AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds:

It is enacted, amongst other things that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate "to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the bishoprick of Lichfield.

We humbly recommend andd ropose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Lichfield to the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors, bishops of Lichfield for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larges sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of eight hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the thirteenth day of February, and the thirteenth day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments, to the thirteenth day of February last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the thirteenth day of August next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Lichfield shall happen, on any other day than the thirteenth day of February, or the thirteenth day of August, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the said bishopric of Lichfield, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Foreign-Office, August 11, 1837.

A DISPATCH, dated the 2d June 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G.C.B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from the Honourable Charles Ashburnham, Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Mexico, transmitting a Proclamation of the Mexican Government, of which the following is a translation:

PROCLAMATION.

The President of the Mexican Republic to the Inhabitants thereof; know, that the 68th article of the general tariff of the maritime and frontier custom-houses, declaring that the said tariff should not begin to take its full effect until six months after its publication in this capital, was dictated for the benefit of commerce, with the important object of regulating that of all nations upon a footing of perfect equality; and consequently, provided that this just principle be observed, all those regulations of the said tariff which are notoriously favourable to commerce in general, as stimulating speculation, and as destructive of fraudulent traffick, as pernicious to the public good as to commerce itself, may immediately come into operation, and be observed; and, in order that commerce may, as soon as possible, enjoy the aforesaid advantages, I have thought fit to Decree as follows:

Art. 1. From the date of the publication of this Decree, in every port or place where there are maritime or frontier custom-houses, those articles of the general tariff of the 11th March last, which hereinafter shall be enumerated, shall begin to be observed, maritime custom-houses being bound to observe all, and those of the frontier such as apply to them.

Art. 2. The articles of the new tariff which shall immediately come into operation, at the aforesaid custom-houses, according to the terms of the foregoing article, are the following:

First. The second article, which lowers the amount of tonnage duties.

Second. The 3d and 4th articles, which accords to ships after taking on board their cargoes, to proceed to another port with the view to ship produce of the country which is exempt from duty, and which (articles) prescribe the formalities under which this concession is to be made use of.

Third. The 20th and 21st articles relative to the cessation, in ordinary cases, of the custom of placing a permanent guard of tidesmen (celadores) on board: relative to the guards keeping watch, by rounds, at a distance, and to its being the duty of the officer commanding the tidesmen, or of the Custom-house officers, to seal up the hatchways and bulk-heads of the vessel.

Fourth. The 23d article, which imposes penalties upon any person who fraudently may break the seals; but this article shall be expressly and formally notified to the master of the ship by the officer commanding the tidesmen, or the Custom-house officer, on his coming on board to take the manifests.

Fifth. The 4th article, relative to the regulations to be observed with regard to applications for passing the cargo.

Sixth. The 45th article, which names the Custom-house functionaries, whose duty it is to attend at the passing of the goods.

Seventh. The 56th article, by which it is provided that Mexican Consuls and Vice-Consuls shall forward to the Custom-house statements of prices-current, which shall be made use of in the way pointed out in the 57th article, when the tariff comes into force in all its parts.

Eighth. The 66th article, which regulates the examination of goods in the Custom-houses.

Ninth. The 91st article, which imposes penalties on masters of ships, or supercargoes, in every case of making trans-shipment of goods to another vessel, or permitting it on board their own; but this article shall be expressly and formally notified to the captains, or supercargoes, by the officer commanding the tidesmen upon their coming on board.

Tenth. The 92d article, which fixes the legal hours for shipping or unshipping cargoes; but the notification, as prescribed in the foregoing paragraph, shall be previously made.

Eleventh. The 93d, 94th, and 95th articles, relating to the penalties denounced against Custom-house officers, and other public functionaries, for aiding or concealing smuggling; and authorising the informers to be present at the examination of goods seized in consequence of their information.

Twelfth. All the articles of the 7th chapter, relative to the distribution of confiscations, except as to pecuniary and personal penalties, inasmuch as, until the 17th day of September inclusive, of this year, those imposed by the laws in force previously to the 11th of March last, shall continue in full effect.

