AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of September 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for further proroguing the Parliament, from Monday the second day of October next to Wednesday the fifteenth day of November next.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Monday the second day of October next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said second day of October next, to Wednesday the fifteenth day of November next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifteenth day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fifteenth day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this twentieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 26, 1837.

THE following Address from the Military Knights of Windsor was presented to Her Majesty at Windsor-Castle; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Most Gracious and Excellent Majesty
QUEEN VICTORIA.

THE Military Knights of Windsor presume to approach your Majesty, with their sincere and loyal congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of your great and illustrious Ancestors, and on your Majesty's taking up your residence at your royal Castle of Windsor, and to which your Majesty's dutiful servants have the high honour of being an humble appendage.

The Military Knights take the liberty to submit to your Majesty, that they were instituted immediately after the institution of the Most Noble and Ancient Order of the Garter, by that glorious hero King Edward the Third, of immortal memory; that Queen Elizabeth was the greatest Patroness and Benefactress to the Military Knights from the time of their foundation; and, among others, none ever manifested greater kindness towards them than his late lamented Majesty, King William the Fourth, the Father of his people: And they confidently anticipate and trust that their interests will not suffer under the benignant sceptre of your Majesty, but that your name will be a shield and protection to their order, and become the blessing of themselves and their posterity.

They beg to assure your Majesty that the Military Knights of Windsor yield to none of your Majesty's subjects in unfeigned and devoted loyalty to your sacred Person and Family, and they most fervently and most anxiously pray, that your reign may excel in prosperity, happiness, and glory, and exceed in continuance, that of your noblest and greatest Predecessors.

Whitehall, September 26, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Buckingham, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Buckingham, would most humbly approach your Majesty, with the warmest feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and with our sincere and heartfelt condolence at the loss which your Majesty, and all classes of your Majesty's faithful subjects, have sustained, in the demise of our late most excellent and beloved Monarch William the Fourth.

We would also offer to your Majesty our joyful congratulations on the Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms; that your Majesty's reign will be long and prosperous, and that you will maintain that Throne your Majesty has already raised in the hearts of your grateful subjects, we feel confidently assured, by the regard your Majesty has so graciously expressed for their liberties and happiness; and that your Majesty may sway the British sceptre, amid peace and plenty, for many years, is the ardent wish, and shall ever be the fervent and earnest prayer, of your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and faithful subjects.

Given under our common seal, this 6th day of September 1837. Geo. Harman, Mayor.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester, respectfully approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon your accession to the Throne.

We cannot reflect upon the many gracious and patriotic virtues of the Sovereign who has lately departed from amongst us, without condoling with your Majesty upon the loss which the whole nation has sustained by his demise; but, looking to the youthful promise and the benevolent declarations of your Majesty, we are consoled with the prospect of a long and happy reign, in which, under the gentle sway and the bright example of your Majesty, "peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety," shall be established throughout the land.

Educated, as your Majesty has been, by the care of a pious Parent, in the bosom of the Established Church, familiar with its doctrines and its ordinances, we need not commend its welfare to your affection or support; but, deeply penetrated as we are with the belief, that the best security for the temporal as well as eternal interests of your people, is the earnest cultivation of that enlightened form of Christianity which the Fathers of the English Church have bequeathed to us, we beg leave to assure your Majesty of our cordial co-operation in this holy work, not only by a diligent discharge in our several stations of the duties entrusted to our care, but also by a constant exercise of a kind and charitable spirit towards all classes of our fellow-subjects; a course which we are confident will be as agreeable to your Majesty as it is conformable to the Gospel we are bound to teach.

Finally, as the Ministers of that Almighty Being, "by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice," we desire to offer up our prayers at the Throne of Grace, that the counsels of your Majesty, directed, as they will be, to the honour of God and the happiness of your people, may be ever brought to a favourable issue; and that when at last, full of years, and full of honours, your Majesty shall be gathered to your fathers, you may depart amidst the prayers and blessings of your people, to a "Crown of Glory that fadeth not away."

