The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being; the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High

Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the bishoprick of Lichfield.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Lichfield to the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors, bishops of Lichfield for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the laiges sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of eight hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the thirteenth day of February, and the thirteenth day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments, to the thirteenth day of February last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the thirteenth day of August next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Lichfield shall happen, on any other day than the thirteenth day of February, or the thirteenth day of August, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the said bishopric of Lichfield, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for

"carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the Bishop of Durham should in future hold the Castle of Durham, in trust, for the University of Durham, and that all expences of maintaining and repairing the same should be defrayed by the University of Durham:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate; by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted; that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, relative to the Castle of Durham.

We humbly recommend and propose, that the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham, for the time being, shall hold the Castle of Durham, including all the precincts of the said castle, and all houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore known or accepted as parcel of the said precincts, and all rights, privileges, ways, easements, and advantages thereto belonging, in trust, for the University of Durham, which has lately been incorporated, by the name and stile of the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham ; but subject, nevertheless, to such right of access as the clergy of the diocese of Durham now have to the library founded by John Cosin, heretofore Bishop of Durham, and now remaining within the said precincts, and to all right of way and other easements to which the same premises have heretofore been legally subject while in the possession of bishops of Durham ; and also subject to the enjoyment by all such officers of the see or diocese of Durham, and by all such officers of the palatinate of Durham as have performed, for thirty years now last past, and now do perform, the duties of their respective offices in any building within the said precincts, of the right of performing their respective duties within the same buildings respectively, and to the enjoyment by the bedesmen of the cathedral church of Durham, of the almshouses wherein they now reside, until the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall have provided, to the satisfaction of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, sufficient buildings elsewhere for the respective purposes for which the present buildings are lawfully used ; and as to those parts of the said buildings which were used by officers of the said palatinate, so long as any of those duties shall remain to be performed by the officers who held their offices at the time of passing the Act for separating the palatine jurisdiction from the bishopric of Durham.

And whereas the Bishop of Durham for the time being is Visitor of the said University of Durham, we further recommend and propose, that, for the accommodation of the said Bishop of Durham for the time being, all those apartments in that part of the said Castle of Durham, commonly called the Palace, which have usually been known by the name of the Senior Judge's apartments, together with a room in the lower story of the said castle, heretofore used as the still room, with two closets above, and together also with a double coach-house, and two stables, each containing three stalls, such coach-house and stables being within the said precincts, near to the said library of Bishop Cosin, shall be reserved for the use of such Bishop ; which apartments, coach-house, and stables, shall at all times be ready for the use of the said Bishop for the time being, on his giving three days notice to the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars of his wish to occupy the same : provided, that if the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall erect on the spot, and according to the plan approved by William late Bishop of Durham, a coach-house and stable or stables for the accommodation of two carriages and six horses, and shall at all times keep the same ready for the use of the said bishop for the time being, on receiving such notice as aforesaid, such last-mentioned coach-house and stable or stables shall be substituted for the coach house and stables herein-before described, to the use of which such bishop shall, in that case, be no longer entitled.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall duly maintain and repair all parts within the said precincts, and shall fully indemnify the said Bishop and his successors against all expences of such reparation and all claims for dilapidations.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

A DISPATCH, dated the 15th of July 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from George Villiers, Esq. Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Madrid, transmitting a note from the Spanish Government, of which the following is a translation, suspending the Royal Order of July 13, 1830, which imposed exceptional duties upon vessels proceeding from Gibraltar:

(Translation.)

SIR,

I HAVE the satisfaction to acquaint you, that, according to a communication made to me by the Minister of Finance on the 13th instant, the August Queen Regent having been informed of the report drawn up, in consequence of the representation which you made in your notes of the 1st of January and 20th of April of this year, for the abolition of the exceptional duties which are imposed upon goods coming from Gibraltar, and conveyed in Spanish vessels; and Her Majesty, bearing also in mind, on on the one hand, the motives of public utility which dictated the Royal Order of July 13, 1830, and the political considerations which determined the issuing of the Royal Decree of December 2, 1834, and considering, on the other hand, the generous and most important services which the British Government has afforded, and is still affording, to the national cause in the present contest, has been pleased to resolve, in conformity with the opinion of the Council of Ministers, that for the present, and without prejudice to what the Cortes may determine upon the system of customs and tariff, the observance of the 4th article of the said Royal Order of July 1830 be suspended, with respect to vessels proceeding from Gibraltar, in the same terms in which, by the Royal Decree of December 2, 1834, it was suspended as regards vessels proceeding from Bordeaux, Bayonne, Marseilles, and other intermediate ports of France, in order that by this means the Treaties may be fulfilled which exist with England, who has the right, according to them, to be treated in Spain as the most favoured nations.

I avail myself, &c.

Foreign-Office, August 8, 1837.

