AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect ; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such

Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the Bishoprick of Chichester.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Chichester, to the sum of four thousand two hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend William now Bishop of Chichester, and his successors bishops of Chichester, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October in every year ; and that the first of such payments to the fifth day of April last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the fifth day of October next ; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Chichester shall happen on any other day than the fifth day of April, or the fifth day of October, the then next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes, and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may, therefore, happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof, we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Chichester for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment, after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the said bishopric of Chichester, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol should be united, and that the diocese should consist of the present diocese of Gloucester, of the city and deanry of Bristol, of the deanries of Cricklade and Malmsbury, in the county of Wilts, and now in the diocese of Salisbury, and of the whole of the parish of Bedminster, now in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal.

of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the sees and dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Oxford, and the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole parish of Widford, now in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, but insulated in the county of Oxford, shall be detached from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be included in the diocese and archdeaconry of Oxford, and within the deanery of Witney; and that the church and clergy and others, within the said parish, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Oxford for the time being respectively.

And whereas by an Order issued by His late Majesty in Council, on the fifth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which has since been duly registered and gazetted, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, with the consent of the said Richard then and now Bishop of Oxford, that the whole county of Berks, and those parts of the county of Wilts which are insulated therein, forming together the archdeaconry of Berks, and then forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, should be included in, and form part of, the diocese of Oxford; we now humbly recommend and propose, that out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by us to the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, during his incumbency of the said see, by equal half-yearly payments, on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October in every year, and that the first of such payments, to the tenth day of April now last past, shall be made forthwith, and the next of such payments shall be made on the tenth day of October next; and that if a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the tenth day of April, or the tenth day of October, the said bishop, or his representatives, shall receive such proportion only of the then current half-yearly payment as shall have become due from the next preceding tenth day of April, or tenth day of October, as the case may be, to the day of such vacancy.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon the first avoidance of the said see of Oxford, or, before such avoidance, with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, duly testified to us under his hand and seal, the whole county of Buckingham, now forming the archdeaconry of Buckingham, and part of the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be absolutely detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Oxford; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said see of Lincoln, and of the said present and every future bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that, from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Oxford, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the bishop then succeeding to the said see, and his successors, bishops of Oxford for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys, from time to time, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof: we further recommend and propose, that if, at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency in the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and to the bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared, or to be prepared, by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year; and to calculate such deductions in proportion to the sums which have been, or may be, named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively, but which, in respect of the see of Oxford, shall, during the incumbency of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, be taken to be two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim except as herein after mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us, in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes, within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that after the said archdeaconry of Buckingham shall so as aforesaid become part of the said diocese of Oxford, the right of appointing the archdeacon of Buckingham shall be vested in the Bishop of Oxford, and his successors, bishops of Oxford for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishoprics of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is hereby pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Durham, respectfully beg to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the death of our late revered Monarch, under whose parental sway these realms have known an unremitting course of peace and prosperity.

Deeply lamenting the event which has deprived us of so gracious a Sovereign, we seek for consolation in the accession of your Majesty to the Throne at an age and under auspices which promise to your Majesty a long and tranquil rule; while your Majesty's virtues hold out to your subjects the cheering prospect, that the sacred trust which has devolved upon your Majesty will be employed in promoting the welfare of all classes of the community.

In tendering to your Majesty the assurance of our devoted and dutiful attachment, it is our heartfelt prayer, that your Majesty may be long spared to reign the happy Queen of a loyal, contented, and free people.

Signed, at the request, and in the name, of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the county of Durham, assembled at a Meeting in the County Court, at the city of Durham, on Wednesday the 16th day of August 1837.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Lincoln, beg most respectfully to approach your Majesty, to offer our condolence upon the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of our late revered King. No Monarch that ever lived has left a memory and a name more entitled to reverence and honour than William the Fourth, for no Monarch was ever more anxious for the well being of his people, or more earnestly solicitous to promote the amelioration of the laws and institutions of his country. The nation was never more prosperous than under his short but not inglorious rule, and if his name be not associated with naval or military achievements, it is for ever identified with the blessings of peace, and with those reforms and improvements which must stand as landmarks throughout succeeding ages, pointing to the progress of knowledge and civil liberty; he has died the possessor of that lasting fame and perpetuity of praise, which God and good men have consented shall be the reward of all who advocate the improvement and happiness of mankind.