To the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the united Dioceses of Waterford and Lismore, beg leave to offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the nation has sustained, by the death of our most gracious Monarch.

We at the same time entreat your Majesty to accept our cordial congratulation on your succession to the Throne of these realms, and to receive our humble assurances, that, in the discharge of our sacred office, it shall be our unceasing and anxious care to inculcate on our flocks those important duties which they owe to their God and to their Sovereign.

We would most dutifully tender our unfeigned expression of loyal and devoted attachment to your Royal Person, and humbly implore that Being by whom Kings reign that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, blessed of God, and a blessing to the people committed to your charge.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the United Dioceses of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the United Dioceses of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, assembled in Annual Visitation, beg leave most humbly to offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the nation have sustained, by the death of our late lamented Sovereign.

We, at the same time, entreat your Majesty to accept our most cordial congratulation on your Accession to the Sovereignty of this powerful empire. We hail it as the source of manifold eventful blessings, which we humbly pray the King of Kings may enable your Majesty to diffuse over every portion of your dominions.

As the appointed Guardians of the Protestant Faith in this United Diocese, now assembled for clerical objects, we do not consider it within our sphere, on this occasion, to advert to any arrangements merely political, we venture however to assure your Majesty, that in the discharge of our sacred office, it shall be our anxious care to inculcate on all whom our influence can direct, the importance of the duties which they owe to their God, to your Majesty, and to the maintenance of the true religion established amongst us.

We have observed, with gratified feelings, your Majesty's Royal declaration, "that it will be your unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion as by law established;" and we beg to join in the universal expression of loyal and devoted attachment to your Royal Person, and to offer to Almighty God our earnest prayer, that, under the Divine favour, your Majesty may long live to grace the Throne of your Ancestors, and to maintain, by a wise and vigorous Government, its eminence, dignity, and power.

In the name, and at the request of the Clergy,
Samuel, Cork, Cloyne, and Ross.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA ALEXANDRINA, by the Grace of God, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Congregation assembling for Religious Worship in New-street Chapel, Penryn, usually known by the name Independents.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, approach your Majesty to offer our sincere expressions of condolence on the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign, William the Fourth, a Prince whose memory will be always cherished by his subjects for the kindness of his disposition, and his undeviating regard to their welfare and interests.

But while we present this testimony of our condolence, we hail with feelings of gratitude and delight your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these realms, prepared, as your Majesty has been by your Royal Mother, in the great principles of piety and virtue.

We will not cease to supplicate the Throne of Grace, that the choicest blessings may continually rest on your Majesty. And that as the Throne is best established by righteousness, the Great Disposer of all Events may direct your Majesty, and the Lords of the Council, to devise and pursue such measures as shall tend to the advancement of His glory, the good of His church, and the happiness and prosperity of your Majesty, and the subjects of this highly favoured and happy country, over which your Majesty has been called, by Divine Providence, to reign.

May the Almighty continually bless your Majesty with personal health and comfort. May you enjoy all the blessings of our Divine and Holy Religion, and after a long and prosperous reign, may your Majesty at length, through the merits and atonement of our blessed Lord and Saviour, be received into the kingdom of Eternal Glory, and thus exchange a temporal for an eternal Crown.

No. 7.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Corporation of the London Assurance, beg leave to express to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, who was endeared to the nation by his distinguished constitutional virtues.

We reflect with great satisfaction on the many advantages experienced by the country while under his sway, and the maintenance, through his influence, of a solid peace.

We beg leave to offer to your Majesty our congratulation on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and rely on your Majesty's gracious solicitude to promote the welfare of your subjects by the encouragement of religion and virtue.

We are assured that your Majesty's attention will be directed to the advancement of commerce, and the preservation of the public tranquillity.

And we earnestly pray, that your Majesty may reign long and prosperously over a loyal and happy people.

Explanatory Notice respecting the Registration and Marriage Acts.

[6 & 7 Gulielmi IV. c. 85 & 86, & 1 Victoriae, c. 22.]