Article 3. The remaining articles of the new tariff not expressly declared by this Decree to be in force from the time of its publication in the respective places, shall not commence taking effect until from the 18th day, inclusive, of September of this year, the general tariff of 16th November 1827, the law of 31st March 1831, and the other existing regulations remaining in the mean time in force and vigour, in all such matters as are not altered or modified by those articles of the new tariff as are enumerated in the present Decree.

I accordingly command that it be printed, published, circulated, and duly observed.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 11, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Majesty Queen VICTORIA.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Members of the Caledonian Horticultural Society, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg leave to approach the Throne with every sentiment of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person, humbly to offer our tribute of condolence on the great loss which has been sustained by the country and your Majesty, in the death of our lamented and revered Sovereign, your Majesty's beloved Uncle.

Devoted in our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Royal House, under whose mild, firm, and paternal Government the United Kingdoms have, for more than a century, enjoyed a course of unexampled happiness, prosperity, and glory, we have hailed the accession of your Majesty to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain and Ireland as an auspicious event, promising a long continuance of those blessings to us and others, your Majesty's loyal and faithful people.

Witnessing, as we have done, with admiration and gratitude, the maternal solicitude unremittingly displayed by Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, in the education of your Majesty, and satisfied that, by the care of Her Royal Highness, no means have been omitted by which your Majesty should be fully prepared for the discharge of those high and important duties to which, under Divine Providence, your Majesty has been destined, we confidently trust that the reign which has now commenced will be no less signalized in the annals of Great Britain than those of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, under whom this country attained to a height of grandeur unexampled in the history of other nations.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, happy, and united people, is the sincere and earnest prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Members of the Caledonian Horticultural Society.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the town of Kincardine, in the county of Perth, assembled in Public Meeting, humbly approach the Throne, for the purpose of condoling with your Majesty upon the death of our much lamented Sovereign, William the Fourth, the friend of the rights and liberties of the people.

We also congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the Throne of the United Kingdoms. Your Majesty may rely upon our attachment to your Royal Person, and the Constitution of the country; and we confidently trust, that your Majesty will pursue, in a cautious, steady, and successful manner, the great measures of reform commenced by your Royal predecessor, which, in our opinion, are necessary to secure the stability of the Throne, and the prosperity and happiness of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, met in Senate, humbly beg leave to present to your Majesty the assurance of our dutiful allegiance and unfeigned attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

While we unite in those feelings of regret and expressions of condolence, which are drawn forth from the subjects of the British empire, by the death of our late revered Sovereign, of whose many virtues, as well as of the peace and security which our country enjoyed under his paternal Government, we entertain an affectionate remembrance, we feel grateful to the providence of Almighty God for your Majesty's auspicious accession, through the wise provisions of our unrivalled constitution, to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors.

Satisfied, as we are, that your Majesty has been trained up in the sacred truths of our Protestant faith, in attachment to the principles of constitutional liberty, in a solemn consciousness of your high and important duties, and in those mental accomplishments which can best adorn your exalted station; we look forward with undoubting confidence to the fulfilment of that high promise of talent and virtue which your Majesty has already given, and of these assurances of encouragement to piety, morality, and public order with which you have been graciously pleased to favour your people.

Deeply sensible of the importance of the objects, for the promotion of which our ancient institution was founded, and of the encouragement and protection which have been extended to us by former Sovereigns, we rely on the continuance of those advantages under a reign in which we trust that every important national interest will be secured, a brilliant pattern of personal and public virtue exhibited from the Throne, and those pursuits of literature and science which invigorate the character, embellish the manners, and advance all the interests of our country, eminently fostered and promoted: Animated by this hope, we will endeavour to merit your Majesty's favour and approbation by the faithful discharge of our duties, and especially by combining, in the tuition of those committed to our charge, the acquirements of a liberal education, with sound principles of religion, patriotism, and loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government. That, under the Divine blessing, your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain, in Scotland, beg leave, on the occasion of your accession to the Throne of these realms, to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the most devoted loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

In common with all our fellow subjects, we deeply sympathize with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty and the empire have sustained by the death of your revered Uncle, our late illustrious Sovereign, William the Fourth, whose name and memory will long be cherished, and held in grateful remembrance, for that paternal regard for the rights and liberties of his subjects, and that anxious desire to ameliorate the laws and institutions of the country, which eminently distinguished His late Majesty during the course of his short but memorable reign.