A DISPATCH, dated the 29th of July 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from George Villiers, Esq. Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Madrid, transmitting a note from the Spanish Government, of which the following is a translation, respecting the admission into certain Spanish ports of foreign coal, for the use of foreign steam boats:

(Translation.)

SIR,

THE Minister of Finance has just made me the following communication:

"I have laid before the Queen Regent the information lately obtained in consequence of the reiterated representations of the British Minister at this Court, and of the French Chargé d'Affaires, requesting the revocation of the Royal Order of the 9th of April last, which modified that of the 31st January of the preceding year, respecting the admission of foreign coal; and Her Majesty, desirous, on the one hand, that no difficulties be placed in the way of the navigation of steam vessels, whether national or foreign, but, on the contrary, that every facility compatible with the protection and encouragement which our own mines require be afforded; and, on the other hand, of giving another proof to our faithful allies that the Spanish Government, naturally grateful, is not unaware of the important services which, in support of the national cause, are afforded by the vessels charged to guard our coasts; Her Majesty has been pleased to resolve, that, although the 3d article of the above-mentioned Royal Order of the 9th of April last, declares duty free the foreign coal, which, without being landed in our ports, is kept on board and consumed by the steamers, they shall, for the present, be allowed to have two deposits in the Mediterranean, which are to be Barcelona and Alicant, and two others on the sea coast, Cadiz and Corunna, upon the payment of two per cent. and the Officers of the Customs to have a key; for this article, without ceasing to be in the free air, can be placed in buildings which the Masters of the steamers can provide themselves, and thus they will have a deposit corresponding to their consumption. All this to take place without detriment to the ameliorations which the General Direction and its 'Junta Consultiva' have proposed, in order that they may be submitted to the Cortes for examination and discussion, to whom also immediate communication will be made of this provisional measure which circumstances have obliged the dictation of.

"I have the honour to make the above communication to you, in reply to the note which you were pleased to address to me upon this subject, and avail myself, &c."

(Signed) JOSE MA. CALATRAVA.

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the county of Northumberland, respectfully offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the occasion of the death of our late lamented Sovereign.

Whilst, in common with the nation at large, we deplore an event which has deprived us of a Ruler whose life was devoted to the happiness and prosperity of his people, we find consolation in the accession to the Throne of these realms of a Sovereign whose virtues inspire us with the best hopes for the future; and we tender to your Majesty the assurance of our devoted loyalty and attachment.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and that under it may be alike maintained the just prerogative of the Crown and the rights and liberties of the subject.

On behalf of the inhabitants of the county of Northumberland, in public meeting assembled,

Wm. John Charlton, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Northumberland.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Bute.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Bute, this day assembled in a General Meeting at Rothesay, in the said county, most humbly approach your Majesty in giving expression to our feelings on the demise of our late most gracious Sovereign, and your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this realm.

Long and justly as the highly elevated House of Brunswick has been endeared to the empire, we consider it a privilege to be allowed in your afflictions unfeignedly to sympathize; and we most sincerely condole with your Majesty, the widowed Queen, and the Royal Family, under the severe bereavement by which Almighty God has been pleased to call to His mercy our late much-revered Sovereign, who lived and reigned in the love of his family and people.

With sentiments of the most profound and affectionate interest, we behold your Majesty so early called to guide the sceptre of this great empire. We rejoice that your Majesty is not unacquainted with

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Selkirk, desire most respectfully and sincerely to offer to your Majesty our condolence on the loss which your Majesty, in common with all your people, has sustained by the decease of our late affectionate and lamented Sovereign; and we desire, at the same time, with feelings of ardent loyalty, to tender to you our congratulations on your own accession to the British Crown.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lieutenancy, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the county of Ross, in Special General Meeting assembled, on approaching your Majesty, on the occasion of your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Great Britain and Ireland, feel an unusual degree of interest. We most sincerely lament the death of your Majesty's illustrious Predecessor, our late most gracious Sovereign, King William the Fourth, to whom this country has been under many and great obligations, and whose memory will be ever gratefully cherished. We offer our true condolence to your Majesty on that event.

Your Majesty has been taught, that the Throne which your Majesty now occupies, is founded on the just principles of Protestant liberty; that error can be removed, and truth established, only by the diffusion of knowledge, and the practice of the divine precepts of the founder of our religion in all the relations of public and private life.

We, therefore, rejoice to see your Majesty seated on the Throne of these realms.

We rely on your Majesty giving stability to our institutions, by improving them in accordance with the knowledge which experience has gained for us. We rely on your Majesty affording to your people ample means for acquiring, increasing, and profiting by knowledge of every kind.

We rely on your Majesty, by your princely and dignified example, and decided conduct, checking the evil example of immorality among the higher classes of your Majesty's subjects, and forwarding the practice of pure Christianity.

