THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Doncaster, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Porter-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 30th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the counting-house of the said bankrupt, in High-street, in Sheffield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, at such time or times, in such lots, and by a valuation, or at such prices, as they may think proper, of all or any parts of the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, shares in public companies, and other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, and either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security for payment thereof, as the said assignees shall think fit, and to confirm such sale or sales of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt as may in the mean time have been made by them; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying in full, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the several sums of money owing by him for wages to the workmen in his service, at the time he became bankrupt, or such of them, or such part thereof, as the said assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the assignees employing, at the expence of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, and such other person or persons as they shall think proper, to make up the books and collect in the debts, casks, bottles, and other outstanding effects owing and belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to ratify and confirm the appointment of any accountant, or other persons, which shall then have been made by the said assignees; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing one or more action or actions at law against the Sheriff of Yorkshire, to recover certain goods and chattels seized and sold by him under circumstances which will be named at the meeting, or to recover the amount of the sale thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting and carrying on any action or actions at law which were commenced by the said bankrupt before his bankruptcy, and are now pending; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary, for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's real and personal estate and effects; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts, without security; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Selfe, of Frome Selwood, in the county of Somerset, Silver-smith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 29th day of October instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the Bush Inn, in the city of Bristol, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees carrying on the business of the said bankrupt at the expence and risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, for such time and so long as it shall be deemed advisable and expedient by such assignees, or for any definite period to be named at such meeting; and to the said assignees employing such managers, servants, or workmen, for that purpose, and upon such salaries or wages as they shall think expedient and necessary; and to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done previous to the said meeting in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt; also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without security, as the said assignees shall deem expedient, all the household furniture and effects of the said bankrupt, and also such part of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt as shall remain unsold and undisposed of at the time the said assignees shall deem it unadvisable and inexpedient to carry on the business of the said bankrupt; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees paying certain expenses incurred in convening meetings of creditors, endeavouring to effect a compromise with the creditors of the said bankrupt, previous to proceeding with the fiat; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any debts, matters, or things whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such way as they shall from time to time think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Holton the younger, of Frome-Selwood, in the county of Somerset, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 28th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Bush Inn, in the city of Bristol, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without security, as the said assignee shall deem expedient, all the stock in trade, household furniture, and other estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee employing some person or persons to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects of the said bankrupt, at such salary or allowance, and on such terms as he shall think proper, and to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done previous to the said meeting, in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee paying certain expenses incurred in convening meetings of creditors, in endeavouring to effect a compromise with the creditors of the said bankrupt, previous to proceeding with the fiat; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any debts, matters, or things whatsoever, relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate in such way as he shall from time to time think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 11th day of June 1833, awarded and issued forth against John Roberts, of Llandilo, in the county of Carmarthen, Linen-Draper, are desired to meet the assignee of his estate and effects, on Saturday the 28th day of October instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Messrs. Clarke and Sons, Broad-street, in the city of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling, by private contract, a leasehold dwelling-house, fixtures, and premises, in Rosemain-street, in Llandilo aforesaid, part of the estate of the said bankrupt, at or for the price or sum of three hundred and forty pounds; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Denton, of Greaves-mill, and Burwood, both in Staniland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York,

Silk-Spinner and Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 3d day of November next, at one of the clock in the afternoon, at the Magistrates' office, in Halifax aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the assignees chosen and appointed under the said fiat, selling and disposing of all or any part of the real estate of the said bankrupt, and also all share and interest to which the said bankrupt is entitled, under the will of his late father, John Denton, deceased; of his residuary estate, by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, and either in one or more lots or lots, and all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, machinery, cattle, farming stock, and other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, in manner aforesaid, or by tender, and at their discretion to reject the highest tender and accept a lower tender, or sum of money, at such time and place, price or prices; and upon such terms, as to them shall seem reasonable, and to any person or persons who shall be willing to treat for the same, and to give such credits, and to take such security, whether personal or otherwise, for the purchase moneys thereof respectively, as the said assignees in their discretion shall think proper; and, in case of such sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, and at the risk and expence of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, previous to such sale, completing any buildings belonging to the said bankrupt, by putting windows therein and covering the same with slate now being prepared upon the premises, or making any other alteration or improvement in such buildings, as they in their discretion may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the said bankrupt's trade or business, for the benefit and at the risk of his estate, for such time as may be necessary for working up the present unmanufactured stock of cotton and silk, and to their employing any person or persons in conducting the said trade, or in any other way, for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, and to their paying and allowing to such person or persons, out