With just confidence we look forward to a continuance of those blessings which are promised to our Zion, when Kings shall become nursing fathers, and Queens mothers to the Church of Christ on earth, in the reign which now so auspiciously dawns on this great empire. Endowed with the noble and generous qualities which characterize your illustrious family, and trained up in every princely and domestic virtue, under the enlightened care of a pious and affectionate Mother, we behold in your Majesty a Sovereign pre-eminently qualified to promote the welfare, and to secure the devoted attachment, of the mighty people over whom, by Divine Providence, you have been called to preside.

We earnestly implore the Divine Blessing on your Majesty in the execution of your high and sacred trust, and fervently pray that your Majesty may be preserved in the enjoyment of health, and under the guidance and direction of Him by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice, to reign long in the hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Royal Borough of Kirkcudbright, humbly approach the Throne, to tender to your Majesty the expression of our loyalty, and of our attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person.

While with humble resignation we bow to the lamented dispensation of Providence, which has deprived these kingdoms of an amiable and kind hearted Monarch, we rejoice that the succession to the Throne has fallen on a Princess born and brought up in our native land, and carefully educated in the Protestant faith, to us a sure guarantee that, while maintaining the just prerogatives of the Crown, she will defend the rights of her subjects, by upholding the institutions of the country, both civil and religious.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous, and happy reign, over a free and loyal people, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright.

The humble Address of the President, Vice Presidents, and Members of the Highland Society of London, in General Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Highland Society of London, intreat permission to approach your Royal Person with the expression of our deep and heartfelt sympathy in the sorrow of your Majesty, and unfeignedly to condole with your Majesty on the death of your Royal Uncle, His late Majesty, of glorious memory, whose virtues will long live in the recollection of a grateful and affectionate people; and who was graciously pleased to bestow his Royal sanction and favour on the Highland Society, by condescending to accept the title of its Chief.

While we deplore the loss of a King who devoted himself with unwearied zeal to the promotion of the best interests of his country, we look forward with confident anticipation that these interests will be made at all times the first objects also of your Majesty's solicitude and protection; we, therefore, with feelings of the most profound respect, beg to assure your Majesty of our ardent attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determination to devote our most unremitting and zealous exertions to support the dignity and honour of your Majesty's Crown.

The Highland Society, we humbly submit, is not unworthy of your Majesty's gracious consideration, more especially on account of the interest taken in the welfare of the Society, by your Majesty's Royal Father, which is impressed on our recollection, and remembered with becoming feelings of gratitude; His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent was pleased, whilst President of the Highland Society, to recommend it to the notice of his illustrious Brother, then Regent, in consequence of which recommendation the Prince Regent was pleased to accept the designation of its Chief, a distinction which was continued to the Society after the accession of His Majesty to the Throne.

The objects of the Society are to encourage, in that part of your Majesty's dominions with which it is most immediately connected, that high spirit of loyalty and ardent zeal in the service of their Sovereign which so honourably distinguishes the Highlanders of Scotland, to cultivate the poetry and music of the Highlands, to preserve the ancient garb and language, and thereby to cherish the feelings of self respect and characteristic enthusiasm, which have been found to promote good order and good conduct, the observance of the laws in peace, a persevering fortitude and valour in war, and to excite a spirit of industry and enterprise accompanied by probity and guided by judgment.

By extending useful knowledge, and the principles of religion and morality, the Highland Society seek to advance the welfare, the comfort, and the happiness of their country, and they fervently pray that it may please the Almighty Disposer of all Events to soothe the sorrow with which your Royal House has been afflicted, and long to preserve the life and health of your Majesty, and grant your Majesty a happy and prosperous reign over a free, united, and loyal people.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Common Councilmen, and Town Clerk, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal town and borough of Wareham, beg permission, most humbly, to offer our sincere and dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms.