Upon the loss of such a King, it is to us a source of the highest gratification that, at the same time that we congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, we may also thank the Supreme Disposer of Events, who controls the destinies of kingdoms and sways the hearts of the rulers of mankind, that we are blessed with a successor, in your gracious Majesty, filled with the laudible ambition of emulating the virtues of the departed Monarch. The admirable declaration of your Majesty, made upon the commencement of your Majesty's reign, the happy presage in your Majesty's choice of your present Ministers, and subsequent indications of your Majesty's gracious dispositions and intentions, give us the most unqualified satisfaction, and inspire us with confident expectations of seeing those reforms and ameliorations of our civil and ecclesiastical establishments, so auspiciously began in the late reign, matured and perfected under your Majesty's countenance and protection; and that it will be the anxious aim of your Majesty to remove the abuses which corruption is perpetually engendering, or time is constantly effecting, in all human institutions, to abrogate bad laws and substitute good, to economise the recourses of the State so as to make the pressure on human industry as light as possible, to deem the arts of peace preferable to the trophies of war, and to promote, by every possible means, the moral and mental improvement of the people.

We repose the most entire confidence in your Majesty's intentions and virtues, and fervently hope that your Majesty's reign may be one of long duration, distinguished by political tranquillity and personal happiness, and that your Majesty's Throne may be always encircled by the hearts and affections of a great and united people.

No. 3.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WE, your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the ancient Borough of Richmond, in the county of York, in Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty to express their mingled feelings of condolence and congratulation.

In the severe bereavement which your Majesty, in common with all your dutiful subjects, has sustained, by the death of your Majesty's late lamented and revered Uncle, and our most gracious Sovereign King William the Fourth, we most deeply sympathise; but the gratitude which has been impressed upon the hearts of his people, by the regard and attention of His Majesty to the rights and liberties of his subjects, by his endeavours to promote the reform and amelioration of the various institutions and laws of the country, as proved in a more especial manner by the passing of the great measure for reforming the representation of the people in Parliament, the second Magna Charta of our liberties, and by the enactment of the bills for the reform of the municipal corporations of Great Britain (a wise, salutary, beneficial, and truly honourable acknowledgment of rights which we trust will, ere long, be fully extended to our brethren and fellow subjects, the people of Ireland), together with the pacific policy of the late reign, will, we feel assured, prove to your Majesty a source of the highest consolation.

With this our cordial sympathy, we tender to your Majesty our sincere congratulations. We hail with delight your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of these realms. Educated, as your Majesty has been, under the watchful and enlightened care of a most affectionate Princess, your illustrious Mother; impressed, as we doubt not, the great principles of civil and religious liberty which placed the House of Brunswick on the Throne of these realms, have been upon the mind of your Majesty, we feel assured that it will be the unremitting object of your Majesty's life to protect the rights, and to promote and extend, to their utmost limits, the freedom and happiness, of all classes of your subjects, fully convinced of this important truth, that that government is the most secure, which is based upon the affections and love of the governed.

That your Majesty may long live, under the blessing of Almighty God, to carry into full effect, for the benefit of your faithful people, the gracious designs and declarations of your Majesty, and that your Majesty's reign may be truly glorious, peaceable, and happy, is our anxious hope and fervent prayer.

Given under the common seal of the said borough of Richmond, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Luke, Middlesex, approach your Majesty, in the name of the fifty thousand inhabitants of this parish, and humbly request permission to record the sentiments of fidelity and attachment that exists in every breast.

We cannot but express our heartfelt sympathy with your Majesty, upon the loss which your Majesty and the British nation have sustained, in the removal of our late beloved and lamented Monarch, during whose memorable reign, peace was happily preserved, the laws wisely amended, and the rights and liberties of the people anxiously strengthened and maintained.

