A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS King George the Third, by His royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence thereon therein-before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His said Majesty having, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, substituted to His ancient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire the title of King of Hanover, it was thought fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, and it was therefore, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, accordingly declared, by a royal Proclamation, bearing date the eighth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there should thenceforth be used and borne with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence ensigned with the said Hanoverian crown instead of the Electoral bonnet: and whereas, upon the demise of His late Most Sacred Majesty, the German dominions of His late Majesty have passed from the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and devolved upon His Royal Highness Prince Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland, now King of Hanover, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to declare, that henceforth the shield or escocheon of pretence representing His late Majesty's dominions in Germany, and ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, shall be omitted, and the shield left to contain the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland only: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were current and lawful moneys of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority, with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were lawful moneys of Ireland, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such moneys as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by royal Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamations, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in Our arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such moneys as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner, and as of the like value and denomination, as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments which, before the issuing of this Proclamation, shall be in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively, may be expressed, shall not by reason of this Proclamation, or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments, respectively bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this twenty-sixth day of July instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect as the same had before the said twenty-sixth day of July instant.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of June 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that out of the property of the see of Durham provision be forthwith made for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices which the late bishop (meaning thereby the late Right Reverend William Van Mildert) had agreed to grant, but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect that part of the said Act which directs, that out of the property of the see of Durham, provision should be made, for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices, which the late William Bishop of Durham had agreed to grant, but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death.

We humbly recommend and propose, that the several sums, which, in the schedule marked (A.), hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), we have set opposite to the respective names of the perpetual curacies of Esh, St. Helen's Auckland, Etherley, Shildon, and Escomb, all in the diocese of Durham, and in the patronage of the Bishop of Durham, be forthwith paid by us, out of the moneys now standing to our credit and account at the Bank of England, to the several persons who were incumbents of the said curacies respectively on the twenty-first day of February now last past, as and for one whole year's payment, to the amount agreed to be granted, in each case respectively, by the said William late Bishop of Durham, from the twenty-first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, the day of the death of the said Bishop, to the said twenty-first of February now last past.

And we further recommend and propose, that a fixed annual sum, to the same amount, in each case respectively, shall be paid by us, out of the moneys which shall be from time to time standing to our credit and account as aforesaid, to each of the incumbents for the time being, respectively, of the said several perpetual curacies, by equal half yearly payments, on the twenty-first day of February and the twenty-first day of August in each year, the first of such payments to be made on the twenty first day of August now next ensuing; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said several perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the twenty-first day of February or the twenty-first day of August, the next half-yearly payment shall in every such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that, in addition to the payment herein before recommended and proposed to be made to the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Etherley for the time being, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments purchased and set apart for the purpose by the said William late Bishop of Durham, and particularly described in the schedule marked (B.), hereunto annexed (which schedule we also recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall be permanently annexed to and become and be for ever part of the property and endowment of the said perpetual curacy of Etherley, and of the incumbent thereof, and his successors perpetual curates of Etherley for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing the augmentation of Trinity Chapel, in the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, whenever the conditions required by the said

William late Bishop of Durham shall have been complied with.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Chairman and Justices of the Peace of the County of Carmarthen, in Quarter Sessions assembled, at the town of Llandilofawr, in the said county, this 28th day of June 1837, humbly beg permission to offer our unfeigned congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, sincerely wishing you a long continuance of health and happiness to reign over an united people.

And we fervently pray, that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, may over-rule the councils, and sanctify the endeavours, of your Majesty to secure to yourself the loyalty and affection of a grateful nation.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Wallingford, in the county of Berks, approach your Throne with our sympathetic condolence on the demise of your august Relative, his late Majesty William the Fourth. But we desire, at the same time, to express our humble gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of human Events, for vouchsafing to place the Crown on your Majesty's head, and for giving us a Queen lineally descended from a long line of Royal and truly Protestant Ancestors.

