NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually making and repairing the roads between Newton Abbot, Brixham, Kingsweare, and Dartmouth, Shaldon and Torquay, also between Torquay and Saint Mary Church, and the bridge to be built over the river Teign at Shaldon, and for making and improving several other roads communicating therewith, all in the county of Devon," which said several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Woolborough, Abbotskerswell, Coombeinteignhead, Stokeinteignhead, Haccombe, Saint Nicholas, Coffinswell, Kingskerswell, Saint Mary Church, Tormoham, Cockington, Paignton, Stoke Gabriel, Brixham, Kingsweare, and Churstonferrers, in the county of Devon, or some of them. And it is intended, in the said Act, to take powers for making and maintaining a new line or branch of road, to commence at or near Keyberry turnpike-gate, and thence through or by Buckland, the river Teign, and Coombe Cellars, and to terminate in the present turnpike road at or near Archbrook, in the said parishes of Woolborough, Haccombe, Coombeinteignhead, and Stokeinteignhead, or some or one of them: also another new line or branch of road from Archbrook aforesaid, through or near the villages of Stokeinteignhead and Gabwell, and to terminate in the present turnpike road at or near Bawden Head, in the said parishes of Stokeinteignhead and Coombeinteignhead, or one of them: also another new line or branch of road to branch out of and terminate in the present turnpike road at or near Aller Farm, through certain parts of the said farm, in the said parish of Abbotskerswell: also another new line or branch of road to commence in the present turnpike road, on the north side of the village of Kingskerswell, and thence through the said village, and to terminate in the present turnpike road, on the south side of the said village, and in the said parish of Kingskerswell: also another new line or branch of road to commence at or in Torquay, and thence through, by, or near to the sea, Waldon Hill, and Torabbey Sands, and to terminate in the present turnpike road at or near Lavermead, in the said parishes of Tormoham and Cockington: also another new line or branch of road to commence at or near Preston turnpike-gate, and thence through, by, or near to Preston Brook, the Gerstous, the south side of the village of Paignton and Goodrington, and to terminate at the present turnpike, at or near Galmpton Warborough, in the said parishes of Paignton, Stoke Gabriel, and Churston Ferrers, or some or one of them: also two other new lines or branches of road to commence or branch out of the said last mentioned intended new line or branch of road, the one at or near to the vicarage garden, and to terminate at or near to the Crown and Anchor Inn, in the village of Paignton; and the other at or near the Gerstous aforesaid, and to terminate in the present turnpike road at the west end of the village of Paignton, and in the said parish of Paignton: also another new line or branch of road to commence at or near Galmpton Warborough, and thence through, by, or near the village of Galmpton, Higher Greenaway Farm-house, and Longwood, and to terminate at or near the Floating Bridge, on the east side of the river Dart, in the said parishes of Churston Ferrers, Brixham, Stoke Gabriel, and Kingsweare, or some or one of them: also two other new lines or branches of road to commence or branch out of the said last-mentioned intended new line or branch of road at or near the village of Galmpton, the one to terminate in the present turnpike road leading from Galmpton Warborough to Brixham, near the village of Churston; and the other through or near Lower Greenaway Farm, and to terminate at or near Greenaway, otherwise Dittisham Ferry, on the east side of the river Dart, situate in the said parishes of Brixham, Churston Ferrers, and Stoke Gabriel, or some or one of them: also another new line or branch of road to commence in the present turnpike road at or near Pyeniley Hill, and thence by Batterway's Bridge, and to terminate in the present turnpike road at or near Yarberton Tor, in the said parishes of Paignton and Stoke Gabriel, or one of them: also another new line or branch of road to commence in or near Longwood aforesaid, and to terminate on the east side of the river Dart, at or near Mapool, in the said parish of Churston Ferrers: also another new line or branch of road, to commence at or near the Floating Bridge aforesaid, thence on or near to the east side of the River Dart, and to terminate at or near Kingsweare, in the said parishes of Churston Ferrers, Brixham, and Kingsweare: also another new line or branch of road to commence at or near a certain house, called or known by the name of the Ship in Dock, in or near the town of Dartmouth, and thence across, through, or by the Coombe Mud, or Beach Coombe Wood, and Old Mill Bay, to or near to the village of Dittisham, and thence to Hemmer Forches, and to terminate in the present turnpike road leading from Dartmouth to Totnes, in the parishes of Townstall, Dittisham, and Blackawton, in the said county of Devon, or some or one of them. And it is also intended in the said Act to take power to erect, set up, or establish and maintain a bridge, or other means of communication, across the River Dart, in the said parishes of Churston Ferrers, Kingsweare, and Dittisham, or some of them. In which Act provision is intended to be made for taking tolls on the said roads and bridge, and also for altering or increasing the tolls authorised to be taken in and by the said recited Act. And notice is hereby given, that the plans, sections, and books of reference of the said roads, new lines or branches, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Devon, at the Castle of Exeter, on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, 1837.—Dated the 2d day of October 1837.