Lamenting, as we do, the loss of a Monarch whose zeal for the welfare of this kingdom, and condescension to his subjects, has endeared his memory to a grateful people, we feel that, in your Majesty's Royal Person, we have the best assurance that the loss which the nation has so recently sustained will be most fully supplied.

Carefully educated, as your Majesty has been, in a knowledge of the laws and constitution of this country, we look forward with confidence, that your Majesty will ever zealously and firmly maintain the undoubted prerogatives of the Crown, the rights of the Church, and the constitutional liberties and privileges of your People.

It is our earnest prayer, that Divine Providence

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, beg leave to offer our condolence upon the decease of our late beloved Sovereign, King William the Fourth.

His reign was distinguished by the number and amount of benefits conferred upon his people.

The preservation of peace with all the world, the extinction of slavery, and the reduction of public expenditure; attest the wisdom, the firmness, and the benevolence of his councils.

Nor is that the least important among the domestic reforms introduced under his auspices, which enables those towns in your dominions most considerable for population, wealth, and commerce, to address the Throne through representatives of their own election.

Of a King, whose memory is thus dear to us, your Majesty is now the successor: and while we offer our congratulations upon your happy accession, confident that your desires for the welfare of your subjects are equal to those of your predecessor, we pray Divine Providence to grant you the blessing of seeing those desires accomplished, and make your reign long and prosperous.

May it please your Majesty,

But whilst we address your Majesty in the spirit of condolence for the loss of a King whose constant wish was the promotion of his country's interest, we cannot but look forward with every feeling of confident assurance and satisfaction to the reign of a new Sovereign so auspiciously commenced as that of your Majesty's.

These are the sentiments of your Majesty's subjects generally; they are based on considerations which cannot deceive your faithful people. Educated as your Majesty has been by your illustrious Parent, and taught by her to receive and appreciate the great truths of Christianity, we confidently anticipate for your Majesty's subjects a rich harvest of benefit, and for your Majesty the universal respect and affection of your people.

Most earnestly do we implore that the best blessings of Him by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, may second your efforts for the good of your subjects; that your Throne may be established in the grateful affections of an united and loyal people; and that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and glorious, remarkable, above all, for the removal of party feeling, and the development of one general anxiety on the part of your people, seconding your Majesty's exertions to secure to our country a still higher station of prosperity than she has hitherto attained.

Most sincerely do we pray that your Majesty may enjoy a long life of uninterrupted happiness, increased by witnessing the success of your gracious plans.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures of the city of Edinburgh, incorporated by royal charter, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the death of our late much venerated Sovereign, your Majesty's revered Uncle.

We look back upon the reign of our late Sovereign with feelings of deep gratification; during its brief course, we enjoyed peace abroad and tranquillity at home, while, at the same time, some of our valued civil institutions received ameliorations which will hand down to posterity the remembrance of His late Majesty as a Sovereign whose earnest wish was to promote, in every way, what he deemed conducive to the welfare of his people.

The undisputed sovereignty of this great empire having devolved on your Majesty, we approach your Majesty's Throne with our sincere congratulations on this auspicious event, and trust it may please an All-wise Providence to prosper your Majesty's reign, and make it long and happy.

We see in your Majesty the descendant of an illustrious House originally called to the Throne of this country to uphold its liberties, its laws, and its institutions; and when we consider the admirable manner in which your Majesty has been trained to the great duties of the State, we look forward with confidence to the defence of those institutions both in Church and State: In aid of your Majesty's measures we shall be ever ready to offer our willing services.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the burgh of Saint Monance, in the county of Fife, Scotland, actuated by feelings of the deepest emotion, beg leave to sympathize with your Majesty on account of the recent visitation of Divine Providence, that has bereaved this mighty empire of a loving and beloved Sovereign, by the premature demise of your Majesty's Royal Uncle, of blessed memory. Though the reign of His late Majesty has been transient, when compared with some of his Royal Ancestors, yet, his benevolent dispositions, his liberality of sentiment, and his gracious acts of disinterested humanity, and genuine philanthropy, have peculiarly endeared him to the hearts of his people, and acquired him that place in their affections which will long secure his blessed memory from the shades of oblivion. But, while in this great national bereavement we behold the transitory nature of all sublunary objects, and the frail tenure by which we hold every earthly enjoyment, we are exhorted, with Christian resignation, to exercise a cordial acquiescence in the Divine procedure, being fully convinced of the all-sufficiency of the Supreme Disposer of Events to render circumstances, apparently adverse, subservient to the production of much ultimate good to this great empire.

