(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 15, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Most Gracious MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Electors and Inhabitants of Middlesex, in County Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of regret for the loss which we have sustained (in common with our fellow-subjects) by the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign, William the Fourth, whose memory as a patriotic Monarch will long live in the affections of his people.

Participating in the joy which pervades this kingdom at your Majesty's accession to the Throne, we present to your Majesty our most sincere congratulations, and trust that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty may be permitted, through a long series of years, happily to reign over a free and united people.

Being deeply sensible of the inestimable benefits which have resulted to this country from the Constitution, as at present established, of Queen, Lords, and Commons, we assure your Majesty, as the head of our Constitution, of our devoted attachment, and of our determination to support your Majesty in the exercise of all the rights and prerogatives vested by law in the Imperial Crown of this kingdom.

From the maternal instruction and example of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent (a Princess most endeared to the affections of the people of this country) we derive the completest conviction of your Majesty's virtues and attachment to the Constitution; and we receive, with the most profound gratitude, your Majesty's gracious declaration that "it will be the study of your life to preserve the liberties and maintain the glory of this great country."

We learn from the annals of this country, that the reigns of its Queens have been the most glorious periods of British history. The memory of Elizabeth is still sacred for the establishment of our religion, and for the earliest triumph of the British fleet, sealing our national independence by its victory over Spanish invaders. We confidently anticipate that your Majesty, swaying with a temperate and firm hand the destinies of this great people, will maintain the pre-eminence of Britain as the guardian of the peace of Europe, the preserver of the rights of nations, and the dispenser of civilization throughout the globe.

Your Majesty's predecessor, Queen Anne, preserved, by the triumphs of Marlborough, the liberties of Europe, and united the whole of this island under a common legislature. We trust that the impartial Government of your Majesty will abolish all distinctions throughout the empire, and that Ireland, fully endowed with the blessings of the British Constitution, will cease to mourn over past grievances, and participate in the full enjoyment of the prosperity and civilization of the United Kingdom.

And finally, we express our confident hope, that the literary splendour of your Majesty's reign may rival that conferred on those of Elizabeth and Anne by Shakespeare and Spencer, by Addison and Pope; and that, fostered by your Majesty's munificence and taste, the Arts and Sciences may flourish; and that your Majesty's reign may be distinguished in future ages for the wisdom of the Sovereign, the loyal affection of the people, and the civilization and prosperity of the empire.

James Duke, John Johnson, Sheriffs.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Hereford, uniting with your Majesty in lamenting the heavy loss we have recently experienced by the decease of our late beloved Sovereign, beg, at the same time, to submit our hearty and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, which just sentiments, as they have already been unequivocally manifested by the public voice to be general throughout the United Kingdom, we are anxious to declare to be decidedly those of your loyal county of Hereford.

Exalted so early in life, as your Majesty is, to the Throne of this great empire, we pray Almighty God that your Majesty may long and prosperously reign over us, humbly hoping that these our sincere declarations of allegiance and attachment may be graciously and kindly accepted by your Majesty.

Thos. Monington, Esq. High Sheriff,

On behalf of a Meeting of the County of Hereford, duly convened and held at the Shire Hall, Hereford, August 26, 1837.

No. 3.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of England.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, assembled at Summer Assizes, venture to approach your Majesty, with feelings of the most profound loyalty and respect, to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your august Ancestors, and to pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our sincere participation in the grief of your Majesty for the loss of your Royal Relative and Predecessor; and we congratulate your Majesty, ourselves, and the country on the renewal of your Majesty's assurance, that it is your determination to maintain the Protestant Religion, as established by law, and to promote the welfare of all classes of the community.

Evelyn Ph. Spirley, High Sheriff.

No. 4.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Northalton, in the North Riding of the County of York, humbly desire to express to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of this kingdom.

We cannot too strongly declare our most decided concurrence in your Majesty's gracious intention, "to strengthen our Institutions, Civil and Ecclesiastical, by discreet improvement, where improvement is required, and to compose and allay animosity and discord. Acting on these principles, your Majesty may look with confidence to the wisdom of Parliament, and the affections of your people, which form the true support of the dignity of your Crown, and ensure the stability of the Constitution."

That your Majesty may for many years reign over a free and enlightened people, secure in their affections, attended with the blessings of universal peace, uninterrupted prosperity, and religious happiness, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

No. 5.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Council assembled, presume to approach your Majesty with sentiments of condolence upon the lamented occasion of the demise of your Majesty's late Royal Uncle, King William the Fourth.

