FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of August 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Monday the eleventh day of September next, to Monday the second day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such

Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the Bishoprick of Chichester.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Chichester, to the sum of four thousand two hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend William now Bishop of Chichester, and his successors bishops of Chichester, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October in every year; and that the first of such payments to the fifth day of April last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the fifth day of October next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Chichester shall happen on any other day than the fifth day of April, or the fifth day of October, the then next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes, and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may, therefore, happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof, we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Chichester for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment, after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us, from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the said bishopric of Chichester, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol should be united, and that the diocese should consist of the present diocese of Gloucester, of the city and deanry of Bristol, of the deanries of Cricklade and Malmesbury, in the county of Wilts, and now in the diocese of Salisbury, and of the whole of the parish of Bedminster; now in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal.

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations and should in such schemes, recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect further part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the bishopricks of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, Bath and Wells, and Worcester.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole of the deaneries of Cricklade and Malmesbury, in the county of Wilts, and now forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, and of the archdeaconry of Wilts, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the archdeaconry of Bristol; and that all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits of the said deaneries respectively, and the rural deans of the said deaneries, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects, within the same limits, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of Edward now Bishop of Salisbury, and every future Bishop of Salisbury, and of the present and every future Archdeacon of Wilts, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and of his successors Bishops of Gloucester and Bristol for ever, and of the Archdeacon of Bristol for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the deanry of Pottern, now in the said diocese of Salisbury, and in the archdeaconry of Salisbury, shall be detached and dis severed from the said archdeaconry, and shall be annexed and united to, and form part of, the said archdeaconry of Wilts; and that the rural dean of the said deanry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others within the same, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future Archdeacon of Salisbury, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Wilts for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert James Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, and, with the like consent of the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified as aforesaid, that the whole parish of Sherington, in the county of Gloucester, but locally situate between the counties of Warwick and Oxford, and now forming part of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the archdeaconry of Gloucester and deanry of Campden, shall be detached from the said last-mentioned diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Worcester, and be included in the archdeaconry of Worcester, and within the deanry of Kington, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Worcester for the time being; and that the whole parish of Icomb, in the county of Worcester, but insulated in the said county of Gloucester, and now forming part of the diocese and archdeaconry of Worcester, and of the deanry of Blockley, shall be detached from the said last-mentioned diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and be included in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, and within the deanry of Stowe; and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the parish of Bedminster, now in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and in the archdeaconry of Bath, and deanry of Redcliffe and Bedminster, shall, on the first vacancy of the see of Bath and Wells, be detached and dis severed from the said diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and be included in the archdeaconry and deanry of Bristol, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Bristol for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishopricks of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, and Worcester, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as herein after directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, Bath and Wells, and Worcester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishopricks, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with especial reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to his said late Ma-

est, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, the following, amongst other recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Oxford should be increased by the county of Buckingham, now in the diocese of Lincoln, and by the county of Berks, now in the diocese of Salisbury; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry, and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that, out of the fund thus accruing fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amounts as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First

Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the sees and dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Oxford, and the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole parish of Widford, now in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, but insulated in the county of Oxford, shall be detached from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be included in the diocese and archdeaconry of Oxford, and within the deanery of Witney; and that the church and clergy and others, within the said parish, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Oxford for the time being respectively.

And whereas by an Order issued by His late Majesty in Council, on the fifth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which has since been duly registered and gazetted, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, with the consent of the said Richard then and now Bishop of Oxford, that the whole county of Berks, and those parts of the county of Wilts which are insulated therein, forming together the archdeaconry of Berks, and then forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, should be included in, and form part of, the diocese of Oxford; we now humbly recommend and propose, that out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by us to the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, during his incumbency of the said see, by equal half-yearly payments, on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October in every year, and that the first of such payments, to the tenth day of April now last past, shall be made forthwith, and the next of such payments shall be made on the tenth day of October next; and that if a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the tenth day of April, or the tenth day of October, the said bishop, or his representatives, shall receive such proportion only of the then current half-yearly payment as shall have become due from the next preceding tenth day of April, or tenth day of October, as the case may be, to the day of such vacancy.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon the first avoidance of the said see of Oxford, or, before such avoidance, with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, duly testified to us under his hand and seal, the whole county of Buckingham, now forming the archdeaconry of Buckingham, and part of the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be absolutely detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Oxford; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said see of Lincoln, and of the said present and every future bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Oxford, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the bishop then succeeding to the said see, and his successors, bishops of Oxford for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys, from time to time, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof: we further recommend and propose, that if, at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency in the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and to the bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared, or to be prepared, by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year; and to calculate such deductions in proportion to the sums which have been, or may be, named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively, but which, in respect of the see of Oxford, shall, during the incumbency of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, be taken to be two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim except as herein after mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us, in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes, within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that after the said archdeaconry of Buckingham shall so as aforesaid become part of the said diocese of Oxford, the right of appointing the archdeacon of Buckingham shall be vested in the Bishop of Oxford, and his successors bishops of Oxford for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishoprics of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven,

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is hereby pleased to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 1, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Brecknock, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to offer our unfeigned condolence upon the death of our late lamented and revered Sovereign; possessed of a disposition alive to every benevolent feeling, and ever ready to relieve the sufferings of the distressed, His late Majesty became, in a peculiar manner, the object of our veneration and esteem, and it may be truly said, that, during a short but eventful reign, our excellent and patriotic Sovereign evinced upon all occasions the most unremitting anxiety for the welfare and happiness of all his subjects.