THESE Acts do not interfere with the religious ceremonies of the Church of England. Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages may be solemnized as before.

The Registration of Births and Deaths is intended equally for persons of all religious persuasions; and all are equally bound to attend to it.

The object of the new Registration Act is, to provide an authorized legal Register of Births, and an authorized legal Register of Deaths, neither of which existed before.

The Church Registers are Registers of Baptisms and not of Births; of Burials and not of Deaths. The Church Register of Baptism, as provided by law, has no column for Births: it is only a record of the performance of Baptism, a sacred rite, which no parent who is of the Church of England, or who believes in its efficacy, ought to neglect; and which sometimes does not take place till many Years after the Birth. The Register of Burials is only a record of the burial, which sometimes does not take place till several Weeks after the Death. It is therefore plain that the Church Registers of Baptisms and Burials could not, even for Members of the Established Church, furnish evidence of the date of a Birth or Death; and that with respect to all those who were not baptized or buried according to the forms of the Established Church, they furnished no evidence at all.

The new Registration Act supplies these deficiencies. It provides Registers of Births and of Deaths which record the date of each and also the place, with such other circumstances as may serve to identify the person registered; and these Registers, or certified copies of them, will be legal evidence of a Birth or Death, in any Court of Law or Equity.

The Registration and Marriage Acts also lessen the difficulty and expense of obtaining a copy of an entry in a Register. The new Register Books of Births, of Deaths, and of Marriages, both of the Established Church and others, will be kept, when filled; in the Superintendent Registrar's Office; and certified copies will be sent every quarter of a year to the General Register Office in London. Thus, instead of its being necessary, when the Parish is not known, to go to many Churches or Chapels to search in the Registers of Baptisms, Burials, or Marriages of each Parish, it will be sufficient to go to the Su*perintendent Registrar's Office*, which will contain the Registers of Births, Deaths, and Marriages for a whole District, some of which Districts comprise more than fifty Parishes. If even the District is unknown, parties may apply, or cause others to apply for them, at the General Register Office in London, where, on demand, and on payment of 3s. 6d., any person may obtain a copy of the entry of any Birth, Death, or Marriage registered in any part of England or Wales, which copy, being stamped with the seal of the Office, will be "received as evidence of the Birth, Death, or Marriage to which the same relates, without any further or other proof of such entry."

It is useful to all persons, and to some it is of great importance, to be able to prove their age, which, together with the place of birth, may be proved from this time forward, by means of the Register of Births. In addition to the obvious uses of such a Register for proof of pedigree, and for other legal purposes connected with the disposition of property, it is of utility for Life Insurance, Friendly or Benefit Societies, and to the poorer classes for Apprenticeship, employment in Factories, and on all other occasions when a proof of age may be required. Parents, therefore, should secure for their children the advantage of having their births registered by the Registrar of the District in which they are born.

It is of great importance to many persons to be able to obtain legal evidence of the date of a Death. The establishment of the right to a Legacy sometimes depends upon this proof, which from this time forward may be obtained easily, whenever the Death has been duly registered.

BIRTHS.

The Birth of any child born after June 1837, may be registered by the Registrar of the District in which the child was born, within six weeks after the birth, without any payment being required. After six weeks, and within six months, the expense of registering will be 7s. 6d. After six months, the Birth cannot be registered at all.

It is advisable that parents causing the births of their children to be registered before baptism, should state to the Registrar the name by which they intend they shall be called, which will save the trouble and expense of having the baptismal name inserted in the Register afterwards. When a child is baptized before registration of birth, it is not necessary to obtain a certificate of Baptism, and to shew it to the Registrar. A certificate is requisite only when the child is baptized after registration of Birth, and the parties, having previously stated no name, or a different one, wish to go a second time to the Registrar to have the baptismal name inserted.

DEATHS.

Every Death after June 1837, may be registered at any time, by the Registrar of the District in which it took place, without any payment being required. It ought, if possible, to be registered before burial; and a certificate of registry should be obtained from the Registrar (who is bound to give it without payment), and given to the Minister officiating at the funeral, who, if this is not done, will, for so officiating, be liable to a fine, unless within seven days he gives notice to the Registrar.

