TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of August 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Monday the eleventh day of September next, to Monday the second day of October next.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS King George the Third, by His royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne on an escoccheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escoccheon of pretence thereon therein before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His said Majesty having, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, substituted to His ancient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire the title of King of Hanover, it was thought fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, and it was therefore, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, accordingly declared, by a royal Proclamation, bearing date the eighth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there should thenceforth be used and borne with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escoccheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escoccheon of pretence ensigned with the said Hanoverian crown instead of the Electoral bonnet: and whereas, upon the demise of His late Most Sacred Majesty, the German dominions of His late Majesty have passed from the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and devolved upon His Royal Highness Prince Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland, now King of Hanover, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to declare, that henceforth the shield or escoccheon of pretence representing His late Majesty's dominions in Germany, and ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, shall be omitted, and the shield left to contain the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland only: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were current and lawful moneys of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority, with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were lawful moneys of Ireland, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such moneys as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by royal Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamations, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in Our arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such moneys as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner, and as of the like value and denomination, as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments which, before the issuing of this Proclamation, shall be in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively, may be expressed, shall not by reason of this Proclamation, or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments, respectively bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this twenty-sixth day of July instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect as the same had before the said twenty-sixth day of July instant.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to make certain new regulations, in manner following, for the attendance of the Justices in the Police Offices hereinafter mentioned it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that one of the Justices appointed to the several Police Offices now established in the parishes of St. Margaret, Westminster; Saint James, Westminster; St. Mary-le-bone; Saint Andrew, Holborn; St. Leonard Shoreditch; Saint Mary, Whitechapel; and St. John, of Wapping, in the county of Middlesex; and St. Saviour, of the county of Surrey; shall, from and after the thirteenth day of August next, attend at each of the said offices from the hour of ten of the clock in the morning until five of the clock in the afternoon; and that two of the said Justices shall, in like manner, attend together at each of the said offices, from twelve of the clock at noon until three of the clock in the afternoon, instead of the hours at which they are now required to be in attendance, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided:

And the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the Bishop of Durham should in future hold the Castle of Durham, in trust, for the University of Durham, and that all expences of maintaining and repairing the same should be defrayed by the University of Durham:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley, Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, relative to the Castle of Durham.

We humbly recommend and propose, that the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham, for the time being, shall hold the Castle of Durham, including all the precincts of the said castle, and all houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore known or accepted as parcel of the said precincts, and all rights, privileges, ways easements, and advantages thereto belonging, in trust, for the University of Durham, which has lately been incorporated, by the name and stile of the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham; but subject, nevertheless, to such right of access as the clergy of the diocese of Durham now have to the library founded by John Cosin, heretofore Bishop of Durham, and now remaining within the said precincts, and to all right of way and other easements to which the same premises have heretofore been legally subject while in the possession of bishops of Durham; and also subject to the enjoyment by all such officers of the see or diocese of Durham, and by all such officers of the palatinate of Durham as have performed, for thirty years now last past, and now do perform, the duties of their respective offices in any building within the said precincts, of the right of performing their respective duties within the same buildings respectively, and to the enjoyment by the bedesmen of the cathedral church of Durham, of the almshouses wherein they now reside, until the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall have provided, to the satisfaction of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, sufficient buildings elsewhere for the respective purposes for which the present buildings are lawfully used; and as to those parts of the said buildings which were used by officers of the said palatinate, so long as any of those duties shall remain to be performed by the officers who held their offices at the time of passing the Act for separating the palatine jurisdiction from the bishopric of Durham.