But notwithstanding the nation is overwhelmed with grief at the loss of so revered, so beloved a Monarch, still a ray of joyful anticipation breaks forth at the Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

May your Majesty's reign be prosperous and happy, and may it please the Almighty Disposer of human events to aid your councils, and favour your endeavours to uphold the dignity of the Throne, and promote the welfare of your faithful and loyal subjects.

At the same time that we approach your Majesty with feelings of congratulation at so auspicious an event, and express our assurance of firm and loyal attachment to your Majesty's Family and Throne, as well as the satisfaction we have felt at your Majesty's gracious declaration before the Privy Council, we trust we may be allowed to express a fervent hope, that your Majesty will be pleased to countenance and recommend such healing and salutary measures, as may tend to ensure the stability of the Throne, frustrate the designs of the malicious and disaffected, and cement with the strongest ties that bond of union which ever should subsist between the Sovereign and the people.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the meeting,

Crawshaw Bailey, High Sheriff of the county of Brecknock.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, in County Meeting assembled, beg leave to offer our sincere condolence on the loss sustained by your Majesty, in common with the whole country, by the death of our beloved and lamented King, and offer, at the same time, our heartfelt and sincere congratulations at your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of this kingdom.

Deprived, as we have been, of the paternal sway of one of the best and most justly popular Sovereigns that have ruled this country, we look forward with every degree of confidence to an illustrious and happy reign under the auspices of your Majesty, whose mind has been formed, and talents developed, under the fostering care and excellent judgment of your distinguished Mother; and we feel convinced, that, born and educated in this country, as was the boasted pride of your illustrious predecessor, George the Third, your professions and actions will be truly British.

In conclusion, we beg to offer to the Author of all Good, our sincere prayers, that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous; that the blessings of peace may be continued; that the Protestant religion, the foundation as well of our civil as religious liberties, may be maintained as by law established, and that every blessing may attend and protect your Majesty.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the meeting, this 2d day of August 1837.

J. Hughes, High Sheriff.

No. 3.

Unto the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty, humbly approach your Majesty with sentiments of condolence for the loss your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the decease of His late Majesty, a Monarch no less distinguished by the zealous discharge of his high functions, than by his virtues as a man; a Monarch, whose reign has been marked by a constant succession of constitutional and legal ameliorations. In congratulating your Majesty on your Majesty's succession to the Throne of these realms, we cannot but observe that the period of your Majesty's accession is remarkable for a desire of improved institutions, and the period of profound peace which it exhibits, is eminently calculated for such a purpose.

We congratulate your Majesty in succeeding to the Crown at a period when sentiments of loyalty are so generally diffused.

We congratulate your Majesty, that, born in England, and educated under the tender and enlightened care of an affectionate Mother, your Majesty has been pleased to declare, "that while it shall be your Majesty's unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion as by law established, your Majesty will secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty."

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, conclude this Address, by assuring your Majesty of our loyal and dutiful attachment to your Majesty, praying the Almighty Disposer of all things to bless your Majesty with a long, a prosperous, and a happy reign, over a flourishing, a free, and a loyal people.

Subscribed in name, and by authority of the meeting,
Rod. Macleod, President,
Her Majesty's Lieutenant of the county of Cromarty.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City and Borough of Canterbury and County of the same.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient city and borough of Canterbury, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty, to express the deep regret we feel for the severe loss your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of our late revered Sovereign William the Fourth.

But while we, in common with all your Majesty's faithful subjects, deplore this sad event, we feel fully justified in our anticipations of future happiness, by your Majesty's determination, solemnly expressed, to maintain the Protestant religion as established by law, to secure to all the free exercise of the rights of conscience; to protect the liberties and to promote the welfare of all classes of the community; to do all in your power to maintain the blessings of peace; and to strengthen our institutions, civil and ecclesiastical, by improvement, wherever improvement is required.

We, on this occasion, feel it incumbent upon us to express to your Majesty our great satisfaction in your having confided the councils of the nation to the present liberal Ministers, and earnestly trust that, under their wise Administration, the welfare and happiness of your people will be increased and promoted.

We beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne, and most heartily pray, that Almighty God will grant to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a dutiful, loyal, and affectionate people.