And whilst thus in your Majesty's presence, we crave leave to offer our congratulations upon your Majesty's peaceful Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, fervently hoping that your Majesty may long govern the United Kingdom in prosperity and honour, and maintaining inviolate our institutions, both religious and civil, enjoy the happiness of ruling a flourishing and contented people.

Given under the common seal of our Borough, this 24th day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1837. John Sansum, Mayor.

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex, beg to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, with an expression of our sincere respect for your Majesty, and that Illustrious House of which you are a Member.

Remembering that loss which you have so recently sustained by the death of your Royal Uncle (of blessed and glorious memory), we present ourselves before you, offering to your Majesty our condolence and sympathy, because we feel persuaded, that such event (depriving, as it did, this country of a Sovereign beloved to an almost unprecedented degree by his subjects, and your Majesty of so valuable a relative) must have been to your Majesty a source of deep affliction.

Our sorrow, however, is alleviated in no small degree, when we call to mind that your Majesty has succeeded to the Throne of these realms, for we are confident that your Majesty will preside over this great nation with an earnest anxiety for its welfare and happiness. The guarantee for this belief is afforded no less by the recollection of that education which you received from your Majesty's amiable and illustrious Mother (whom may God long bless and preserve), than it is by your Majesty's most gracious declaration already made.

Under these circumstances, we hail with joy the commencement of your Majesty's reign, and tender to your Majesty our hearty congratulations. We feel assured of your Majesty's anxious desire, that to all classes of your people the fullest civil and religious liberty, and the advantages of just and equal law, should be secured; and that all those principles should be encouraged which tend to promote the advancement of religion, virtue, and peace.

In conclusion, we beg to express our heartfelt prayer, that God may very long continue the life and health of your Majesty, and give your Majesty a large share of happiness and enjoyment; and that under his merciful Providence you may so rule this nation, as that, during your Majesty's reign, its happiness and glory may rise to a degree unparalleled in the annals of its history.

In testimony whereof, we have caused our common seal to be hereto affixed, this 18th day of July 1837.

No. 7.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the borough of New Windsor, beg permission to approach your royal presence on the joyful occasion of your Majesty's arrival at your castle of Windsor.

We share in the joy with which your Majesty's Accession to the Throne has been justly hailed, and now, with peculiar emotions, would welcome your Royal Person within the home of your illustrious Ancestors.

Distinguished as this Palace has been by the residence of a long line of Sovereigns, we rejoice to see it now occupied by a Queen whose personal and princely virtues will, we are assured, contribute to enrich the noble associations already gathered round the history of so venerable a fabric.

We reflect with gratitude upon the condescension and kindness manifested towards the town of Windsor by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, especially by your venerated Grand sire, his most gracious Majesty King George the Third, and his illustrious Sons, to whom the nation, as well as ourselves, are indebted for the renovated beauty, solidity, and magnificence given to the renowned keep and castle of Windsor, and encouraged by your Majesty's benevolent disposition, we humbly anticipate the continuance of that royal favour which has thrown its brightness over our fathers and ourselves.

The noble terrace and the stately avenues which adorn this royal castle and domain remind us of the majesty of Elizabeth and the victories of Anne, and while we review their reigns with admiration, we entertain the well-supported hope that your Majesty's regal sway will be distinguished by a still brighter lustre in the annals of our country.

For the regard your Majesty so graciously expressed, on your accession to the Throne, for the liberties and happiness of your people, permit us humbly to present our fervent thanks, and to return our loyal response of attachment to the British Monarchy, and veneration for its sacred prerogatives.

Allow us sincerely to assure your Majesty that our prayers shall constantly ascend to Heaven on your behalf, that the favour and blessing of the "King Eternal" may rest upon you for ever, and that your person may be distinguished by health and long life; your home, by every form of domestic happiness; your government, by peace, prosperity, and glory; and your memory, by a cloudless and everlasting fame.

E. Bovingdon, jun., Mayor.

No. 8.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within your Castle of Windsor, humbly solicit your Majesty's gracious permission to approach you with our heartfelt congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of these realms, and on your establishing yourself in this magnificent seat of your Royal Predecessors, associated as it is with so many circumstances of historical interest, and especially with the origin and institution of the Most Honourable and Noble Order of the Garter.

We should be without excuse, were we not to embrace the occasion thus offered of testifying to your Majesty our most grateful sense of the uniform kindness and condescension with which your revered Uncle, our late most gracious Sovereign, was pleased to honour us; and we are persuaded that we shall best discharge the debt of gratitude which we owe to his memory, by our undeviating loyalty and devotion to your Majesty.