We rely on your Majesty cherishing liberty of conscience in matters of religion; and we rely, as a consequence of such objects being nearest your Majesty's heart, on our eternal, as well as our temporal, interests being promoted.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with feelings of the purest loyalty and respect, and, amidst those sensations of the deepest sorrow and regret for the loss which the British empire has recently sustained (and which no one can more fully appreciate than your Majesty), to offer our fervent congratulations on the sceptre of these kingdoms having passed into the hands of an illustrious Princess, whom the universal voice of the nation hails as eminently gifted, even in early life, with those virtues and distinguished qualities which promise to lead to her own glory as a Queen, and to national happiness amongst her subjects.

We earnestly pray that, under the goodness of Almighty God, there may be allotted to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign; that peace and concord, industry and contentment, may be the happy fruits of your Majesty's Government, and that every blessing which human nature is capable of enjoying may lighten those burdens from which Royalty itself is not exempted.

Signed, in name and by appointment of a General Meeting, held at Aberdeen, on the 14th of July 1837. Forbes, Preses.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Incorporated Burgh of Mussleburgh, beg to approach your Majesty, on the occasion of your accession to the Throne, with the assurance that we most sincerely sympathize in the heavy affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty, by the decease of your illustrious Uncle, our late venerated King; and we humbly condole with your Majesty on the loss of a Sovereign so deservedly endeared to your Majesty and to the nation. We beg also to express to your Majesty the ardent sense we entertain of the many advantages and blessings this country has enjoyed, under the sway of our late King, whose memory will ever be cherished by the whole country.

We beg to offer to your Majesty our cordial congratulations on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and to assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your Person and Government; while, at the same time, we express our sincere conviction that your reign will be devoted, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to the maintenance of the Protestant religion, and to the protection of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

No. 29.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Newbury, in Council assembled, the 7th day of July 1837.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and attached subjects, approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the country has sustained by the lamented decease of your august Relative, His late Majesty King William the Fourth, whose many excellent characteristics endeared him to the nation, and will cause his name to be ever cherished by a loyal and grateful people.

We crave permission to congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty's accession, under most promising auspices, to the Imperial Throne of your Ancestors; and we feel assured that the excellent principles which have been impressed on your Majesty's mind, by the assiduous and judicious education which your Majesty has received, under the superintendence of your illustrious and affectionate Mother, will, by the favour of God, qualify your Majesty to fill the exalted station of Sovereign of these realms with honour to yourself, and to the advancement of the liberties, prosperity, and happiness of your people.

We hail with peculiar satisfaction the enlightened and patriotic sentiments developed in your Majesty's most gracious declaration, affording an undoubted assurance that your Majesty will promote such wise ameliorations in our ancient and venerated institutions, as will secure to them the increased respect and confidence of your people, and will stamp your Majesty's reign among the most distinguished and brilliant in the history of our country.

We beg to express our attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and pray that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty may reign long, peacefully, and happily, in the affections of a free, loyal, and faithful people.

No. 30.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects of the parish of Newbury, assembled at a Public Meeting, beg to lay before your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence upon the demise of your Royal Uncle, a Prince, whose memory will be gratefully cherished by the present generation, and whose name will be handed down to posterity as having possessed the hearty affections of the people during a reign in which the prosperity, happiness, and intelligence of the nation reached a pitch before unknown.

We hasten to assure your Majesty of our attachment to your sacred Person, we hail with joy the prospects which your Majesty's opening reign affords, confidently anticipating, from your Majesty's gracious declaration, that nothing will be wanting on your part which may conduce to the welfare of your subjects, both spiritual and temporal.

We cannot omit the present occasion of expressing our sympathy with your Majesty's excellent and illustrious Parent, and we should be worse than ungrateful not to feel that she has imposed upon us a debt of gratitude which can never be repaid, in the maternal and affectionate care which has watched your Majesty's early years, and which has induced us, in common with our fellow subjects, to expect the most happy results from your reign.

That she may long live to witness your Majesty's happiness and glory; and that, in the dispensations of Divine Providence, it may be your Majesty's lot for very many years to reign over a virtuous and happy people, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the Meeting, Jerre. Bunny, Mayor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the borough of Dorchester, in the county of Dorset, respectfully approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere condolence on the heavy loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained by the demise of our late beloved King; at the same time humbly offering our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

Deprived of the paternal government of a Sovereign whose whole study was the welfare and happiness of his people, we are yet consoled in our bereavement by the well founded assurance of the future prosperity of the nation, from the many sterling virtues attached to your Majesty's character.

Deeply grateful are we to the illustrious Princess, your Mother, for that sound and religious English education in which your Majesty, from your earliest years, has been trained to understand the duties of your high and important office, and to know the people over whom you might, by Divine Providence, be called to reign.

We hail with joy your Majesty's declaration of respect and love to the constitution of your native country, and your fixed determination to maintain the reformed religion as by law established; securing, at the same time, to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty.

We entreat your Majesty to accept the assurances of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and we earnestly pray to Almighty God for a continuance (in a long and happy reign) of the many blessings which this country has enjoyed under the government of your illustrious Ancestors of the House of Brunswick.