Clerks to the Trustees of the Dartmouth and

In the Affairs of Charles William Robert Speechly.

THIS is to give notice, that by indenture, dated the 27th day of September 1837, Charles William Robert Speechly, of the city of Peterborough, Corn-Merchant, hath assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever unto John Miller, of the said city of Peterborough, Merchant, as trustee, for the equal benefit of the creditors of the said Charles William Robert Speechly who shall execute the said deed within three calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said indenture was executed by the said Charles William Robert Speechly and the said John Miller, respectively, on the day of the date thereof; and that the execution thereof is attested by John Broughton, of the said city of Peterborough, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture now lies at my office, for the inspection and execution of the creditors of the said Charles William Robert Speechly; and that all persons indebted to the said Charles William Robert Speechly, or have any of his effects, are required to discharge their debts and deliver their effects to the said John Miller immediately, or proceedings will be instituted against them.

By order,

JOHN BROUGHTON, Solicitor to the Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel, of Ratcliffe-highway, in the county of Middlesex, Paper-Stainers, have by an indenture, bearing date the 5th day of September 1837, assigned and transferred unto Henry Noel Turner, of Elizabeth-street, Pimlico, in the said county of Middlesex, all and singular their stock in trade, fixtures, goods, book and other debts, bonds, bills, and securities for moneys, and all other their estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, belonging, due, or owing to them (the wearing apparel of themselves, and their respective families, only excepted), in trust, for himself and Philemon Haylies-Williams, of Elizabeth-street aforesaid, Paper-Stainer, his partner, creditors of the said Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel, and all other the creditors of the said Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel who shall execute the said indenture of assignment; which said indenture was duly executed by the said Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel in the presence of, and attested by, Henry William Bull, of No. 25, Ely-place, in the county of Middlesex, Solicitor, and of William John Hammond, of the same place, clerk to the said Henry William Bull; and by the said Henry Noel Turner on the 6th day of the said month of September, in the presence of, and attested by, the said Henry William Bull; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture now lies at the office of the said Henry William Bull, at No. 25, Ely-place aforesaid, for the execution of the creditors of the said Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel; and that all such creditors who shall refuse or neglect to execute the same, within the space of two months from the said 5th day of September, will be excluded from all benefit to be had and derived from the trusts of the said indenture; and all persons who now stand indebted to the estate of the said Thomas Bott Burford and George Christel, are desired to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Henry William Bull without delay.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Goy and William Sharp, of Farnham-road-wharf, in the county of Hants, Coal Merchants and Barge-owners, and Partners, have by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 11th day of September 1837, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred, and set over unto James Sharp, of Barking, in the county of Essex, Miller, all and singular their stock in trade, barges, and other craft, corn, goods, wares, and merchandise, and all other their estate and effects whatsoever, in trust, for the benefit of the said James Sharp and all other the creditors of the said William Goy and William Sharp, in manner therein mentioned; and which said indenture of assignment was executed by the said William Goy and William Sharp on the said 11th day of September instant, and by the said James Sharp on the 20th day of September aforesaid, in the presence of, and is attested by, John Kirkman, of King William-street, London, Solicitor, and John Kirkman, jun. his clerk; and notice is hereby given, that the said assignment lies for the inspection of, and execution by, such creditors as may wish to avail themselves of the benefit thereof, at my office, No. 71, in King William-street, in the city of London.—Dated the 2d day of October 1837.