We have beheld, with the most lively interest, the watchful care of Her Royal Highness, your Illustrious Mother, in impressing your Majesty with the paramount importance of the tenets of our Holy Religion, well knowing that the lessons derived from that source, are the only sure guarantee of virtuous principles, and the firmest support in all those trials, from which the most exalted station of earthly grandeur is not exempted.

We hail with the truest gratitude your Majesty's gracious declaration of protection and support of the Established Church, which we firmly believe to contain the entire Creed, and to be built upon the foundation of the primitive Apostolic Church of Christ. For the restoration of its faith and practice, after ages of corruption, to their original purity, the Christian world is deeply indebted, under Divine Providence, to the zealous piety, and persevering fortitude of your Majesty's Maternal Ancestors, the Princes of the House of Saxony; and this nation in particular, may justly attribute the maintenance of its Ecclesiastical Institutions, and the civil and religious liberty which it enjoys, to the sound principles and steady protection of the House of Brunswick.

It is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty may be enabled, by Divine Grace so to direct and govern the councils of these realms, that the true interests of both Church and State may continue to prosper; and that the devotion of your Majesty's grateful and loyal subjects may call down upon the head of your Majesty those blessings which we are taught to believe will reward the exertions of religious and patriotic Princes.

No. 9

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Committee of the Royal Maternity Charity, most dutifully beg to offer our sincere condolence on the loss we, in common with the nation at large, have experienced on the death of His most sacred Majesty, King William the Fourth; but derive consolation from the brilliant prospect opened to our view, by the auspicious Accession of your most gracious Majesty to the Throne of these realms, and tender our congratulations and assurances of devotion to your Majesty's Royal Person, expressing our sincere hope, as it is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty may enjoy many years of uninterrupted health and happiness to reign over an attached, loyal, and grateful people.

In thus venturing to intrude upon your Majesty's attention, we take the liberty of bringing within your knowledge the Charitable Institution over whose welfare we are appointed to watch, and whose claims we very respectfully submit to your Majesty's most gracious consideration. Having been founded in the year 1757, under the title of the Lying-in Charity for delivering poor married Women at their own habitations, in London, Westminster, and their environs, it was the first Institution of the kind established in the metropolis, and to the present period has conferred its benefits upon 315,193 poor women, entitled to its protection.

This Charity has been honoured with the patronage and support of many Members of your Majesty's illustrious House. In the eleventh year from its foundation, Her late Majesty, Queen Charlotte, was pleased to allow His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, then only five years of age, to be nominated its President, and that illustrious Prince, in the year 1785, condescended to express his approbation of the object which the Governors had in view, by permitting himself to be styled Patron; and the Charity continued to enjoy his royal patronage, and to partake of his bountiful munificence, until the close of his paternal reign.

In the year 1815, your Majesty's revered and honoured Father condescended to preside at the anniversary festival, and testified his approval of the Charity's design by a liberal donation; His Royal Highness was also graciously pleased to accept the office of Vice-Patron; and the like honour was conferred upon the Society by your august Mother, His Majesty the King of the Belgians, their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Sussex, and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester.

We, the representatives of the Royal Maternity Charity, feel deeply grateful for the countenance and assistance vouchsafed to it by your Majesty's royal relatives; and relying on your Majesty's gracious condescension, well-known benevolence, and sympathy for the distress of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, most dutifully and humbly submit this concise statement of it to your royal consideration, earnestly praying that your Majesty will deign to afford your royal patronage to this extensively useful Institution.

No. 10.

Unto the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunbar, do most humbly crave permission to congratulate your Majesty on your attaining to the Throne of these realms.

Whilst, in common with the whole British empire, we sympathized with your Majesty, and deeply lamented the bereavement sustained by the nation, in the demise of our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign, it afforded us the greatest consolation, that the first public acts of your Majesty's reign gave the most satisfactory evidence of the warmth and benevolence of your Majesty's disposition, and that you had resolved to govern your people with the strictest equity and cordial affection, thus further assuring us, that your Majesty will reign in the hearts of your people, and thereby enjoy the delightful reflection, that your Majesty has strictly and faithfully executed the high and important functions, with which the Almighty has been pleased to intrust you.

That God in His infinite goodness may ever protect your Majesty, and long spare you in peace and prosperity, to reign over a free, intelligent, and contented people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects.

Signed by me, Provost of the Burgh of Dunbar, in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, this 28th day of August 1837.

Wm. Kirkwood, Provost.

