esq. of Garthmill-hall, in the county of Montgomery, in several lots, that is to say, CARNARVONSHIRE.

A freehold estate called the Ystynllyn Estate, situate in the parishes of Criccieth, Ynyscynhaiarn, Penmorva, and Trefis, in the county of Carnarvon, consisting of upwards of 950 acres, and let to various tenants, at rents amounting annually to upwards of £600, in one lot.

MONTGOMERYSHIRE.

Three farms, called Bwlch-y-Lluan, Rhydybiswel and Cae Adda, situate in the parish of Llanwrin, in the county of Montgomery, occupied by Edward Davies, Robert Richards, and Thomas Davies, at annual rents, amounting together to £100 and upwards, in another lot.

MERIONETHSHIRE.

A messuage or tenement, farm and lands, called Tyddyn-y-Briddill, situate in the parish of Towyn, in the county of Merioneth, in the occupation of Edward Hughes, at the annual rent of £35, in another lot.

CARDIGANSHIRE.

And five farms called Penrhyngygerwin, Cwmere, Dynin, Alltgoch, and Frongoch, situate in the parish of Llanfihangel-generglyn, in the county of Cardigan, consisting of upwards of 900 acres, and let to Mrs. Pugh, Evan Jenkins, Edward Owen, and William Owen, at annual rents, making together £200 and upwards, in the other lot.

The Ystynllyn Estate is situate within nineteen miles of Carnarvon; the three farms in Montgomeryshire are situate within five miles from the market-town of Machynlleth, and upon which there are thriving plantations of oak and other saplings; the messuage or tenement, farm, and lands called Tyddyn-y-Briddill, in Merionethshire, is within five miles from the pleasant bathing place of Towyn, and seven miles from Machynlleth; the five farms in Cardiganshire are covered with coppices of oak of the most luxuriant growth, and abound with game, and are distant from seven to ten miles from Aberystwith and Machynlleth.

The Carnarvonshire Estate will be sold at Tre Madoc, and all the other estates at Machynlleth.

Particulars are preparing, and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. William Jones, Solicitor, Crosby-square; and of Messrs. Ferrard and Jones, Solicitors, Austin-friars, London; and of Messrs. Griffithes and Jones, Solicitors, Welshpool; and of Mr. David Jones, Llwydiarth-park, near Can Office, Montgomeryshire.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Canham v. Canham, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on Tuesday the 25th of July 1837, at one in the afternoon, in one lot;

A capital freehold messuage or farm house and lands, with outhouses and appurtenances, containing altogether one hundred acres, or thereabouts, desirably situate at Hilgay, in the county of Norfolk, late the property of Anthony South Canham, Esq. deceased, and now let to Mr. William Bossingham, a respectable yearly tenant, at the rent of £150 (clear of all taxes, rates, and other outgoings, except land tax).

The estate may be viewed by leave of Mr. Bossingham, the tenant, and printed particulars, may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Turner and Son, Solicitors, No. 27, Percy-street, Bedford-square; Mr. Cole, Solicitor, No. 38, Great Ormond-street, Queen-square, London; at the Bell Inn, at Hilgay, and at the Castle Inn, Downham-market, Norfolk.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Le Jeune against Le Jeune, with the approbation of Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London.

Four copyhold dwelling-houses and gardens, and a large plot of building-ground holden of the Lord of the Manor of Fulham, situate in Albion-row, Parson's-green, in the parish of Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, on the high road leading from Putney-bridge to Hyde-park-corner.

The time of sale will be shortly advertised, when particulars and conditions of sale, which are in a course of preparation, may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Francis Blake, Solicitor, No. 6, King's-road, Bedford-row; of Mr. F.