JOHN KIRKMAN, Solicitor to the said James Sharp.

Bankrupt's Freehold and Leasehold Estates.

TO be sold by auction, free from auction duty, by Mr. T. N. Bardwell, at his Sale-rooms, in High-street, in Sheffield, on Tuesday the 24th day of October 1837, at three o'clock in the afternoon, subject to the conditions of sale to be then produced, by order of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a fiat in bankruptcy against John Stevenson, of Sheffield aforesaid, Furniture-Broker, Dealer and Chapman;

Lot 1. A leasehold plot of ground, situate near Leavy Greave, and fronting the Glossop-road, about three quarters of a mile from the parish church of Sheffield, and containing 483 superficial square yards, or thereabouts, held under a lease granted by the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of Sheffield, for the term of ninety-nine years, from 25th December 1824, at a ground rent of £5 0s. 7d. per annum, and the very commodious messuage and out-buildings erected thereon, lately occupied by the said bankrupt, forming a most compact, salubrious, and pleasant country residence.

Lot 2. A newly erected freehold dwelling-house, at Coal Aston, in the parish of Dronfield, and county of Derby, and the garden adjoining thereto, now in the occupation of Mr. Geo. Stevenson; the site of the premises was formerly called the Crab Tree Meadow, and contains one rood and six perches, or thereabouts.

Lot 3. A close of freehold land, situate at Coal Aston aforesaid (late part of Coal Aston-common), now held by Mr. Abraham Stevenson, containing 2A. 2R. 18P. more or less.

The tenants of the respective lots will shew the same; and for further particulars apply to the Auctioneer, or to Mr. John Watson, of Sheffield, Solicitor; or to Mr. Benjamin Burbeary, of the same place, Solicitor to the Assignees.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Noyes, of Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 24th day of October instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the New-hall, in Chippenham aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting a certain proposal for purchase of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, and agreeing to the sale of the same accordingly; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said assignees of certain costs and expences incurred in preparing, executing, and carrying into execution a certain deed of assignment by the said bankrupt, for the benefit of his creditors, or of any and what portion thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who shall have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Daniel Daykene and Thomas Wanklyn, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and of Gradbach, in the county of Stafford, Flax-Spinners, Dealers and Chapman, carrying on business in partnership, under the firm of Daniel Daykene and Co., are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 24th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock precisely in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Higson and Son, Solicitors, in Cross-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting a proposal made to them by the said Daniel Daykene for the purchase by him of the interest of the assignees in the mill, farm, and premises held by the bankrupts, under lease, at Gradbach aforesaid, and also the machinery, apparatus, fixtures, and implements now being in and upon the said mill and premises, the particulars of which proposal will be submitted at the meeting; and to sanction and approve of the agreement or contract to be entered into for carrying the same into effect; and also to sanction, confirm, and allow all such acts and proceedings as the said assignees may have then done or adopted towards effecting the sale of the premises.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Harrop, of Grasscroft, in Saddleworth, in the county of York, Clothier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 25th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Hardiman, the Saddleworth Hotel, at New Delph, in Saddleworth aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising and agreeing a certain suit commenced in the High Court of Chancery, by the said assignees, against Sarah Harrop and her son, John Harrop; and also another suit commenced in the said High Court of Chancery, by Messrs. Brooke and Company, against the said Sarah Harrop and John Harrop and others, upon the terms and for such sum or sums as shall then be proposed; and also to assent to or dissent from confirming certain sales of certain mills, lands, and hereditaments, part of the said bankrupt's real estate, made by the said assignees, by private contract, to certain persons, and for certain sums, to be then and there mentioned; and also for the purpose of assenting to and authorising the said assignees to invest certain parts of the purchase money in the public funds of Great Britain, as an indemnity against certain claims made on the property sold; and also to peruse, settle, and agree upon certain draft conveyances, indemnity deeds, and other instruments which have been prepared, and which will be then and there produced, for completing the said sale or sales, by private contract; and to assent to and authorise and empower the said assignees to complete the said sales; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees being parties to and executing all or any of such said conveyances and indemnity deeds and other instruments, or such of the same as may be considered necessary for the well and effectually conveying and assuring the said hereditaments and premises so sold as aforesaid, and for indemnifying the purchasers thereof from all estate, claims, and demands whatsoever which may exist and be capable of being made; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, certain bills of costs incurred in the said suits in Chancery, and other bills connected therewith, or with the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, which bills will be submitted to such meeting, and of retaining and paying any other expences incurred, or otherwise sustained, paid, or expended in prosecuting the said Commission, or otherwise relating thereto; and upon other special affairs.