Unto the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Wemyss, Fifeshire, humbly approach your Majesty with sentiments of sincere veneration and loyalty, and congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of these realms.

Being duly sensible of the invaluable blessings resulting to your Majesty's subjects from the reforms and ameliorations in the laws and institutions of the empire, brought about by the wisdom and prudence with which our late revered and justly beloved Sovereign directed his councils,—reforms and ameliorations which constituted the glory of his reign, and secured to him the affection and gratitude of his loyal subjects; we, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, sincerely hope, that under your Majesty's Government will be extended and completed those reforms and ameliorations so auspiciously begun under the Government of His late Majesty.

Also in the discharge of the sacred trust committed to your Majesty, under the providence of the Supreme Ruler of the Destinies of mankind, your Majesty will be graciously pleased to employ such measures as will secure the removal of all abuses which either time or misgovernment have allowed to creep into the institutions of the empire; and not amongst the least of these are the Corn Laws.

May your Majesty, therefore, be graciously pleased to cause to be introduced into your first Parliament, a Bill for the entire abolition of these laws, which press so heavily on the industry and enterprise of your loyal subjects, and which also has a direct tendency to deprive your Majesty's subjects of one of the greatest temporal blessings of a Bountiful Providence, cheap bread, and as so many of your Majesty's subjects are, at this time, suffering under extreme want from the scarcity of employment, and the high price of provisions.

We, your Majesty's loyal subjects, humbly pray that, as a means of present relief, your Majesty will be graciously pleased to direct that the foreign grain lying in bond, be sent out, duty free, through those suffering districts of the nation.

And that the Divine blessing may be imparted to your Majesty in the execution of your exalted and sacred trust, that your reign may be long, glorious, and happy is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's dutiful subjects, as undersigned.

A Son Auguste Majesté la REINE VICTOIRE.

Madame,

C'EST avec un sentiment mêlé de joie et de tristesse, que nous osons, au nom des Suisses dont nous sommes les organes, approcher de votre Majesté; la haute protection et l'hospitalité que de tout temps nous avons éprouvé dans ces royaumes nous ont identifiés avec leurs heureux habitans, et nous font vivement participer à leur bonheur comme à leur malheur. Madame! autant nous avons été affligés du coup qui a frappé l'auguste Monarque qui pendant une suite d'années a régné sur ces royaumes, autant nous sommes réjouis de trouver sur le Trône une auguste Reine non moins digne de le remplir. Oui, Madame! en voyant un règne commencer sous d'aussi heureux auspices, tous les cœurs sont ouverts à la joie et à l'espoir; de toutes parts s'élèvent au ciel des cris d'allégresse, des vœux et des prières!

Veuille l'Être Suprême exaucer celles que de concert avec les habitans de ces royaumes, nous lui adressons, pour qu'il daigne, Madame! repandre sur votre Personne sacrée, sur votre illustre Famille, sur vos peuples, sur vos entreprises, ses plus précieuses bénédictions! Les Suisses non moins fiers de la patrie qu'ils ont adoptée que de celle qui les a vu naître, chercheront dans toutes les occasions à se rendre dignes du nom qu'ils portent, et à éprouver par leur patriotisme et leur loyauté les sentimens qui les animent.

The humble Address of the National Scottish Church in Rotterdam.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, and native Office-bearers, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the National Scottish Church in Rotterdam, specially assembled, humbly beg leave to offer our sympathising condolence to your Majesty on the demise of your revered Uncle, King William the Fourth,—a Monarch whose personal excellencies and unremitting exertions for the happiness of his strongly attached people, will, in all times, render his name most dear and memorable.

And, in this ever changeful state of our being, it is with the same sincerity, and with a congenial glow of feeling, as well as of delightful anticipation, that we, for ourselves, and as the constituted representatives of the numerous members of the Church of Scotland in this City, do most heartily congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne.

Grateful to Heaven for the signal benefits conferred upon the British empire by your Royal House, we fervently pray that the Almighty Governor of the Nations, who has called your Majesty, in the bloom of life, to the immediate discharge of such vast and arduous duties, may cause permanently to rest upon your Majesty a double portion of the wisdom and prosperity of the best of your illustrious Predecessors.

That, after a long, happy, and glorious reign, your Majesty may peacefully exchange a temporal for an eternal crown, and shall be, the sincere and cordial prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, obedient, and loyal subjects and servants, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the National Scottish Church in Rotterdam.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

CONTRACT FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 4, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 6000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 10,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighths parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1838, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