Persons bringing a corpse, without certificate of registry, for interment at a distance from the place where the Death occurred, should inform the Minister of the name and address of the Registrar of the District in which that place is situated; and persons who are without other means of ascertaining the name and address of the Registrar of any District, may do so by application by letter to "the Registrar General, General Register Office, London," communicating the name of the parish; in reply to which, the name and address of the Registrar for that parish (if there is only one Registrar) will be sent by letter, free of postage, by the general post.

N.B.—All persons may give notice to a Registrar, either by word or writing, of any Birth or Death within his District; and it is desirable that whosoever has an opportunity should do so.

By Sections 20 and 25 of the Registration Act (6 and 7 Wm. IV., c. 86), it is provided, that certain persons "shall" within stated periods "give information," respecting a Birth or Death, to the Registrar, according to the best of their knowledge and belief, "upon being requested so to do." The Registrar will tell them what kind of information is required. The informant must sign the Register, without which the information will be incomplete, and the entry not valid; and a refusal to sign, will be equivalent to a refusal to inform. For refusal to give information, the Registration Act does not impose a special penalty; but all persons should know that it is an established rule of Law "That if a Statute enjoin an act to be done, without pointing out any mode of punishment, an indictment will lie for disobeying the injunction of the Legislature."

MARRIAGES.

Persons may be married as before, according to the rites of the Church of England, by Licence, by Special Licence, or after publication of Banns. Persons may also be married according to the rites of the Church of England, without publication of Banns, on production of a Superintendent Registrar's Certificate.

Persons may also be married otherwise than according to the rites of the Church of England, in a registered Place of Worship, or at the Superintendent Registrar's Office, on production of a Superintendent Registrar's Licence, or Certificate. A Marriage by Licence may be solemnized fourteen days sooner than by Certificate. All requisite information respecting the steps to be taken for obtaining a Certificate or Licence, will be given, on application, by the Superintendent Registrar of the District.

General Register Office, September, 1837.

Extracts from the Report of the Select Committee on Parochial Registration, printed by order of the House of Commons, August 15th, 1833.

Previous state of the Law with respect to Registration.

"After the Revolution, and in the reign of William III., several Acts were passed to enforce, not a registry of Baptisms but of Births, and also of Marriages and Burials, as a source of revenue to the State; for by an Act 6 and 7 Will. III., c. 6 (1694), an Act granting His Majesty certain Rates and Duties on Marriages, Births, and Burials, the clergy were compelled, under a penalty of £100 for neglect, to take an exact and true account, and keep a register of all persons married, buried, christened, or born in their respective parishes, and the collectors and all persons concerned, were to have free access to them without fee or reward. Under this Act, it will be perceived that the clergy were compelled to act gratuitously as civil officers, and to collect information of the births of all children born within their parishes, to whatever religious denomination the parent might belong, and quite irrespective of any baptismal rite performed by them, or by any minister dissenting from their church. This duty having been found too onerous, and information as to births being unattainable by clergymen, since the parents by concealment eluded payment of the tax, the Act 7 and 8 Will. III., c. 35 (1695), provided that the parents of every child should, within five days after birth, give notice to the clergyman of the day of the birth of such child, under a penalty of 40s.; and the clergyman should, under a like penalty, take an account of and keep a distinct register of every child born and not christened, for doing which the parents were to pay 6d. to him. Ultimately this tax was discontinued; but in 1783 (23 Geo. III., c. 67) a stamp duty of 3d. was imposed on every entry of burials, marriages, births, or christenings, to be demanded by each clergyman from the undertaker, or parties married, or the parents of a child whose birth or christening was registered; and by the 25 Geo. III., c. 75, the Act was extended to Dissenting ministers, whose registrations of births, or baptisms, or burials, were so recognized by law. In 1794, however, this Act was also repealed, and at present (1833) the parochial Registries for baptisms and burials are regulated by the Act 52 Geo. III., c. 146, passed in 1812. On this extraordinary statute, the whole system of parochial registration at present depends; and that it is extraordinary, will appear, if reference be made to the title, which includes a register of Births, for which no provision was framed, and which cannot legally be kept; to the clauses directing the labours of receiving, and arranging, and indexing all the copies of Registers, and making reports to the Bishops by the Diocesan Registrars, for which no compensation is awarded; and to the clause for appropriating penalties which are not imposed, and of which the only one directed is transportation."