With such language of condolence we desire, however, to blend expressions of the liveliest satisfaction at the auspicious accession of your Majesty to the Throne of this mighty empire. Loving your native land, and honouring and revering every parental precept with which, in by-gone years, your Majesty has been blessed, your Majesty will, we are confident, during your future reign, rejoice ever to sanction the adoption of such measures as may tend to the happy continuance of peace, to the advancement of education, to the maintenance of civil and religious liberty, and to the entire abolition of slavery, in every form and clime.

Earnestly do we pray that your Majesty's life may long, very long, be continued; and that your Majesty's reign may, indeed, be signally distinguished as a period during which the honour and happiness of our native land were peculiarly enhanced.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Town Council of the county of the borough of Carmarthen, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere expression of condolence, on the demise of our late much respected Sovereign, your Majesty's illustrious Uncle, and also to present to your Majesty our warmest congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

We feel extreme satisfaction at the gracious declaration of your Majesty, that the happiness of your people, and the security of their rights and liberties, will be the first objects of your Majesty's solicitude; and we fervently pray, that your Majesty's reign, commenced under such favourable auspices, may continue long and prosperous, and that your Majesty's Throne may be firmly established in the regard and affection of your loyal subjects.

To our Most Excellent Sovereign, Lady QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the ancient Borough of Macclesfield, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty with heartfelt condolence on the loss sustained by the nation and the Royal Family, in the demise of His, late Majesty, whose constant regard for the liberties of his subjects, and whose desire to promote the amelioration of the laws and institutions of the country, have rendered his memory the object of general attachment and veneration.

We congratulate your Majesty on ascending the Throne of these realms, that peace prevails abroad and tranquillity at home; we felicitate ourselves on possessing a truly English Queen, educated among us by a most affectionate, exemplary, and devoted Mother, in sound and constitutional principles, and most cordially do we assure your Majesty of our firm and constant attachment to your sacred and august Person and Government.

With exceeding joy and gratitude we hail the early declaration of your Majesty's desire to secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and to protect the rights, and to promote the happiness and welfare, of all classes of your subjects; we embrace it as a measure calculated to diffuse among us perfect harmony, and to consolidate peace and prosperity at home, and to command respect and amity abroad.

Surrounded by a large manufacturing population, we humbly tender, on their behalf, our warm and grateful acknowledgments for the gracious solicitude evinced by the Royal Family, on all public occasions, to encourage the productions of their peculiar branch of British skill and industry.

That it may please the Merciful Disposer of Events to grant to your Majesty, in health and long life to reign over a united, prosperous, and virtuous people, will ever be our constant prayer to the Throne of Grace.

In testimony whereof, we, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses have affixed the common seal of the said borough, this 3d day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town and vicinity of Ross, in the County of Hereford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, approach your Majesty's Royal Person with sentiments of heartfelt pleasure and congratulation on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, believing that by your Majesty's choice of a wise and an enlightened Administration, you have given evidence of your Majesty's sincere desire to mature those just and salutary measures of reform which the increased intelligence of a great people require, and which there is reason to believe would have obtained the sanction of your Majesty's august Uncle, our late revered and lamented Monarch, whose paternal regard for the welfare of his people has justly obtained for him the endearing appellation of the patriot King.

We, therefore, most earnestly solicit your Majesty's attention to the maintenance of those glorious principles of civil and religious liberty of which your illustrious House was the chosen protector, and desirous that every portion of the British dominions may participate in an equal degree of freedom with our own, we beseech your Majesty to take into your Royal consideration the degrading and demoralizing condition in which, under the plausible name of freedom, so large a portion of our fellow subjects and fellow Christians are still held in the West Indies, and urge the speedy adoption, under your Majesty's Royal commands, of measures more in unison with the beneficent intention of the Legislature, with the genius of the British Constitution, and with the celestial religion of our Divine Redeemer.

May your Majesty's reign, commencing under such favourable auspices, extend to a protracted period, and may your Majesty be permitted to see the consummation of those improvements which a free people require, and may your Royal heart derive satisfaction from witnessing the spirit and intention of full, free, and unconditional emancipation to the children of injured Africa, and may your Majesty, after a long enjoyment of every sublunary happiness, experience solid peace of mind at that solemn hour when the distinctions of rank and station are equally unavailing to their possessor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, in the Diocese of Ely, unanimously adopted at a Meeting, numerously attended, at Bury Saint Edmunds, on Friday the 4th day of August 1837.