And whereas the Bishop of Durham for the time being is Visitor of the said University of Durham, we further recommend and propose, that, for the accommodation of the said Bishop of Durham for the time being, all those apartments in that part of the said Castle of Durham, commonly called the Palace, which have usually been known by the name of the Senior Judge's apartments, together with a room in the lower story of the said castle, heretofore used as the still room, with two closets above, and together also with a double coach-house, and two stables, each containing three stalls, such coach-house and stables being within the said precincts, near to the said library of Bishop Cosin, shall be reserved for the use of such Bishop; which apartments, coach-house, and stables, shall at all times be ready for the use of the said Bishop for the time being, on his giving three days notice to the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars of his wish to occupy the same: provided, that if the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall erect on the spot, and according to the plan approved by William late Bishop of Durham, a coach-house and stable or stables for the accommodation of two carriages and six horses, and shall at all times keep the same ready for the use of the said bishop for the time being, on receiving such notice as aforesaid, such last-mentioned coach-house and stable or stables shall be substituted for the coach-house and stables herein-before described, to the use of which such bishop shall, in that case, be no longer entitled.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall duly maintain and repair all parts within the said precincts, and shall fully indemnify the said Bishop and his successors against all expenses of such reparation and all claims for dilapidations.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, August 22, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others, of the county of Buckingham, assembled at a Public Meeting held at the county Hall, in Aylesbury, on the 10th day of August 1837.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the county of Buckingham, your Majesty's attached and loyal subjects, approach your Majesty to offer our unfeigned congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these realms.

Calling to mind that England, during the reigns of two of its Queens, attained a higher degree of happiness and prosperity than is recorded of any other periods of our annals, we indulge the hope that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, a like degree of happiness and prosperity may be enjoyed by us and our descendants under the sceptre of your Majesty.

We pray All-wise Providence, who has called your Majesty at such early years, and at so critical a conjuncture, to a station so elevated and responsible, to strengthen you in wisdom to discern, and power to pursue, that course by which true religion, and the welfare of your Majesty's subjects may be best secured, to bless you with a long and peaceful reign, and to confer upon you every earthly prosperity.

Signed, on behalf of the Meeting,

J. N. Hibbert, High Sheriff.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Cambridge, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Cambridge, humbly offer to your Majesty our most sincere and cordial congratulations upon your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms.

We, at the same time, deeply feel and deplore the loss which your Majesty and this nation have experienced, in the death of our late venerated and most gracious Sovereign, William the Fourth; and we beg leave to condole with your Majesty upon this affliction, and to express our feelings of unaffected regard for the memory of a Monarch so justly endeared to his people.

The short period during which his late Majesty reigned in this kingdom, was peculiarly distinguished by the fruits of a wise and good Government, the maintenance of the invaluable blessing of peace; a diminution of the pecuniary burdens of the nation; the extension of the civil and religious liberties of the people, and an increased regard for the value of those liberties resulting from the intellectual and moral improvement, which a more general diffusion of the means of education produced upon his subjects.

The several benefits conferred under the paternal Government of His late Majesty, have been received with corresponding feelings of gratitude and attachment towards the giver of them; and the Crown has not been, at any period in our nation's history, more firmly secured than it now is in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate people.

From the high worth, and moral excellence, of the illustrious personage under whose maternal guidance the education of your Majesty was conducted, we were prepared to expect, on the part of your Majesty, an ardent desire to promote the welfare and happiness of all classes of your Majesty's people; and we most sincerely rejoice at the assurances given to us, in your Majesty's most gracious declaration, that the Government of this kingdom will be continued upon the principles which distinguished that of our late revered Sovereign, and which are calculated to add no less to the stability, dignity, and splendour of the Crown, than to the happiness of the subject; and we earnestly pray, that it may please Almighty God to bless your Majesty with a long, peaceable, and happy reign over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate people.

Given under our common seal the 6th day of July 1837.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Doncaster, in Common Hall assembled, approach your Majesty with expressions of condolence on the demise of our late Sovereign, William the Fourth, whose patriotic principles justly obtained for him the nations regard and veneration.

We would also tender to your Majesty the homage of loyal attachment, and ardent congratulation, on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms. We earnestly pray that the regal sway, commencing in truth and purity, may be continued in prosperity and glory; that your Majesty may long reign the free Sovereign of a free nation, and that the Throne may be established in the affections of the people.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city and borough of Winchester, in Council assembled, with profound respect venture to approach your Majesty with our expressions of condolence upon the recent and severe affliction which your Majesty and the people of the British dominions have sustained by the lamented death of our late most gracious Monarch, King William the Fourth.

At the same time, with hearts full of zeal and duty, we beg leave to offer your Majesty our sincere and respectful congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms.