"Connected with the Statute Law are cases which should not be unknown. Those cases have decided, 1st, That entries of Births made by clergymen on the representation of parents in Registers of Baptisms, are not evidence of Birth, and that, as evidence the entries cannot be read. 2nd, That entries in Register Books occasionally made up from memoranda, and from day or rough books, used in many parishes, cannot be received in evidence."

With respect to the existing system of Parochial Registration, the Committee state:—

"That even as to the Members of the Church, it is detrimental and absurd, since the Registers are mere Registers of Baptisms and not of Births, of Burials and not of Deaths,—since they supply no adequate proofs of pedigree, or means of proving or tracing ancestral descent—since they are often falsified, stolen, burnt, inaccurately inscribed, and carelessly preserved—since the securities intended to be given by the last General Register Act (52 Geo. III.) by directing the yearly and universal transcription of the Registers, their deposit with the diocesan records, and the preparation of indexes to facilitate searches, have all experienced only a most limited fulfilment; as while one-fourth of the parishes make no return the returns that have been sent are never indexed, and are subject to fire and decay; and the directions of the Act have not been and cannot be enforced,—and since the value of property is diminished by the difficulties incident to its transfer, and the insecurity with which it is so often held and acquired."

Church Commissioners' Office,
September 23, 1837.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for assigning an ecclesiastical district, under the 21st section of the 58th Geo. 3, cap. 45, to the Chapel of St. John the Baptist, Toxteth-park, in the parish of Walton-on-the-hill, in the county of Lancaster:

At the Court at St. James's, on the 12th day of July 1837, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of tithes, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and, by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His late Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Walton-on-the-hill, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 46,684 persons; that there are, besides the parish church of Walton-on-the-hill, which affords accommodation for 1300 persons, fourteen chapels in the said parish, which, together afford accommodation for 14,895 persons; that the said Commissioners have caused one of the said Chapels, called St. John the Baptist's Chapel, Toxteth-park, to be erected in the township of Toxteth-park, which affords accommodation for 1800 persons, including 800 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His late Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said districts, and for enabling the spiritual persons serving such chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said districts, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein, and that one of such districts should be named, the district of St. John the Baptist, Toxteth-park, with boundaries as follows:

This district is bounded on the north, east, and southern sides by the township of Toxteth-park, and on the western side by the River Mersey. It is defined by a boundary line running from Sefton-street, along the centre of Warwick-street, upon Warwick-street, and a proposed continuation thereof, until it meets a proposed continuation of Low Park-street; from thence, on the north eastern side, along the centre of the said Low Park-street until it meets Tan-yard-lane; at an angle from thence, along the centre of the said lane, to Lodge-lane; and from thence, on the eastern side, along the centre of Lodge lane, in a southerly direction, until the same is met by Hullert-lane; from thence, on the south eastern side, along the centre of the said lane, in a westerly direction, until the same is met by Dingle-lane; and from thence, along the centre of the said lane, in a direct line to the low water mark of the River Mersey, and, on the western side, by the said low water mark until it meets with a line in direct continuation in the centre of Warwick-street, at Sefton street aforesaid, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured buff.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of His Majesty King George the Third, and in testimony thereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His late Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His late Majesty should seem meet:

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

KYAN'S PATENTS FOR THE PREVENTION OF DRY ROT.