May it please your Most Gracious Majesty,

AT a moment so important as the present to the interests of true religion, and the prosperity of the Church in which we minister, we, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, in the diocese of Ely, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, with the expression of our mingled feelings of condolence and congratulation; of condolence in the loss which your Majesty has individually experienced, by the demise of a dear Relative, and, in common with his people, of a revered and beloved Monarch, under whose auspicious reign every part of this great empire enjoyed so many blessings, whose short career, though marked by no pomp of war or trophies of victory, was yet adorned by results which, as Ministers of religion, we esteem far more valuable, namely, by the steady progress of social improvement, the mitigation of severity in our penal enactments, by freedom given to the slave, by the active propagation of Gospel truth, and the promotion of Christian charity.

But, whilst we thus beg to unite our sympathies with the regrets of your Majesty, these sympathies are not unaccompanied with the most heartfelt congratulation on your Majesty's happy accession to the Crown. We are devoutly thankful to Divine Providence, for having given us your most gracious Majesty as its inheritor.

Nursed under the vigilant care of a Mother, in herself so exemplary, and so peculiarly qualified to instil into the youthful mind parity of principle and strength of character, we had in your most gracious Majesty, even antecedently to your accession, all that human calculation could promise of future good, as we have since found in your Majesty's declarations all that can assure us, under God's blessing, of its enjoyment.

We allude particularly to that pledge, so readily and emphatically given, of your Majesty's gracious determination, whilst the freedom of will and the rights of conscience are preserved inviolate towards all, to maintain in full integrity the Established Church of these realms, and, in whatever may be needful, to strengthen by wise provisions the foundation upon which it rests. This good end, we venture to suggest, will be greatly furthered by a cautious selection of men of sound doctrine and unblemished piety to preside over it, by extending your fostering care to the advancement of religious education, and by the maintenance of public peace, the best nurse of public virtue.

In so doing your most gracious Majesty will at once consult those satisfactions of conscience, and interests of a future world, for which the awful responsibilities of your exalted station render it so necessary to provide, and well deserve the prayers which, in the discharge of our sacred calling, we shall each fervently offer at our altars for your Majesty's temporal and eternal welfare.

The humble Address of the Lord Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Saint Asaph.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Saint Asaph, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, in the lamented-demise of our late beloved Sovereign, your Royal Uncle; and at the same time to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms. From the declaration made by your Majesty, and from the education which your Majesty has received, under the pious and affectionate care of your illustrious Mother, we confidently anticipate for the established Church that favour and protection which, under Divine Providence, will best enable it to extend the blessings of true religion amongst your Majesty's subjects.

That the King of Kings may grant your Majesty long to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people is our sincere and fervent prayer. W. St. Asaph.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph, in our Chapter-house capitularly assembled, take this, the earliest, opportunity of our first general meeting, to approach your Majesty with the expressions of our warmest attachment to your Throne and Person, and our sincere congratulations to your Majesty, and to the country, on your accession to the sovereignty of these realms. In unison with the declared feelings of your Majesty, and in common with all your loyal subjects, we fail not to express the deep regret with which our gratification, at the accession of a piously educated and virtuous Queen, is alloyed by the loss we deplore in the demise of our late lamented Sovereign. His Majesty's professed desire to preserve our ecclesiastical establishments, and his avowed determination to protect them against every assault of faction or infidelity, renders his memory justly dear to us. Yet we cannot but feel renewed confidence, that your Majesty will continue a nursing mother to our Christian church, when we gratefully reflect upon the solemn declarations which your Majesty has delivered, to maintain the Protestant religion as established by law.

We trust we may also appeal to your Majesty's early recollections of the loyalty and attachment to your Majesty evinced, when you deigned for a time to reside within this Principality, that your subjects in these remoter parts of your dominions yield to none in sincere devotion to your Majesty, and at the same time we beg to assure your Majesty that, in the exercise of our sacred functions, we will not fail, as far as in us lies, diligently to inculcate the same dutiful allegiance, from the higher and more lasting motives of our religion, which has been already voluntarily rendered by the warm hearts of your subjects in these parts of the Principality.

