FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1837.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS King George the Third, by His royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence thereon therein before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His said Majesty having, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, substituted to His ancient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire the title of King of Hanover, it was thought fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, and it was therefore, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, accordingly declared, by a royal Proclamation, bearing date the eighth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there should thenceforth be used and borne with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence ensigned with the said Hanoverian crown instead of the Electoral bonnet: and whereas, upon the demise of His late Most Sacred Majesty, the German dominions of His late Majesty have passed from the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and devolved upon His Royal Highness Prince Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland, now King of Hanover, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to declare, that henceforth the shield or escocheon of pretence representing His late Majesty's dominions in Germany, and ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, shall be omitted, and the shield left to contain the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland only: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were current and lawful moneys of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority, with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were lawful moneys of Ireland, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such moneys as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by royal Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamations, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in Our arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such moneys as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner, and as of the like value and denomination, as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments which, before the issuing of this Proclamation, shall be in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively, may be expressed, shall not by reason of this Proclamation, or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments, respectively bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this twenty-sixth day of July instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect as the same had before the said twenty-sixth day of July instant.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace, assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace held at Bodmin, in and for the county of Cornwall, on the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Camelford may be a polling place for the said division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Camelford shall be a polling place for the said eastern division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said eastern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Buckingham-Palace, July 31, 1837.

THIS day a Deputation of the Dutch and French Churches in the city of London, waited on Her Majesty, to present the following Address, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Address of the Protestant Dutch and French Churches in the city of London, established by King Edward the Sixth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the Protestant Dutch and French Churches, in the city of London, established by Royal Charter in the year 1550, by King Edward the Sixth, of glorious memory, most humbly beg to approach your Royal presence, to express our deep and sincere sympathy with your Majesty, for the grievous loss which your Majesty has, in common with the nation, sustained by the decease of our late beloved and lamented King, William the Fourth, whose manifold virtues and paternal reign have secured to his memory the lasting gratitude of the people of these realms.

But, while we condole with your Majesty on the demise of our late much revered Sovereign, we humbly beg to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this mighty empire, and most unfeignedly to assure your Majesty that we cordially participate in that strong and universal feeling of dutiful and affectionate attachment to your Royal Person, which so eminently prevails among all your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

We further beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue to offer up our most fervent prayers to the Almighty King of Kings, that His protection and blessings may, in the richest measure, be granted to your Majesty and your Royal House, and that your Majesty's reign may be a long and uninterrupted series of peace and prosperity, and an abundant source of welfare and happiness, both spiritual and temporal, to this great and enlightened nation.

We most humbly beg leave to solicit the continuance of that great and powerful protection which our Churches, the most ancient foreign Protestant Churches in the United Kingdom, have enjoyed for a period of nearly three centuries, during the successive reigns of your Majesty's illustrious predecessors.

Done in Vestry, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1837.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address, for the sorrow which you express for the loss of His late Majesty, and for your congratulations upon my accession.

"I look back with great satisfaction to the protection which you have found during so long a period in this country, and you may entirely rely upon the continuance of that protection under my reign."

St. James's-Palace, July 19, 1837.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Stockport, in Council assembled, respectfully approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our deep affliction at the loss of our late most excellent King, his late Majesty King William the Fourth, whose mild and conciliatory reign, during which the civil and religious liberties of the people were so much extended, has endeared him in the hearts and affections of his subjects; and rendered his name and memory the objects of grateful veneration.

Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, at the same time, beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of the United Kingdom.

Your Majesty's most gracious declaration in favour of the amelioration of the laws and institutions of the country, the full enjoyment of religious liberty, the protection of the rights, and promotion of the happiness and welfare of your Majesty's subjects, is hailed by your Majesty's subjects with the greatest satisfaction. Guided by this declaration, your Majesty will reign in the hearts and affections of a loyal, a dutiful, and a happy people; and that your Majesty may so long live and reign is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Queen,

WE, the undersigned Magistrates of the County of Monmouth, assembled at Usk, humbly beg leave to convey to your Majesty the earliest assurances of our participation in the deep sorrow which your Majesty must naturally feel at the death of the late King, whose many excellent qualities had endeared him to the British nation.

