PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Monday the eleventh day of September next, to Monday the second day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports; amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland); the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are, thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such

Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the Bishoprick of Chichester.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Chichester, to the sum of four thousand two hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend William now Bishop of Chichester, and his successors bishops of Chichester, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October in every year; and that the first of such payments to the fifth day of April last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the fifth day of October next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Chichester shall happen, on any other day than the fifth day of April, or the fifth day of October, the then next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives; and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes, and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may, therefore, happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof, we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Chichester for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment, after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the said bishopric of Chichester, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered, by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses; revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics; benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes, as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol should be united, and that the diocese should consist of the present diocese of Gloucester, of the city and deanry of Bristol, of the deanries of Cricklade and Malmesbury, in the county of Wilts, and now in the diocese of Salisbury, and of the whole of the parish of Bedminster, now in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal.

of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared; and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the sees and dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Oxford, and the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole parish of Widford, now in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, but insulated in the county of Oxford, shall be detached from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be included in the diocese and archdeaconry of Oxford, and within the deanery of Witney; and that the church and clergy and others, within the said parish, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Oxford for the time being respectively.

And whereas by an Order issued by His late Majesty in Council, on the fifth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which has since been duly registered and gazetted, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, with the consent of the said Richard then and now Bishop of Oxford, that the whole county of Berks, and those parts of the county of Wilts which are insulated therein, forming together the archdeaconry of Berks, and then forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, should be included in, and form part of, the diocese of Oxford; we now humbly recommend and propose, that out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by us to the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, during his incumbency of the said see, by equal half-yearly payments; on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October in every year, and that the first of such payments, to the tenth day of April now last past, shall be made forthwith, and the next of such payments shall be made on the tenth day of October next; and that if a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the tenth day of April, or the tenth day of October, the said bishop, or his representatives, shall receive such proportion only of the then current half-yearly payment as shall have become due from the next preceding tenth day of April, or tenth day of October, as the case may be, to the day of such vacancy.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon the first avoidance of the said see of Oxford, or, before such avoidance, with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, duly testified to us under his hand and seal, the whole county of Buckingham, now forming the archdeaconry of Buckingham, and part of the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be absolutely detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Oxford; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said see of Lincoln, and of the said present and every future bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that, from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Oxford, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the bishop then succeeding to the said see, and his successors, bishops of Oxford for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys, from time to time, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof: we further recommend and propose, that if, at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency in the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and to the bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared, or to be prepared, by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year; and to calculate such deductions in proportion to the sums which have been, or may be, named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively, but which, in respect of the see of Oxford, shall, during the incumbency of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, be taken to be two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim except as herein after mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us, in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes, within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that after the said archdeaconry of Buckingham shall so as aforesaid become part of the said diocese of Oxford, the right of appointing the archdeacon of Buckingham shall be vested in the Bishop of Oxford, and his successors bishops of Oxford for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishoprics of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is hereby pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 25, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, beg humbly to approach your Majesty with the sincerest sentiments of loyalty and attachment.

We request your Majesty to accept our deepest condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the whole country have sustained, in the demise of your august Predecessor, of blessed memory, whom it has pleased Almighty Providence to take to its Divine care.

We turn from this melancholy subject, cheered by the assurance that the same Providence will watch over the dawning virtues of your Majesty, and that those high principles, so firmly established by the constant care of an affectionate Mother, and so auspiciously evinced in the first act of your Majesty's reign, will leave us no cause for lasting regret, but that we shall enjoy, under your Majesty's mild rule, all the blessings that should await a devoted and a loyal people; and we fervently pray Heaven to grant your Majesty health and length of years to hold, with happiness, glory, and prosperity, the sceptre of these realms.

By order of the Meeting,

R. Parker, Sheriff.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Lincoln, unanimously agreed to at a County Meeting, convened by the High Sheriff.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Lincoln, humbly approach your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt condolence on the death of our late revered Sovereign, and with our sincere congratulation on your Majesty's accession to the Throne. It is impossible for us not to derive consolation and encouragement from reflecting that His late Majesty has been succeeded by a Princess trained up, under the watchful care of her Royal Mother, in the principles of our holy religion, and accustomed to the observance of its duties. It is our heartfelt wish that your Majesty may be guided by Divine Wisdom, to seek, in all things, the glory of God, and the good of His Church; and that, being protected by His power, your Majesty's reign may be prosperous and happy over a free, loyal, religious, and devoted people.

