CONTRACT FOR SUGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, September 15, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Sugar, 60 Tons, the produce of the British possessions; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

It will be exempted from the Customs' duties.

The sugar must be answerable to one or other of the samples, which, with the conditions of the contract, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and must specify of what British possession the sugar tendered is the produce, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Sugar," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, WINE, COCOA, SOAP, PEAS, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, September 15, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles, viz.

Rum, the produce of the British possessions, equal, by Sykes's hydrometer, to 75,000 gallons proof; to be delivered in the original casks as imported, and tenders to be made at a rate per proof gallon, and no tender to be received for less than 3000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Wine, White, strong bodied, 10,000 Gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Cocoa, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Soap, Mottled, 25 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Peas, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

Tobacco, 20 Tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

The Rum, Wine, Cocoa, and Tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples of the wine (not less than two bottles), of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), and of the peas (not less than two quarts) must be produced by the parties tendering; and samples of the soap and tobacco, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for wine and cocoa must be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

CONTRACT FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 4, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 6000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 10,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in burrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1838, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

NOTICE is hereby given, that such of the creditors of Charles Dales, of Spalding, in the county of Lincoln, Grocer, as have not already executed the deed of assignment, dated the 23d day of June last (of which due notice has heretofore been given), or otherwise signified their assent to or concurrence therein, or who shall not do so on or before the 23d day of September instant, will be excluded the benefit thereof; and notice is hereby also given, that a meeting of the creditors is intended to be holden at the office of Mr. Charles Hainey, Solicitor, Spalding, on Tuesday the 3d day of October next, at which the accounts of the assignees will be produced, in order that the same may be audited and settled; and which said meeting the creditors are requested to attend.

THIE Creditors of Isaac Solly the younger, and also of Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, of St. Mary Axe, in the city of London, Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the separate estate and effects of the said Isaac Solly the younger, and also of the said Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, on Wednesday the 11th day of October next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy in Basinghall-street, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Isaac Solly the younger taking, at a valuation, his contingent reversionary interest in certain settled property, to be stated at the said meeting, and at such price as shall be then and there named and agreed upon.

THIE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Thomas Syers, late of Clayton-square, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Tailor and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 12th day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Houghton, in Chamber-buildings, South John-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to take into consideration the vested reversionary share and interest of the said bankrupt of and in a certain legacy or sum of money bequeathed, in trust, by the will of his late maternal great uncle; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing thereof, either by public auction or private contract, and for such price, and by such mode of payment as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable and advantageous; and, if by public auction, to authorise the said assignees, in their discretion, to buy in the same, and to resell the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being answerable for any diminution in price, expenses, or other loss consequent on such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or any other proceedings, for protection, recovery, or defence of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof; or to their compounding, sub.

submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt, matter, or thing with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, to be named at such meeting; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures in the management of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as the said assignees shall think most to the advantage of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against George Edward Moulson, Thomas Pierson, and John Henry Denston, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 13th day of October, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Clarendon Rooms, in South John-street, in Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or any other proceedings, for the protection, recovery, or defence of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof; or to their submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, settling, compounding, or adjusting any accounts, debts, claims, demands, or disputes, or other matters or things relative to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or any of them, particularly with reference to certain transactions between the said bankrupts, or some of them, and Mr. Rollo, of Liverpool, Merchant, and Messrs. Burra and Co., of London; Merchants, and with reference to certain mine and bank shares held by the said bankrupts, or some of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and otherwise disposing of certain property and effects of the said bankrupts, or some of them, either real or personal, either by public auction or private contract, and to make and arrange terms for a partition and division thereof, or of any part thereof, and on such terms, stipulations, and agreements, as the said assignees may consider most conducive to the benefit of the estate, and to pay off and discharge all or any mortgages, or other incumbrances, on the same, or any part thereof, or otherwise agree with the mortgagees, or any of them, respecting the same, or any part thereof; and generally to authorise the assignees to adopt and pursue all such measures as they may deem best in and about the matters aforesaid, or any of them, and the investigating, winding up, and settling all claims and demands, and the affairs of the said bankrupts, and of each of them; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Robert Robson and John Prudhoe Robson, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Builders and Cartwrights, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on the 11th day of October 1837, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. George W. Cram, Solicitor, Dean-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees prosecuting an action commenced and now pending in the Court of Queen's Bench by the said bankrupts, for the recovery of a debt alleged to be due to the said bankrupts from the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, or to submit the said action, and all claims and demands in respect thereof, to the determination of one or more arbitrators, to be chosen by the said assignees, or otherwise to compromise the said action, and to take any part of the said debt in discharge of the whole; and also to submit to arbitration, or otherwise compromise and compound a claim for a lien on certain waggons, engines, implements, and stock in trade, late belonging to the said bankrupts, at Willington Dean, in the county of Northumberland, alleged to be held thereon by the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and North Shields Railway Company; and also a claim for the stock in trade, waggons, and implements, late belonging to the said bankrupts, at the Beddick Cut, near Jarrow, in the county of Durham, alleged to be sold to William Irving; or to commence and prosecute any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of the said waggons, stock in trade, and implements, from the said respective parties; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all the stock in trade, goods, furniture, fixtures, book and other debts, late belonging to the said bankrupts, or either of them, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and together or in separate lots, or otherwise, as they may think proper, to any person or persons whomsoever, who may be disposed to purchase the same, and either for ready money or upon credit, at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate, and on such personal and other security for such purchase monies as the said assignees may deem expedient; and to the said assignees carrying on or giving up certain quarries and quays rented by the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of, by public auction or private contract, in lots or otherwise, as they may think proper, the equity of redemption of the said bankrupts in certain freehold and leasehold messuages, erections, and hereditaments, to be then named, or concurring with the mortgagees thereof respectively, in so selling and disposing of the same messuages, erections, and hereditaments; and to the assignees buying in the same, and again offering such messuages and hereditaments, or the equity of redemption therein, for sale, as to them shall seem expedient, without their being answerable for any loss, deficiency, or expenses, which may arise or be occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding or prosecuting, or defending any other action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or any proceeding, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said bankrupts' estate, or any part thereof; or to the assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing with any person or persons concerning any such suit or suits, actions, differences or disputes, debts or demands, relating or concerning the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupts' estate, any extra costs and expenses which were incurred in and about and for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, previous to and after the issuing the said fiat; and on the said assignees employing an accountant or other person to investigate the accounts, books, and affairs of the bankrupts, and to collect and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupts' estate, and to remunerate such accountant or other person for his services out of the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignees arranging and conducting the said bankrupts' estate, and adopting such measures in the arrangement and settlement of their affairs, as to them shall seem fit and necessary for the interest of the said creditors; and to ratify and confirm, or object to, all and whatsoever the said assignees may have done in and about the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and on other special affairs.