"Inventions of John Howard Kyan, formerly of South-row, Euston-square, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Ailsa-park Cottage, Twickenham, in the said county of Middlesex, Esq. of 'A new mode of preserving certain Vegetable Substances from decay,' and of 'An improved mode of preserving Paper, Canvass, Cloth, and Cordage for Ships and other uses, and the raw materials of Hemp, Flax, or Cotton from which the same may wholly or in part be made,' which said two several Inventions are commonly known by the name of Kyan's Patents."

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for prolonging to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of years, to be limited, the sole benefit and advantage of the said inventions of "a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay," and of "an improved mode of preserving paper, canvass, cloth, and cordage for ships and other uses, and the raw materials of hemp, flax, or cotton, from which the same may wholly or in part be made;" the sole benefit and advantage, of which said firstly mentioned invention of "a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, was, by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 31st day of March 1832, granted by His late Majesty King William the Fourth to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent; and the sole benefit and advantage of which said firstly mentioned invention of "a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, was, by letters patent, bearing date the 1st day of August 1832, under the seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be used instead of the great seal of Scotland, granted by His said late Majesty King William the Fourth to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the date hereof; and the sole benefit and advantage of which said firstly mentioned invention of "a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, was, by letters patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, bearing date the 5th day of November 1832, granted by His said late Majesty King William the Fourth to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the date thereof; and the sole benefit and advantage of which said firstly mentioned invention of "a new mode of preserving certain vegetable substances from decay," within all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, was, by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 11th day of February 1836, granted by His said late Majesty King William the Fourth to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the date thereof; and the sole benefit and advantage of which said secondly mentioned invention of the said John Howard Kyan, of "an improved mode of preserving paper, canvass, cloth, and cordage, for ships and other uses, and the raw materials of hemp, flax, or cotton, from which the same may wholly or in part be made," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon Tweed, and also in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, was, by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 22d day of September 1832, granted by His said late Majesty King William the Fourth to the said John Howard Kyan, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the date thereof; and also for repealing, altering, amending or enlarging the provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth intituled "An Act to enable John Howard Kyan to assign to a Company certain letters patent," or some of them.

Hall, Thompson, and Sewell, Salter's-hall, London.

18th September 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway or railways, tramroad or tramroads, to be called the Cwm Garw Railway, to commence at or near Brach y Cymmer, in the parish of Llangeinor, in the county of Glamorgan, and to terminate at the Duffryn Llynfi and Porth Cawf Railway, near Pentwyn Bayden, in the parish of Llangonoyd, in the same county; and which said railway or tramroad will pass from, through, and into the several parishes, townships, tythings, hamlets, or places of Llangeinor Braich y Cymmer, otherwise Brach Cymmer, Bettws, Cwm Du, Saint Bride's Mindn, and Llangonoyd, all in the said county of Glamorgan; and to make and maintain all necessary bridges, culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, buildings, stations, wharfs, depôts, warehouses, roads, and other works material and necessary to the said railway or tramroad, for the more complete use and enjoyment of the same.

And it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill, to authorise the taking of such tolls, fares, dues, rates, rents, and sums of money, as shall be mentioned in the said Bill or Bills; and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises within the said several parishes, townships, tythings, hamlets, or places before mentioned and described for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, to deviate from the said line of the said intended railway or tramroad, for the making of which powers are so intended to be applied for as aforesaid, as the same will be defined in the said intended application to Parliament, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line or lines as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Bill or Bills, as the same will be defined in such application to Parliament, to divert or alter all such road or roads as shall be necessary to be diverted or altered in the construction or formation of such railway or tramroad; and that it is intended to abandon or relinquish so much of the present rivers, canals, streams, or running waters, as shall be rendered unnecessary or useless by reason of such diversion or diversions as aforesaid, or any of them.

And notice is hereby given, that a plan and section of certain alterations intended to be made in the plan of the said line of railway, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Glamorgan, in pursuance of the first notices given of the said intended railway, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace, and a plan and section, so far as relates to each parish, together with the book of reference thereto, with the Parish Clerks of the respective parishes traversed by the said line of railway, on or before the 30th day of November now next ensuing.—Dated this 16th day of September 1837.

Wm. Andrews, Solicitor for the Bill.
