The Turks made at first fome refislance, but were force the a their Polt, many of them being killed and taken priloners, and the Croats pulled them as far as Turbina; and Icturning from thence, they met wich the other Party commanded by the Beg, who know nothing of the d feat of the Baffa; They mide a ve y weak refiftance, but many la-ved themfelves in a great Wood that was hard by. It is reckoned that of the Turks there could not be lefs than 1000 killed in their two actions; and the Count de Trausmuhfdorfe is returned to the Camp with L2 Colors or S and 1rds, and 20 of the most c nuserable pritoners; and befines we have taken all the Provisions which they had d figued for the relief of this place. On our fide a Captain and 14 Soldiers were killed, and abour 30 wounded This day are arrived in the Camp the Regiments of Leflie, Seraw, and Met-ternich, and we doubt not but in few days to be Malters of Virovitza, though the b fieged upon the first Summons that our General fent them, anfwered they would d fend the place to the laft.

Francfort, July 31. There are Letters from Vienna of the 27th Instant which tell us, an Exprefs was arrived there with the news of the taking of Virovitza by Count Leflie, but those we have from Lintz not making any mention thereof, Bida it's bewe can ot give much credit to it. lieved is ere this time in the hands of the Imperialiffs, who were Malters on the 2 oth Inflant of the Fort of Gerad berg, from whence they attacked the Town and Calle with their Cannon and Bombs. From Municke they write that 6 or 7000 of the Ele-Etor of Bavaria's Troops are marching for Hungary.

Br fils, August 8. Some diforders having been committed at Louvain by the Ordinary fort of People, who refuted to pay an Imposition that hath been lately laid upon Beer, in which feveral p'i fons were wounded, the Maiquis de Grana lent thither three Regiments of Horfe and Dragoons to suppress the Commotion, which they did for the piclent, and leized fome of the principal Authors of it; but yesterday his Excellency had an account that the People were again in Arms, and that in a Scuffle between them and the Soldiers feven or eight perfons were killed, upon which his Excellency hath fent thither 500 Horfe and Dragoons more, being refolved to have the promoters of these Tu mults exemplarily punished. We are told that the French Troops have orders to guit thefe Territorics before the end of this week; and that they are to march towards the Rbin. The Elector of Cologne, it's faid, is expected at Vifet between Liege and Maeftricht.

Paris, August 9. Our last Letters from Germany give an account that the Imperialists had taken a very important Polt near Buda, called Geradsberg, from whence they did much incommode the befleged; and it's not doubted but that the place is by this time in the hands of the Chriftians. The Marquis de St. Geniers having refigned the Government of St. Omer, the King has given it to Monfieur The Marcichal de Schomberg is, it's de Choifeul, faid, on his march towards the Rhin.