THE creditors, as well joint as separate, who have proved their debts under the original or renewed Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Gundry and John Gundry, of Goldsithney, in the county of Cornwall, Merchants, Dealers, Chapman and Copartners in Trade, are requested to meet the surviving assignee of the joint and separate estates and effects of the said bankrupts, on the 27th day of October instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Star Inn, in the borough of Helston, in the said county of Cornwall, to consider of sundry matters in regard to the joint and separate estates and effects of the said bankrupts; and in particular to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting such action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, as he may think proper against certain persons, who will be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of sundry parts or shares of and in certain tin and copper mines, called or commonly known by the name or names of the Wheal Vor Consolidated Mines, situate in the several parishes of Breaze and Sithney, in the said county of Cornwall, which belonged to the said bankrupts respectively, before and at the time they respectively became bankrupt, and which are now held and enjoyed by the same persons; and also the like parts or shares of and in all the tin and tin stuff, copper and copper ores, and all other ores, smelting works, engines, whims, tools, tackle and other materials, property, and effects belonging to the said mines, together with the dividends of profits and other moneys received by the same persons for and on account of the same parts or shares; or to the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any claim, matter, or thing relating to the said parts or shares of and in the said mines and effects, or adopting such other measures in respect thereto as he may think proper, or as may be agreed to at the said meeting; and also to authorise and empower the said assignee to act in and about the joint and separate estate and effects of the said bankrupts as he shall think fit or be advised for the benefit thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Clough, of Leeds, in the county of York, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 28th day of October instant, at six o'clock in the evening, at the office of Mr. James Stott, Solicitor, in Leeds aforesaid, in order to sanction, confirm, and allow all and every of the measures already adopted and taken by the assignees in and relating to the sale and disposal of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and to the employment by the assignees of an accountant, to investigate the dealings and transactions of the bankrupt, and make up, settle, and adjust his books and accounts, and to the collecting of the debts due to the bankrupt's estate, as well those already received by such accountant as those now remaining outstanding, and to the assignees making such compensation to the present or any future accountant, collector, or other person, for his or their trouble in and relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt's estate, as to the said assignees may seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of the costs and charges of or in anywise relating to a deed of assignment executed by the bankrupt to trustees, in trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt prior to the issuing of the said fiat against him, and also to the payment by the assignees, out of the bankrupt's estate, of the costs of a journey taken by the petitioning creditor for the purpose of attending the opening of the said fiat, and of all journeys already taken, or hereafter to be taken, by one of the assignees, who resides in Hull, for the purpose of attending the meetings of the Commissioners and of the creditors under the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees instituting any proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the bankrupt's property or estate; and compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to or upon any matter or thing relative thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Forman Brooks, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, carrying on business under the firm of William Forman Brooks and Company, are requested to meet the assignee of his estate and effects, on Tuesday the 24th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Messrs. Higson and Son, Solicitors, in Cross-street, in Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee investigating, adjusting, and ascertaining the share and interest of the said William Forman Brooks in the business and concern carried on by him in partnership with Horace Brooks and Ebenezer L. Hunt, in the city of New York, in the United States of America, as Importers of Foreign Merchandise and General Commission Agents, under the style or firm of Hunt and Brooks; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, either in his own name or in the name or names of his attorney or attorneys, agent or agents, commencing, filing, bringing, and prosecuting a bill in equity, actions at law, or such other suits and proceedings, at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, in the said States or elsewhere, as he may be advised, for compelling the production and disclosure of all books, accounts, transactions, dealings, matters, and things requisite and necessary to