Deign, even in this sad hour of affliction, to accept our congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms. That your Majesty may enjoy a long reign, in uninterrupted health, happiness, and prosperity, is the earnest prayer of these your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Norwich, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Norwich, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Royal Presence, and to join with our countrymen in that unfeigned expression of sorrow which the bereavement your Majesty and the nation has sustained in the removal, by Divine Providence, of His late Majesty William the Fourth, has universally excited.

The kindness and beneficence which marked the private character of our late revered Monarch, and the deep interest he took in all measures adopted for carrying into full effect the principles of our glorious constitution, have indeed rendered this expression of sorrow the heartfelt tribute of an affectionate and loyal people to the memory of their much honoured King.

We recognize with thankfulness that Almighty hand which has, at the present crisis, raised up for us, in your Royal Person, a Princess legally authorized and able to take the reigns of empire.

The hopes and affections of this great nation are now centered in your Majesty, and we feel unqualified joy and perfect confidence in the gracious assurances made by your Majesty in your first declaration in Council, and which, with the utmost respect for your Majesty's Person and Government, we hail as an earnest and pledge of the blessings we are destined to enjoy under your reign.

Our earnest desire and prayer is, that your Majesty may have a long, a happy, and a peaceful reign over us, and that the measures which were auspiciously commenced under our lamented Sovereign, for amending and ameliorating our laws and institutions, may, under your happy auspices, be carried out into their full effect, that thus the forms of our venerated constitution being preserved, its spirit may be more fully enjoyed, and every part of your Majesty's dominions be sincerely united in devotion to the person of the Sovereign, and reverence for the laws and institutions of the country.

Given under our corporate seal, at the Guildhall of the said city, the 10th day of July 1837.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, humbly approach your Royal Person with our condolence for the great loss which your Majesty and the nation have suffered, from the demise of our late good and gracious Sovereign.

Yet, while we express these feelings, it is our consolation to reflect that, by the blessing of Providence, the public welfare is still protected, and that, amidst the distractions of other kingdoms, the Throne of these dominions stands secure, through a legal and a cherished succession.

We beg to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to a Throne thus firmly planted in the affections of the people, and we pray that your Majesty may long possess it.

It is equally our duty and our happiness to add, that the present settlement of this Collegiate Church has descended to us from the most illustrious of our female Sovereigns; and our earnest prayer is, that we may experience from the Queen Victoria the cordial protection of this Protestant foundation of Queen Elizabeth, and the maintenance of those principles in Church and State in which the Throne has always found its best and surest support.

Dated, in our Chapter-house at Westminster, the 4th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1837.

J Thynne, Sub Dean.

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's, beg leave to approach the Throne, on this solemn and interesting occasion, with all the feelings which the liveliest sympathy, and which the most ardent and devoted loyalty can inspire.

We deeply participate in the universal sorrow for the loss of our late beloved Sovereign, whose kindness and benignity of disposition, and whose tender and paternal regard for all classes of his subjects, will never be obliterated from the hearts of Britons. We desire to bow, with reverential submission, to the will of the Almighty, who has seen fit to deprive us of a Monarch who was truly the endeared Father of his people, and we offer up our fervent prayers to the Supreme Disposer of all Events that, under this afflictive dispensation, He may cheer and sustain your Majesty, and all the Members of the Royal Family, with those consolations which He alone can bestow.

Deeply, however, as we are afflicted with this mournful event, we feel an alleviation of our sorrow in being enabled to look up to your Majesty as the Successor of your illustrious and venerated Relative, with one heart and one voice we beg leave to offer our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, together with the dutiful assurance of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your Sacred Person, and to the illustrious House of Brunswick. Called, as you have been, at a very early age to administer the affairs of this mighty empire, we trust that, according to your own pious wish, the Divine Wisdom will bless you and guide you in the exercise of your high functions. Gifted, as your Majesty has been by nature, with high talents, which have been cultivated with unceasing care, under the eye of your illustrious and affectionate Parent, and conspicuously endowed with the noble and generous qualities which have ever characterised your august House, we are encouraged to hail the commencement of your Majesty's reign with every happy anticipation, and to entertain the best founded conviction that it will be the first and dearest object of your heart to prove yourself the benefactress of your people, and the watchful guardian of their civil and religious rights and privileges; and that, by the blessing of God, your's will be a long reign, of glory to yourself, and of prosperity to the British empire.