We assure ourselves that the boasted Constitution of these realms, as by law established, will receive your Majesty's fostering care; and we tender our most dutiful acknowledgments for your declaration, that you have learned, from your infancy, to respect and love the constitution of your Majesty's native country.

We humbly and most cordially commend your Majesty to the guardian care of Him by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice.

Given under our common seal, at a Court of Common Council, the 11th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

No. 3.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of Stonehaven, Head Burgh of the county of Kincardine, in Public Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty on your accession to the Throne, and, with profound respect and willing hearts, to declare our loyalty, duty, and attachment.

We participate in the national lamentation for the death of a King, whose beneficent reign secured to him that truest solace for the cares of monarchy—the affections of his people.

But we are thankful that the Great Disposer of Events, who willed the termination of the earthly career of our late revered Sovereign, has placed the sceptre of the empire in the hand of a British Princess so eminently fitted, by her virtues and anxiously cultivated endowments, to preserve the liberties and advance the happiness of her subjects.

Under this gratifying assurance we would offer our humble but ardent wish and prayer, that, throughout a long and glorious reign, your Majesty may be blessed with the fullest measure of felicity.

Signed at Stonehaven, the 12th of July 1837, in our name and presence, by Peter Christian, Chief Magistrate.

The humble Address of the undersigned Welsh Congregational Ministers, assembled at an Association held at Tredeger, in the County of Monmouth, July 5, 1837, to Her Most Excellent Majesty, VICTORIA the First.

May it please your Majesty,

WHILE sympathizing with your Majesty in the regrets and anxieties you so naturally feel on the demise of your illustrious Relative, our late beloved Sovereign, William the Fourth, we humbly beg to offer our warmest congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these realms. We regard the station you now occupy as the highest on earth; and the time in which, by an All-wise Providence, you have been elevated to it, as likely to prove a most important period in the history of the world: and, from the sentiments and feelings so nobly expressed by your Majesty, when entering upon its sacred responsibilities, as well as from the manifold virtues that have been so happily cherished in your Majesty's bosom, by a most illustrious Mother, whose character and conduct are deservedly revered by the nation, we feel confident that such an "amelioration of the laws and institutions of your native country" will be effected, under your reign, as will, by promoting the happiness of your people, greatly add to the power and dignity of the British empire.

The principles of loyalty transmitted to us by our fathers have, upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne, taken deeper root than ever, and have now gained a full and firm possession of our hearts. In affectionate devotion to your Royal Person, we can yield to no class of our fellow subjects; and we feel most happy in having the privilege of publicly uniting, from sabbath to sabbath, with tens of thousands of our countrymen, in ardent and sincere prayers that your life may be long, your reign prosperous, your end peace, and your memory blessed.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of exposed and deserted young Children, commonly called the Foundling Hospital, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our most unfeigned sorrow on the demise of our late much revered and lamented King and Patron; but at the same time that we present this, our humble tribute of condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, we most cordially unite in the joyful acclamations of an affectionate and loyal people on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of this kingdom, which gives us the fullest assurance that the blessings of peace and prosperity will be dispensed to your loving subjects.

Confident of your Majesty's anxiety for the welfare of all classes of your subjects, we entreat your Majesty, after the example of your Royal Predecessors, to extend your protection to this Institution, by graciously declaring yourself its Patron.

Thus highly distinguished, we shall continue to use out utmost endeavours to send forth the children committed to our care, dutiful and obedient to their God, faithful subjects to the Sovereign, and useful members of society.

And we most fervently beseech the Almighty to pour down on your Majesty all those blessings which attend true piety and charity, and to grant to your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy reign.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Corporation of the Master and Assistants of the Trinity-House, Leith, beg leave, on your accession to the Throne of these realms, to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the most devoted loyalty and attachment.