elucidate and ascertain the share and interest of the said William Forman Brooks in the said partnership business and concern, and for recovering and compelling payment or satisfaction thereof; or otherwise settling, arranging, or compromising the share and interest of the said William Forman Brooks in the said concern, either before or after suit, action, or other proceeding commenced respecting the premises, upon such terms and conditions as he the said assignee may think most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate, by accepting a sum of money in full satisfaction of all claims and demands upon or in respect of the same, or by any other ways or means he may think proper, whether by referring and submitting to arbitration all disputes and differences touching and concerning the premises, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting any proceedings at law or in equity, in the said States or elsewhere, as he may be advised, against the said Messrs. Hunt and Brooks, or their agents or factors, and all other persons whom it may concern, for the recovery of divers goods, wares, and merchandise, which were shipped and consigned to the said Messrs. Hunt and Brooks for sale by the said bankrupt, partly on his own account, partly on joint adventure with the said Messrs. Hunt and Brooks, and partly on account of other persons, who will be named at the said meeting, or for the recovery of the proceeds, price, and purchase moneys of such of the said goods, wares, and merchandise as have been already or may be hereafter sold and disposed of; and also to the said assignee compounding and compromising, or otherwise settling and adjusting, with the said Messrs. Hunt and Brooks, or any other person or persons whom it may concern, all claims and demands due and owing or arising for or in respect of the said goods, wares, and merchandise, or the proceeds, price, and purchase moneys thereof, or submitting the same to arbitration; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee appointing, constituting, and authorising, with full and sufficient powers and authorities, such person or persons as he may think proper, to act as his attorney or attorneys, agent or agents, at New York aforesaid, or elsewhere, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and also to sanction, confirm, and allow the acts and proceedings of the said assignee already done and taken, in the premises and matters above mentioned, and the appointment and deputation of an attorney or agent already made; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee appointing an agent or agents, at such places beyond the seas, or any of them, where the said bankrupt hath shipped and consigned certain goods, wares, and merchandise belonging to him, either solely, or jointly with or on account of some other person or persons, with full and sufficient powers for such agents to act on behalf of the said bankrupt's estate, for the recovery, protection, and realization, by sale or otherwise, of such shipments and consignments; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee and agents having full power and authority, at his or their discretion, to apply any portion of the moneys and effects of the said bankrupt's estate in the redemption of the said goods, wares, and merchandise, or any part thereof, either by paying off any lien or liens existing thereon, or in taking up any bills of exchange drawn or accepted in respect of such shipments or consignments, or some of them, in case the goods, wares, and merchandise comprised therein shall not have been sold at the time such bills shall respectively fall due; and to the said assignee or his agents, in his or their discretion, compromising or otherwise settling and adjusting all claims and demands due or owing or arising for or in respect of such shipments and consignments, or any of them, or the proceeds, price, or purchase moneys thereof, or the respective advances made by the bankrupt thereon, or submitting the same to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee investigating and adjusting the transactions and accounts between the bankrupt and Messrs. Brooks, Brothers, and Co. of New York aforesaid, and commencing and prosecuting such actions, suits, and proceedings, at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, either in the United States or in England, as he may be advised, for compelling the production and disclosure of all transactions and accounts between them and the said bankrupt, and for recovery and compelling payment or satisfaction of any debt, moneys, or effects which may be found due or owing from them to the said bankrupt's estate, and for defending and resisting any claims or demands which may be made by the said Messrs. Brooks, Brothers, and Co. upon or against the said bankrupt's estate, and for opposing the proof by them, under the said fiat, of any debt claimed by them to be due and owing by the said bankrupt, and for expunging such proof in case the same shall be allowed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, filing, bringing, and prosecuting such actions, suits, and proceedings, at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, as he may be advised or think proper, against certain persons, who will be named at the meeting, for investigating and compelling the production and disclosure of the accounts, transactions, and dealings between such persons respectively