Entertaining such convictions as these, with sentiments of the most profound zeal, loyalty, and affection, we beg to congratulate your Majesty on your lineal accession to the Throne of this extensive realm, cherishing, as we do, the confident expectation that the liberality exemplified by our late revered Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Relative, the exalted moral attainments derived from the maternal tuition of a virtuous and highly-accomplished Parent, combined with the refined erudition of this age of intellectual improvement, will render your Majesty eminently qualified for that high and important station to which, in the course of Divine Providence, your Majesty has been recently elevated; and that your Majesty may long wield the sceptre, in peace and tranquillity, over a prosperous and flourishing empire, a happy, industrious, loyal, and intelligent people, is the fervent desire of us, your Majesty's faithful and loving subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham, desire, with all respect and duty, to tender to your Majesty the homage of our loyalty and affection.

We have felt, in common with our fellow citizens, the grievous loss which your Majesty and the country have sustained, by the death of William the Fourth, our honoured King, of blessed memory, under whose paternal government our University received the privileges which we enjoy, and whose name we are especially bound to honour. We rejoiced in the mild and prudent sway of our late Monarch, and earnestly desired the continuance of his reign.

But since it has pleased our Heavenly Father, in the wisdom of his providence, to remove the King from his place among us, we hail with heartfelt gratitude and satisfaction the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors, in the full persuasion that your Majesty will maintain the dignity of your Crown, the honour of your illustrious House, and the rights and ancient institutions of this great people.

We entreat your Majesty to extend to us, and to our infant University, your grace and protection, and to accept the assurance of our sincere desire to deserve your Royal countenance, by the faithful discharge of our duties, and by the steady inculcation of the principles of loyalty and religion.

May it please your Majesty to receive with favour the expression of our wishes for your welfare. It is our prayer that you may be endued with heavenly wisdom, and strength to wield the sceptre of this great empire for the good of your people, and of the world, that your reign may be long and happy, that truth may be the basis of your Throne, and that righteousness and peace may be the glory of your day.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with mingled sentiments of sorrow and congratulation on the recent events which have so deeply interested the feelings of this country, and of its extensive dependencies.

In the concern which, together with the nation at large, we experience on the demise of our late Sovereign, we feel a consolation on the accession to the Throne of a Princess educated, under the most watchful and anxious care, in the bosom of the country over which she is to reign, and in a just attachment to its institutions, and its civil and religious liberties. And feeling, in the personal qualities of your Majesty, and in your Majesty's own gracious declarations, a firm ground of loyalty and attachment, we entreat the Almighty to distinguish a reign so auspiciously begun, by the advancement of pure religion, and of the best interests of the community over which He has appointed your Majesty to rule.

In witness whereof, we have caused our chapter seal to be hereunto affixed, this 20th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Baillies, Treasurer, and Councilors of the town of Paisley, in Common Council assembled, beg to assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Dignity.

We beg to offer to your Majesty our humble condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the lamented death of your late Royal Uncle, King William the Fourth, of glorious memory, a Monarch who will long be remembered for his affectionate regard to his people, and as having sanctioned, during his reign, those great measures of reform which have tended to ameliorate the condition, and extend the liberties of the British people.

We heartily congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these realms. Although the duties of the high station to which your Majesty has been called may be arduous, we doubt not these duties will be rendered comparatively light, supported as your Majesty is by an upright, liberal, and reforming Ministry, and by the unanimous voice of your Majesty's subjects.