In common with our fellow subjects, we deeply sympathize with your Majesty in the loss which your Majesty and the empire have sustained, by the death of your venerated relative our late illustrious Sovereign William the Fourth, whose memory will long live in the hearts of a grateful people for that regard for the just rights and liberties of his subjects, for the wise amelioration of the laws and institutions of the country, for the maintenance of peace abroad, and tranquillity at home, which so eminently distinguished His late Majesty's short but ever memorable reign.

We confidently look forward to a continuance and increase of those wise and beneficent measures which were so conspicuous in the reign just past, in that which now so auspiciously dawns upon this great empire. Endowed by nature with the noble qualities which distinguish the House of Brunswick, and trained up under the enlightened care of a pious, affectionate, and virtuous mother, we behold in your Majesty a Sovereign eminently qualified to advance the interests and to secure the attachment of the people of this great nation, over whom, under Divine Providence, you have been called upon to reign.

We earnestly pray that the Divine blessing may be imparted to your Majesty in the execution of your sacred trust, and that you may be long preserved to reign over a loyal and happy people.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that, by the grace of God, we shall make it our study to cherish and to exemplify that genuine loyalty which our church has ever displayed towards the House of Brunswick, and to inculcate on the people committed to our spiritual superintendence those principles of true religion, that fidelity to their Sovereign, that attachment to our national institutions, sacred and civil, and that love of our unrivalled constitution on whose maintenance depend the security of the Throne and the freedom of the people.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the inhabitants of Uxbridge and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our hearty congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the British Throne. Deeply as we deplore the loss which the nation has sustained by the death of our late most

No. 11.

To the QUEEN'S Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, approach your Majesty with the purest sentiments of devotion and attachment.

We offer our sincere sympathy with your Majesty for the loss we have mutually sustained in the decease of our late beloved Monarch, your Royal Uncle William the Fourth, during whose short but glorious reign peace has been preserved, and the true rights and liberties of his subjects have been promoted, and for which he has entailed on his memory the gratitude of an affectionate people.

Educated on English soil, under the fostering care of your most excellent and illustrious Mother, we hail with delight the auspicious accession of your gracious Majesty, and look forward with confident hope to the judicious application of reform in all those institutions of our country which have either by the lapse of time lost their original beneficial purpose, or become inapplicable to the present enlightened age; and in this cheering hope we are assured by your Majesty's first gracious and patriotic declaration to your Privy Council, and by your wise choice of advisers in the present liberal administration.

We, therefore, most earnestly pray that Providence may grant to your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy life, crowned by the blessings of a free, brave, and generous nation.

Dated Guildhall, this 15th day of July 1837.

No. 12.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Minister, Churchwardens, and Vestry of the ancient parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, most respectfully beg permission to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the loss sustained by your Majesty and the nation at large, by the decease of our late revered Sovereign.

But while we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, deeply deplore the loss of a King who had devoted himself, with unwearied zeal and diligence, to the promotion of the happiness and welfare of his people, yet we look forward with the utmost hope and confidence to the reign of your most gracious Majesty. We cannot but remember, with peculiar pride and interest, that it was in this, the ancient parish of Saint Margaret, that your Majesty was born; that it was here that your Majesty has passed the greater part of your life, and received your excellent education, under the care of your Majesty's illustrious and much respected Parent; that education which, under the Divine blessing, may enable your Majesty to sustain with dignity and wisdom the high station to which it has pleased Almighty Providence to call you, and secure to your Majesty the universal respect and affection of your people.

The rule of the female Sovereigns of this country has, in most instances, been distinguished in our annals by remarkable glory and prosperity; we trust, under the Divine protection, that the reign of your Majesty will be equally blessed with honour and happiness to yourself and to your people. Under former Queens the independence of the country, the establishment of the Protestant religion, and the advancement of our naval and military fame, were secured by wise and successful policy; may that of your Majesty be celebrated in future times as an epoch of peace and social advancement, for the maintenance and improvement of our ancient institutions, the harmony of all orders, and the general diffusion of the true principles of happiness, knowledge, virtue, and pure religion.

