FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1837.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of September 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for further proroguing the Parliament, from Monday the second day of October next to Wednesday the fifteenth day of November next.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Monday the second day of October next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said second day of October next, to Wednesday the fifteenth day of November next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifteenth day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fifteenth day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this twentieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 29, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, in Common Hall assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our deep felt condolence on the demise of His late Majesty, whose virtues endeared him not less to your Majesty than to the nation at large; at the same time we beg to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon your Accession to the Throne of these realms, and the more especially so, that such an event has taken place in a time of profound and universal peace.

We hope and trust that a period so auspicious will long continue to your Majesty, and that in the tender which we hereby make of our dutiful homage to your august Personage, we are but expressing the universal feeling of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, and their, as well as our own, attachment to that constitution over which it has pleased Almighty God that your Majesty should reign.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over them, in health and happiness, is the sincere wish and prayer of your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

Given under our common seal, this 11th day of August 1837.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Deputies of the British Jews, venture to approach your Majesty's Throne, in the name and on the behalf of our brethren and ourselves, to lay at your Majesty's feet the homage of our loyalty and devotion.

We beg humbly, but confidently, to assure your Majesty, that, among all the classes of your Majesty's subjects, none are actuated by a purer and more ardent affection to your Majesty's Royal Person, a deeper veneration of the British Constitution, nor a more profound reverence and submission to the Laws of the realm, than the British Jews.

The death of His late Majesty has filled us with deep affliction; his mild and benignant reign, and the example he exhibited of all those qualities that exalt a Monarch, will never be obliterated from our hearts; but our grief is assuaged by the accession of a Princess whose virtues add lustre to her Crown, and who, on the moment of her ascending the Throne, has given utterance to sentiments that must be responded to by every British bosom.

That your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy, that you may continue to live many years in the hearts and affections of your subjects, and that this great and glorious country may flourish under your mild and beneficent sway, is our sincere and fervent prayer to the Giver of all Good.

Moses Montefiore, President.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Medical Officers, and Governors of the Kent Dispensary in General Meeting assembled, beg permission most humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to express our feelings of devoted attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's Royal Person.

In presuming to lay before your Majesty the claims of the Kent Dispensary to your royal patronage and bounty, we trust we may be allowed to mention, with feelings of the deepest gratitude, that for many years it was honoured with the patronage of your Majesty's August Father, His Royal Highness the late lamented Duke of Kent, whose personal attendance at its public meetings, and Princely donations to its funds, contributed greatly towards rendering it one of the most efficient charities in the neighbourhood of the metropolis.

Since His Royal Highness's lamented decease, the charity has been honoured with the gracious patronage and support of your Illustrious Mother, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

The objects of the charity are to afford gratuitous medical assistance and relief to the sick poor residing in the densely populated towns of Deptford, Greenwich, Lewisham, Eltham, and Woolwich, with their dependencies of Blackheath, Charlton, Kidbrook, and Lee, in Kent, and in Camberwell, and the lower parts of Rotherhithe, in Surrey, and to the providing proper and gratuitous medical and surgical assistance to poor married women, residing in those districts, at their delivery and during their confinement.

The medical department consists of one physician and thirteen surgeons, all of whom give their services gratuitously; and, since the establishment of the charity in 1783, nearly 150,000 persons have been admitted and received relief, and there are now 360 patients under cure.

The resources are derived solely from voluntary subscriptions and benefactions, but, owing to the daily increasing claims that are pouring in for relief, they are found very inadequate to support the expenditure, and the Committee of Management are thereby prevented from carrying out the benevolent intentions of the Founders to their full extent.

Such, may it please your Majesty, are the facts relative to the present condition and resources of the Kent Dispensary; and His Grace the Duke of Wellington having, at the last Anniversary Meeting, signified your Majesty's most gracious pleasure to become the Patroness of the charity, we have humbly ventured to approach your Majesty, to return our grateful and dutiful thanks for your Majesty's condescension in so doing, and to solicit, that your Majesty will be further graciously pleased to continue to the charity your royal favour and protection, and also permit it hereafter to be called "The Royal Kent Dispensary."

And we will most humbly and fervently pray that Almighty God may bless your Majesty with a long, prosperous, and peaceful reign, with the increasing loyalty and affection of your subjects, and that your Majesty's name, associated with recollections of every thing enlightened and charitable, may descend in grateful remembrance to the latest posterity.

Signed, on behalf and by order of the General Meeting,
H. Legge, Chairman.

Kent Dispensary, August 14, 1837.