We feel also grateful when we reflect that your most gracious Majesty, whom we now hail as our Sovereign, has been not only favoured bountifully by Divine Providence with intellectual advantages, but that their cultivation and direction have been superintended by so wise and exemplary a Mother, as warrants our confidence, that during your Majesty's reign the Government of these realms will be conducted upon such constitutional principles, as will tend to uphold the just prerogatives of the Crown, and give security to the rights and liberties of your Majesty's subjects.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events bless, protect, and guide your Majesty in the discharge of the important duties which have devolved on you, and concede to you a long life with a continuance of health. May He grant that your reign be long and prosperous, so that future ages may mark the same as an æra of freedom and happiness, and of additional glory to this empire.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the borough of New Windsor, in Public Meeting assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the earnest expressions of our sincere condolence for the loss which your Majesty, the nation at large, and more peculiarly ourselves, have sustained by the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign.

Distinguished as the Inhabitants of this borough are, by the proximity of the Royal residence, and entertaining a lively remembrance of the many virtues and benignant acts of their Royal Patrons, we hail with joy the accession of a lineal descendant of George the Third to the Throne of these realms, in the person of our youthful Queen, whose opening virtues, cherished and matured by the most exemplary and maternal care, give fairest promise of a prosperous and happy reign.

That these anticipations may, to the fullest extent, be realized; that your Majesty may ever continue to enjoy the devoted affection of your people; and that your reign may prove renowned for all that can adorn the Sovereign Power, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most devoted subjects.

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Arundel, in Council assembled, venture to approach your Majesty with sentiments of profound attachment, and with feelings of sincere congratulation on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

Under common circumstances the afflicting loss sustained by the nation, in the death of our late revered Sovereign, might have absorbed every feeling but that of grief; but in the affectionate allusion of your Majesty to the public virtues of the deceased Monarch, we see the bond that will unite us to his successor; we remember the education your Majesty has received, under the enlightened care of an exemplary Mother; and we feel assured that the same regard for the rights and liberties of the subject, the same desire to promote the amelioration of the laws and institutions of the country, which have rendered the name of our departed King an object of attachment to his people, will, in your Majesty, continue to strengthen the foundations of the Throne, and diffuse happiness and prosperity throughout the kingdom.

It is, therefore, in the honest loyalty of the heart that we now approach your Majesty, to offer you the assurance of our affection, and to hail the auspicious commencement of your reign. May that reign be long, glorious, and happy; may its setting (far distant we trust), be as bright as its rising; and may its last rays, like those of the reign that has just closed, be shed on the increasing happiness and improved institutions of the country.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, President; the Right Honourable Sir Nicholas Conyngham Tindal Knight, Vice-President; and the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President, Vice-President, and Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, most humbly approach your Majesty with the assurance of our participation in that deep sorrow which is felt by this nation in general, for the loss of His late most excellent Majesty, of blessed memory.

At the same time we are desirous of testifying our gratitude to Almighty God for having placed your Majesty on the Throne, and thereby afforded us a prospect of the continuance of those invaluable blessings which we have enjoyed under the protection of your Majesty's august predecessors.

We thankfully acknowledge the numerous instances of royal favour with which this Corporation has been distinguished, and we humbly trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept the loyal congratulations of a Society which administers relief to the destitute widows and children of men whose lives have been devoted to the diffusion and maintenance of our holy religion, and to the ministrations of that apostolical church which your Majesty's most illustrious House has constantly protected and defended.

May that Power, by which Kings reign and Princes minister justice, direct your Majesty's Councils and bless your endeavours to promote the happiness of your subjects, the increase of true religion and piety throughout the realm, and the peace and tranquillity of the world.

In testimony whereof we have caused our common seal to be hereunto affixed, the 29th day of July 1837, and in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

No. 8.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Representative Vestrymen of Saint Mary-le-bone, approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of fidelity and attachment.

The demise of His late Majesty, your Royal Uncle, has excited in our minds a sentiment of regret, which we are convinced is experienced by your Majesty. His was a short, but not an inglorious reign; for more was effected for the liberties of the people during that reign than during all the preceding for more than a century. The Reform Bill, which he supported by his influence, and sanctioned by his consent, has immortalized his name, and will cause it for ever to be entwined with the affectionate recollections of a grateful posterity.