Signed, on behalf of the Meeting,

Thomas Whichcote, Sheriff

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Rutland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the county of Rutland, most respectfully approach your Royal Presence, with expressions of sincere condolence on the affliction with which your Majesty and the people of your dominions have been visited in the demise of our late beloved Sovereign, and at the same time to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your accession to the Throne of these realms, and to tender the assurance of our devoted loyalty and attachment.

With a grateful sense of the obligations we owe to the illustrious Parent under whose watchful care and enlightened judgment your Majesty has been assiduously trained to feel and estimate, and, in reliance on God's blessing, to fulfil, the high and important functions which are now entrusted to you, we confidently indulge the hope that we are entering upon a long and prosperous reign, in which benevolent care and zealous attachment reciprocated between the Sovereign and her people, may improve and perpetuate our institutions, and preserve to us those public blessings which for so long a period have endeared the House of Brunswick to the British nation. We most earnestly pray that your Majesty may be guided and protected by the great King of Nations, whose glory we are persuaded it will be your first object to promote, and that you may long reign enthroned in the hearts and affections of a free, loyal, happy, and grateful people.

John Stokes, Sheriff.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Dumfries, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt sympathy in the great loss which your Majesty and the country have sustained, in the death of our late revered Sovereign, whose unremitting attention to the duties of his high office, and warm regard for the welfare of every class of his subjects, endeared him in a peculiar manner to them all.

We are deeply sensible that, in succeeding to the Throne of this kingdom, your Majesty is called to the performance of most laborious and anxious duties, but we congratulate your Majesty that your accession has taken place at a time of foreign and domestic tranquillity, when, undisturbed from abroad, and confidently relying on the loyalty and affection of your people, you can apply the undivided energies of your mind to the promotion of those measures which are best calculated to effect the ends of good government, and to secure, still more firmly, the civil and religious institutions of the country.

To the attainment of these important objects we humbly, but most sincerely, offer our support, and we beg to add our fervent prayer that, after a long and prosperous reign, your Majesty may enjoy the ineffable satisfaction of feeling that every action of your life has been prompted by an earnest desire to advance the true interests of your people, and to give glory to Almighty God, by whom alone Kings reign, and Princes decree justice.

Signed, in the name and by appointment of a General Meeting of the Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Dumfries, held at Dumfries, the 2d day of August 1837.

J. S. H. Johnstone.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Radnor, in Quarter Sessions assembled, take leave to lay before your Majesty our heartfelt condolence upon the deeply lamented death of our late most excellent and gracious King, William the Fourth, your Royal Uncle, a Monarch whose memory will be long cherished by all your Majesty's subjects who are capable of appreciating the virtues of the man, and the patriotic government of the Sovereign.

We, at the same time, avail ourselves of this opportunity to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms. We delight to refer to the facts of your Majesty's birth and education as a British subject, and are animated with high hopes from your Majesty's gracious declaration on a late occasion to your Privy Council, and ardently pray that while your Majesty sanctions and approves of every melioration that may remove all abuses in the institutions, or encroachments upon the constitution of the country, that your Majesty will graciously bear in mind at all times those principles which happily placed your family on the Throne of these kingdoms.

We fervently hope that your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious, and that you may preserve the people committed to your charge in wealth, peace, and godliness.

On behalf of the Magistrates,

Richard Venables, Archdeacon of Carmarthen, Chairman of the Radnorshire Quarter Sessions.

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, beg humbly to approach your Majesty, and to express the feelings of affectionate loyalty with which we hail your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms. While we condole with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of our late lamented Sovereign, we congratulate your Majesty on the commencement of your reign over a loyal people; and we congratulate ourselves on the prospect of a long continued enjoyment, under your Majesty, of the blessings which Providence has showered upon us. We beg to assure your Majesty that unflinching loyalty and dutiful obedience on our part shall ever second your Majesty's designs for the promotion of our prosperity. We pray that your Majesty's reign may be distinguished for the advancement of all that adorns and dignifies a nation. Throughout your Majesty's reign may honourable peace remain undisturbed, but if your Majesty call on us to vindicate your Majesty's and the nation's rights, may we show, by victory and moderation, that we have not degenerated from the virtues of our ancestors. Finally, may private happiness be your Majesty's reward, for high duties faithfully fulfilled till the time when your Majesty may be removed from a nation of faithful subjects to enjoy blessings greater than this world can bestow.

Signed by our Preses, in name and by our authority, this 17th day of July 1837.

Archibald Campbell, Preses.