We trust with confidence that, during your Majesty's reign, those great measures of reform in Church and State so auspiciously begun during the reign of the late King, and which are so essential to the welfare and prosperity of this great empire, will be matured and carried into effect, so that all your Majesty's subjects may enjoy the same privileges, all householders be invested with the elective franchise in the choice of their representatives in Parliament, all claims of religious professors be placed on an equal footing, and every mark of religious superiority abolished. And we fervently pray that your Majesty may be long spared to rule over this nation, and to reign in the affections of a free, a loyal, and an enlightened people.

Signed by me, Acting Chief Magistrate of the town of Paisley, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the said town, in Common Council assembled, and the seal of the said town hereunto affixed, at Paisley, the 10th day of July 1837 years.

With a deep conviction of your Majesty's entire devotion to the interests of the great empire over which you are called to rule, and confiding implicitly in your Majesty's desire to govern only for the advancement of its glory, the security of its institutions, and the welfare of all classes of your faithful people, we hail your Majesty's accession to the Sovereignty of these realms as holding out the gladdening promise of a benignant, prosperous, and happy reign, humbly imploring the supreme giver of every good, by whom princes govern, to direct and bless your councils, to keep your Majesty in His constant and Almighty care, and beseeching Him, of His gracious favour, to bestow the richest bounties of His Providence on your Government.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the county of Inverness, respectfully approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the heavy affliction sustained by your Majesty, in common with the whole British empire, by the decease of our late beloved and lamented King; at the same time, tendering our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Bereaved of the paternal government of a Sovereign whose most anxious wish was the welfare of his people, we are cheered with the consideration that we have a well-founded assurance of the future prosperity of the nation, from the many virtues which adorn your Majesty's character.

With gratitude to the illustrious Princess, your Mother, we reflect that, under the vigilant and enlightened superintendence of Her Royal Highness, your Majesty has been assiduously trained to understand, and, under God's blessing, to fulfil, the duties of your high and most important office.

Our most fervent prayers will be offered up to Almighty God that every blessing, both spiritual and temporal, may be abundantly poured forth on your Majesty and your Royal House. That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, affording a conspicuous example of the stability of a Throne, founded on the eternal principles of rectitude, and supported by the affection of grateful subjects; and that, by the blessing of the same Almighty Being, your Majesty may reap the best earthly reward of your beneficent cares, in the loyalty and devotion of a religious, a united, and a happy people.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, of this Guild or Brotherhood, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty to tender the expression of our unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the death of our late most gracious Sovereign.

We deplore, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, this mournful visitation, which has deprived us of a Sovereign so justly endeared to us by his unwearied zeal and devotion to the promotion of the best interests of the country.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
August 4, 1837.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a consolidated chapelry district to Saint Mark's Chapel, Hadlow Down, taken from the respective parishes of Mayfield and Buxted, in the county of Sussex, under the provisions of the 6th section of the 59th of George the Third, cap. 134;

At the Court at Saint James's, the 21st day of June 1837, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also of the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is thereby further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," after reciting, "that a considerable population is frequently collected together at the extremities of, and locally situate in, parishes, or extra parochial places contiguous to each other, at a distance from the respective churches or chapels of such respective parishes, or extra parochial places, it is enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such consent as is required by the said herein before recited Act, in the case of district parishes to unite and consolidate any such contiguous parts of such parishes, and extra parochial places, into a separate and distinct district for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to cause such district to be named, ascertained, and marked out by described bounds, and such name and the description of such bounds, when approved by His Majesty in Council, to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese to which such district shall belong, under the provisions of the said Act; and to make grants or loans for or towards the building of, or to build, any chapel or chapels, with or without cemeteries, in and for the use of the inhabitants of any such district, in such manner, and under such regulations as may, in the judgement of the Commissioners, appear from the circumstances to be most expedient, and to constitute any such district or consolidated chapelry; and every such chapelry shall be.