Your Majesty's sincerely attached subjects, the Vestry of the great parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, are conscious, that, under the discreet and judicious guidance of your illustrious and excellent Mother, your Majesty has been carefully nurtured in those sentiments and instructed in those principles which will cause your Majesty's future government to be in harmony with the spirit of the age, and with the intellectual necessities of the times.

Your Majesty is too well informed to need to be reminded that, in the present era of human affairs, the great and continually increasing advance of the people in knowledge is perpetually rendering them more and more fit for further improvement in their civil and political institutions.

To remove the abuses which corruption is perpetually engendering, or time is constantly making in all human institutions, to abolish bad laws and to substitute good; to economise the resources of the State, so as to make the pressure on human industry as small as possible, to think the arts of peace preferable to the trophies of war, and to promote, by every possible means, the moral and the mental improvement of the people; these are the things which make a nation great, and a reign glorious; and by these we trust that your Majesty's reign will be pre-eminently distinguished; that it will be thus distinguished, we have a happy presage in your Majesty's choice of your present Ministers, and in the admirable declaration of your Majesty's sentiments at the commencement of your reign.

And that that reign may be one of long duration, and be signalized above all others, by its patriotic spirit, its pacific principles, and its beneficial reforms, will never cease to be the devout wish and the fervent aspiration of your Majesty's affectionate and loyal subjects, the Vestry of Saint Mary-le-bone.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge, most humbly beg leave to offer our unfeigned condolence on the loss which the nation has sustained, by the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, to whom our Society is indebted for marks of special favour and support.

In presenting, at the same time, our sincere and hearty congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, we humbly beg to represent to your Majesty, that our Society was formed in the reign of King William the Third, for the promotion of Christian Knowledge according to the principles of the Church of England; that the Society, in carrying its designs into effect, has ever since continued to circulate the Holy Scriptures, the Book of Common Prayer, and other religious publications, very extensively, both at home and abroad; that it was the first public body in the kingdom which came forward to promote the religious education of the people; and that it still continues to furnish the national and parochial schools throughout your Majesty's dominions with books of religious instruction.

We rejoice in having learned, from your Majesty's gracious declarations, how highly you value the blessings of that Christian education which you have enjoyed under the care of your illustrious Mother, from whom our Society has received many tokens of approbation, and how greatly you reverence that sacred volume which it is one of the chief objects of our Society to circulate among your subjects; and we venture to hope, that the Society may obtain from your Majesty that encouragement and support with which it has been honoured by your Royal Predecessors.

The Society most earnestly prays that your Majesty may be blessed with a long, prosperous, and happy reign, that your Throne may be established in righteousness and peace, and that you may receive a crown of immortal glory in the world to come.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town Council, and Inhabitants of the town of Beaumaris, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty to offer our unfeigned condolence upon the demise of our late most gracious Sovereign, by which your Majesty has been deprived of a relative, and these realms of a Monarch, ever actuated by the best intentions to improve and consolidate our venerable institutions in Church and State, and whose reign must ever be regarded as a period of no ordinary importance in the annals of Great Britain.

While thus deploring the loss of an illustrious and amiable Prince, we cannot but hail, with sentiments of the most lively hope and confidence, the auspicious commencement of a reign in which, under Divine Providence, your most gracious Majesty, by duly appreciating the interests and wisely directing the energies of this great nation, may not only ensure the cordial and affectionate attachment but enhance and perpetuate the prosperity and happiness of a loyal and patriotic people.

Nor does this hope emanate solely from a confidence in the bright prospects before us, but from a conviction that the excellence of your Majesty's moral and religious education, combined with qualities so eminently displayed during the sojourn of your Majesty and your illustrious Parent on the shores of this island, is a gratifying presage of the blessings destined to flow from your Majesty's future sway.

Most earnestly do we implore the Disposer of all Good, that your Majesty may long live to bear the sceptre of these realms, that your Throne may be sustained in all its splendour by the genuine spirit of loyalty, and that your Majesty's name may be associated with the brightest ornaments of the British Monarchy, and its lustre be ever warmly cherished in the memories of a prosperous, devoted, and united nation.