Most humbly and earnestly do we implore that it may please the Great Giver of all good, that your Majesty's life may be long preserved to sway the sceptre of these realms over a free, happy, and united people, and that the name of your Majesty may be handed down to the remotest posterity, as associated with every thing humane, enlightened, and religious.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strand.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the sincerest grief for the great loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained by the death of our late most excellent and revered Monarch, your Majesty's illustrious and beloved Uncle, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of the sorrow which afflicts our Guild at this melancholy and deplored event.

Actuated by sentiments of the sincerest attachment to the members of your Royal House, and deeply affected with those general feelings of regret which pervade all classes of your Majesty's subjects upon this lamented occasion, we suffer an inexpressible accumulation of sorrow, mingled with recollections of the most grateful character, at the loss which this ancient body has sustained by the death of a Sovereign whose personal association with the Corporation has shed unprecedented lustre upon its annals, and whose invariable kindness and condescension had merited and secured the warmest sentiments of devotion on the part of its members.

But while thus expressing our participation in the general sorrow, and the cause of our peculiar grief, permit us to offer to your Majesty our humble congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, and with fervent prayers that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy, to tender to your Majesty assurances of genuine loyalty and devoted attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, in defence and support of which our best services and hearty endeavours will be at all times rendered; and to indulge an earnest and anxious hope that by the zealous fulfilment of those public duties, which are the especial province of our institution, we may be instrumental in promoting the security of the Royal Navy, and in advancing the prosperity of the empire.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Peebles, Scotland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Peebles, most humbly approach your Royal presence, to condole with your Majesty on the great loss your Majesty and the nation has sustained by the death of His late Majesty William the Fourth; whose liberal and prosperous reign will be gratefully remembered in the present age, and will be greatly honoured by succeeding generations.

The sceptre is now placed in the hands of a Queen, whose first declaration in Council has most fully confirmed all the pleasing hopes which we had entertained of her virtue, wisdom, and fortitude, as well as of her tender affection to this her native country, and sincere attachment to the constitution; and with the sincerest veneration and esteem, we congratulate your Majesty's accession to these realms.

So important an event, occurring in a time of profound tranquillity, when no foreign wars exhaust the treasury, and no internal dissensions disturb the peace of the country, affords a pleasing prospect of permanency and stability to that state of happiness and prosperity which we, and all other loyal and dutiful subjects of your Majesty, now enjoy.

The wisdom of the measures pursued by His late Majesty's Government has happily done much to allay the irritation that, at a former period, unfortunately prevailed in this country; and we humbly, but sincerely, trust to a continuance of the same liberal and enlightened policy, as contributing greatly to the stability of the empire, and adding to the affection and respect which a free, loyal, and united people entertain for your illustrious House. We have seen with great pleasure that your Majesty continues to place confidence in the Ministers of His late Majesty William the Fourth, a Ministry which most deservedly enjoys the confidence of the country, for the many useful and beneficial measures they have introduced and passed since they became the responsible advisers of the Crown.

Long, very long, may your Majesty live and reign, alike the ornament, the pride, and the delight of these kingdoms; and, animated by the example of your piety and virtue, long may we, the dutiful, affectionate, and loyal subjects of your Majesty, remain a religious, free, happy, and prosperous people.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Peebles, and the seal of the Burgh appended hereto, at Peebles, this 14th day of July 1837.

Walter Thorburn, Provost of Peebles.

We beg leave at the same time to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Crown of the United Kingdom, and we pray fervently that Divine Providence may bless your Majesty with a long reign of glory and happiness.

We rejoice in your Majesty's gracious declaration of affording support to the Reformed religion, as by law established, securing at the same time to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty: and, trusting that one of the most acceptable proofs which we can give of our loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, is the faithful discharge of our duties in educating a portion of the youth of this empire, we beg leave to assure your Majesty that we shall continue, as far as in our power, to be faithful instructors in religion, literature, and science, and shall omit no opportunity of inspiring our students with sentiments of love and respect to their Queen, of attachment to the House of Brunswick, under whose mild and beneficent sway this country has prospered so greatly, and of veneration for our excellent constitution, which is still unrivalled in the history of nations.

