AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of June 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect, until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, duly prepared, and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports "of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the annual sums to be paid to us, out of the revenues of the larger sees, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics.

We humbly recommend and propose, in order to leave to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and to the Bishops of London, Winchester, Bath and Wells, and Worcester, respectively, the average annual incomes specified in the said Act, as near as may be, that upon the first avoidance of the several sees named in the first column of the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), the archbishops and bishops succeeding to the said sees respectively, and their respective successors, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England, to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," by equal half-yearly payments, the fixed annual sums set opposite to the names of the said sees respectively in the second column of the said schedule, the first payment in each such case to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of the avoidance of the respective sees, whether the same shall happen by death, translation, or otherwise; and that when even a vacancy of any of the said sees shall hereafter happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, then, in each such case, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the Archbishop or Bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the Archbishop or Bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly: provided, nevertheless, and we further recommend and propose, that if a vacancy of the see of Canterbury shall happen, before the mortgage debt due from the Archbishop of Canterbury, for money borrowed under the provisions of an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for repairing, altering, and improving Lambeth palace, and the mansion house at Addington, shall be fully paid off, or if a vacancy of the see of London shall happen, before the mortgage debt due from the Bishop of London, for money borrowed under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for rebuilding London house, shall be fully paid off; then in either of the said cases, so long as the annual sums payable by virtue of the said respective Acts shall continue payable, the amount of those sums respectively shall be deducted out of the sums which we hereby recommend and propose to be payable to us by the said archbishop and bishop respectively :

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing the payment of fixed annual sums out of the revenues of other sees, in order to provide for the augmentation of the smaller bishopricks, nor any other measure relating to the revenues of any of the sees herein-mentioned, or of the said other sees respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said first recited Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

York	-	1,100
London	-	5,000

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the dioceses of Canterbury, York, London, Winchester, Bath and Wells, and Worcester, respectively.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Roxburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Roxburgh, humbly request permission to approach the Throne, and to lay at your Majesty's fect the expressions of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the demise of our late most gracious and revered Monarch. In thus transmitting these our unanimous sentiments, we cannot but be deeply impressed with a recollection of the many virtues and excellencies of our departed Sovereign, who deservedly lived in the affections of his people, and was graciously pleased to return their feelings of attachment towards him, by a constant attention to the welfare of every class of his subjects, and, during a short but prosperous reign, has been looked up to as the friend of mankind, and the father of his people.

It having been the will of the Almighty to deprive us of our late Sovereign, we hail with gratitude the accession of a Princess, descended from a line of Monarchs under whose protection the empire has been raised to a station unequalled in the history of nations, and who, under Divine Providence, have upheld the Protestant faith, and maintained the liberties of their subjects.

We thank your gracious Majesty for the expressions you have been pleased to address to your loyal and loving subjects, and it will ever be our prayer that you may long continue to rule over us, and, reaping the benefits of a long and happy reign, reflect those blessings on your people, which we pray the Almighty God may bestow on you.

Signed in our names, and by our appointment,

An Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Durham, in Council assembled.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Durham, in Council assembled, beg to approach your august Throne, with unanimous and heartfelt acclaim upon your Majesty's accession to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain and Ireland.

At the same time we deeply lament with your Majesty, and with our late Sovereign's illustrious Consort, the afflicting bereavement this empire has sustained by the death of His Majesty, whose kingly virtues have inspired every heart with the liveliest feelings of regret, and whose regard for the rights and liberties of his subjects, and promotion of beneficial reforms and improvements in the institutions of this realm, have rendered his reign glorious and his memory sacred.

On the auspicious event of your Majesty's accession, we tender our united and cordial homage and allegiance, praying that the same Providence which has raised you, in the flower of youth, to so high a station, and caused you at once to live and reign in the hearts and affections of your people, may prolong your years, and endue you with wisdom for the administration of the Government of this mighty empire; that, treading in the footsteps of your predecessor, maintaining the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and promoting the amelioration of the laws and institutions of this nation, your reign may be rendered more glorious and renowned than any that has preceded it in the annals of our country.

It is our earnest prayer that Divine Providence may bless your Majesty with a long and happy reign; and that it may be distinguished by the advancement of religion and morality, and by the promotion of literature, science, and art among all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient burgh of Stirling, humbly approach the Throne, with sentiments of the most devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

In common with all our fellow subjects, we deeply sympathize with your Majesty in that calamity, by which your Majesty and the empire have been deprived of your venerated Uncle, our late beloved Sovereign, whose memory will be long cherished by a grateful people for that anxious desire which he exhibited, during his eventful reign, to ameliorate the laws and institutions of the country, and to extend to all classes of his subjects the blessings of civil and religious freedom.

Highly important and weighty as the trust is which your Majesty is called to discharge, we look forward with confidence to such a performance of it as will extend the liberties, promote the happiness, and secure the attachment of those over whom you are called by Providence to preside; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty may, through the Divine blessing, be long preserved in the enjoyment of health, to reign in the hearts of a free, loyal, and affectionate people.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries, in Presbytery assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE we beg to offer to your Majesty our most sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, in the demise of your Royal Predecessor, our late beloved Sovereign, King William the Fourth, we desire to present to your Majesty our most cordial congratulations on the happy event of your accession to the Throne of these realms. And we earnestly pray that Almighty God, who has called you, in his Providence, while yet at a tender, to so exalted but, at the same time, so arduous and responsible a situation, may richly endow your Majesty with all wisdom and prudence, with all noble and generous sentiments, and with all excellent virtues and spiritual graces, to enable you to govern this great and enlightened empire with firmness and with judgment.

We beg to proffer our loyal and devoted submission to your Majesty's Person and Throne, fully persuaded that it will ever be your gracious object, and determined purpose, to maintain inviolate the rights and liberties of your subjects; to uphold the great principles of our admirable constitution, as a Protestant nation, both in Church and State; to give every encouragement to the promotion of pure morality and of true religion; and to rule your people with affection, and in the fear of God.

We rely on your Majesty's protection of our beloved Presbyterian Church, as by law established in Scotland, under your illustrious predecessors, and on your Royal care to extend its efficiency, that the Gospel may be preached to the poor of this land, of whom vast multitudes are still destitute of all means of religious instruction and consolation.

That your Majesty's valuable life may, by the Divine favour, be long preserved; that you may reign in the affections of a loyal and attached people; that you may be the honoured instrument of at once purifying and consolidating all our great and venerable institutions, and of carrying forward to still higher degrees the moral and intellectual, as well as the temporal prosperity of the nation; and that you may at last obtain the approbation of the King of Kings, and be exalted to Heaven's eternal glory, are the earnest prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries.

Signed in our name and by our appointment.