and the said bankrupt, and for recovering and compelling the payment, satisfaction, or delivery of any debts, claims, moneys, or effects which may be found due or owing or belonging to the said bankrupt's estate by or from such persons respectively, and for defending or resisting any claims or demands which may be made by such persons respectively upon or against the said bankrupt's estate, and for resisting and opposing any proof or proofs, under the said fiat, upon certain bills, which will be specified at the said meeting, and for expunging any proof or proofs upon such bills which may be admitted or allowed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either immediately or at any delayed time or times, as he may think most advantageous, the shares held or belonging to the said bankrupt in certain joint stock companies, which will be mentioned at the said meeting, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction or partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and either together or in parcels, for ready money or on credit, or partly for one and partly for the other, and with or without, in either case, taking any security, personal or otherwise, for the purchase moneys, and without being answerable for any loss if sold on credit; and, in case of any sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in all or any part of the property aforesaid, and again offering the same for sale, with the like powers and authorities; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee taking a transfer of the said shares, or any of them, in his own name, or in the name or names of any other person or persons, and being indemnified from any loss or responsibility which may arise or be incurred in consequence of such transfer; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee adopting such proceedings, at law or in equity, as he may be advised, for compelling the person or persons in whose name or names such shares are now standing, to transfer the same as the said assignee may direct; and to the said assignee paying and advancing, out of the said bankrupt's estate, any call or calls which may be made upon or in respect of such shares, or any of them, and paying and discharging any lien, claim, or demand which any person or persons may have upon or in respect of such shares, or any of them, or otherwise compromising, settling, or adjusting any such lien, claim, or demand, either by submitting the same to arbitration, or otherwise, as the said assignee may think fit; and also to sanction and confirm the abandonment and delivery by the said assignee of certain goods claimed by the assignees of David Ma Teer, a bankrupt, and which goods had been obtained by the said William Forman Brooks from the said David Ma Teer, after a notice of an act of bankruptcy having been committed by him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any matter, dispute, claim, or demand hereinbefore named, or which may arise or exist between the said assignee or any other person or persons whomsoever, relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and to the said assignee giving his consent to any creditors of the bankrupt who may hold bills of exchange or notes to which other persons are liable, accepting compositions from such persons and executing any composition or other deeds between them and their creditors, or giving time for payment of any such bills, and either with or without security, or to any such creditor of the said bankrupt entering into any other arrangement with any other person so liable as aforesaid, respecting payment of the bills or notes, as the creditors shall think fit, without prejudice to their rights of proof under the said fiat, and to sanction and allow any consent which may have been given by the said assignee prior to the day of meeting; and also to sanction, confirm, and allow the employment and payment by the said assignee, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of an accountant or accountants to investigate the dealings and transactions of the said bankrupt and his accounts; and also to authorise the said assignee to make such allowance and compensation, out of the said bankrupt's estate, to any attorney or attorneys, agent or agents, which may be appointed by him, as hereinbefore mentioned, for his or their services, as the said assignee may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, his attorney or attorneys, agent or agents, being indemnified and saved harmless, by and out of the said bankrupt's estate, for all that he, they, or any of them have done, or may do, in respect of all or any of the matters herein contained; and also to ratify, confirm, and allow all the acts and proceedings which have been already adopted and made by the said assignee; and generally to authorise the said assignee to act for the said bankrupt's creditors in such manner as shall seem to him most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against James Sill and William Watson, late of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants, Copartners, Brokers, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday the 31st day of October instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Clay and Swift, in Union-court, Castle-street, Liverpool, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the remaining real and personal estates and effects of the said bankrupts, in England or Jamaica, or