We beg leave to express our regret and sympathy with your Majesty for the loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, under whose rule peace has been preserved, the laws amended, and our rights and liberties promoted and secured. His Majesty has carried to the grave the grateful remembrances of an affectionate people.

We beg leave also to express our high satisfaction at the auspicious accession of your Majesty, who, born and educated amongst a free people, under the tender care of a wise, liberal, and religious mother, are about to fulfil the sanguine expectations of a great and enlightened nation.

We look forward, with confident hope, to the judicious application of reform to all the time honoured, but time-worn, institutions of our country; to a mitigation of the severity of our laws, and an abatement of the perplexities of their practice; to see the blessings of education brought home to every cottage door; and, above all, the cultivation of Christian charity amongst all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

That these expectations will be fulfilled, we have a well-founded assurance in your Majesty's gracious declaration to your Council on your accession, and by the cheering fact of your Majesty's having bestowed your confidence on those enlightened Ministers to whom we owe the extension of our liberties at home, and the abolition of slavery abroad.

We trust, therefore, and believe, that, under Providence, your Majesty may be the appointed means of conveying peace, liberty, happiness, and prosperity, to the millions over whom your Majesty is called to reign.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Devizes, in special Council assembled, beg permission to lay before your Majesty the sincere expression of our sympathy with your Majesty, and our fellow subjects, in the severe affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit the nation, by the death of our illustrious and revered Sovereign, King William the Fourth.

His memory will be justly cherished for his great anxiety to promote the public good, and for the decision and zeal he displayed in sanctioning those measures of legislation by which the spirit of our glorious constitution has been revived and expanded.

But, while we deplore the loss of so excellent a Monarch, we would humbly offer to your Majesty our most hearty congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the British Throne, in the full confidence that your Majesty, in accordance with your gracious declaration, will secure to all the full enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, and will, by steadily protecting the rights, promote the happiness and welfare of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

We would also thankfully acknowledge the debt of gratitude we owe to your Majesty's illustrious Parent, whose maternal care and instructions have fully prepared your Majesty to pursue that enlightened course of Government which we believe will prove, with the blessing of God, the most effectual safeguard of your Majesty's Throne.

That it may please Almighty God long to spare your Majesty to reign over a loyal, a united, and a happy people, is the earnest and constant prayer of your Majesty's devoted subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of Bedford, most humbly and affectionately venture to congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the Throne of these realms ; a Throne rendered glorious and pre-eminent throughout the world ; a Throne which for ages has been unsullied by despotism or imbecility. May the Almighty Disposer of all Events grant, that your Majesty may long continue to occupy that Throne, long prove its chief ornament and support, and long reign in the hearts and affections of a loyal and enthusiastic people.

The hopes of this great nation are centered in your Majesty ; from the paternal rule extended over us by your Ancestors, from our knowledge of the hereditary excellencies of your Majesty's Royal Family, from the truly English nurture and education in which your Majesty has been reared, our expectations are naturally elevated, but we feel assured, confidently assured, that our highest and dearest anticipations will be fully realized, and that your Majesty's greatest ambition will be to emulate the example of those illustrious Sovereigns whose Crown you inherit, in preserving the honour and dignity of your Throne, and in ministering to the happiness and prosperity of your people. In addressing your Majesty upon this occasion we cannot but advert, with feelings of deep and heartfelt sorrow, to the melancholy event which has rendered this nation " a house of mourning," and has deprived both your Majesty and ourselves of a King, a benefactor, and a friend. Long, long will the remembrance of our late revered and excellent Sovereign dwell in the recollections of the people of this country ; long will his memory be cherished by every lover of freedom, by every one who venerates our ancient and unrivalled institutions, and by every admirer of worth, probity, and honour.

Signed, in the name of the Inhabitants of Bedford,
C. Short, Mayor.