Signed, in the name and on behalf of the Meeting,

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deputies from Congregations of Protestant Dissenters of the Presbyterian Denomination, in and within twelve miles of London, though participating deeply in the general feeling of sorrow excited by the dispensation by which it has pleased Providence to terminate the benignant reign of His late Majesty, beg leave humbly, but most cordially, to tender to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your accession, under auspicious circumstances, to the Throne of these realms.

While we view with gratitude the progress which, in modern times, has been made in extending and conforming to the various classes of your Majesty's subjects their civil and religious rights; and while we recollect the inestimable advantages which your Majesty has, from earliest life, enjoyed under the superintending care of a Mother whom we have ever regarded as fulfilling, most exemplarily, all the arduous duties belonging to that character in her peculiar and exalted station; we hail, with the highest pleasure and perfect confidence, your Majesty's most gracious assurances, that you will endeavour to secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and the free exercise of the rights of conscience.

In such declarations we recognize your Majesty's adoption of those wise and liberal principles of free and equal Government uniformly supported by your illustrious Father, which constitute the only safe basis for national happiness and prosperity.

We join in earnest and fervent prayer that your Majesty may be blessed with a long, peaceful, and happy reign, and may see, under your Royal patronage and encouragement, the wide diffusion of knowledge, religion, and virtue among a free and united people.

The loyal and dutiful address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Kinross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Kinross, humbly approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the demise of the late King.

In that event, we deplore the loss of a Monarch whose perfect and sound understanding of the constitution, whose sincere regard for the welfare of his subjects, and whose constant solicitude to promote the interests of the country, to maintain the liberties, and to improve the laws and institutions of this realm, secured to him the devoted attachment of his people, and which, descending to posterity, will hereafter ensure to his memory the grateful feelings of an enlightened nation.

With these impressions respecting your Majesty's lamented predecessor, we hope your Majesty will be graciously pleased to permit us to approach your Majesty with our cordial and sincere congratulations on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We rejoice that the sceptre has passed into the hands of a Princess who has been educated in her native land, under the fostering care of an illustrious mother, possessed of the most virtuous principles and distinguished wisdom.

We have received with the highest satisfaction your Majesty's most gracious declaration and assurance, that you will maintain the reformed religion as by law established, securing, at the same time, to all your Majesty's subjects the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and that your Majesty will steadily protect the rights, and promote, to the utmost of your Majesty's power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of your subjects.

We earnestly pray that, by the blessing of Almighty God, through whom Kings reign, your Majesty may be enabled to perform the high and arduous duties of your most important and pre-eminent station, and that your Majesty's life may long be preserved in the enjoyment of a prosperous and happy reign to realise the fond expectations of a free, a loyal, and devoted people.

The humble and loyal Address of the fraternity of Scottish Chapmen, in the Three Lothians, incorporated by charter from King James V. more than three hundred years ago, and who have remained a loyal and undissolved society of brotherhood to this hour, rising in respectability as they grow in age, giving employment to the manufacturer, collecting the riches of the seas, and greatly advancing the wealth of the Nobles of the land.

May it please your Majesty,

WE beg leave, most humbly, to approach your Royal Presence, sincerely to condole with you on the death of our late revered Sovereign, your Majesty's venerable Uncle, upon whose reign we look back with feelings of high gratification, having enjoyed under it tranquillity and peace both at home and abroad, while some of our valued institutions received improvements which will hand down to posterity the remembrance of our late most gracious King, as a Sovereign who most earnestly wished to promote the welfare of his people.

The undisputed sovereignty of this mighty empire having devolved on your Majesty, we come before your Majesty's Throne with the most hearty congratulations on this most auspicious event, and pray that it may please an All-gracious Providence to prosper your Majesty's reign, and to make it a long and a happy one.