As Members of this ancient Seminary, which has often experienced the favour and protection of your Royal Ancestors, we beg leave most respectfully to convey to the foot of the Throne, the assurance that, while in our different departments we employ our most strenuous exertions to instruct the youth committed to our care in all sound and useful learning, we shall never cease to cherish in their minds loyal attachment to your Person and Government, and veneration for those civil and sacred institutions which have raised this country to a high pre-eminence over all the nations of the earth.

Signed, in name, presence, and by appointment of the University of St. Andrew's.

Melville, Chancellor; Robert Haldane, D.D.
Vice-Rector.

No. 7.

Unto the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates, Treasurer, Councillors, and Town Clerk of your Royal burgh of Anstruther Wester, beg leave to approach the Throne, on the occasion of your Majesty's accession, duly considering by whose authority Sovereigns reign, with the expression of our profound respect and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our warmest wishes for your happiness and prosperity.

In common with our fellow countrymen, we lament the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of your revered Uncle, our late most gracious Sovereign, King William, whose noble and generous qualities secured to him the love and affection of his subjects, and will cause his memory to be long held by them in grateful remembrance.

Your Majesty having now been called, under Providence, to preside over the destinies of this great empire, we hasten to lay before your Majesty, our humble but sincere congratulations on that important event, and earnestly implore the Divine blessing on your Person and Counsels.

Educated, as your Majesty has been, in a princely, enlightened, and pious manner, under the careful superintendence of an affectionate Mother, distinguished for her intellectual attainments, as well as every noble and virtuous quality we feel justified in looking forward, during the reign which has just now so auspiciously commenced, to a faithful, just, and impartial administration of the laws; a sacred regard to the liberties of the people; a careful preservation and improvement (if necessary) of our existing institutions; and an anxious desire to promote the welfare and happiness of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

In an especial manner we beg to express our confident hopes, that the wise and good of the land may rally round your Majesty's Throne, and strengthen and support your Majesty's hands in the discharge of your high and important duties, enabling your Majesty to defend our glorious constitution from schemes of dangerous innovation; to protect the Royal Prerogative from encroachment and invasion; to uphold the just authority and privileges of the other branches of the legislature against change and violation; and to maintain, in their integrity, the Protestant reformed religion and national churches as by law established.

That your Majesty may long continue, in health and prosperity, to sway the sceptre of these kingdoms; that you may reign in the hearts and affections of a free, a loyal, and a contented people; and that "peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations," is the sincere wish and prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Bailies, Treasurer, Councillors, and Town Clerk of Anstruther Wester.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, and the common seal of the burgh is hereto affixed.

While, in common with the rest of your Majesty's faithful subjects, we deeply lament the occasion which leads us to the foot of the Throne, as members of a Society which has long been distinguished by the fostering care and protection of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, we cannot but feel a more particular sympathy in the distress which at the present time afflicts your Majesty.

With sentiments of high veneration and respect for the many virtues which adorned our late august Sovereign, your Majesty's beloved Uncle, we desire also to express our gratitude for the encouragement which the agriculture, arts, manufactures, and commerce of these kingdoms received during his auspicious reign, and especially for the condescension with which His Majesty deigned to honour our institution as its illustrious Patron and munificent benefactor.

We presume, Madam, with all humility and dutiful affection, to add our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and our earnest prayers to Almighty God that your reign may be long and prosperous, in full confidence that, under your Majesty's directing care and wisdom, we shall continue to enjoy the blessings of our excellent constitution, and that your Majesty's protection will be extended to our agriculture, arts, manufactures, and commerce, which have so eminently conduced to the safety, honour, and prosperity of the State.

WE, the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg leave to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, and to entreat your Majesty's acceptance of our faithful assurance of service and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, with a humble expression of our unfeigned regret on the lamented decease of our late most gracious Sovereign, of blessed and glorious memory.

Impressed with these sentiments, we humbly pray that your Majesty's reign may be long, happy, and prosperous; and we confidently trust, that the inestimable blessings we have so long enjoyed under the constitutional government of your Majesty's august predecessors, will be secured and perpetuated by your Majesty's gracious resolution to maintain unimpaired the laws and liberties of the United Kingdom.