under the superintendence of such spiritual person as shall be appointed, under the provisions of the said Act now in recital, to serve any such chapel; and such spiritual person shall have the cure of souls in such district, and the right of presentation and appointment of such spiritual person shall thenceforth belong to such person or persons, and be exercised in such manner as may be agreed by the several patrons of the churches or chapels of such parishes and extra parochial places respectively, with the approbation of the Commissioners; and banns of marriage may be published, and that marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials may be solemnized and performed in any such chapel, immediately and at all times after the consecration thereof; and the pew rents in such chapel shall be fixed, and salaries to the minister and clerk assigned therefrom, in such manner as is directed in the said hereinbefore recited Act, or in the said Act now in recital, concerning pew rents and salaries in separate or district parishes; and that all fees and offerings which may arise and accrue within such chapelry, according to such table of fees as the Commissioners shall make, with the approbation of the Bishop, may be demanded, received, sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by the spiritual person having cure of souls therein, and by the clerk and sexton of such chapelries, in like manner as if every such chapelry was a distinct parish; and that it shall be lawful for such said Commissioners, and they are by the the Act now in recital required in every said case, to ascertain and make compensation, in manner directed in like cases under the said recited Act, for any loss which may be sustained by the incumbent of any contiguous parish, or extra parochial place, which shall form any part of such district, by reason of any fees, oblations, and offerings being transferred to the spiritual person serving any such chapel; and that all such chapelries shall be deemed to be benefices, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and Archdeacon within whose diocese and archdeaconry the altar of such chapel shall be locally situate, and to all the laws in force concerning presentation and appointment to benefices and churches and lapse, and all other laws relating to the holding of benefices and churches."

And it is, by the said Act now in recital, amongst other things, further enacted "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or required under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and that all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to

Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His late Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Buxted, in the county of Sussex, and diocese of Chichester, contained a population of 1612 persons, and the adjoining parish of Mayfield, in the same county and diocese, contained a population of 2738 persons; that the parish church of Buxted affords accommodation for 550 persons, and that of Mayfield for 800 persons; that a new chapel, called Saint Mark's Chapel, has recently been erected on Hadlow Down, in the parish of Buxted, near the extremity of the said parish, where it adjoins to the parish of Mayfield, and which affords accommodation for 436 persons, including 345 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel is distant upwards of three miles from the parish church of Buxted, and upwards of three miles from that of Mayfield, which are the places nearest to the said chapel, appropriated to the celebration of divine service, according to the rites of the Church of England;

that the extremities of the said parishes of Buxted and Mayfield which lie contiguous to each other, at Hadlow Down, and are delineated in the plan accompanying the said representation, and contain a population of 1000 persons:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His late Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances above mentioned, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the said contiguous parts of the said parishes of Buxted and Mayfield into a separate and distinct district, to be assigned to the said chapel for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to constitute such district a consolidated chapelry, under the 6th section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district, attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein, and that such district should be named the Consolidated Chapelry of St. Mark, Hadlow Down, and that the boundaries should be as follows:

The boundary of the district, commencing on the west, at Page's shop, is carried by Fitness's cottage, along the red brook to the point where the red brook and the stream by Howbourne Farm meet; from this point of junction along the stream to Howbourne, from Howbourne along the brook to Little Forge, from Little Forge along the boundary line between Mayfield and Rotherfield to the brook on the Stockyard's Farm that divides Rotherfield from Mayfield; from this point along the brook to the shed on Woodreed Farm, from this shed along the road to Skipper's-hill into the main road, by the Gate-house, turning off to the right, to the new cottages; from this point along the main road to Lewes as far as the parish of Mayfield extends; then along to the boundary between Mayfield and Framfield parishes to Tinker's-gate; from hence, along the stream to Pounsley, then along the boundary between Framfield and Buxted, to near the Hundred-house; then along the road to Shepherd's-hill, and from Shepherd's-hill along the road to Page's-shop, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured blue and red:

That the consents of his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, under whose peculiar jurisdiction the said parishes of Buxted and Mayfield are placed, and of the Lord Bishop of Chichester, within whose diocese the same are situate, have been obtained thereto, as required by the above mentioned section of the said Act of the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, and, in testimony of such their approbation, the said Archbishop and Bishop have signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His late Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His late Majesty should seem meet:

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed union and consolidation be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