No. 4.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Honorary President, President, Council, and Fellows of the Entomological Society of London, beg leave, with all humility, to express to your Majesty our deep sense of the loss this kingdom has sustained, by the removal from this world of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, King William the Fourth, under whose paternal reign we have enjoyed so many blessings.

But, at the same time that we condole with your Majesty on the loss which the nation, in common with yourself, has sustained, we entreat permission to offer to your Majesty our most hearty congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and pray earnestly that, by the Divine blessing, your Majesty's reign over an affectionate people may be long, prosperous, and happy.

We beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that the science which we cultivate, though it relates to some of the smallest members of the animal kingdom, is inferior to none in the proofs which it affords of the power, wisdom, and goodness of the Almighty Creator; therefore, we humbly entreat that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to continue to the Entomological Society that patronage and favour with which you were pleased to honour it before your Accession to the Throne.

Wm. Kirby, Honorary President.

No. 5.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Inveraray, at a Special Meeting called for the purpose, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty, to express our sincere condolence on the occasion of the demise of our lamented Sovereign King William the Fourth, whose memory will long remain revered by all his subjects.

We beg leave to offer your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, in the full confidence that we, and your other loyal subjects, shall continue to enjoy the blessings and benefits of these invaluable institutions, under which the kingdom has attained a degree of prosperity and happiness unexampled in the history of nations.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign over a free and happy people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful subjects and servants.

Signed, in the presence of and by authority of the Magistrates and Council, by Peter Campbell, Provost of Inveraray.

No. 6.

Unto Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Caithness, met in Presbytery, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our congratulations on your Majesty's ascending the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, under whose mild and paternal sway we and our forefathers have enjoyed the invaluable blessings of civil and religious liberty.

Your Majesty's determination, expressed on ascending the Throne, to maintain the Protestant religion as established by law in your Majesty's dominions, and to preserve to all classes of your subjects the full enjoyment of all their rights and privileges, has filled us with the liveliest gratitude and the most unfeigned satisfaction.

That God Almighty may ever encompass your Majesty with His favour, may direct your Majesty's Counsels, and, after a long and happy and prosperous reign over a free and loyal and religious people, may, through the merits of our Lord and Saviour, bestow upon your Majesty a crown of glory that fadeth not away, are the earnest prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Caithness.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, this 6th day of September 1837, by Finlay Cook, Moderator.

SUNDAY TOLL BONDS.

Sewers'-Office, Guildhall, September 26, 1837.

THE Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and liberties thereof, having resolved to redeem or pay off the bonds or instruments charged on the credit of the Sunday Tolls, so far as the sum of £3070 will extend, they have this day (in order to make all the holders of the said bonds or instruments creditors in equal degree, without preference in any respect whatever) decided, by way of lottery, that the following of the said bonds or instruments should be so paid off or redeemed, viz.

Nos. 20, 38, 5, 130, 74, 53, 160, 36, 163,
185, 206, 119, 64, 214, 164, 37, 213, 71,
109, 114, 176, 73, 151, 146, 161, 154, 89,
80, 155, 153.

And the said Commissioners do hereby give notice, that the holders of the said bonds or instruments, numbered as above, may receive the several sums first advanced thereon respectively, at the Chamberlain's Office, Guildhall, on or before the 25th day of March next, together with all the interest that shall be due upon the same respectively up to the quarter day prior to the same being paid off; provided, that in no case will interest be paid upon any of the said bonds after the said 25th day of March next.

Joseph Daw, jun. Principal Clerk.

TOLLS TO LET.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tolls payable at the Toll-gates near the Angel Inn, in Strood, and on the New Road leading from Rochester to Chatham-hill, in the county of Kent, will separately be let to farm to the best bidders, for the term of two years from the 30th day of November 1837, at the King's Head Inn, in Rochester aforesaid, on Monday the 30th day of October next, between the hours of eleven in the forenoon and one in the afternoon.

No person will be permitted to advance less than £5 at each bidding, and whoever happens to be the best bidder must at the same time give security, with sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the said Toll-gates, for payment of the rents agreed for by quarterly payments in advance. The highest bidders will be required to pay, at the time of the letting, one half part of the first quarter of a year's rent, and the remainder before the said 30th day of November. The present yearly rent of the tolls at Strood is £1320; and of the tolls at the New Road Gate, £46.

For further information enquire at the Office of Messrs. Twopeny and Essell, Solicitors, College-green, Rochester.

By order of the Commissioners,
Edward Twopeny, Clerk.

Rochester, September 23, 1837.