We see in your Majesty the descendant of an illustrious house, originally called to the Throne of Britain, to uphold its liberties, laws, and institutions; and when we consider the admirable manner in which your Majesty has been trained to an acquaintance with the high duties of a British Sovereign, we look forward with the utmost confidence to the defence and perpetuity of our blessed institutions in Church and State. To Her Most Excellent Majesty ALEXANDRINA VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Victoria Lodge, No. 4, of Free and Accepted Masons of Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

AS a portion of your Majesty's liege subjects, we tender the most fervent congratulations on your Majesty's assuming the sovereignty of these realms; yet, as subjects, we cannot withhold expressing our filial and unaffected sorrow for the loss of a Father and a King; and more especially to us—members of that community of which he was Grand Patron—an affectionate brother.

In offering this meed of our loyalty at the foot of your Majesty's Throne, we do an act of retributive gratitude for your Majesty's previous patronage, when Heiress Presumptive, by directing that our Association should be intitled the "Victoria Lodge;" a name which we sought as a successful and an effective talisman, the more extensively to link the fraternity of the Sister Kingdoms in the bonds of peace and brotherly love.

As a society congregated for the promotion of Christian charity, social virtue, and peace amongst every class of your Majesty's subjects, irrespective of their religious or political creeds, we have enjoyed the fostering patronage of your Majesty's three Sovereign predecessors, together with that of your Majesty's ever to be revered Father, all of whom were members of our Order; a patronage which, under these circumstances, we both sincerely and fondly hope may still be vouchsafed to us, under your Majesty's auspicious reign; and, while we pay all dutiful and loyal homage to your Majesty, as Sovereign, we trust we shall be excused if we pay a passing tribute of respect and gratitude to your Majesty's amiable and inestimable Mother, whose unceasing and fostering care, under Divine Providence, has nurtured you to be a nation's glory.

We are, with all dutiful respect, your Majesty's humble subjects,

No. 24.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church, under the care of the General Synod of Ulster, beg leave to approach the Throne with the tender of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we bow to the will of the Almighty, who has called away our late revered Sovereign,—a Sovereign beloved and lamented by all his subjects, but by none more deeply than by the Presbyterians of Ulster,—we rejoice to behold, in the Person of your Majesty, another representative of the illustrious House of Hanover, to whom we most gladly embrace this auspicious opportunity of once more recording our hereditary attachment.

It has pleased Him who rule among the kings and kingdoms of the earth, to call your Majesty, at an early period of life, to preside, under Him and for Him, over the destinies of a great empire. Graciously permit us to remind your Majesty of the mighty works which God, of old, was pleased to effect for his Kingdom of Israel by the youthful Samuel as his Judge, and the young Josiah as his King. We rejoice to think that the same grace which made them wise in council and great in action is likewise able to guide, uphold, and bless your Majesty in your efforts to render your people happy and prosperous, and to promote among them that righteousness which alone exalteth a nation.

So far as lieth in our power, in the office to which God hath called us, we shall faithfully endeavour to contribute our humble efforts towards the advancement of these important objects. The people under our pastoral charge have long been characterised by habits of peaceableness and industry. To cherish and perpetuate this character will be, we doubt not, the most acceptable service which we can tender to your Majesty; and this service, we beg leave to assure your Majesty, we shall constantly endeavour to perform through the efficient agency of a scriptural education and an evangelical ministry.

We hail, with heartfelt satisfaction, your Majesty's gracious declaration on ascending the Throne of these realms, that, whilst it will be your Majesty's unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion as by law established, your Majesty will, at the same time, secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and steadily protect the rights and promote the happiness and welfare of all classes of your Majesty's subjects. We rejoice to perceive that, in accordance with this auspicious declaration, your Majesty, by your Royal Proclamation, has earnestly pressed upon all the authorities in the land, a due regard to the sanctification of the Sabbath; and we fervently pray that your Majesty's reign may be characterised as the era of a blessed reform in this important department of legislation and morals.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous; that you may continue to live in the hearts and prayers of a happy and pious people; that, amidst the splendours of this world's grandeur, your affections may be ever set upon the glories of that which is to come; and that when, at length, gathered to your fathers, you may find acceptance with God through the merits of his Son, is, and ever will be, the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster.

Signed, in the name and on the behalf of two hundred and two Ministers and seventy Elders, assembled at the Annual Meeting of Synod in Belfast, on the 27th of June 1837.

William Craig, Moderator of the Synod of Ulster.