elsewhere at home or abroad, by public auction or private contract, together or in lots, and upon such credit, and with or without security, for the price or purchase money thereof, and for cash, produce, or bills of exchange, or otherwise, as to the said surviving assignees shall appear proper and expedient from time to time; and also to the said assignees buying in the said estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction, and reselling or re-offering the same, at any future auction or auctions, or by private contract, or partly by each of these means (with the same powers of buying in and reselling or re-offering, from time to time), without being liable for any diminution in price on any such resale or resales; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying up the interest of, or compromising with any other parties having or claiming interest in, any estate or effects wherein the said assignees also have or claim interest; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees redeeming or paying off, compromising, settling, or discharging any mortgages, liens, claims or demands affecting any part of the said bankrupts' estate, either after such mortgages, liens, claims or demands shall have been substantiated and declared valid by any court or courts of judicature, or other competent authority, or without litigating or disputing such mortgages, liens, claims, or demands; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing, abandoning, repudiating, enforcing, or obtaining the benefit and advantage of any contract, lease, agreement, or engagement affecting the estate of the said bankrupts, or in which they or either of them had or claimed, or in which the said assignees have or claim any interest; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees investigating, resisting, agreeing to, referring to arbitration, or compromising or compounding for any accounts, disputes, debts, claims, or demands affecting the said bankrupts' estate; and to the said assignees presenting any petition or petitions, or instituting and prosecuting and defending and abandoning or compromising (if and when they shall think it advisable), any actions, suits, and proceedings, either at home or abroad, for recovery of any debts, demands, or monies in which they conceive the estate of the said bankrupts to have any interest, or for bringing to a settlement (by way of composition or otherwise), any such accounts, disputes, debts, claims, or demands as aforesaid, and generally for protecting and defending the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees deputing, employing, and paying any accountants, attorneys, or agents, at home or abroad, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the said bankrupts' creditors in the winding up, closing, and terminating the affairs of the bankrupts, and otherwise about the premises, in such manner and with such powers of discretion; and to such extent, as at the said meeting may be determined to be expedient and proper.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Henry Doncaster, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Porter-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 16th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the counting-house of the said bankrupt, in High-street, in Sheffield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, at such time or times, in such lots, and by a valuation, or at such prices as they may think proper, of all or any parts of the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, shares in public companies, and other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, and either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security for payment thereof, as the said assignees shall think fit, and to confirm such sale or sales of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as may in the mean time have been made by them; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying in full, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the several sums of money owing by him for wages to the workmen in his service at the time he became bankrupt, or such of them, or such part thereof, as the said assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing, at the expense of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant and such other person or persons as they shall think proper, to make up the books and collect in the debts, casks, bottles, and other outstanding effects owing and belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to ratify and confirm the appointment of any accountant or other person which shall then have been made by the said assignees; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing one or more action or actions at law against the Sheriff of Yorkshire to recover certain goods and chattels seized and sold by him under circumstances which will be named at the meeting, or to recover the amount of the sale thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting and carrying on any action or actions at law which were commenced by the said bankrupt before his bankruptcy, and are now pending; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary, for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's real and personal estate and effects; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts, without security; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial.