of the moneys to be received by such assignees belonging to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, such wages and compensation, for his or their trouble therein, as to them may seem proper and reasonable; and also to the said assignees paying and discharging all such rent, taxes, wages, and other outgoings now due and payable from the said bankrupt's estate, and to become due and payable during such period of time as the said assignees may continue the possession of the said bankrupt's premises, and an advantageous disposition can be fairly effected, but so as that the said assignees shall not in anywise be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage which may arise or happen by reason of such continuance, or of their actings or doings therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the proceedings which may be adopted by the said assignees between this time and the time of the meeting of the creditors hereby called; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the assignees making to such person or persons compensation for his or their trouble, as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying the equity of redemption of all or any parts of the said bankrupt's real estate to any mortgagee or mortgagees, in satisfaction of the principal and interest due upon any mortgage or mortgages thereof, or to concur with such mortgagee or mortgagees in the sale and conveyance of such real estate, or any part thereof, to any purchaser or purchasers, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable, or upon any other and what conditions and terms; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees delivering up to a certain person, to be named to the said meeting, a quantity of cotton, alleged by him to have been sent to the said bankrupt for the purpose of being spun by him upon commission, upon certain terms previously agreed upon between them; and to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for defending, recovering or concerning the same, or any other part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Graves, of Liverpool, and of Toxteth-park, both in the county of Lancaster, Rope-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, trading under the firm of Robert Graves and Company, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 30th day of October instant, at twelve of the clock at noon of the same day, at the office of Mr. John Cort, Solicitor, No. 7, Queen square, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, by public auction or by private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or at and for the amount of a valuation, appraisal, or otherwise, and either together or in parcels, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said assignee shall think proper, to any person or persons whomsoever, the machinery, utensils, stock in trade, household goods and furniture, and other effects of the said bankrupt, and either for ready money or upon such credit as the said assignee may think proper, or partly for ready money and partly upon credit; and, in case of a sale or sales, either wholly or partly upon credit, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee allowing such credit, without taking security, for the whole or any part of the purchase money, and to such credit being given at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and without the assignee being answerable for or liable to make good any loss which may be sustained by reason of such credit being given without security being taken for payment of the money; and, in case of a sale or sales by public auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in, at such price or prices as he may think proper, the whole or any part of the property, goods, or effects which may be so offered for sale, and again offering the same for sale at his discretion, with the like powers and authorities to sell by public auction or private contract, upon credit, and to buy in and resell, and without the assignee being answerable or liable in any case to pay or make good any loss or diminution in value which may arise or occur; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee surrendering or abandoning a certain lease, granted to the said bankrupt, of certain premises, in Toxteth-park aforesaid, upon such terms and conditions as he may think proper; and also to sanction and allow or dissent from the employment and payment, out of the estate, by the assignee, of an accountant to manage, settle, and dispose of the estate, books, and property, and collect and get in the outstanding debts, and settle and adjust the affairs; also to assent to or dissent from the assignee allowing time to any debtors to the estate for payment of their debts by instalments, or otherwise; and to his executing any deed of composition, letters of licence, or assignment for the benefit of creditors, which may be proposed by any debtor or debtors to the estate; or to the said assignee submitting any dispute or difference to arbitration; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Joseph Hughes, of Bengal-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Coal-Merchant and Stone-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 31st day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Lees, Solicitor, No. 99, Fountain-street, Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred before the opening of the said fiat, in endeavouring, by compromise, to effect a settlement of the said bankrupt's affairs without opening or prosecuting the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from authorising the said assignees concurring or joining in a sale by auction, or otherwise, of a certain portion of the said bankrupt's estate, consisting of a coal-yard, dwelling-house, and other property, situate in Bengal-street aforesaid, late in the possession and occupation of the said bankrupt, and upon which certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, hold an equitable mortgage, or otherwise to authorise and empower the said assignees generally to do and perform all or any such other act or acts, relating to the said mortgaged estate, as to the said assignees shall appear most fit and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees, at the like expence of the said bankrupt's estate, commencing and prosecuting an action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, against a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, for having illegally taken possession of a certain sand mill, yard, stables, and premises belonging and lately in the occupation of the said bankrupt, and retaining possession of the same to the injury and loss of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, as the said assignees shall think fit, the whole or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects which now remain unsold, and either for ready money or on credit, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from empowering the said assignees to commence, prosecute, or defend any action at law, or suit or petition in equity, for the recovery and protection of the said bankrupt's estate, and for paying and defraying the costs, charges, and expences attending the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding any debt or debts due to the estate of the said bankrupt, or submitting any dispute to arbitration relating thereto, or otherwise agreeing to the same; and to authorise and empower the said assignees to act generally for the bankrupt's estate in such manner as they, in their discretion, may think most advisable and beneficial thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 4th day of October 1837, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by ROBERT RANDALL CHUBB, late partner with James Hine Miller, carrying on the business of Seedsman and Florists, at Nos. 70 and 71, Newgate-street, in the city of London, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 5th day of October 1837, by

ROBERT WICKSTEED, late of the Camel Public House, No. 107, Miories, in the city of London, and of Haydon-square, in the county of Middlesex, but now of No. 57, Paradise-street, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, Victualler and Livery Stable-Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