That your Majesty's reign may be marked by an unremitting endeavour to promote the welfare and prosperity of a dutiful and loyal nation, and that your Majesty may never fail to experience from all classes of your Majesty's subjects the most willing obedience and unshaken loyalty, shall be the constant prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and most devoted subjects.

No. 10.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Minister, Elders, Members, and Adherents of the Alnwick United Associate Congregation, comprehending about one thousand souls, and connected with the Secession Church of Scotland, humbly request the Royal favour of being permitted to present, for your Majesty's acceptance, an Address of condolence and congratulation. We sincerely and deeply sympathize with your melancholy feelings on the death of the late King, your illustrious Relative, and our beloved Sovereign. As your Majesty's loyal, affectionate, and devoted subjects, we also rejoice that, on your accession to the Throne of the British empire, a gracious Providence has, in your youthful years, elevated you to the highest station of any of your more delicate sex. On this we the more cordially congratulate your Majesty, as from your domestic education, and more especially from the auspicious commencement of your official duties, we discover the elements and presages of all that is amiable and great in character, confidently anticipate a better order of things than has been yet obtained, and fondly hope that your reign will be characterized by a liberal and judicious Government, just and humane laws, and the abolition of everything exclusive, whether in civil or religious society. We have only to add that, as individuals, and as a Christian community, we shall ever pray that your life may be long and happy; and that, not only during your early days and tender age, but through the whole of your earthly career, God may give you grace, wisdom, and an understanding heart, to discern between good and evil, that you may be able to judge this so great a people; and that, under your Majesty's auspices, peace and prosperity may abound more and more throughout your vast and populous dominions.

Signed by order of a Congregational Meeting, in behalf of the Minister, Elders, Members, and Adherents of the Alnwick United Associate Congregation.

Rev. Dax. Paterson, Chairman.

Alnwick, the 11th day of July 1837.

Whitehall, August 4, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 11.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and others, of the county of Somerset, at a County Meeting duly assembled by the High Sheriff, whilst we deeply feel the loss of our late beloved Sovereign Lord King William the Fourth, of blessed memory, respectfully beg leave to offer to your Majesty our cordial and affectionate congratulations on your accession to the Crown of this united empire, an event which we sincerely pray may, under the blessing of the Almighty, afford every satisfaction and happiness to your Royal mind, as well as concomitant advantage and glory to all classes of your people.

We cannot but hail with peculiar gratification the principles which your Majesty has been already graciously pleased to promulgate, as a foretaste of that liberal and enlightened policy which we fondly and confidently anticipate will become the distinguishing characteristic of your patriotic reign, thereby ensuring to the people of these realms a continuance of that liberty and freedom in all our institutions, religious, political, and social, and of that security and prosperity in our possessions which has been (under the mercy of Divine Providence) so long the happy lot of our country.

We are aware of the trials and difficulties which are unavoidably attendant on so exalted a station as that which your Majesty is thus, early in your life, called upon to fill, but we draw great consolation from the knowledge that your Majesty, placing your reliance on that power and aid which cometh from above, and supported by the love and devotion of all classes of your subjects, will thence derive such an invincible strength and influence as will entitle your Majesty to the admiration and respect of the other nations of the world.

We cannot on such an occasion omit the expression of our deep sense of obligation to your Majesty's Royal Mother, the Duchess of Kent, for her unremitting devotion and care of your Majesty during the period of your minority, the valuable results of which, we sincerely believe, will be more and more developed, and cause the highest satisfaction to the whole kingdom, as necessarily leading to a course of wise, sound, constitutional, and happy Government; and, under these feelings, we sincerely and joyfully pledge ourselves to support your Majesty's Throne with that affectionate loyalty which hath at all times marked the public character of the people of the county of Somerset.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting, by Alexander Adair, High Sheriff.

No. 12.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Councillors, and other inhabitants of the town of Northampton, assembled at a Public Meeting of the town, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, to express the deep regret which we feel for the loss of His late Majesty, a Sovereign whose uniform and anxious endeavours to promote the welfare of his subjects have made a lasting impression upon our memories.

But while we feel bound in gratitude to His late Majesty to express our sorrow for his loss, and our admiration of his public and private conduct during the time he reigned over us, we beg leave also most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these realms; and it is our earnest and heartfelt prayer to Almighty God that he will grant your Majesty long to reign over a happy and contented people.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting, this 17th day of July 1837, James Peach, Mayor.