Given under our common seal this 22d day of August 1837.

Edward Plummer, Mayor of Canterbury.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, desire to approach your Majesty's Throne, with the sincere expression of our condolence in the loss sustained by your Majesty, in common with the inhabitants of the British empire at large, in the lamented death of our late patriotic and revered Sovereign, King William the Fourth.

But whilst deeply sensible of the magnitude of our loss, we desire to offer to your Majesty our united and heartfelt expressions of unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to assure you of the loyalty which animates the breasts of all classes of your Majesty's subjects in this town.

We hail your Majesty's Accession with the more delight, from the pledge given in your Majesty's Address from the Throne, of your determination to pursue a no less patriotic course than that which has immortalized the reign of your Majesty's illustrious Predecessor, and, by securing to your subjects, in their utmost extent, the full and unfettered enjoyment of that civil and religious liberty, which is their proudest birthright, whilst you, at the same time, uphold our National Church in the full enjoyment of all those rights, privileges, and possessions which are not inconsistent with, or subversive of, the rights and privileges of your Majesty's subjects at large, best promote the peace, happiness, and prosperity of this great and powerful empire.

Our most fervent prayers will continue to be addressed to Almighty God, that your Majesty's life may long be preserved to reign over a free, loyal, united and happy people.

Signed, by order and on the behalf of the meeting,

James King, Mayor and Chairman.

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty, in common with your subjects, has sustained, by the demise of our late lamented Sovereign.

At the same time, we respectfully entreat permission to express to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, with the firm assurance of our fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our sincere and ardent wishes that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal-minded and religious people.

We humbly presume further to add, that, as Councillors specially charged with the conservation of this borough, it shall be our earnest endeavour, by a faithful administration of those laws with which we are entrusted, to impress on the minds of your Majesty's subjects, as directed by your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation, the true principles of loyalty and allegiance, and a due reverence for the religion of our country, and the inestimable blessings we enjoy under our revered Constitution.

Given under our common seal, at the borough aforesaid, the 16th day of August 1837.

No. 7.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tewkesbury, impelled by a grateful recollection of the many inestimable blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, humbly approach the Throne, to condole with your Majesty upon the death of your late Royal Uncle, King William the Fourth, of glorious memory.

The grief with which we are impressed on so great a loss, could only be alleviated by the immediate accession of a Princess so eminently fitted, by birth and education, to adorn the high station to which at so early an age she has been called. Permit us, then, most gracious Sovereign, to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors; and as your Majesty's early declaration of attachment to the religion, laws, and liberties of our country afford us a certain prospect of a continuance of our present felicity, so are we impelled, unanimously, to assure your Majesty of our devoted loyalty to your Person and Government; and that our prayers shall ever be, that peace and prosperity, at home and abroad, may distinguish your Majesty's reign, and that long and happily, your Majesty may rule over a loyal and united people.

Given under our common seal, at the Tolsey, in the said borough, the 6th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

James B. Lewis, Mayor.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 25th instant.

The Christian names of Lieutenant Ross are Hew (not Hugh) Graham.

Whitehall, August 30, 1837.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto James George Crabb, of Shedfield, in the parish of Droxford, in the county of Wilts, Gent. Her royal licence and permission, that he and his issue may, in compliance with the wish expressed by his maternal uncle, Richard Bouche, late of Marlboroughmount, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Middlesex, in the island of Jamaica, Esq. deceased, sometime Custos of the said county, and a Member of the Assembly of the said island, henceforth take and use the surname of Boucher, in lieu of that of Crabb, and also bear the arms of Boucher; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 28, 1837.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Jonathan Thomas Sleaf, of Great Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

In the Gazette of Tuesday last, page 2281, in the list of Scotch Peers, returned to serve in Parliament, for Lord Saltam, read Lord Saltcun.

Shoreham-Bridge Tolls or Life Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, granted pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building a Bridge over the River Adur, at or near Old Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Subscribers to the said bridge may receive their dividends arising from the annuity of £1200, received from his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, up to May last, by applying to us, the undersigned, at our Offices, No. 8, Ship-street, Brighton, on or after the 29th day of September next.

A certificate of the life of the nominee must be produced at the time of receiving the dividend, unless the nominees appear in person.

The Subscribers are desired to take notice, that if any person, entitled to receive any share of the said dividends, neglects to demand the same for three years or more next after it shall become due, every such person forfeits the arrears of the share so neglected to be demanded, and the same is to be divided amongst the persons entitled to the dividends of the same class.

By order of the Trustees,
Attree, Clarke, and M'Whinnie.

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 28, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 14th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards with Train and Pale Seal Oil.

A distribution of the oil and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 4, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 6000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 16,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1838, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling;" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

SALE OF OLD VICTUALLING STORES AT DEPTFORD.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, August 30, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the Captain Superintendent will put up to sale, in Her Majesty's Victualling-yard at Deptford, several lots of all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.