That your Majesty may long reign over a united and loyal people will ever be our prayer.

We are fully sensible of, and grateful for, the exertions made by His late Majesty to improve, but at the same time to preserve, our valuable institutions; and we derive great consolation from the gracious declaration of your Majesty, that, under Divine Providence, you will unceasingly endeavour to maintain the reformed religion, as by law established, and, at the same time, to secure to all classes of your Majesty's subjects, perfect religious liberty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the town of Carnarvon and its neighbourhood, approach your Royal Presence with peculiar interest to tender our congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

The moment has arrived when the purpose which, one of the most exemplary of mothers proposed to herself in your Majesty's education is accomplished; and we are thankful that whilst the eyes of all, of all ranks, are turned towards your Majesty, you have been so effectually taught to feel that the brightest gem in your crown is the people's love.

We delight ourselves with the hope that your Majesty may be preserved through a long series of years, and that your reign may be prosperous, even beyond that of the distinguished female Sovereigns whose names have shed a more than chivalrous lustre over the page of history.

It is our fervent prayer that the paternal eye of the great God of Mercy may be upon your path, and that he may smile upon your efforts to bless every order, to gladden every abode in your dominions, and to make this the happiest, as it has been for centuries the most favoured, country upon earth, the garden of the globe, the refuge of the oppressed, the land of freedom and genius and virtue and religion.

No. 18.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, in Presbytery assembled, beg leave humbly to express our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and our warm attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We cannot but anticipate that your Majesty's reign will be a blessing to the British Empire, when we think of the pious sentiments which your Majesty took the earliest occasion to utter, and the feeling of deep responsibility under which you have ascended the Throne of your Fathers. The cares of royalty, we trust, will be lightened to your Majesty by the loyal and affectionate regard of your subjects, and the prevalence of peace both at home and abroad.

We have derived peculiar pleasure from learning your Majesty's determination to support the Protestant religion in these realms, and our National Church as by law established. We thank your Majesty for your gracious declaration on both these points. It shall be our assiduous study to inculcate, on the people committed to our care, those religious principles which, by engaging them in the service of God, afford the best security for their being faithful and obedient subjects to your Majesty.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may preserve and bless your Majesty—that He may make your reign prosperous—that He may reward you for all the interest which you take in the welfare of your people, by rendering you universally respected and beloved—and that, having enabled you to be useful in the exalted station which you hold, and having enriched you with every Christian grace, He may finally bestow upon you a crown of glory, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, met in Presbytery.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, Alexander Duncan, Moderator.

No. 19.

To the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, met here in Presbytery, humbly approach your Majesty, to present our dutiful and loyal congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to express our condolence with your Majesty under the affliction with which it hath pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty's Royal House, by the demise of our late revered Sovereign, your Illustrious Uncle, King William the Fourth.

Your Majesty's publicly announced purpose to maintain the Protestant reformed religion, as established by law, in your Majesty's three kingdoms, has called forth our gratitude to God, in whose hands are the hearts of Sovereign Rulers, and who has promised to honour all who honour Him, and graciously forewarned us, that the nation and kingdom that will not serve Him shall perish. The high promise of a prosperous reign, thus auspiciously commenced, accords with our cherished anticipations of the public conduct of your Majesty, as the Illustrious Representative of that exalted House which has been called to the Throne of this mighty nation, for the great and solemn purpose of upholding and perfecting its Protestant institutions, at once the sure basis of our liberties and of our true happiness.

We humbly assure your Majesty of our satisfaction, in common with the great majority of your Majesty's subjects, in this part of the United Empire, with the cordial manner in which your Majesty bound yourself to maintain the Church of Scotland, in her rights and privileges, as by law established.

We rejoice in your Majesty's determination, to maintain the religious liberties of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, and humbly express to your Majesty our firm conviction; that the connexion between the Church and State, by bringing the ruling powers of the Empire under the guidance and control of the illumination and authority of the word of God, affords the best security for the free and safe exercise of liberty of conscience.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may grant unto your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy reign, and bless your Majesty's Royal House, is, may it please your Majesty, the earnest prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling.

Signed at Stirling, this 25th day of July 1837 years, in our presence and name, by

John Dempster, Moderator.
